GREEKS HURL FOES BACK INTO ALBANIA

Emergency Indicated By Sudden U. S. Navy Move

3 DESTROYERS QUIT BALBOA DURING NIGHT

Even Some Sailors Left Behind

BALBOA, Canal Zone—(AP)—At least three United States destroyers sped out of Balboa Harbor into the Pacific late Saturday night after suddenly calling some sailors to the boat from shore leave.

Naval officers here indicated belief that no emergency had arisen but would not say definitely that it was mere practice maneuvers.

Crew Called Suddenly

Loud-speaker systems in beer gardens were used to call some of the sailors but the ships left so suddenly that some of the crewmen appeared to miss them. One boat load of sailors sped out in the wake of the destroyers apparently seeking to put the men aboard outside the harbor.

Naval officials would not discuss details of the move.

Breaking an official silence on activities of American warships in the Caribbean Sea, the navy department in Washington earlier in the day said that the Atlantic patrol force was now carrying out "scheduled exercises" in that strategic area.

The patrol force of eight destroyers and six patrol-planes, under command of Rear Admiral Hayne Ellis, left Key West, the announcement said, for training and patrol operations in the Guantanamo-San Juan-Culebra Island sector.

While there was no elaboration of the navy's announcement, it was learned that the patrol force's itinerary includes a visit to St. Lucia, British island where an American naval base site may be established.

Officials said the fact that St. Lucia was close by Martinique might account for reports from Vichy that American warships had arrived at that French island.

From St. Lucia the warships could quickly move to Martinique in event the Vichy government's collaboration with Germany was regarded as impairing French sovereignty over the island.

BERLIN GETS HEAVIEST YET

RAF Attacks Last Many Hours

LONDON—(AP)—In two smashes at Berlin officially called the heaviest ever loosed by the RAF, British bombers were declared Saturday night to have repeatedly bombarded three of the German capital's main railway centers and left a mile-long blaze about a vital power station.

One raiding wave, the air ministry said, went into action shortly after 8 p.m. Saturday night and stayed on the job for nearly two hours and another flew in over the city at 2:20 o'clock Sunday morning and fired away with bombs for 40 minutes.

It was Berlin's Klingenburg Power Station, returning pilots reported, which formed the biggest torch left by their tons of explosives and hundreds of incendiary bombs.

The press association said the RAF's harder and more frequent raids on Berlin were due directly to the "vigorous personality" of Britain's new chief of the air staff, Sir Charles Portal, who "believes in dealing heavy blows."

Body Of Texas Man Is Found At Mobile

MOBILE, Ala.—(AP)—The body of a man identified as William Warren Mitchell, Port Arthur, Tex., who had been reported missing for a month, was found near here Saturday.

Sergeant Floyd Davenport of the state highway patrol said the identification was established by papers in the dead man's pockets. He was the mate of the tankship Gulfcoast.

Turkey Calls Twenty Classes To Colors

LONDON (Sunday)—(AP)—A Reuters, British news agency, dispatch from Istanbul today said all Turkish infantry and cavalry men of 20 classes who have not yet done their military service were called to the colors, effective Monday.

'No Fourth Term' Pledges Roosevelt; Willkie Makes Last Major Address

WORLD CRISIS SAID REASON FOR 3RD TERM

'Personal Ambition' Is Denounced

CLEVELAND —(AP)— President Roosevelt said Saturday night that the "storm" now raging over the world was the true reason why he was running for a third term and that "when that term is over there will be another president."

In his "final national address of the campaign," prepared for a nationwide broadcast from Cleveland's public auditorium, he disavowed any "personal ambition."

Appeals For Confidence

Appealing to the nation to give him a "vote of confidence" next Tuesday, the President said:

"There is a great storm raging now; it makes things harder for the world. And that storm, which did not start in this land of ours, is the true reason that I would like to stick by these people of ours until we reach the clear, sure footing ahead.

"We will make it—make it before the next term is over.

"We will make it; and the world, we hope, will make it, too.

"When that term is over there will be another president, and many more presidents in the years to come, and I think that word 'president' will be a word to cheer the hearts of common men and women everywhere."

Tens of thousands of wildly cheering men, women and children stood in a cold wind to see the president pass in an open car on the way from his special train to the auditorium. Thousands more massed about the huge auditorium, which was jammed.

Mrs. Mildred Jaster, Ohio's national Democratic committee woman; former senator Robert J. Bilkley and Charles Sawyer, Democratic national committeeman, rode with him to the hall.

Roar Of Applause

A tremendous burst of applause greeted the President's appearance. It continued for more than three minutes, then Mr. Roosevelt signaled for quiet, and in some seconds of the hall went on after he began speaking.

There was booing in the crowd when the President declared that representatives of "the forces of dictatorship in our own land," which he identified as the Communists on one hand and "the girdlers" on the other, were voting without exception against the New Deal.

Loud cheering greeted his declaration that "the first purpose of our foreign policy is to keep our country out of war."

Future Of Freedom

There was prolonged cheering, too, when Mr. Roosevelt asked for "your vote of confidence" in order he said, that the American people might march forward to "a future which holds the fulfillment of our

Lucian Cary, Demos Candidate, To Vote Republican Tuesday

COLEBROOK, Conn — (AP) — Lucian Cary, the novelist, finds his candidacy for state representative on the Democratic ticket "irritating." So he is going around begging people not to vote for him.

Cary says he was nominated without his consent while on a magazine assignment in the mid-west, wasn't notified by the Democrats and didn't find out he was running until a private organization queries him on election issues.

Next Tuesday, he says, he's going to vote Republican.

18 US Bombardiers Graduate At Denver

DENVER — (AP)— Eighteen young men from 15 states were graduated Saturday in Lowry Field's first class of bombardier instructors and were commissioned second lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserv

Graduates of the 16-week course, who now will give bombing training to Air Corps men, included: Willian M. Crawford, Navasota, Tex.; Everett Davis, Eastland, Tex.; and Harve N. Johnson, Falls, Okla.

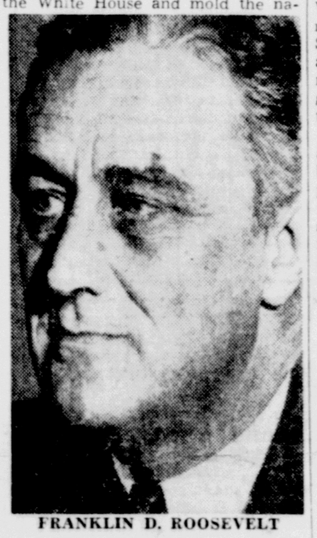

Candidates Enter Home Stretch Of Most Heated Of U. S. Campaigns

Both Willkie And Roosevelt Have Election Eve Broadcasts Slated; 50,000,000 May Vote

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON—A campaign of tremendous—and trivial—issues, a campaign fought out with a slugging tenacity seldom equalled, a campaign holding a fateful decision for America, is almost ended.

On Tuesday the voters of the country will select the man who for four years will, God willing, sit in the White House and mold the nation's destiny in a world at arms.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

They will choose between Franklin D. Roosevelt, the personification of the New Deal, and Wendell L. Willkie, lawyer and former public utilities executive who endorses a number of New Deal measures but has denounced New Deal methods and philosophies.

When these expected 50,000,000 voters pick their president they also will be selecting their vice president. He is the constitutional heir to the presidency should a White House vacancy occur, otherwise, the presiding officer of the Senate.

Henry A. Wallace, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, and Senator Charles L. McNary, the Republican candidate, have carried the burden of the campaigning on farm issues.

Thirty-five senators, all but three House members and 33 governors also will be chosen in the Tuesday balloting. Maine, holding its state election in September, already has picked its governor, a senator and three representatives in Congress.

The minor party slates include the Socialist ticket headed by the veteran Norman Thomas and the Communist party with Earl Browder as its nominee. Roger W. Babson heads the Prohibition party's ticket.

Court actions and the decisions of election boards have ruled the Communist candidates from ballots of a number of states.

WENDELL L. WILLKIE

As election eve approaches, national issues that have been shuffled and re-shuffled through intense days and nights of speech-making take on new stature or diminish as factors likely to determine the outcome of the presidential contest. Two in particular stand out now.

First Issue Is War

The first is war. Willkie, although endorsing all possible material assistance to Great Britain, emphatically contends that a provocative attitude toward the Axis countries will lead to war if the President is re-elected.

In reply, the President says that any charge that he is heading toward war is contrary to all the facts in the record. It is for peace he has labored, he says, and will continue to labor throughout his life.

The second great issue is the summation of months of controversy over the question of concentration of power in Washington. The Republicans contend this issue is epitom-

Seen Man With Birdshot In Britches? He's Wanted

Suspected Chicken Thief Shot In McAllen But Escapes After Hearty Yelp

McALLEN—Police were on the lookout Saturday for a man "with birdshot in his britches."

O. Dooley, resident of 1506 Maple avenue, McAllen, reported to Chief of Police Noah Cannon that he fired a charge of birdshot at a suspected chicken thief about 3 a.m. Saturday.

The marauder shrieked das if he had been hit, then disappeared in the darkness, Dooley said.

Chief of Police Cannon asked any doctor who might have treated a patient for birdshot wounds to report the incident to the police department.

TEACHER DIES AT AGE OF 71

Mrs. G. T. Hamilton Funeral Monday

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. George T. Hamilton, pioneer Brownsville school teacher who taught as children many of the Valley's present day business and civic leaders, died at 12:30 p. m. Saturday at Mercy Hospital here. She was 71.

Mrs. Hamilton had been in ill health since her retirement from the Brownsville school system this year.

A resident of Brownsville for 31 years, the widely-known teacher had been a member of the local system for all but about a year of that time. The last eight years of her service she was librarian at the junior high school. She had taught in every school of the district.

Mrs. Hamilton long had been

WILLKIE SAYS 'OUR WAY OF LIFE' TOTTERS

Democrats Lead U. S. To 'Destruction'

NEW YORK — (AP) — Wendell L. Willkie, addressing the last major rally of his president campaign, said Saturday night that the Roosevelt administration has been leading the nation down a road "paved with good intentions" to the "destruction of our democratic way of life."

The Republican nominee asked in an address prepared for delivery before a mass meeting of his supporters in Madison Square Garden where the conflict lay between himself and President Roosevelt. He replied to his own question by saying:

"It is, and I say it solemnly and with full understanding of the terrible meaning of the words—it is that for nearly eight years our government has been carrying us step by step down a road that leads to the destruction of our democratic way of life.

"That road is paved with good intentions."

Willkie, who came back to New York Saturday after a 34-state, coast-to-coast campaigning tour, asserted that he believed with the new deal in collective bargaining, wage-hour legislation, social security, relief, aid to Great Britain and a powerful national defense.

"Wrong Methods"

He declared, however, that new deal methods "are not the methods of democracy." Instead, he said, the new deal stands for:

"The unlimited spending of borrowed money—the piling up of bureaucracy—the usurpation of powers reserved by the congress—the subjugation of the courts—the concentration of enormous authority in the hands of the executive—the discouragement of enterprise—and the continuance of economic dependence for millions of our citizens upon government."

Willkie asked the support of all who believe "in the principles of American freedom," and said that he had repudiated at the start of the campaign "certain men and groups who tried to connect themselves with us."

"I repudiate, now and forever," he continued, "any and all men and women, individually or collectively, who practice or promote racial or religious intolerance or persecution.

"I want specifically to denounce, as malicious, reckless, and harmful to all concerned the whispering campaign that is being conducted

FD Pays Tribute To White House Driver

NEW YORK—(AP)—Before leaving on his windup campaign swing last night President Roosevelt paid tribute to Francis Robinson, whom he described as "the first chauffeur to drive a car in the White House service." Robinson, 65, died in Washington Friday.

"Francis Robinson, or Robbie as we knew him around the White House for so many years, will be greatly missed," the President's statement said. "He was one of those men one often encounters in government work who do their jobs with such modesty and quiet efficiency that their faithful service is not widely known."

KENEDY ROAD OPENING SET FOR DEC. 17

Plan For Celebration Now Underway

HARLINGEN — Opening of the long-awaited Kenedy County Road will occur on December 17, according to word just received here from D. C. Greer, state highway engineer. The announcement was made in a letter received from Greer by Worth Heffner, Harlingen chamber of commerce manager.

Plans are expected to go forward now for the big road opening celebration long planned by citizens of Raymondville and remainder of Willacy county, who have sought to have the highway constructed for more than 20 years.

Plan Substitute Fete

The Willacy county citizens, who see big things in store for their section as result of opening of the new highway, gave up their annual Onion Fiesta the past spring, partly because of the shortest crop in Willacy onion history, but partly also because of wish to substitute for it a road opening celebration.

Road enthusiasts from Orange to Brownsville are expected to attend the Raymondville celebration, which is expected to be held the day the road is opened. Raymondville highway leaders state they have also received word representatives from many states in the southwest and midwest as well as Canada, will also be present.

The Kenedy County Road when completed will mean mileage saving to travelers from the Valley to

OLD MAN GUNS FOR WILLKIE?

Seized With Pistol At Address

NEW YORK—(AP)—An armed man was intercepted in Madison Square Garden, twenty feet from the speakers' platform, just as Wendell L. Willkie finished his last major campaign speech Saturday night.

The man, about 60 years old, arose as the Republican presidential nominee finished, and started from his seat, followed by a woman who apparently had been sitting with him.

A couple sitting just behind, who identified themselves as Mr. and Mrs. W. Hewitt, of Garden City, Long Island, said the man took a revolver from an inside pocket and transferred it to his overcoat pocket as he arose and started toward the platform, where the candidate, waving to the cheering crowd, stood with his wife.

The Hewitts reported immediately to a patrolman, and a policeman stepped up and intercepted the man.

Police Sergeant Edward Unger, to whom the man was turned over, confirmed the report that the man had a revolver. He said it was a .22-calibre weapon, fully loaded.

The woman who had been trailing behind the prisoner, Sgt. Unger said, informed police that the man with the weapon was a Manhattan physician.

Port Arthur Hunters Get Duck Bag Limit

PORT ARTHUR—(AP)—Dozens of duck hunters returned from their blinds Saturday with limits of 10 fowl each.

Unusually heavy flights were reported in this immediate area and it was estimated that at least 1,000 birds were killed.

Patriotic Grandpop Dares 'Em Not To Let Him Register

PONCA CITY, Okla.—(AP)—Dr. A. B. Macdonald, whose age is his secret but who has a co-ed granddaughter in the University of Kansas, is registering for the draft and is ready to appeal for the right to serve his country.

"And, by gosh, I don't see how they can keep me out," exclaimed the good-natured optometrist.

"The law said every man between 21 and 36 years old had to register, but it didn't say men over that could not register. So there you are."

Draft officials said an inexperienced young clerk took the registration during the rush.

TWO BOYS CUT IN EXPLOSION OF TEST TUBE

Edinburg Collegiates Were Experimenting

McALLEN—Damon Peterson and Howard Andrus of McAllen, students at Edinburg junior college, sustained cuts from flying glass when a test tube full of chemicals exploded in a laboratory at the college Saturday about 9:30 a. m.

Young Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Peterson, was cut about the chest, face and hands. Andrus, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Andrus, received similar injuries.

The boys received treatment at the County-City Hospital, Edinburg. Andrus was released, but Peterson remained there.

The Peterson youth's father said the students had been experimenting with the chemicals outside of class.

Young Peterson had picked up the tube to examine it, and when he set it down the explosion occurred. The injuries were not regarded as serious.

Nazi Bombers Give Raid-Sore British Quiet Night's Rest

LONDON (Sunday)—(AP)—Raid-weary England, Scotland and Wales enjoyed one of the quietest nights in weeks Saturday night and early today as the German and Italian raiding squadrons, beaten back from London time and again Saturday, gave the bomb-battered British a rest.

Early reports showed that with the exception of a few districts in southeast England, the British were getting a sound sleep.

WASHINGTON— (AP) —The treasury completed the fourth month of the current fiscal year with a net deficiency of $1,329,512,821.

A summary of the government fiscal condition on October 31 showed that the deficit was $79,000,000 less than at the same time last year although expenditures attributed to national defense had been doubled.

Record Engine Order Given Wright Firm

WASHINGTON— (AP) —The War Department placed a $119,870,920 order Saturday for army and navy warplane engines, which officials said was the largest single such contract in peacetime history.

The contract went to the Wright Aeronautical Corporation, Paterson, N. J. It was believed the contract represented 9,000 or more engines.

BRITISH LAND BLUEJACKETS TO AID ALLY

Turning Of Italian Flank Threatens

By The Associated Press

Greek mountain troops held Albanian territory overlooking Koritza Sunday as Britain officially disclosed her blue-jackets had landed in Greek territory to bolster the defense against Italy.

The Greek command said a furious bayonet charge resulted in the capture Saturday of a hilltop redoubt four miles inside Albania. It opened the way for turning the Italians eastern flank while heavy artillery fire barred the other Fascist thrust in the west toward Ioannina (Janina).

Reliable Athens reports said the Fascists had failed to break the main Greek defense lines after six days' fighting through mountain gorges.

Salonika, upper Aegean port, was raided six times yesterday by as many as 22 Italian planes. Greek airmen fought them over that key port.

A. V. Alexander, first lord of the British admiralty, in a broadcast early today to the British empire said of Greece:

"The British navy is there, air support is being given, military objectives in Naples have been bombed and British troops have landed in Greek territory . . . what we can do we will do."

Land At Crete

He did not say where the troops landed but press reports said the British disembarked at the island of Crete, and the Italian high command said air attacks were directed there against ships unloading troops.

Italian "suicide" squadrons rained more bombs throughout Greece where previous attacks killed or wounded 300 civilians in Salonika,

WRITEIN VOTE IN WILLACY

Nyquist-Phillips Race Flares Anew

RAYMONDVILLE—A renewal of the duel between C. G. (Gus) Nyquist and W. H. (Bill) Phillips for the office of Willacy county treasurer was assured here Saturday night, when Phillips, the incumbent, revealed in telephone conversation that his friends had been quietly conducting a "write-in" campaign for next Tuesday's general election for the past two weeks.

Nyquist, who defeated Phillips in the Democratic primary in July for nomination to the office, said here Saturday that he had just learned of the "write-in" campaign, stating that he found out about it when a letter sent out by Phillips' friends to a voter now in Illinois, had been sent on to him by the Illinois man.

Phillips said that the campaign had been brought into the open only within the past few days, and that a "hundred or so" of his friends had approached him and advised him the campaign would be conducted "whether you like it or not."

Nyquist Saturday urged Willacy voters to turn out in full force for Tuesday's election, so that "the majority may choose," and reminded them that it is important that every voter exercise his franchise in the selection of national leaders in this time of natioinal crisis.

Reds Push Troops To Southeast Provinces

BUCHAREST— (AP) —Soviet Russia has concentrated 31 divisions of troops and three brigades of mechanized equipment in Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, travelers said Saturday upon their arrival here from the provinces which Russia acquired from Rumania last summer.

(A British military expert earlier this week said Germany had concentrated about 70 army divisions or about 1,250,000 men, in southeastern Europe.)

'Greek Victory Would Smash Axis Conquest Scheme'

British Believe Italy At Peak Of War Effort Now; Situation Now Favors England

By DREW MIDDLETON

LONDON—(AP)—British military men said Saturday a decisive check or even a stalemate of Italy's Hellenic campaign by the British and Greeks would smash the Axis scheme for conquest of the Mediterranean.

These and neutral military sources, remarking that Italy's war effort was swiftly approaching the maximum, estimated Italian troops in the field at "well over a million" or at least "70 divisions."

This figure includes units in Libya, Ethiopia, Italian and British Somaliland and those guarding the temporarily peaceful frontiers in Europe and Africa.

"Italy may talk of '6,000,000 bayonets' but these are now enough," one declared. "It is quite probable she does not have modern equipment for more than those in the field now."

British military men said they expected Italy to launch a big scale offensive against the Greek line on the southwest wing of the Albanian-Greek frontier.

Military observers said that the present situation is more favorable to the British than the first stages of the Norwegian, Flanders and French campaigns, because the Italians, and eventually the Germans, would "have to come to the British" instead of the British going to them. Such advances, they say, afford many opportunities for damaging aerial attacks.

Diplomatic sources in London broke their silence to observe that:

Germany probably was disappointed that Italy failed to wait until the Spanish and Germans were ready to strike at Gibraltar.

Failure of a blow at Gibraltar to materialize probably was due to French reluctance to agree immediately with German peace plans.

The Bulgarian government is torn between an army strongly pro-Axis in sentiments and a people strongly pro-Russian and desirous of peace.

Personal Ambition Is Denounced

hopes for re freedom, real prosperity, real peace."

"There are certain forces within our own national community, composed of men who call themselves American but who would destroy America," Mr. Roosevelt said. "They are the forces of dictatorship in our own land—on one hand the Communists, and on the other the girdlers.

"It is their constant purpose in this, as in other lands, to weaken Democracy, to destroy the free man's faith in his own cause.

"In this election, all the representatives of these forces, without exception, are voting against the New Deal.

Proud Of Opposition

" am proud of this opposition. It is proof positive that what we have built and strengthened in the past seven years is Democracy."

Mr. Roosevelt did not define the term "girdlers" nor explain its origin.

In his address, coming at the end of a day of campaigning through eastern New York, a corner of Pennsylvania and into Ohio, the President asserted that the American people, during the past seven years, had "marched forward out of a wilderness of depression and despair."

"They have marched forward right up to the very threshold of the future—a future which holds the fulfillment of our hopes for real freedom, real prosperity, real peace.

"I want that march to continue for four years more. And for that purpose, I ask your vote of confidence."

Discusses Policies

In a detailed discussion of the administration's foreign policy, the chief executive said its first purpose was to keep the country out of war.

At the same time, Mr. Roosevelt declared, "we seek to keep foreign conceptions of government out of the United States."

The second purpose of this policy, he said, was "to keep war as far away from the shores of the entire western hemisphere."

"Also our policy is to give all possible material aid to the nations which still resist aggression, across the Atlantic and Pacific oceans," the chief executive said.

"We make it clear that we intend to commit none of the fatal errors of appeasement. . .

"Ours is the foreign policy of an administration which has an undying faith in the strength of our Democracy today, full confidence in the vitality of our Democracy in the future, and a consistent record in the cause of peace."

Strength Is Known

The nation's strength was measured, he continued, not only in terms of the might of its armaments but also in "the social and economic justice of the system in which we live."

"For you can build ships and tanks and guns galore; but they will not be enough," the President declared. "You must place behind them an invincible faith in the institutions which they have been built to defend.

"The dictators have devised . . . a modern, streamlined version of an ancient system.

"But Americans will have none of that."

Democracy "Moves"

Mr. Roosevelt said Democracy had moved forward in the last seven years but that now "we are asked to stop in our tracks."

"We are asked to turn about, and march back into the wilderness from which we came. Of course we will not turn backward."

The President said it was the destiny of the present American generation to "point the road to the future for all the world to see."

"It is our prayer that all lovers of freedom may join us—the anguished common people of this earth for whom we seek to light the path.

"I see an America where factory workers are not discarded after they reach their prime, where there is no endless chain of poverty from generation to generation, where impoverished farmers and farm hands do not become homeless wanderers, where monopoly does not make youth a begger for a job."

KENEDY ROAD OPENING SET

Houston, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and other Texas points, highway leaders point out, 20 miles one may or 40 miles round trip being the saving between San Antonio and such Valley points as Raymondville, Harlingen, San Benito and Brownsville, and 45 miles one way or 90 miles round trip being saving effected for travelers going from the Valley to Houston and Corpus Christi.

Is Shortest Route

The present highway out of the lower Valley sector to Corpus Christi and points farther upstate, the shortest present route, has to go around Kenedy county.

Because Kenedy county is ranch country, owned by a few large land owners, it was many years before Valley leaders succeeded in getting a road designated through the county.

With opening of the highway, last link in the Hu-The-Coast Highway, expected to be an important national defense unit, will be completed. Widening project on the Kingsville-Rivera road just north of Kenedy County Road, will be completed and opened also on December 17.

The Fascist high command also said its troops had penetrated the "Metaxas Line" in a pincer movement with one column aimed at Salonika in northeastern Greece and another driving south toward Ioannina, which has improved road links with Athens.

Bucharest reports said Soviet Russia has concentrated 31 divisions and three mechanized brigades on the Rumanian border. A British military expert recently estimated Germany had assembled about 70 divisions or about 1,250,000 men in southeastern Europe, ostensibly to guard Rumanian oil fields and "instruct" Rumanian troops.

Berlin Raids Heavy

The British air ministry said RAF attacks on Berlin during Friday night smashed three main railway centers and left a mile-long blaze about the vital Klingenburg power station. One wave attacked the Nazi capital for nearly two hours and a second fired away with bombs for 40 minutes.

Nazi officials said "several" civilians were killed, but asserted the only damage was to dwellings and "a small saw mill."

Aside from the attacks on Berlin, the Ruhr industrial valley in western Germany was bombed, oil plants and refineries reported struck, the great Krupp munitions works at Essen revisited and 15 German airdromes bombed.

At home the British said Axis aerial blows at London and other English cities were faltering. Summing up 12 weeks the air ministry reported the Germans had lost 2,433 bombers and fighters against a British loss of 891 planes since August 8.

Raiders Driven Off

At least six big formations numbering some Italian planes tried to break British southeastern coastal defenses Saturday but were driven off, the British said.

German press reports said new fires and severe damage especially in the Woolwich district southeast of London resulted from Nazi daylight raids.

Use For Old Tunnel Is Finally Smelled

WALHALLA, S. C. —(AP)— After 70-odd years a use has been found for the tunnel in Stumphouse mountain. The tunnel, dug in an ambitious railroad construction program, never was completed. Now the Clemson College dairy department has leased it for the manufacture of roquefort cheese.

FROM RAYMONDVILLE

HARLINGEN—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Humphreys of Raymondville were Harlingen visitors Saturday.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—(AP)—Two light planes collided 600 feet in the air and crashed here Saturday killing Raymond G. Reess, 43, St. Louis, and injuring two other fliers.

PARTIES COUNT ELECTORAL EGGS BEFORE NOV. 5TH

NEW YORK — (AP) — National chairmen of the two major political parties Saturday night predicted substantial victories for their prospective presidential candidates in the general election next Tuesday.

For Franklin D. Roosevelt, at least 427 electoral votes—predicted by Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic national committee. For Wendell L. Willkie, at least 324 electoral votes—predicted by Joseph W. Martin, Jr., chairman of the Republican national committee.

It requires 266 electoral votes to elect.

GOP TO SEEK RANGER HELP

Demos For Willkie Want Protection

HOUSTON—(AP)—Steve Pinckney, campaign manager of the No Third Term Democrats of Houston, said Saturday night that he would appeal to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to give anti-New Deal speakers the protection of Texas Rangers.

The appeal will be based, he said, on incidents at a scheduled Willkie For President rally Saturday afternoon in Carthage.

A. M. Davis, a Houston dairyman supporting Willkie, was scheduled to have made an address, but "in the early part of his talk a group of men broke up the meeting," Pinckney said.

by the opposition to connect me with that kind of intolerance.

Not His Smear

"That kind of a campaign is not a smear on Wendell Willkie. It is a smear on our American principles.

"I will defend and always will have defended the rights and civil liberties of all people, regardless of race, creed or color. They are Americans."

Asking what candidate could bring all the people together, Willkie pledged "a unity that you have not known for eight years. . . .

"Out of that unity will come a confidence of man in man, and in each other's motives and hopes, out of that confidence will grow a new America. . . . Out of confidence will grow new industries, new business, new opportunities, new jobs."

Willkie said this campaign was a crusade of the people of America. "You started it," he continued. "You carried it forward. And you will finish it next Tuesday, won't you?"

"Last of Democracy"

"Within the hollow of your hands is shielded the last unquenched flame of democracy," he continued. "All over the world that light has been going out. Here we must keep it burning—shield it, shield it— so that the imprisoned peoples of other lands may know that light still burns—so that your sons and mine and the men that come after them may have the light to guide them—so that a strong America may once more see that path before it and go forward."

Willkie said that the campaign "is the battle of America," and added: "The drums of victory are roiling. The thunderous drums of an aroused electorate are beating in the nation tonight. Victory, victory, is on the march."

The nominee said that the campaign would mean "the victory of the people" and then quoted President Roosevelt as saying in Madison Square Garden four years ago:

"I should like to have it said of my first administration that in it the forces of selfishness and of lust for power met their match. I should like to have it said of my second administration that in it these forces met their master."

Different Plea

Willkie declared that he came with "a different plea" and continued: "I do not ask to be any man's master.

"People of America, I ask you to make me your servant."

Texas And Oklahoma Settle Land Dispute

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas and Oklahoma are writing finis to 21-year-old border dispute—in a neighborly way.

The fight of many years ended when Texas got the title to 30,000 acres of the two states' Panhandle border by virtue of a U. S. Supreme Court decision.

Texas then passed a law by which Oklahomans who thought they lived in the Sooner state can patent their titles to land which proved to be in Texas for $1 an acre. Much of it is worth $25 to $50 an acre, the Texas land office says.

They have a year from June 27, 1940, in which to perfect their claims.

ized in the proposal that, contrary to tradition, the President be elected for a third term. Dictatorship may be the result, says Willkie.

Roosevelt supporters answer that the powers of the federal government have necessarily been increased to meet successive crises—the depression, the war abroad and the urgent necessity for rearmament. They add that Congress still functions, the election is free, the press is free, speech is free, and they ask:

"What sign is there of an impending dictatorship?" Roosevelt's knowledge of foreign affairs makes a third term necessary, at a time of crisis such as this, they assert.

These two are the predominantly great issues. There are others, too:

The New Deal has discouraged and antagonized business, Willkie argues. Business is better, even, than it was in 1929, the President replies. New Deal spending is leading to federal bankruptcy, says Willkie, although acknowledging that defense expenditures will preclude a balanced budget for some years to come. Spending has been necessary, answer the New Dealers, to stimulate business.

"Defense Bogs Down"

The defense program is bogging down because of inefficiency in government, say the Willkie-ites and the President cannot command the confidence of businessmen necessary to speeding it up. False, is the Democratic reply.

The defense program is booming along, the administration already has the cooperation of industry, and, beyond that, can command the confidence and help of the laboring masses to a degree to which Willkie can never aspire.

Hitler and Mussolini want to see Willkie elected, say the President's supporters (and he, himself, once called attention to a newspaper dispatch from Rome to that effect.) The Willkie people answer that Willkie is as much for helping Britain and as opposed to Nazi philosophy as the President is.

And, other issues have arisen—the trivial issues, the little incidents and circumstances which have no bearing upon statecraft or the merit of the candidates, but which may make or change votes.

Elliott Causes Trouble

The President's son, Elliott obtained a captain's commission in the army air corps. It was at a time when all young men of his age were facing compulsory service in a private's barracks. By the thousands, lapel buttons labelled "I Wanna Be A Captain Too" appeared."

Both candidates, but Willkie in particular, were the targets of thrown eggs, vegetables or fruit in some regions.

And, almost at the last minute, Stephen T. Early, the President's secretary, trying to board the President's train in New York had a scuffle with unrecognizing police detail. A Negro policeman was hurt. Early, denying he had kicked the policeman, apologized to him, anyway.

All these things, the issues, the incidents, great and little, have been an essential part of a campaign highly unusual in its outward manifestations and inward turmoil.

Shifts In Support

For one thing, there have been some notable shifts in support. Such former administration lieutenants as John Hanes, one time assistant secretary of the treasury, and Lewis Douglas, first New Deal budget director, are ardently advocating Willkie's election. John L. Lewis, whose CIO organizations pumped $500,000 into the 1936 Roosevelt campaign, plumped for Willkie. Gifford Pinchot, former Republican governor of Pennsylvania, and John G. Winant, former Republican governor of New Hampshire, came out for re-election of the President.

Battling down the stretch, both candidates spoke Saturday night—the President in Cleveland and Willkie in New York. Each also has radio time reserved for an election-eve message.

Tall Corn Grows On Atlantic City Beach

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. —(AP)— Bathing beauties and Miss Americas aren't the only things that bloom on this resort's boardwalk. For the tall corn grows right on the beach at North Carolina avenue. GOP REPORTS FUND TOTALS

$2,993,991 Collected For Campaign

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Republican national committee reported to Congress Saturday that there had been collected $2,993,991 and spent $2,313,400 since January 1. Unpaid commitments on October 31 were listed as $345,413.

Receipts of $102,353 and expenditures of $211,578 from October 21 to October 31 also were reported. The Democrats for Willkie headquarters in New York reported receipts of $137,646 and expenditures of $121,444 during the same period.

Contributions of $14,605 and expenditures of $9,311 between October 7 and October 31 were reported by the colored workers committee for Willkie.

Contributors of $1,000 to the Democrats for Willkie organization included Alfred E. Smith, Democratic presidential nominee in 1927.

Hall Urges Care

Wrong Construction Aid To Fires

AUSTIN —(AP)— State Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall has warned against deficiencies in city building codes.

Hall explained a general study of building fires by the National Board of Fire Underwriters shows several outstanding factors which not only in themselves increase the probability of losses because of inherent conditions but also prevent effective fire fighting.

These features include excessive areas, open stairways, thin walls, improper ventilation systems, interior courts, unprotected windows, inaccessible basements and subbasements, lack of fire doors, steelwork without insulation, weak floors and structural members which will NOT withstand sustained fire without failure and the presence of inaccessible places in which fire can extend vertically and horizontally without discovery.

Hall urged that firemen in every city make a thorough study of building codes with a view to removing deficiencies. Knowledge of safe construction, he added, is essential for fireman training.

HIDALGO MAPS CHARITY WORK

Red Cross Workers Will Be Chosen

EDINBURG—Red Cross roll call workers in every Hidalgo county city will be named this week, A. M. Tarbutton, general chairman, said Saturday.

Tarbutton and Rev. W. W. Stewart of Pharr, county roll call chairman, will direct the work.

Local chairmen have been named by the two leaders already. These persons will select their own assistants. Practically all the local chairmen plan to start their enlistment work November 11 and conclude it that week.

Goal for this county has been set at 5,000 members, the highest in history, according to Tarbutton. More funds are needed for Red Cross work now than perhaps ever before in history, unless it might be for a few weeks during some major disaster, he explained.

Rev. Stewart urged all persons who joined the Red Cross to wear their buttons at least for a week. "A Red Cross button is a badge of honor. It marks the wearer as a sympathizer with suffering humanity and will influence others to join this great organization," the minister declared.

Artillery Duel

Border Fight Fierce As Italy Attacks

BITOLJ, Yugoslavia —(AP)— The heaviest artillery fire of the six-day Italian-Greek battle on the Albanian frontier was heard from across the border Saturday, indicating that both sides were throwing new forces into the fierce mountain fighting, southeast of the strategic Greek town of Phlorina.

Italian Alpine troops and motorized units of infantry, aided by the Fascist air force, were reported hammering strong Greek positions manned by the best of Greece's kilted, mountain-bred troops.

Mrs. Willie Raines Dies In Tennessee

RUTHERFORD, Tenn.—Mrs. Willie James Raines, 65, wife of J. F. Raines of Gadsden, Tenn., farmer, died at 1:30 a. m., October 24, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elvis Edwards, at Rutherford, after a lengthly illness. Services were held at the Christian Church, with burial in Gadsden.

Among other survivors are two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Puckett of Alamo, Texas, and Mrs. E. F. Greer of Harlingen, Texas, and a son, Joe Raines of Harlingen.

WILLIAMS VISITS

HARLNGEN—G. Clark Williams, Sebastian school superintendent, was a visitor Saturday in Harlingen.

Look Into The Records

This Home-Owned Business Training Institution has successfully and efficiently served Harlingen and its adjacent territory for five years.

The thorough practical training we offer at reasonable prices to those seeking positions in the Business World, provides the student with not only proficient skill, and general knowledge of business practices, but also instills into their minds the highly important feature of a high standard of moral living.

Positive evidence of our ability to give this type of training, is shown by the fact that the Business Man has learned to depend on us to adequately fill his needs.

These needs are carefully studied, and if future developments call for any additional branch of service, the need will be promptly supplied.

DO YOU WANT THE MAXIMUM FOR YOUR LIFE INSURANCE DOLLAR?

Use the same care in selecting your life insurance agent that you use in selecting your physician!

You wouldn't use the services of a physician who doesn't think enough of his profession to keep abreast of the times . . . and though you may have never thought of it, the proffered services of a life insurance agent who is not a member of the National Association of Life Underwriters should be refused for the same reason.

After studying the objects of the National Association, we believe that you will feel that a member of the Association IS MORE CAPABLE OF HANDLING YOUR INSURANCE.

Here are the Objects of the National Association of Life Underwriters:

To support and maintain the principle of legal reserve life insurance.
To advance public knowledge of legal reserve life insurance and its uses.
To promote the adoption and application of higher standards of ethical conduct in the profession of life underwriting and the business of life insurance.
To increase the knowledge of agents concerning legal reserve life insurance, its uses and its sale.
To provide through local associations for rendering community service and for forming enduring friendships.
To create and maintain a sound public opinion, to promote cooperation and good will, and in all other ways to promote the best interest of legal reserve life insurance.

HIDALGO TAX DRIVE YIELDS HALF MILLION

Two-Year Total May Reach $1,000,000

EDINBURG — Collection of delinquent taxes in Hidalgo county by the close of 1940 should be close to the $500,000 mark, bringing to about $1,000 000 the amount collected in 1939 and 1940, Harry Hall, special county attorney in charge of such collections, said Saturday.

The cost of the work, he added, is averaging about three percent of the total collected.

Hall said tax payments on installment contracts are increasing steadily. During the two years, about $250,0 worth of tax accounts have been placed on the active list through such contracts, and of that total about $150,000 has been paid in cash to date.

Oil Property Problem

Delinquent taxes on oil lands, principally in western Hidalgo county, still remain one of his principal proolems, the attorney declared. During the past week he closed a contract for payment of $6,000 in past due taxes owed by a drilling firm which has operated on a number of tracts in the county.

At the time Hall started the delinquent tax collection drive in 193?, there were about 85,000 tracts of land in the county on which taxes were delinquent. He explained that the work of preparing either installment contracts, payment contracts or tax suits was tedious and required a great amount of time. Each case is checked back on county tax records to determine the complete list of payments, and in numerous cases abstracts are checked for correct titles to property.

The tax office's routine has come to the point where 15 to 20 suits are prepared daily, Hall said.

Of all tax suits filed, only a small percentage result in pre-trial settlements, since the suits are usually lodged only after every other effort to collect the delinquencies has failed.

25,000 To 30,000 Suits

By the time all of the county's overdue taxes are "cleaned up," the attorney said, it is probable that suits will have been filed on 25,000 to 30,000 of them. The difference between these figures and the total of 85,000 tracts on which original work was started will represent the number which have been settled either through cash payments or installment payments.

Hall expressed the opinion that the county-wide tax drive is resulting in a more "tax conscious" situation among property owners. He said benefits of the work have been reflected in improved current tax collections by the county, cities and other subdivisions.

Dr., Mrs. Olmsted Return To Stay

BROWNSVILLE — Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Olmsted have returned here to make their home, and Dr. Olmsted has opened optical offices in Room 415 of the First National Bank building.

Dr. Olmsted is recovering from a second operation as the result of a traffic smash-up near Fort Worth a year ago in which he and his son, Lieutenant Charles Olmsted of the air corps, were injured.

Dr. and Mrs. Olmsted returned here in February at which time it was thought Dr. Olmsted was on the road to recovery, but another hip operation was found necessary and was performed at the army and navy hospital at Hot Springs, Ark.

Much Money Is Said Spent On Campaigns

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Declaring that there had been evidence that "exorbitant sums of money" had been expended in the national political campaigns, Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) proposed that a special joint congressional committee be created to study the entire matter and recommend "remedial legislation."

Gillette is chairman of the special Senate campaign expenditures committee appointed to police the elections of president, vice president and senators. He explained that authority of this group was limited.

LaGuardia Says GOP Fosters Bitterness

NEW YORK — (AP) — Mayor Laguardia asserted that the Republican party had waged a campaign of "greed, hate and bitterness" against President Roosevelt and his social legislation.

The campaign has developed a new form of thought known as "utility mentality," the mayor said in a weekly broadcast over WEVD sponsored by a local of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union (AFL).

Brownsville's Best Known Tin Lizzie Is To Be Replaced As Fire Chief Buys New Wagon With All '41 Trimmings

BROWNSVILLE — The best known Tin Lizzie in Brownsville will fade out of the local picture next week when Fire Chief W. C. Walker gets a new car. Lizzie is a 1933 V-8 with 260,966 miles on the log book. With the exception of one trip to San Antonio, where she was the pride of a firemen's convention, Lizzie has run those miles over the streets of Brownsville.

Her successor will be a Ford two-door sedan, painted a brilliant red, with siren, fire extinguishers, inhalator, and all the other stuff fire chiefs are asked to have handy.

In addition to a new car Fire Chief Walker will get 600 feet of new hose, enough to provide a change for two trucks. The hose will replace worn sections bought in 1932.

Head Hunting Clan Beheads 5 Natives

MANILA, P. I.—(AP)—A band of head hunters swept down out of the mountains of Tayabas province and beheaded five natives of the isolated village of Balongan in the southern Philippines, the constabulary reported.

Officials said the raid brought to 33 the number of Christian Filipinos who have been decapitated since 1937 by Ilongot tribesmen.

CHURCH HEADS ARE INDUCTED

Methodist Stewards Installed Sunday

SAN BENITO — Newly elected stewards of the First Methodist Church will be installed in a special service conducted Sunday morning by Rev. L. J. Rode. The service will close with the Lord's Supper.

Rev. Rode's sermon topic for the morning will be "And He Went A Little Farther." The choir will present a special musical program under the direction of W. E. Hatchett.

Open house will be held at the church from 2 to 5 p. m. when membership pledges will be received for the financial support of the church. Pledges will be taken after the evening service also.

Sunday evening the pastor will speak on "Clouds That Overshadow Us," and music will include a duet by Mrs. W. F. Pitts and S. V. Neely.

Stewards to be installed Sunday morning are: J. E. Thompson, O. A. Kendrick, Russell Edwards, O. E. Gause, Howard Caswell, Fred Graver, R. L. Valentine, J. Roy Taft, K. L. Lake, Jesse Welch, E. L. DEMPSEY IS NOW ARBITRATOR FOR UNION DISPUTES

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jack Dempsey has stepped into a new role—that of labor abritrator.

Appointed by Supreme Court Justice J. Sidney Bernstein, the former heavyweight boxing champion Friday decided a dispute between the American Federation of Office Employes and the Neo-Gravure Printing Company.

The award granted the union a 10 per cent wage increase and a 40-hour week, but vetoed a demand for absolute seniority in dismissals.

Leaders of the AFL organization hailed the ruling as proof that Dempsey was "not only a great fighter but a great arbitrator."

Dempsey summed up his philophy as follows: "Make each side fight clean and give each side an even break."

Wants To Know

Representative Asks Who W. Lee's For

AUSTIN —(AP)— Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's public silence in connection with the Democratic presidential campaign was criticized by Rep. Weldon Burney of Evant.

In a formal statement Burney asked:

"Is the governor with Roosevelt and his social security policies or is he with the Republicans and the bolting Democrats of this state?"

The governor made no immediate comment. A secretary said the executive had left "strict orders" not to be disturbed while in morning conference.

McDonald Criticized For Election Stand

WACO—(AP)—Former Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt and other speakers criticized J. E. McDonald and advocated the write-in campaign in behalf of W. N. Corry of Tarrant county for state agriculture commisisoner.

County Judge D. Y. McDaniel and H. S. Beard, member of the state Democratic executive committee, were the other speakers.

3 ARRESTED IN 2 RAIDS

20 Gallons Mescal Are Confiscated

HARLINGEN — Three persons were lodged in Cameron county jail in Brownsville Saturday afternoon following raids on two Harlingen residences by federal, state and county officers. Twenty gallons of mescal were confiscated in the two raids.

Two men and one woman were arrested by the raiding officers, the men being in one house and the woman in another. Fourteen gallons of mescal was confiscated when the men were arrested and six gallons taken from the home where the woman was arrested.

The raid was made shortly before noon Saturday in west Harlingen. All three arrested were Latin-Americans.

U. S. Commissioner Carlos Watson at Brownsville said hearing for the trio had not yet been held and no charges had been filed.

San Benito VFW Men Attend Convention

SAN BENITO—A delegation from the Sam Robertson post, Veterans of Foreign Post, left Saturday to attend the sixth district VFW and auxiliary convention in Kingsville.

Those listed to attend the meeting include P. Cartwright, district adjutant; Dr. D. S. Meyers, department surgeon; Mrs. D. S. Meyers, patriotic instructor; William Lockmiller, James Scaief, post commander; and William Andresen and Grover Greer of Los Fresnos.

WOULD RETAIN PRESENT UNIT OF AMERICAS

Hull Advisor Claims Danger Of Loss

NEW YORK—(AP)—Laurence Duggan, adviser to Secretary Hull on Latin American political relations, said Saturday that the solidarity of American nations "could be lost overnight" if the United States "again undertook to dictate to the other American nations how they should run their own affairs."

In a speech prepared for delivery to the Foreign Policy Association, the State Department spokesman asserted that a return to the policy "of the big stick, dollar diplomacy and intervention" would have such a result, because "intervention and hemisphere solidarity are incompatible."

"If the people of this country prize the friendship of the other American peoples," he said, "then their government must base its relations on recognition of the equality and inviolability of the sovereignty of each of the 21 republics."

Better Rubber Trees

Citing evidences of the degree of solidarity already attained, Duggan said that much has been done to promote development of economic resources in Latin America. One accomplishment, he related, has been the perfection of a strain of rubber tree with an average yield three times as high as that of trees in the Far East, where most rubber used in this country now is produced.

"We may anticipate a considerable reduction in the cost of rubber to the United States consumers as this development proceeds," he said, adding that the present price of 20 cents a pound might be cut in half.

100-Plane Raid

Italy Attacks Malta Air, Naval Base

ROME — (AP) — The Rome radio broadcast a report Saturday night that 100 Italian fighter and bomber planes had attacked the British Mediterranean island of Malta during the afternoon, striking at an aviation camp and naval base in "the most important Italian air action since the outbreak of the war."

"Visible destruction" on the airdrome was claimed and it was stated that at least one British fighter plane, and perhaps two, had been shot down.

Among these are soldiers who fought with Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans in 1812; one who carried the Texas flag at San Jacinto in 1836; a soldier who fought with Taylor in the Mexican War in 1845; a member of the Rough Riders regiment in the Spanish-American war, and a sailor in Dewey's fleet at Manila Bay, together with Confederate and world war veterans.

Cotton Expert Gives Caprock Prediction

LUBBOCK—(AP)—Harry E. Blocker, cotton expert who has been making crop surveys since 1922, estimates the 1940 cotton crop for the 17 counties atop the caprock will be 414,000 bales. The estimate is based upon the August-end condition of the crop. The area ginned 355,93² bales last season.

Blocker gave Lubbock county first place with 60,000 bales; Hockley second, 55,000; Lamb, third, 52,00; Dawson fourth, 46,500 and Lynn fifth 42,600 bales. The estimate for Hockley county represents an increase of 20,000 bales over 1939.

Sahara Sands Blow Across Sea To Alps

INTERLAKEN, Switzerland—(AP)—Scientists who, throughout the year, occupy a little observatory 12,000 feet above sea level on the Jungfrau in the Swiss Alps, woke up one morning to find big red patches on the snow.

The crevases of the nearby Aletsch glacier, instead of being deep green or blue in color, also showed a reddish-brown tint.

Investigation revealed that these red patches had been caused by tiny sand particles, blown from the Sahara desert 1,500 miles, across the Mediterranean and Italy into Switzerland.

Paris Dinner Club Has Begun Meetings

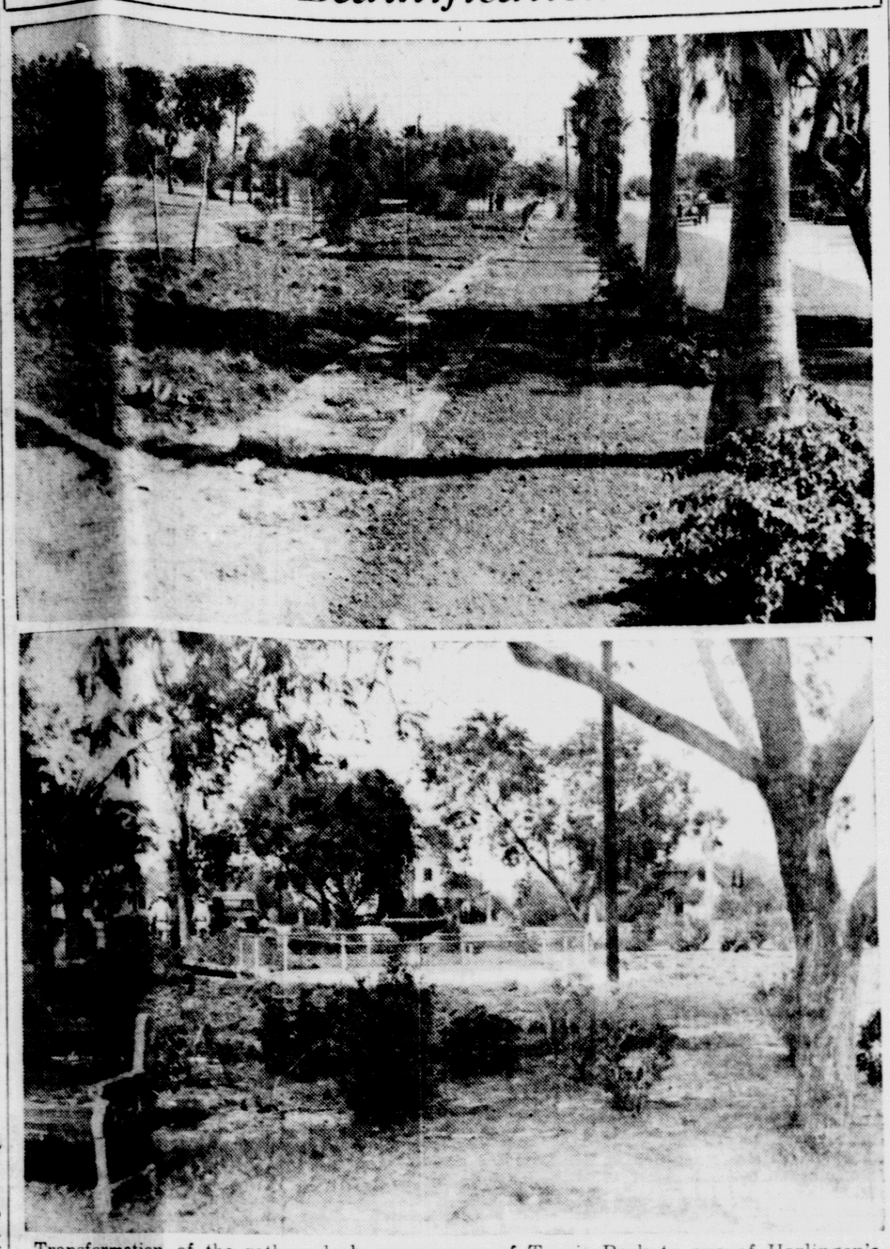

PARIS—(AP)—The American club of Paris, dating back to a dinner club started by Benjamin Franklin when he was envoy to France, has resumed its weekly meetings which were interrupted by German occupation of the city. Thursday luncheons were begun one month after the German entry. Thirty members attended the first one.

Professions Supply Most Cure Patients

DWIGHT, Ill.—(AP)—The Keeley institute for the treatment of alcoholics has reported that professional men constitute the largest group among patients, with farmers and cattlemen second and bartenders far down the list.

Since 1933, the institute said, 169 physicians have sought treatment, compared to 48 bartenders. Most common occupation among patients, it reported, was that of salesman.

Harlingen Beautification Pushed

Transformation of the rather drab appearance of Travis Park to one of Harlingen's beauty spots was started this week when planting of most of the area to carpet grass was begun under the supervision of the newly organized Flower Lovers Club. Landscaping plans include extensive planting of trees, creation of a lily pond and several flower beds. Donations from non-club members are largely responsible for the excellent start that has been made with the project. Labor and water is furnished by the city. (Photo by Jack Watson.)

CLINIC FUND SAID SUCCESS

McAllen's Building Total $1353.25

McALLEN — Continued success has marked the McAllen Child Clinic building fund campaign, members of the Junior Service League reported Saturday.

A final check on donations will be made Monday afternoon at a tea at 5 p.m. at the Casa de Palmas Hotel for the campaign workers. A tag day Tuesday is expected to wind up the drive.

Through Saturday afternoon $1,353.25 had been deposited in the clinic fund at the City State Bank and Trust Company.

Additional secured pledges made it seem sure, league members said, that the building project would go through.

The league is attempting to raise $2,500 to build a clinic here for the care of underprivileged children. The building will be constructed under a National Youth Administration project.

Opening the drive for funds Wednesday $600 was secured in the first few minutes. The response so far has been excellent, Dr. E. A. Morris, clinic board chairman said. Its continuation will assure the city obtaining the building.

$110 Is Raised

Latin American Fete Aids Clinic

McALLEN—Members of the Latin American Business Men's club turned over $110 to the McAllen Child Clinic fund Saturday as their contribution toward the clinic to be constructed here.

The sum was the proceeds from the benefit picture show the group staged Friday night at the Aztec Theatre. President J. B. Martinez was gratified at the size of the crowd attending.

Among prominent McAllen officials present were Mayor Horace Etchison, City Commissioners Dr. F. E. Osborn, A. F. Vannoy and Fidencio Guerra; Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merts, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Vickers, Mr. and Mrs. O. Terry and Miss Zara Thigpen.

ALHAMBRA, Calif.—(AP)—Mrs. Katie Neumann wanted to play the piano all her life, and at the age of 67 she decided it was time to learn. She's 70 now, and appears in public recitals.

Valley Beautiful

Roses Adapted to Valley

By GEORGE H. PLETCHER, Jr.

MOST OF US wonder about our favorite Tea Roses and lovely climbing roses that haunt our northern memories. The easiest reply is that our wonderful winter sunshine prevents the needed rest period required by these northern varieties.

Roses thriving in the Valley, practically all fall into the everblooming Hybrid Tea classification. Roses of this group doing best here are: pink and red Radiance, Briarcliff, Etoil De Holland, Kaiserine E. G. Hill, Talisman, Dainty Bess and Golden Ophelia. Roses thriving but not too prolific are: J. L. Mock, Frances Scott Key, Luxenburg, Roslyn, Sensation, Hoover, Caledonia and Anna Quinard.

There are hundreds of kinds of roses and by trial only can we isolate good varieties. This list is by no means complete.

There are many exceptions as soil, drainage, and water play a very prominent role in rose culture. For example: the Talisman fare very well on certain sandy soils whereas it is practically worthless on heavy clay.

Next week! Winter Blooming Annuals.

3 RESEARCH JOBS FILLED

Clayton Foundation Studies At Texas

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Clayton Foundation of Houston Saturday made possible three major research appointments at the University of Texas.

Dr. Norman B. McCullough, for the last five years research bacteriologist and biochemist with the Parke Davis Research Institute in Detroit, was appointed by university regents as senior research biologist for the study of brucellosis, undulant fever.

Two other posts, research chemist and research biologist, were filled by the appointment of Dr. Maxwell Pollack and Dr. Alred Taylor in the university's $45,000 biochemical institute, recently endowed by the Houston foundation.

The new institute, to be housed in laboratories about December 1, will study the effect of vitamins on all types of living tissue.

$17,000 OIL LAND LEASE IS FILED

Phillips Firm Gets Rights In Hidalgo

EDINBURG—A $17,000 oil lease transfer was filed for record Saturday in Hidalgo county, one of the largest in recent weeks for the county.

Under terms of the lease, the Phillips Petroleum Company, which has been operating in the Sullivan City field of western Hidalgo for the past three years, obtains drilling rights on 300 acres of land in Porciones 43 and 44 of western Hidalgo. The land is near the Nichols pool, a mile east of the big Samfordyce oil field, which the Royal Oil and Gas Company recently opened when their No. A-1 Yturria Town and Improvement Company, a 75-barrel producer in sand at 3,500 feet.

The Yturria firm released the land to Phillips.

The lease runs for a term of five years, revenue stamps attached to the document indicating the total amount involved.

In addition to the least, the Yturria firm retains 1-8 overriding royalty and will receive $50 rental payments on any producing gas wells on the acreage.

SATURDAY SET AS POPPY DAY

Harlingen Auxiliary To Sell Flowers

HARLINGEN — Poppy Day will be observed in Harlingen Saturday, November 9, Mrs. Alma McCown, president of Unit 205 of the American Legion auxiliary, said Saturday. On that day all Americans will be asked to wear memorial poppies in tribute to the World War dead and to aid the living victims of the war.

The little red memorial flowers will be distributed here by women and girls under direction of Mrs. W. P. Broussard, chairman of the Poppy Day committee. All contributions received for the poppies will go to Legion and auxiliary welfare work for the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead.

"We feel that Poppy Day will have increased meaning to America this year," said Mrs. McCown, "because renewed warfare in Europe has renewed the memory of those boys of ours who gave their lives 'over there' 22 years ago. It is for them that we put on the poppy each year, to show that we still remember and honor their sacrifices. It is the flower which grew where they fell and which now blooms on the coats of Americans who appreciate their service.

"Events of the past year have shown us clearly that to be secure the United States must have men ready and able to defend the country, willing to give their lives in its defense, if necessary. We can be thankful today that we had such men 22 years ago. From them we can draw inspiration for the patriotic service necessary to maintain our freedom and democracy against today's dangers. Wearing their flower over our hearts means that within our hearts their love of America still lives."

School-Job Gap

Rainey Says Schools Are Challenged

AUSTIN—(AP)—The greatest challenge to American schools in the national defense program is providing means to bridge the gap between school and job, President Homer P. Rainey told 400 personnel officials here Saturday night.

Rainey, speaking at a banquet concluding the second annual Texas personnel conference on the university campus, informed business and industrial executives that although personnel direction stands between the "inbalance of men and jobs today," it would be necessary to "impress our schools with the need of providing the training that youth needs in industry."

2 Commissions

Manufacturers Urge State Body Split

DALLAS, Tex.—(AP)—A separate state oil and gas commission was recommended by the Texas State Manufacturers' Association committee on traffic and new industries with the assertion that the state railroad commission is unable to devote sufficient time to freight rate matters.

The committee said that Texas industrial development was suffering because of inequitable commodity rates, giving northern manufacturers the advantage over the south.

The association, closing a two-day convention today, chose Houston for the 1941 meeting place and re-elected all officers, including W. C. Trout of Lufkin as president, and Porter A. Whaley of San Antonio, executive vice-president and general manager.

Investigating Crash In Which Pilot Dies

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Officials of Randolph Field sought the cause of a plane crash that brought death to Flying Cadet William D. Croft, Jr., of Millington, Tenn.

Croft was killed when the basic training plane he was flying solo fell about two miles east of the field while the cadet was participating in night flying practice.

There were no witnesses of the crash.

CAA Pilots Get Help

FIESTA WON'T DROP PARADE

Mission Citrus Fete Retains Features

MISSION—Every entertainment feature popular in past years at the Texas Citrus Fiesta celebrations will be repeated at the 1941 fete, it was announced Saturday by Vance H. Glasgow, general chairman, in response to a rumor that had been circulated that some features of the fiesta, such as the Parade of Oranges and the coronation, would be eliminated. Prominence will be given the citrus style show, the citrus exhibits and colorful citrus decorations on the streets.

Members of the finance committee were chosen Saturday, it was announced by L. A. Buescher, chairman. They include T. M. Melden, W. R. Parrish, D. W. Cott, J. F. Ewers, R. R. Sheeler, Logan Duncan, E. E. Marburger, T. B. Sammons, P. H. Longoria, Ray Landry, E. M. Goodwin, L. H. Ramey, Miguel Olivarez, S. R. Greer, L. R. Lehman and Charles Roper.

Committees for other main features will be appointed next week, the general chairman planned.

First Mexico Rail Engine Is Finished

LAREDO—(AP)—The first railroad locomotive built in Mexico recently was completed at the shops of the National Railways at Monterrey under the direction of J. O. Trujillo, general shop superintendent. Tests show it capable of hauling 1,485 tons, and railroad officials said it cost about 125,000 pesos, or substantially less than the cost of private manufacture. Work has begun on three more locomotives.

FREIGHT SHIP ARIZPA IS DUE

Foreign - Bound Ship Arrives Monday

BROWNSVILLE—Word has been received here that the S.S. Arizpa, foreign-bound freighter, is on her way from Mobile, Ala., to Port of Brownsville and will arrive here at daybreak Monday to load undisclosed cargo for an unannounced destination.

Notification was received here by Philen Shipping Company, local agents for the Waterman Steamship Corporation, owners of the Arizpa.

Cargo has been assembled at Port of Brownsville, and loading of the ship should be completed about Wednesday, according to Port Director F. W. Hofmokel.

The S.S. Pan Royal, another foreign-bound Waterman freighter, is due here on November 23. The S.S. Azalea City, also owned by the company, is scheduled to load here November 25.

LEGION FETES US CHAPLAIN

W. G. Jilks Banquet Set For Friday

HARLINGEN—Brigadier William G. Jilks of Dallas, national chaplain of the American Legion, will be entertained with a banquet here Friday night at conclusion of a day spent in the upper part of the Valley, according to officials of the Harlingen post.

The visiting official will arrive in McAllen at 6:35 a.m. Friday over the Southern Pacific and will be guest at a breakfast at the Casa de Palmas Hotel in McAllen at 7:15 a.m. All Valley legionnaires are invited to meet the official at the train and to be present at the breakfast.

Brigadier Jilks will meet with the combined service clubs of McAllen at 9 a.m. to perfect plans for a new Salvation Army home to be built there.

At 3:30 p.m., Brigadier Jilks will make a pre-Armistice talk in the Weslaco high school auditorium to which the public is invited.

The Harlingen banquet will be at the Madison Hotel at 7 p.m., sponsored by the Harlingen legion post apd auxiliary. All Valley and visiting legionnaires and their families are invited.

Breakfast at McAllen will be 25 cents and the banquet in Harlingen 50 cents.

Did you buy YOUR car on "Millinery"?

YOU hear it said often nowadays that it's millinery that sells automobiles.

All right—let's put it up to one who knows. Did you buy your car on nicknacks, trick devices, novelties?

We don't think so.

We believe that while considering style, and room, and comfort — you really picked your car on what it would do on the road!

Now, we take our hats off to no car for being smarter-looking than Buick. We'll match our product against any for room, for appointments, for fine finish, for comfort.

But beyond all that, we challenge the whole field to equal Buick on its downright all-round performance ability.

On its power—on its pull—on its pick-up—on its easy handling (including freedom from shifting)—yes, and on its thrift.

Nowhere will you find a car that does so much so well and so frugally.

You'll find novelties in the new Buicks of course, but they're not the chief attraction. Instead you'll see the two big basic engineering developments of the year — FIREBALL design and Compound Carburetion.

Buick prices begin at $935 for the Business Coupe delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

The Texas Political Roundup

Democrats Confident

Feel Texas Will Go Roosevelt; Write-Ins Form Only Major Interest In State

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN—(AP)—Steady pelting by no-third-term and Willkie Democrats, fronting for the Republicans, Saturday characterized the fading hours of a curious presidential campaign in Texas.

Professed life-long Democrats, including a state commissioner of agriculture renominated for a sixth term in the summer's Democratic primaries, peppered this Democratic hotbed among the states with arguments against a third term and Rooseveltian policies, especially the New Deal farm program.

Confident Texas would stick to political tradition this year—it has departed only once since the Civil War—regular Democrats evidence little activity, and outstanding Texans in national Democratic circles, such as Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senator Tom Connally, battled for the party in other states.

The size of the Willkie vote was the number one interest of the election within Texas. A strong number two was the reaction of voters to Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald's bolt to the Willkie-McNary standard.

Write-In Candidates

Several "write-in" candidates were urging voters to repudiate the white-haired McDonald, who over national radio hook-ups reaching into the farm belt of the middlewest had castigated the AAA as ruinous to farmers.

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann said in an opinion there was no legal barrier to such write-in voting.

Campaigning for the write-in vote were W. N. Corry of Kellar for whom the Texas Agricultural Association mapped a series of rallies beginning today in Waco and spreadeagling the state in a final blast on election eve, and Tom Martin of Johnson City who makes daily radio addresses.

Myron Blalock, Democratic campaign director, declared the commissioner by his actions had released Democrats from their primary pledge to support nominees in the general election.

Wait For Garner

Leaders of all groups kept ears cupped for any statement from the mesquite-studded neighborhood of Uvalde, where Vice-President John N. Garner, at his home, maintained emphatic silence.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, renominated also in the Democratic primary, drew criticism from State Rep. Weldon Burney of Evant for taking no part in the national campaign. O'Daniel made no reply to the Burney statement.

Although surface activity was slight, compared with a Democratic primary campaign or the memorable campaign of 1928 when Hoover carried Texas, evidences of strong undercurrents of interest were seen by observers, who generally predicted a large vote. Estimates ranged from 850,000 to 1,000,000.

Heavy Vote Expected

Four years ago 842,538 ballots were cast in the general election and interest definitely was very small. In the first Democratic primary this year, 1,193,026 ballots hit the voting boxes, a record for any Texas election and interest was keen.

Now You Tell One-

Wandering Tombstone Back In Cemetery

PHOENIX, Ariz.—(AP)—From an unused cemetery, in which are graves of many Phoenix pioneers, a head-stone bearing the inscription, "To all vulger men and all the Gods: Disturb us not" was stolen eight years ago.

The warning apparently affected the vandals, for two years ago the stone turned up at the city outskirts.

A police officer, finding it unwanted, took it to his home, where it remained until recently when officials of the Pioneers' Cemetery association heard of it.

Today the tombstone is guarding the rebuilt vault of J. H. W. Jensen, picturesque character of early Phoenix.

Well-Dressed Chickens Won't Wear Feathers

TULSA, Okla.—(AP)—Aubrey Baer, hospital X-ray technician, believes after a six-month study that featherless chickens are a "distinct possibility."

X-ray treatment of baby chicks will produce a nude chicken, Baer reports. His problem now is to perfect treatment timing and to cross-

breed to produce a featherless strain.

Baer began his study by X-ray treatment of eggs before incubation. About half hatched. Treating baby chicks, he discovered the rays stopped feather growth. "My work still is very much in the experimental stage," Baer says.

Featherless chickens would be desired for indoor raising of broilers and fryers. The condition would tend to keep the chicken freer of disease, and eliminate necessity for picking feathers.

Short Short Story

TOLEDO, O. —(AP)— Patrolman Fred Addis, running toward a fire, passed his inspector.

"It's too dangerous up there. They just carried a fireman out," the inspector warned.

"You're telling me?" said Addis, "I carried the guy out!"

He saluted his superior, and ran on.

Piggy Goes Jump In The Lake

GERSAU, Switzerland—(AP)—An aquatic performance by a porcine passenger delayed a Lake Lucerne steamboat for 30 minutes.

The boat was ready to leave Gersau when a farmer, leading a 200-pound pig, walked up the gangplank. The pig liked the clear blue lake so much that in the middle of the gangplank it made what, for a pig, was a beautiful dive.

A lifeboat was lowered and after a half an hour of rowing and wrestling the squealing passenger was hoisted back on board.

Underwear Overhead

LUCY, Tenn. —(AP)—He was proud of the new car he had parked so carefully in the garage.

But he forgot the missus had strung the day's wash on a line in the garage. It still was on the line when he drove out.

He enjoyed a throb of pride as everybody stared and pointed at, he thought, the shiny, new vehicle. Suddenly, he glanced aloft.

From the car's radio aerial a pair of his wife's unmentionables waved gaily in the breeze.

MORE MEXICO REBELS TAKEN

Chihuahua Rebellion Is Said Ended

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico—(AP)—Surrender of 68 more rebels including the self-styled slayer of Francisco (Pancho) Villa, has ended all rebellious actvities in the State of Chihuahua, military officials announced Saturday.

Meliton Losoya, one-time Villista who claims to killing Villa after a quarrel, surrendered at Parral to Gen. Rodrigo Quevedo, former Chihuahua governor.

At the same time Ismael Pelma, leader of a rebel group, surrendered to General Quevedo with 65 men, headquarters stated.

Quevedo, now commander of the Coahila military zone, went to Parral to accept the surrender.

At La Junta another rebel leader, Miguel Delgado, whose men deserted him, gave himself up to Brig. Gen. Augustin de la Vega.

All the rebels were followers of Lit. Col. Cruz Villalva, a lieutenant of Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan.

Villalva, without men, was reported hiding in the Sierra Madre and may attempt to enter the United States, Chihuahua military headquarters said.

Write In Campaign For Commissioner Is Declared Legal

AUSTIN—(AP)—Attorney General Gerald C. Mann said in an opinion Saturday there was no legal bar against scratching the name of the Democratic nominee for the office of commissioner of agriculture and writing in the name of another person in Tuesday's general election.

The opinion was given at the request of C. A. Neal, Ellis county auditor who asked specifically if voters could scratch the name of J. E. McDonald, Democratic nominee for the office, and write in that of W. N. Bill Corry, who announced as a write-in candidate after McDonald endorsed the candidacy of Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican presidential nominee.

Guard Officers Talk Mobilization Plans

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Top-ranking officers of the Texas National Guard assembled here Saturday for a pre-mobilization conference called by Maj.-Gen. Claude V. Birkhead, commander of the 36th Division, Texas National Guard.

The conference was called for the purpose of correlating all plans in connection with mobilization, Gen. Birkhead said.

Examination of the stomach contents of a large number of alligator gars by members of the department of fish and game at A. & M. College showed that gizzard shad, suckers, mullet and small sun fish constitute its diet. No traces of game fish of any kind were found.

BAPTISTS MAY SET UP CAMPS

Social Centers For Army Boys Up

DALLAS—(AP)—Texas Baptists are making preliminary plans to establish religious and social centers adjacent to conscript training camps, Dr. R. C. Campbell, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, revealed.

Details will be discussed at the convention's 55th session in Houston, November 11-15, he said. Actual authorization and financing of the program, however, will come from the executive board of the convention, which meets December 3.

A $25,000 budget will be proposed to put the plan in operation, Dr. Campbell said. Tentative organization calls for camps to be directed by Baptist ministers.

Services Are Held At Fort Worth For A. D. Dickinson, Sr.

BROWNSVILLE— A. D. Dickinson, Sr., was buried at Fort Worth late last week, according to word received here Saturday by friends. He visited his late son, A. D. Jr., here frequently, had numerous friends in this section.

Mrs. A. D. Dickinson, Jr., went to Fort Worth to attend the last rites for her father-in-law.

Negro Not To Take Apology From Early

NEW YORK—(AP)—James Sloan, 42-year-old Negro policeman, said he had received a letter of apology from Stephen Early, President Roosevelt's press secretary, as an aftermath of a scuffle near the presidential train in which the patrolman was injured in the groin.

"I am not accepting the apology," was Sloan's comment.

Oklahoma Drilling 57 New Test Wells

TULSA—(AP)—Drilling of 57 new test wells was started in Oklahoma during the past week, compared with 33 in the preceding seven-day period.

Completions numbered 42, including 25 oil wells producing 6,042 barrels daily, four gas wells yielding 118,547,000 cubic feet a day, one input well and 12 dry holes.

Fort Brown Sergeant Retires After 30 Years; Man Who Launched His Career Is His Guest

Frank Bebon Plans To Take It Easy From Now On

BROWNSVILLE — First Sergeant Frank Bebon said goodbye to his mates Saturday night after 30 years in the United States cavalry.

And by a strange course of events, the man who gave Sgt. Bebon his first recruit drill when he joined the army in March, 1910, was present at the ceremony.

Farewell Party

Occasion was a farewell party held by Troop C, 12th Cavalry, at Fort Brown in honor of Sgt. Bebon, whose retirement from the troop became effective October 31.

First Sgt. Fred Baum of Mercedes, retired, the man who gave Sgt. Bebon his initial recruit drill at Fort Sam Houston in 1910, was the retiring sergeant's guest for the evening.

"We had been planning on this reunion for a long time," Sgt. Bebon said. "You know it's not every day that a man can leave the army after 30 years' service and have as his guest the man who started him in the service."

Joined In 1910

Private Bebon (as he was known in those days) joined the army on March 17, 1910, at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, and entered Troop B, 3rd Cavalry.

During his service with the 3rd Cavalry, that regiment had the unique distinction of being in the field for nine continuous years with duty as far south as Brownsville and as far west as the Arizona line, plus a stint overseas during the World War.

The 3rd Cavalry, according to Sgt. Bebon, was the first U. S. cavalry regiment to be sent overseas during the World War and was used on convoy duty during the years of fighting.

In 1919, the 3rd Cavalry returned to the United States and was sent to Fort Ethan Allen in Vermont to be demobilized, but Sgt. Bebon decided he wanted to stay in the army and come to Texas.

Re-enlists In Valley

So he re-enlisted at Fort Brown on October 8, 1919, and had been stationed with the forces here since that date up until his retirement.

He was provost sergeant for four years at the local post in charge of post police and prisoners.

Sgt. Bebon has been a member of the Brownsville American Legion post for over 12 years and also a member of the Veteran of Foreign Wars post here.

To Take It Easy

He was sergeant bugler for 10 years in the local American Legion bugle and drum corps which won the state title in 1930, and he helped organize the Pan American Airways' drum and bugle corps here.

"Now that I'm retired," he told his army friends, "I'm going to take it easy. I own my own home in Brownsville, and I'm going to remain here and spend the rest of my time fishing and hunting."

Sgt. Bebon's home is only a block and a half from the post grounds.

"I'll have a hard time keeping from answering that post bugle when it blows every morning, but I guess I'll get used to having nothing to do but rest," he declared.

Col. E. C. Wilbourn, commanding officer of the Twelfth Cavalry, presented a gold watch to Sgt. Bebon on behalf of Troop C.

Col. E. Wilbourn, commanding officer of the 12th Cavalry at Fort Brown, is shown presenting a gold watch to First Sergeant Frank Bebon, retired, given to Bebon by members of Troop C. Bebon had served 30 years with the cavalry. At left in civilian clothes is First Sergeant Fred C. Baum of Mercedes, who gave Bebon his first recruit drill when he enlisted at Fort Sam Houston. Also shown in the picture are Major Henry L. Kennison, commanding officer of the First Squadron, and First Sergeant Charles Wells.

WOMAN BALKS CAR'S THEFT

Man Leaps Clear As Car Gains Speed

McALLEN— A McAllen woman nipped in the bud what city police believed was an attempted car theft early Friday evening.

After driving her auto in the garage, the Maple Avenue resident went into the house to return a few minutes later to drive downtown.

When she had driven about two blocks from her home down south on Main Street, a man kicked the front seat over and leaped from the car, she told police.

Police were unable to waylay the man whose description the woman gave them.

State Balance High In Spite Of Deficit

AUSTIN—(AP)—Despite a deficit of more than $30,000,000 in two funds, the state had an over-all balance of slightly over $18,000,000 in its treasury October 31, the comptroller's department reported Saturday.

Funds with deficits were general revenue with $22,226,603 and Confederate pension with $2,155,945. Accounts with cash balances totaled $48,470,391.

Gen. Avila Camacho Abandons U. S. Trip

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—Gen. Manuel Avila Camacho, president-elect of Mexico, said he would not be able to make a trip to the United States because of lack of time. He said he had planned the trip for rest and recreation.

NEW HIDALGO JURY CALLED

Panel Will Meet At Edinburg Monday

EDINBURG — Hidalgo county's new grand jury will be impaneled by Criminal District Judge Bryce Ferguson Monday morning, District Attorney Tom Hartley announced Saturday.

Thus far, the prosecutor said, his office has only one minor burglary case to present to the jury, but the panel will remain on hand through December to handle any cases that may develop to the first of the year. The grand jury which ended its work last week cleared up all cases pending at that time, Hartley said.

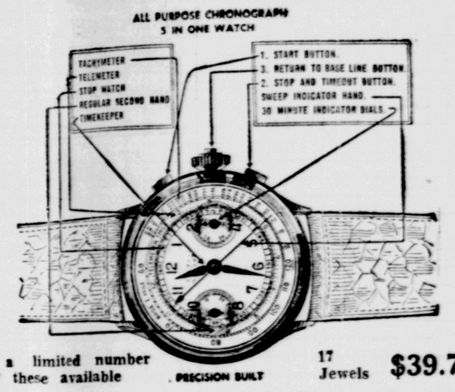

The 12 talesmen will be chosen from the following 16, who were named by the jury commission last week: Judson Friday, Weslaco; W. E. Baden, Pharr; Amador Rodriguez, Edinburg; U. J. Boehnke, San Juan; A. L. Cramer, Elsa; Ross Carter, Edinburg; H. E. Whittenburg, McAllen; T. B. Ewing, Mercedes; Edmundo Cavazos, Edinburg; A. F. Volz, Mission; Ralph E. Deer, McAllen; W. M. Bell, Donna; E. O. Clark, Pharr; S. T. Tillson, Mission; A. G. McHenry, Edinburg, and F. M. Duncan, Mission.

Italy Says Only 'Peace By Sword' Now Possible

RUSHES CRACK TROOPS INTO FRONT LINES

Desperato Air Force Also Used

By The Associated Press

ROME—The Italians sent their crack "desperato" squadron of bombers and fighters against Greece Saturday, planting bombs from shore to shore of the invaded kingdom, and said the only peace the Greeks would get from them would be by the sword.

"Italy has no intention of entering into peace negotiations with Greece," an authoritative source said. "The Greek rejection of our ultimatum set the Italian military machine in motion. It will proceed to deal with the situation."

Pinchers Close In

The high command reported that an Italian land pinchers was closing on the strategic northwestern base town of Ioannina (Janina), both from the Kalamas River Valley on the northwest of the town and from the Pindos (Pindus) heights on the northeast, which reach elevations above 7,000 feet.

Unofficially it has been said these columns have penetrated the "Metaxas Line" of light fortifications which are especially thick in the Kalanas Valley.

From this valley to the Quays of Salonika, Crete, Corfu and Patras the Italian bombers blasted away with explosive and incendiary bombs, ton upon ton of them.

Suicide Squadron Used

The "desperato" or suicide squadron, which Count Ciano, the Italian foreign minister, led in Ethiopia, struck at the naval base of Salonika on the Aegean. The Stefani agency said the first raid, Friday, left the fortified zone devastated, the planes smashing and firing barracks, supply dumps, reservoirs and other military and naval objectives.

There were rumors that Ciano himself flew a plane in one of the two waves, but this was not confirmed. Ciano was, however, promoted to an air force lieut.-colonel Rome announced.

Dive bombers lunged at Patras, third largest Greek port, dropping bombs on the docks where troops were being loaded onto ships. The Corinth Canal, within the steep walls of which small warships and troop transports take a short cut from Athens to Corfu and other points in western Greece, was reported damaged.

Bomb Landing Troops

Other planes, the high command said, bombed troops (perhaps British) who were disembarking from ships Friday at the Island of Crete. Ships, port facilities and stores were said to have been damaged.

'But Please Vote!'

Between now and November 5 you'll be urged to vote—regardless of your political philosophy. Braniff Airways, contributing to the cause of a record poll, is urging its passengers to vote. In its airliners and in its offices the word is "Be sure to vote November 5" or "Fly home to vote on November 5." Braniff Hostess Miss Ona Ready is shown in the cabin of a 21-passenger Super B-Liner pointing out the message to her passengers.

MARSH PINKS SELL HIGHER

$2.21 Average Seen In U. S. Markets

WESLACO—A difference of 47 cents a box in the prices received for Marsh seedless and Marsh pink grapefruit during the past week is revealed in figures completed by the Federal-State Market News Service here.

The average for Valley Marsh seedless grapefruit the past week was only $1.74 per box while Marsh pinks averaged $2.21 per box. That the volume of pink grapefruit has grown considerably is shown by the fact that 34,173 boxes of white fruit were offered on the auction markets and 16,769 boxes of pink fruit.

Both white and pink Valley fruit again outsold Florida fruit on the markets. The Florida average for 71,983 boxes of white grapefruit was $1.66 and the average for 1,401 boxes of pink grapefruit was $1.78 so that Texas white Marsh brought almost as much as Florida pink.

Track holdings of grapefruit in 16 principal markets Saturday totalled 119 cars of grapefruit, 411 of oranges and 15 of mixed citrus.

Texas shipments as of Saturday totalled 3,284 cars as compared to 2,649 as of even date last season while Florida had shipped 2,950 compared to 6,395 to the same date in 1939.

Project Asked

McAllen Seeks Work On Airport

McALLEN—An application for a WPA project for the McAllen Municipal Airport was forwarded to Austin Saturday by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce.

The briefs were prepared by chamber officials and maps were made from surveyor's drawings by Mrs. Bess Dunlavey.

The brief, signed by Mayor Horace Etchison, City Secretary C. D. Martin and City Airport Chairman John Boeye call for immediate limit markers for the field, some clearing on the 88.96 acres donated by S. L. Miller and later construction of additional hangars and an administration building. Airport Manager Walter Fullwood assisted the chamber in compiling the data.

The Greeks Have A Word For It

How To Pronounce New Words In News

By FRANK COLBY

The Greco-Italic scrimmage has introduced a number of new and exotic place-names into the current Blitzkrieg vocabulary, and, as was the case when the Stukas roared over Europe, most of our commentators and newscasters are badly fumbling the pronouncing ball.

AEGEAN: Strategic sea between Greece and Turkey. Do not say "AY-jee-un." The first syllable rhymes with see, and the second syllable receives the accent: ee-JEE-un.

CRETE: Important island in the Mediterranean off the south coast of Greece. Not "krait" to rhyme with great, nor "kree-tee" to rhyme with meaty. The correct rhyme is with street, as: KREET.

CORFU: Ionian island off northwest Greece. Do not say "KAWR-few." The second syllable is accented and rhymes with boo! Correct pronounciation: kawr-FOO.

DODECANESE: Tewlve islands in the Aegean Sea. Do not refer to this group as the "DOE-duh-kuh-NEEZ." Accent the second and fourth syllables: doe-DEK-uh-NEESS.

The islands are: Sporades (SPAWR - uh - deez); Calchi (KAHL-kee); Calino (kah-LEE-noe); Caso (Kah-soe) Coo (koe) Lero (Lay-roe); Lipso (LIP-soe); Nisiro (NEE-see-roe); Patmo (PAHT-moe); Piscopi PEES-koe - pee); Scarpanto (SKAHR-pahn-toe); Simi (SEE-mee); Stampalia (STAHM-pah-LEE-ah).

METAXAS: Premier of Greece. Not "muh-TAX-iss." The first syllable is like the word may; the third syllable has the "ah" sound, as: may-TAX-ahss. Note: The premier's first name is NOT John, but Ioannis, pronounced: EE-oh-AH-neess.

SALONIKA: Large city in northeast Greece. Do not say "suh-LON-i-kuh." Accent the first and third syllables: SAH-loe-NEE-kah.

(Capitals indicate syllables to be accented.)

US Draftees Now 21 Since Registration Awaiting FD's Call

HARLINGEN—Men becoming 21 years of age since October 16, draft registration day, need not register until the President issues another proclamation, the local draft board has been advised by state officials.

A number of persons are under the impression that they must register as soon as they become 21 years old but this is not so, Ralph Ormesher, clerk for the Harlingen draft board, said Saturday.

There are now 3,441 registrants in commissioner's precinct No. 4 and the official lists of order numbers is expected early in the week, having been mailed to the state boards from Washington Thursday.

Play Rehearsals

'Safety First' Set For San Benito

SAN BENITO—Rehearsals are under way for the play "Safety First" to be presented at the high school November 19 under the sponshorship of the San Benito chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Miss Margaret Conrardy is directing and those in the cast include Mrs. Charles Bowie, Mrs. James D. Casey, Miss Jane Bohner, J. B. Mack, Dr. E. L. Sullivan, Ray Reed, Bud Bohner, and H. J. Glasscock.

Part of the proceeds from this entertainment will be donated to the San Benito Library Building fund.

London Papers Are Watching Race For President Of U. S.

LONDON — (AP) — News of the United States presidential campaign competed Saturday with war Communiques for the attention of a British public eagerly watching the politics of a nation to which they look for planes and guns.

Although British commentators frequently say "no matter which side wins ti's all right for us," the press features news of the campaign second only to war developments.

A prominent headline in the London Chronicle informed its readers that "odds on Roosevelt are now 5 to 4," while a Daily Mail head said: "Roosevelt and Willkie neck and neck."

Mexico Now Issues Tourist Passports

RIO RICO, Mexico—Valley residents who have not yet obtained their identification cards may do so within the next 90 days although no one may now enter Mexico without one, according to Joe Ortega, proprietor of Joe's Place.

It is necessary to bring along two photographs to obtain the identification cards. Pictures of the snapshot type will not do but passport pictures are easily obtainable in most Valley towns, it was said.

Teachers Injured In Wreck At Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH— (AP) —Five victims, including three Corsicana school teachers, injured late Friday in an automobile collision on Highway 34 about three miles from Fort Worth, remained under treatment in hospitals here Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Ruth Inman, who sustained a skull injury and a nose fracture, appeared to be the most seriously hurt. Misses Fay Quinley and Carrie Berry suffered head cuts and bruises.

Raymondville's Baptists Honor W. A. Addingtons

RAYMONDVILLE—As an expression of appreciation and affectionate regard for Mr. and Mrs. William A. Addington, the First Baptist church of Raymondville, has dedicated a room at the Valley Baptist Hospital in their honor. The plaque reads: "Dedicated to William and Cora Addington by the First Baptist Church of Raymondville."

The formal opening will be on Sunday, November 9, from 4 to 5 p. m., with several members of the church receiving.

Addington has been an active member of the board of deacons for 16 years. He was a teacher in the Sunday school for 12 years or more and has served as superintendent of the Sunday school also.

Mrs. Addington has served as president of the Woman's Missionary Union and has been active in other departments of the church.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Addington have contributed generously to both the spiritual and material up-building of the church, and the members "took this way to express something of their gratitude to them," spokesmen said.

Mr. and Mrs. Addington came to the Rio Grande Valley in September, 1924, from Smithville, Mississippi. They have two sons, both well known in the Valley; Stanley, noted baritone of Texas and chairman of music for Texas-Oklahoma district of Kiwanis International, and James of Cuero, who is a geologist.

TOURIST MEET IS SCHEDULED

McAllen Activity To Get Under Way

McALLEN—The McAllen tourist entertainment season will begin Thursday when the first party of the year is held at 2 p.m. at the community hall at the Samson trailer park. The second meeting will be at Cockrum's A.B.C. camp and the third at Steele's.

William G. Olson, president of the McAllen Tourist association, expressed his thanks to owners of the three parks for extending the use of their community halls to the tourist club until the new annex is finished at the McAllen Chamber of Commerce building.

After a brief program Thursday, the meeting will be thrown open for short talks by the tourists and complete announcements will be made concerning regular club meetings and special programs for the year.

All tourists or winter visitors in McAllen or this vicinity were invited to attend the meeting.

Indies Envoy Hints At Jap-Java Accord

TOKYO —(AP)— Ichizo Kobayashi, special Japanese envoy to the Dutch East Indies, asserted Saturday on his return here from Batavia, Java, that a "certain understanding" had been reached in discussions by which Japan seeks to obtain East Indian Oil.

He added, however, that there was "no final conclusion."

The total value of petroleum and its products shipped to foreign countries in 1939 was $386,535,668, or the equivalent of 12.4 per cent of all United States merchandise exports that year.

Miners Ask Lewis To Quit If FD Wins

WALSENBURG, Colo.—(AP)—In a newspaper advertisement, three Huerfano county locals of the United Mine Workers of America called upon John L. Lewis to quit as national president of the mine workers as well as resign as CIO chairman if President Roosevelt is re-elected.

Huerfano county is one of Colorado's largest coal producing counties. The numbers of members in the three locals was not stated.

Jap Minister Can't Dope US Withdrawal

TOKYO— (AP) —Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka Saturday declared himself "utterly at a loss" to explain what caused withdrawal of American nationals from the Far East and expressed lack of concern over who is elected president.

Matsuoka said his statement was issued in answer to "innumerable questions" asked him concerning the election.

Harry Bridges Backs Lewis' Bolt To GOP

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Declaring himself "100 per cent in support of John L. Lewis on everything he said," Harry Bridges asserted Friday night that the re-election of President Roosevelt would mean a severe blow at the labor movement and a sure step toward war.

"Support of President Roosevelt," he told 700 members of the CIO industrial union council, "is one of the most foolish things a working man or woman can contemplate."

No Tires May Force 1908 Mason To Quit

HUMANSVILLE, Mo. —(AP)—Burrell Hughes is in the two-car class, but not for much longer. He's going to have to quit riding in his 1908 Mason—the tires are worn thin and no one makes them that size anymore.

Trainer Of Animals Is 'Carnegie Hero'

PITTSBURGH— (AP) —An animal trainer who saved the life of a man attacked by four untrained lions was one of 25 persons sent medals by the Carnegie hero fund commission Saturday in recognition of heroic acts.

The trainer, Joseph R. Arcaris, 31, of Nashua, N. H., went to the rescue of Chester Czaja, a caretaker, after the lions sprang upon Czaja in an enclosure at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., last February 9.

Swiss Ban Talk On Higher Food Prices

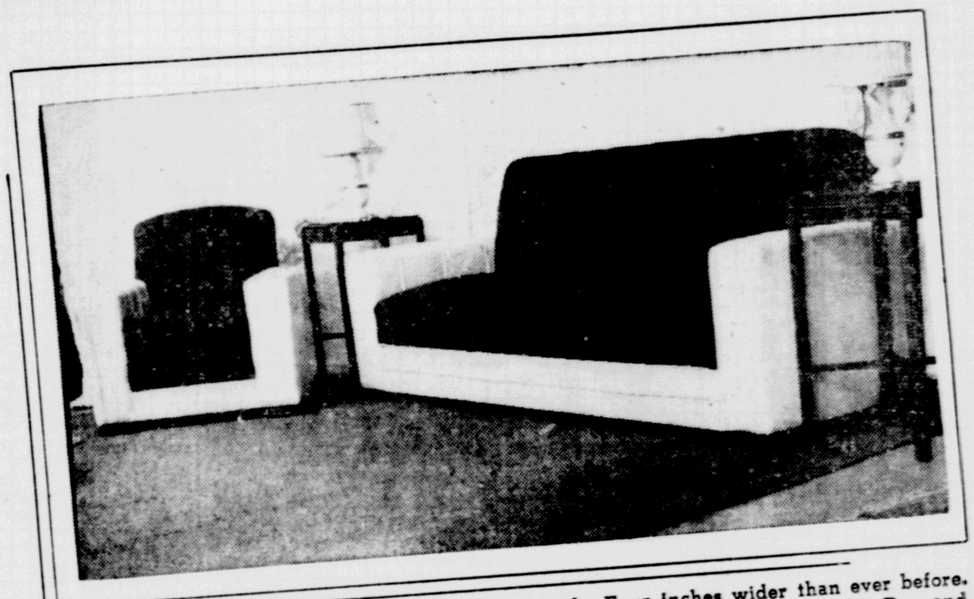

BERN, Switzerland — (AP) — The Swiss department of economics forbade mention of price increases or shortages of merchandise in newspapers, letters or by word of mouth which might lead to excessive purchases.

Willkie Winner In Club's Straw Vote

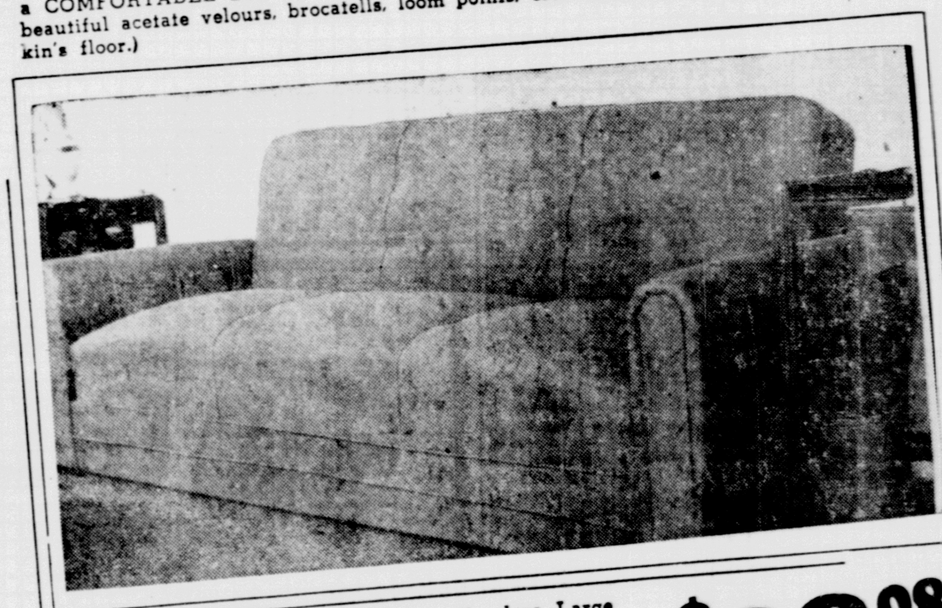

SHARYLAND—In a "straw vote" taken Friday night by members of the North Sharyland Club, Wendell Willkie received 24 votes and Franklin Roosevelt six. The meeting was held at the Wimodausis Clubhouse on Shary Boulevard.

Interpreting The War News

British Get Stronger

Invasion Of Greece Gives Them Foothold On Continent Again; War 427 Days Old Now

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

The second world war was only 427 days old as October ended, but it already has carved a grisly trail of destruction and disaster across continental Europe unmatched in recorded history.

Nation after nation has succumbed to force or threats; some have lost their national identity. More than one hundred million dwellers on that continent have been brought under the domination of alien masters. Half a million square miles of territory are under alien flags.

Yet the essential fact of the war at this time is that Britain's island fortress remains unconquered, and the bulldog grip of the British navy remains unbroken on all the deep-seas that wash the shores of tragic Europe.

Nazi-Fascist expectancy of a short war is a shattered dream after 14 months of conflict. And while Britain endures, the Axis-mapped new order in Europe remains also an unrealized dream.

Menace To Axis

There is a deadly menace for the Axis in the long war for which the European stage is being reset. Britain has still to reap the full benefit of her seapower, still to attain the peak of her war effort.

Victory slipped from the grasp of Imperial Germany in 1914 at the Marne. It may have just been missed by Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy at the English Channel in 1940. The Axis partners are urgently seeking means to offset in the east the deadlock that confronts them in the west.

That has brought little Greece into peril of a fate similar to that suffered by upward of a dozen other continental nations and peoples since Germany struck at Poland on September 1, 1949.

Really Aids Britain

Yet that fresh Axis aggression, whatever its ultimate strategic meaning, has done something else. It has given Britain footholds at the back door of the continent to carry the war to her foes. Four months ago with British evacuation of Narvik and Dunkerque she had been driven completely from the mainland of Europe.

British bombing of Naples in southern Italy indicates that it is an offensive, not a defensive role, which Britain will attempt in the east.

British planes may have hopped to that target from airplane carriers in the Mediterranean, or from bases on Crete or other Greek islands. From Crete, Naples is within easy bombing distance.

'SOUP BOWL' TILT SLATED

Service Club Elevens Spruce For Classic

BROWNSVILLE—Tickets are on sale for the classic of the century, the "Soup Bowl" football game to be held at Tucker Field December 6 with the Brownsville Kiwanis Club opposing the Brownsville Lions in a rough-house exhibition of how not to play football.

California may have its Rose Bowl, Florida may have its Orange Bowl, but these are nothing compared to the "Soup Bowl," which was inaugurated in 1937.

Lions Won Then

The roaring Lions won that contest, 6 to 0, in a drizzling rain in the final minute of play.

Both teams came out of the game looking like the wreck of the old '97 and were forced to take a three-year layoff to recuperate and scout new grid talent.

But now they're ready to go again with new faces in their lineups and new hopes in their hearts.

For Good Cause

Ducats will cost $1, but it's for a plenty good cause—the Brownsville Band Boosters fund.

In appreciation for the interest shown in them by the local service clubs, the Brownsville high school band members have agreed to play a concert at the field on game night.

Clarence Colgin, president of the Kiwanis Club, started the ball rolling by purchasing the first ticket, and since that time the ducats are "going like hot cakes," according to George McGonigle, ticket sales chairman.

Air Corps Jobs

Civil Service Wants Inspectors Now

HARLINGEN—More procurement inspectors are needed at the Air Corps, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, for the following branches of inspection: aircraft, engines, instruments, parachutes, aircraft propellers, and tools and gauges.

The Civil Service Commission has been seeking experienced men for these jobs but it announces that a new type of position has just been added to those to be filled, that of junior procurement inspector, $1,620 a year. The upper grades pay from $2,000 to $2,600 a year, all salaries subject to three and one-half per cent deduction for retirement annuity.

Applicants will not be given a written test. They will be rated on their education and experience as shown in their applications, subject to verification by the Commission. The work is an important part of the national defense program. Apply for details to the secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, or to any first or second class post office.

Tear Gas Is Used To Break Up Big Rally

MADISON, Wis.—(AP)—Police used tear gas to break up a University of Wisconsin homecoming demonstration during which an estimated 8,000 persons created bedlam for two hours on State Street and Capitol Square.

Thirty-four persons were taken into custody but most of them were released later. Thirteen university and high school students were ordered to report to superior court on charges of disorderly conduct and vandalism.

Coy Is Re-Arrested In Bad Check Case

EDINBURG — Charlie Coy, Hidalgo county rancher, was free on bond of $250 Saturday after being re-arrested on a charge of swindling with a worthless check.

His trial on the charge got under way Friday, but the court quashed the complaint when the latter was found to be faulty. A new complaint was shown out and Coy again was placed under arrest. No date for his new trial has been set in county court.

The charge grew out of Coy's alleged payment for three calves with a $35 check.

NOV. 11 FETE OPENS MONDAY

San Benito Schools Hear 8 Talks

SAN BENITO—Patriotic addresses in eight schools in this area initiates Monday the program of the Sixth Annual Armistic Week Celebration arranged by the American Legion, Sam Jackson post 111, which slates a full week of activities to be climaxed November 11 with a colorful parade, services at the stadium, joint service club luncheon and finals of the model plane contest.

Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor University and former Governor of Texas, is the principal speaker at the special service November 10 at the First Baptist church and at the Armistice program at the stadium Monday.

Monday Program

School addresses Monday will be presented by Grady St. Clair, superintendent of San Benito school, at Villa Nueva, Encantada, La Paloma, Landrum and that afternoon at Los Indios, Santa Maria, Rangerville and Highland. Roswell J. Bohner will talk at five schools Tuesday and Ralph T. Agar, John Prentiss and Roy A. Brink will continue the school program Wednesday.

Another attraction this week sponsored by the legion are the Santa Fe shows which will play all week on the San Benito-Brownsville highway across from the American Legion hall.

Stag Party

Thursday night the annual stag party will be held at the hall under the direction of James D. Ward and J. E. McAnally. The barbecue features a "floor show and entertainment de luxe" as listed on the program.

Saturday's events include a "traffic lane" staged by the Cameron County 40 and 8 and fines collected will go to the voiture's child welfare program. James Ward has been named "Judge" of the Roy Bean court by Chef de Gare Harry Harris. Court will be held again Monday. Also on this day the preliminary trials of the model plane contest to be conducted under the rules of the National Aeronautic Association will be held at 2 p.m. at the municipal airport with Garver Murray of Harlingen in charge.

Officials Listed

Dr E. O. Seiser is general chairman of the week's celebration and committee chairmen are: W. J. Harris, parade; J. W. Spradley, R. B. Temple, and B. A. Epstein, decorations and finance; J. D. Ward and J. E. McAnally, stag party; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson, entertainment and reception; John Prentiss, special Sunday service; Harry Carroll, service clubs luncheon; J. C. Hall, drum and bugle corps and bands; Floyd S. Worth, school program; J. D. Denson, speakers stand; Lieut. Col. H. M. Carroll, Capt. F. S. Worth, Capt. Lew Williams, reception of visiting Army Units; Zipper Lee, parade marshall, and I. V. Jolly, model plane contest.

Minimum Price

Group Set To Study Law For Citrus

MERCEDES — Committees were named by Texas Citriculture Institute, Inc., at a meeting here Friday night to confer Monday on definite plans for a legislative program which may include a proposed new law for placing a minimum price to the grower for citrus fruits.

Some discussion was had at the Friday night meeting at the city hall which was attended by growers from various parts of the Valley but no decision was reached. Price fixing has been in the minds of some members since the early season decline in the market for citrus fruits.

A number of new directors were elected at the meeting including Mrs. Jim Ragland of Mission, Mrs. W. A. Wulf of San Juan, M. Heinzelman of Edinburg, Bert Matteson of Donna, C. A. Barnes of McAllen, and Dr. Frank Smith of San Benito.

Funeral Set Sunday For Father of Solon

EASTLAND—(AP)—Funeral services will be held here Sunday for G. A. Davisson, Sr., 56, father of G. A. Davisson, Jr., former legislator from the 106th district and former candidate for state senator and lieutenant governor.

Davisson, a road contractor and oil operator, died here Friday night.

Kensington Palace Is Admitted Bombed

LONDON —(AP)— Kensington Palace, where Queen Victoria was born in 1819, has been damaged by incendiary bombs. Authorities permitted publication of this fact Saturday, but said there were no casualties.

The brick structure, on Kensington Gardens, was a royal residence from 1691 until 1760. Portions of it have been opened to the public since the time of Queen Victoria.

Heaviest Of Italian Raids Is Reported

NEW YORK —(AP)— The Rome radio reported Saturday that 100 Italian bombers carried out the heaviest raid of the war on Malta, striking at both the British naval base and the airport of Miccabba.

Donna People To Get FDR Buttons

EDINBURG—If there are 500 residents of Donna who wish to wear Roosevelt campaign buttons—they'll get the opportunity.

A Roosevelt supporter from that city arrived here Saturday and asked county leaders in the Roosevelt campaign for a supply of the buttons. His request was granted instanter. They handed him a box containing the 500.

Navy Selects Yards To Make Over Ships

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The navy disclosed Saturday the yards to which would be assigned for conversion most of the merchant vessels acquired from the Maritime Commission and private owners since July 1 for use as naval auxiliaries.

In some cases conversion yards have not yet been selected. Officials declined to disclose when the work would be done, or the cost involved.

WESLACO SETS BAND CONCERT

First Of Season To Be Free Sunday

WESLACO—The Weslaco high school band will give its first concert of the season in Stephen F. Austin school auditorium at 4 p.m. Sunday. It will be free to the public, according to William Krauledat, band director.

A program with a varied appeal has been arranged. A feature will be a cornet solo, "Willow Echoes" by Doyle Betts with band accompaniment. Betts has played a cornet for six years and is a senior in the band.

The band has several assistant directors and on this program will be presented Billy Lee, who will conduct two numbers. Billy also is a senior band member and plays solo clarinet.

Sheppard In Favor Of FD Re-Election

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Sheppard (D-Tex) declared that any second-term president would have been elected to a third term and would have accepted had an international situation comparable to the present existed at the end of their second terms.

The veteran legislator, chairman of the military affairs committee, expressed his view in a prepared statement made public just before he left for his home in Texarkana by automobile to "vote for Roosevelt and Wallace."

CROWD OUSTS GOP SPEAKER

Campaigner Chased Out Of Carthage

CARTHAGE, Tex. —(AP)— Neal Estes, Carthage newspaper publisher, said a crowd of 150 persons Saturday refused to permit a campaigner for Wendell Willkie to complete a speech he started on the courthouse square.

A group of men dismantled sound equipment over which A. M. Davis of Houston was speaking, placed it in Davis' automobile and suggested he leave town, Estes said, adding that Davis was told "this is a Roosevelt county."

Red Cross Campaign Discussion Monday

SAN BENITO—Invitations have been extended to about 70 San Benitans to attend a dinner at 7 p.m. Monday at the Stonewall Jackson hotel as guests of the local Red Cross Roll Call drive committee of which Rudy Bendixen is chairman. Plans for the membership drive to be staged November 14 will be discussed.

Four Are Tried In Courts At McAllen

McALLEN—Fined in city court Saturday morning were Jesus Adame, B. Villarreal and Ceferino Loza, $5 each, on a drunk charge.

Justice of the Peace T. J. Powell fined Hobert Rachel $10 on a speeding charge filed by State Highway Patrolman J. H. Hollyfield.

Harlingen Movie

Sixshooter Junction Is Filmed Here

HARLINGEN — Shooting of the scenes for "Sixshooter Junction," movie short presenting members of the Lower Valley's Little Theatre will be postponed one week because of the absence of E. N. Loeb, script writer who has been called to Chicago by the death of his mother.

November 10 is the new date set for making movie records of street scenes representing early Harlingen. Much research has been carried out to duplicate street scenes from photographs made of Harlingen when it was first settled.

Leaders in the project are interested in obtaining a typical old-time water cart formed of a barrel mounted on two wheels and drawn by a burro. Anyone knowing where such a vehicle may be found in Cameron county is asked to notify Charlie Holbrook, or other members of the Little Theatre, or the chamber of commerce.

Sunday Service Set At Baptist Church

HARLINGEN — Rev. E. Douglas Carver, pastor will speak on "The Cure For A Sin-Sick World" at the Sunday morning service, beginning at 10:55 a.m., at the First Baptist Church here.

Foster Tebbe at the organ will play prelude "Salve Domine," and the offertory will be Chopin's Nocturne. Anthem will be "Strike The Cymbal." by Schubert.

Rev. Carver will preach on "Overcoming Difficulties," at the Sunday evening service, which will also be featured by two vocal selections by the male quartet. Anthem will be "Face To Face," Fuller, and the offertory by Dvorak.

Thwart Nazis Trying To Take Greenland

NEW YORK—(AP)—A German-language broadcast by the British Broadcasting Corporation said a German expedition of 50 men had been captured in an unsuccessful attempt to seize the meteorological observation station at Greenland. The Norwegian patrol boat Fritjof Nansen made them prisoners, it said.

The broadcast was heard by CBS in New York.

Bank Building Jinx For These Voters

FAYETTE CITY, Pa.—(AP)—Some 50 persons asked the Fayette county court to prevent transfer of next Tuesday's polling place from the Borough Building to quarters once occupied by a bank.

"A lot of people lost money in the bank and they won't go near it again—not even to vote," said Pat F. Hynes, one of the petitioners.

Two Boys From Idaho Ride Bicycles To Valley

Hitch-Hiking Far Cheaper, They Discover

HARLINGEN—It's a long, long way to the Valley from Twin Falls, Idaho, and a couple of young men were in town Saturday as proof of the fact.

Ray Jacobs, 24, of Rolla, Mo.; and Ralph Todd, 21, of Helenville, Wisc., pedalled all the way to the sunshiny Valley from Idaho to spend the winter working.

It took them just 14 days and three hours to make it to Harlingen and that counts a lot of time that they caught rides in the more than 2000-mile trip.

Usually they rented cabins overnight and paid for their meals, but one night they slept out and another they rode all night.

"It costs more to travel on a bicycle than any other way," Jacobs said here Saturday. "By the time you figure the miles you make each day and the cost of food and lodging, it is cheaper to hitch hike."

The minimum the boys made while riding on the bikes was around 125 miles daily, but when they got rides from trucks or pickups they managed to hike the ante quite some.

They are working for O. T. Burns, 505 North First, now and think they'll head back north after winter passes.

Sierra Trail Signs Mark Goldrush Days

AUBURN, Calif.—(AP)—Twenty-two miles of trail over the high Sierras, used by emigrant trains of the gold rush days, has been marked with signs. Since most of the route is obscured by forest, diaries and other records owned by pioneer families were used for guides.

GOP VOTERS' BUREAUS SET

Hidalgo Tells How Ballots Marked

MISSION — Voters information bureaus will be set up in each precinct of Hidalgo county, it was planned at the luncheon session of the Republican Women's club of the county, held at McAllen Thursday. Robert N. Clarke, county Republican chairman, was one of the program speakers and outlined plans for the respective bureaus. Voters who wish to cast their ballots for Willkie, yet vote for Democratic nominees in state and county contests will be given information how to mark their ballots.

An information booth in the Mission precinct was set up Saturday afternoon in the alcove entrance of the Mission Times. Mrs. Rosette and Mrs. Hebet Marcell are in charge. The booth will be kept open Monday and Tuesday also.

Other units in the county have planned similar information bureaus, to be kept open through Tuesday.

At Thursday's meeting, Jason Matthews, McAllen author, was one of the principal speakers outlining arguments against the third term. Mrs. Beatrice Frase, Republican committee woman, was another speaker. Musical numbers were presented by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stevens, McAllen. Forty women attended the session.

Definite plans for continuing the monthly meetings of the club have been made. Mrs. Rosette announced. Meetings will be held each third Thursday, possibly in the afternoon. Women interested in studying government affairs are invited to join. Meeting time and place for the November session will be announced at an early date.

Flag Signals Show City Safety Record

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Accident prevention police will remind Miamians of their daily safety record with a set of flags raised at a downtown intersection.

A flag showing a green cross within a green circle will denote a day with no injuries or deaths from motor accidents.

Mayor Has A Flair For Detective Work

HAMPTON, Va.—(AP)—Mayor J. V. Bickford answered his telephone and a voice told him the party calling was Mayor Earl B. Horner, of Burlington, N. C., who would like Mayor Bickford to identify him at a local bank to have a check cashed.

Acting on a hunch Bickford called Mayor Horner on the telephone—and found him presiding at a council session in Burlington. Two detectives instead of the mayor called to "identify" the telephone caller.

Crash Victim Turns Disaster To Profit

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Opportunity didn't stop at knocking—it turned over a truck on Fairlie L. Rachael of Laurel Hill, N. C. Rachael was driving a load of watermelons when the truck overturned. He crawled out unhurt, stuck a "Watermelons For Sale" sign on the upset truck and did a brisk business with the curious who stopped to see the wreck.

The Texas Predatory Animal Control Association reports taking 14,191 coyotes, 2,086 bobcats and 18 mountain lions in the fiscal year ending June 30. This represented a decrease of 1,622 coyotes, 171 bobcats, and four lions under the preceding year.

Bike Mishap Fatal

JACKSONVILLE —(AP)— Lloyd Simpson, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Simpson, was killed Saturday when his bicycle and a car crashed.

The South Plains, best known for cotton and livestock, ships 2,500,000 dozen of eggs annually from Lubbock alone. Almost 5,000,000 pounds of butter also is manufactured yearly at Lubbock, and 3,000,000 pounds of poultry dressed.

WPA'S VALLEY WORK RECITED

663 Miles Of Roads Built In 5 Years

HARLINGEN—Fifty-seven miles of highway roads and streets were constructed or improved by WPA labor in Cameron county during the past five fiscal years, according to figures released Saturday from the Laredo district office.

Two new bridges were built, 16 bridges reconstructed, 75 culverts installed or improved, 22 public buildings improved, one stadium and one utility plant built and improved.

In Hidalgo county 155 miles of highway or roads have been built, as compared to 348 miles in Starr and 103 miles in Willacy. One new bridge was built and three reconstructed in Hidalgo county. Eighteen culverts were installed or improved. Two public buildings were constructed, four improved, one stadium and two utility plants improved.

Starr county had 431 culverts installed or improved by the WPA, three public buildings and two utility plants. Willacy got one new bridge and one culvert.

HIDALGO FOOD STAMP WORK SET TO START

Three Offices Will Be Open Monday

EDINBURG—More than 150 grocery stores in Hidalgo County will participate in the "federal food stamp plan" which opens officially Monday morning, James Walsh, county welfare organizer, said Saturady.

Persons eligible to participate in the program may purchase food stamps at any of the three offices established over the county. The central office is located in the courthouse annex in Edinburg under the immediate supervision Herbert Carter. Sub-issuing stamp offices located at 12 South Fifteenth Street at McAllen under the direction of Ned Brown, cashier, and the Travelers hotel building at Weslaco under the direction of Cecil Boone, cashier.

To Get Free Stamps

For each $1 worth of orange stamps bought, the purchaser receives 50 cents worth of blue stamps free The stamps are exchanged for food at groceries over the county participating in the program. The grocers redeem the stamps at face value at the office of Travis S. Masterson, area supervisor of the Surplus Marketing Administration, in the Courthouse Annex here.

Purposes of the food stamp plan are to remove surplus food products, the distribution of food to needy persons, and the utilization of established trade channels to increase the business of retailers and wholesalers.

The county department of public welfare must certify each eligible family to the stamp office where a complete account with that family is established and maintained. Each eligible family is given an identification card and provided with necessary information for participation.

Orange stamps may be used to purchase any kind of goods sold by the participating firms, but only designated surplus commodities may be purchased with the blue stamps.

Many Commodities

The surplus commodities designated for the period beginning Nov. 1 by the secretary of agriculture are as follows:

Butter, raisins, rice, pork lard, pork, corn meal, shell eggs, dried prunes, hominy grits, wheat flour and whole wheat (graham), fresh oranges, fresh grapefruit, onions, (except green onions), dry edible beans, fresh cabbage, Irish potatoes, fresh apples and fresh pears. (Pork includes all cuts, fresh, chilled or frozen, pickled, salted, cured or smoked, but not including cooked or packed in metal or glass containers.)

PIONEER DIES AT HARLINGEN

J. F. Hathaway Rites Await Children

HARLINGEN—James F. Hathaway, 79, pioneer Valley farmer and construction contractor once associated with the late Lon C. Hill, died at his Dixieland Road home near here Saturday about 9 p.m. after a long illness.

Funeral service, to be under direction of Stotler-Burdette Mortuary, had not been set late Saturday.

Hathaway was born in California September 10, 1861. He had lived in Texas 62 years, and moved to the Valley 36 years ago from Kerrville.

Hathaway was connected with construction of the Mercedes irrigation canals and with work in other districts, and was associated with Lon C. Hill in construction work around Harlingen. He had also been a gin operator.

Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Nora Hathaway; three sons, B. H. Hathaway, San Antonio; James A. Hathaway, La Feria; Henry H. Hathaway, Uvalde; four daughters, Mrs. Harold Looney, Mrs. Dallas Ingle, Mrs. Crockett Campbell, all of Harlingen, and Mrs. Guy Cunningham, Miami, Okla.; and a brother, A. S. Hathaway, Grenville, N. M.

Deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge.

Fresh Water Well Is Drilled In Bay

HOUSTON —(AP)— A water well, of all things, was drilled five miles out in Galveston bay near Seabrook by the Humble Oil and Refining Company.

The company said it needed the water for boilers, well washing and other uses at a wildcat oil test in the bay

It is easier to drill a well for fresh water than to set up a condenser and extract salt from the bay water.

Leader Breaks Nose At Baton Practice

KEWANEE, Ill. —(AP)— Beverly Busch, baton twirler for the Sons of Legion drum corps, has decided that it's a good policy to keep her nose out of even her own business. Her whirling baton broke her nose while she was practicing to appear at a county fair.

OBITUARY

A. A. WILLIAMS

SAN JUAN—Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday from the Kreidler Funeral Home, McAllen, for Alvin Allen Williams, 80, pioneer Upper Valley resident who died at his home here late Thursday afternoon after an illness of several months.

Pallbearers will be Thornton Thacker, John Tompkins, Paul Reichert, Bill Lemen, W. H. Gossage, and W. G. Rice. Survivors include his wife; one son, M. E. Williams, Adel Iowa; three daughters, Mrs. S. L. Miller of McAllen, Mrs. Banks Miller and Mrs. Clark Mellenbruck of San Juan; two brothers, two sisters and four grandchildren.

Mr. Williams came here 23 years ago. He served on the official board of the People's Church for many years and was treasurer of the San Juan Masonic lodge.

Chicken House Trap For Reckless Hawk

Dog Of Priest Not Exempt From Taxes

FRANKFORT, Ky., —(AP)— A dog owned by a priest is not exempt from a license tax, the Kentucky attorney-general's office has held. A priest, who asked the ruling, contended the dog was the "property of the church" and, therefore, tax exempt.

ADVICE GIVEN ON PASSPORTS

2 Photographs Are Needed At Border

HARLINGEN — Manager Worth Heffner of the Harlingen Chamber of Commerce Saturday announced that Valley residents seeking Mexican passports should take two small photographs with them, and go to the Mexican immigration office on Mexico side of the Rio Grande and obtain their identification cards, but added out-of-Valley residents would have slightly more difficulty.

Out-of-Valley people must have papers or letters proving United States citizenship in order to get the cards, Heffner said, adding that anyone wishing to do so may come to the chamber of commerce office with their proper papers, and receive a letter which they can take to the Mexican immigration office and receive a tourist courtesy card.

Now She Can Knit For Another Fight

BRYAN, Tex.—(AP)—Mrs. W. S. Stuart has aided soldiers from 1861 to 1940. The 86-year-old woman recently turned in to the Red Cross three pairs of woolen gloves she knitted in 10 days, destined for relief to soldiers in Europe.

At the age of eight she helped her father mold bullets for Confederate soldiers, and in the first World war she knitted, sewed, made surgical dressings, and nursed during the influenza epidemic in a Texas camp.

Traffic From Mexico Shows Marked Increase Last Month

BROWNSVILLE — Figures kept on traffic from Mexico into the United States here during October show an increase of more than 1,000 vehicles and approximately 6,000 persons over figures during September, according to A. E. Kraut, deputy collector of United States customs.

A total of 12,430 vehicles and 52,478 people crossed the border into the United States during October here as compared with 11,083 vehicles and 46,697 persons crossing in September.

More aircraft crossed the border during October, but a smaller number of passengers was carried in this bracket during the month, figures show.

Mr. Kraut reported a total of 74 aircraft entering with 661 passengers. September totals were 68 airplanes with 718 passengers.

Automobiles entering totalled 9,493 and carried 21,338 passengers, and 2,603 buses brought 24,492 passengers. A total of 224 other vehicles brought 287 passengers. Thirty-six freight cars entered, and crossings of 5,700 pedestrians were recorded.

Totals for the year since July 1 show crossings of 43,968 vehicles and 177,186 persons.

A total of 1,260 packages of merchandise were examined by customs men here during October, with 673 entries noted and 1,321 export declarations.

VISUAL CLASS WORK STARTS

McAllen To Join New Co-Op Next Year

McALLEN—McAllen high school is expected to join the group of Valley schools who have formed a visual education association for next year, when the school has finished paying for its motion picture projector, Principal A. M. Weir said Saturday.

Weir said it would cosht $300 to join the association, which buys and distributes films. Meanwhile, the McAllen school will use films rented from the University.

The school last spring began purchase of a 16 millimeter utility model projector, using money from the Doghouse Fund. The down payment was $300. Miss Hazel Myers, Doghouse sponsor, said about $30 had been set aside on the $100 remaining to be paid. C. H. Britton Jr., high school student, the past week screened films on Mexico and biological subjects at a meeting of the Thomas A. Edison Science club.

Mission Explosion Causes $200 Damage

MISSION—A defective gas connection on a room heater caused an explosion and damage estimated at $200 Saturday morning at the J. F. Ewers home, 1521 Conway boulevard. Mission Fire Department members called to the scene within a few minutes used the chemical truck apparatus to control the blaze. Damage was confined to curtains, furniture and wall finishes in one room of the home.

Sparing The Horses With New Trailers

DENVER—(AP)—New technique of U. S. Forest Service in patrolling hundreds of thousands of acres of forest lands is to load their horses into trailers and drive on highways as far as possible.

Modern rangers are completing in one or two days trips that used to require a week or more by pack trail. Sometimes in the old days their duties required them to pack along provisions for a month. The new horse trailers are to be used throughout the 107 forest districts.

THREE TRUCKS ARE DAMAGED

Drivers Are Unhurt In Accidents

EDINBURG—Three truck drivers escaped injury in a series of auto accidents in the Edinburg area early Saturday morning, but the mishaps left plenty of damage.

An empty fruit truck driven by Tom Hardy of Vincennes, Ind., crashed into a concrete abutment on the canal which dips beneath Highway 83 a half mile south of Edinburg. Although Hardy was only scratched, his machine was badly damaged.

Lloyd Eli Clark of Edinburg was the driver of a truck which crashed into a telephone pole on East Harriman avenue in east Edinburg, snapping the pole in two and lowering the lines across the avenue. A crew repaired the damage Saturday morning.

Both the Hardy and Clark mishaps occurred about 1:30 a. m., according to County Patrolman Walter Lysinger, who investigated each.

The day's third crash occurred a mile west of Elsa on the highway to Edinburg when a truck whose driver's name was not immediately learned struck a horse owned by C. Gonzalez of Elsa.

VALLEY FLIER IN AIR CRASH

Lloyd Sloan Escapes Hurt In Plane

SHARYLAND—Details of an air crash at the Naval Air Training Base in Pensacola, Fla., were received Saturday by parents of Lloyd Sloan, one of the principals in the crash. Cadet Sloan "bailed out" to safety after the plane in which he was receiving instructions figured in a mid-air crash with another training plane. Both Sloan and his instructor used their parachutes after bailing out at 750 feet altitude while the student and instructor in the second plane were both killed when the plane in which were riding struck the ground.

Messages sent to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sloan, Sharyland, parents of the cadet, told of his safety and of his being cleared of any blame for the accident. News releases from upstate and southern radio stations and newspapers carried news of the crash late Wednesday.

The Sharyland cadet went to Pensacola in August to begin the second phase of his air training after having completed the first period at Ope Locka, Fla., in June. He will be at Pensacola for one year before being sent to San Diego for further training.

Three Escape Injury In Saturday Crash

HARLINGEN — Three persons escaped with minor bruises from an auto-automobile collision at Pletcher's Station on Highway 4 west of here Saturday night.

Sanchez Hernandez, driver of a Model A Ford and James Noblett, La Feria, driving a motorcycle, were cited to appear in Judge Menton Murray's court here Tuesday at 10 a.m., when investigation will be completed. State Patrolman Ben Thomas said Hernandez was turning out of the station onto the highway. Noblett's companion was not identified.

Paging Mr. Johnson Any Johnson Will Do

And all because J. H. Leatherwood, large-scale strawberry grower, says no one can beat a Johnson when it comes to picking berries.

"I had six Johnsons picking for me last year," Leatherwood wrote the state employment office, "and they all were such good pickers that all I want this year are Johnsons, Send me 25 of them."

The employment office rounded up all the Johnsons it could.

Valley Football

With the Rio Grande Valley's 1940 football season turning into the home stretch this week-end, fans are over their jitters regarding the District Class A race and have decided that the Mission Eagles are "in" to all intent sand purposes.

Last Friday night the Eagles removed the Donna Redskins from a deadlock for first place in the district standings by handing them a 40-14 trimming. The victory gave the Eagles four wins against no losses in conference with two district games yet to be played. It will be up to either La Feria or Pharr-San Juan-Alamo or both to knock the Eagles over if any other team in the district is to lay claim to the championship.

The Harlingen Cardinals are leading the pack with two wins and no losses. To go through the South zone of District 16-AA with a clean slate, the Red Birds must win over their two remaining conference opponents, San Benito and Brownsville. McAllen still has San Benito and Edinburg to play; Brownsville must meet Edinburg and Harlingen; and Edinburg has Brownsville and McAllen remaining on their schedule. All of these games have a direct bearing on the race and are certain to be bitterly fought. It is certain that ALL of the Class AA teams cannot win their remaining games but picking the winners will present quite a problem to the "experts" who have discovered that naming the winning teams in Valley high school play is a pretty tough proposition.

Incidentally it would be a good idea for fans to bear in mind that the Edinburg-Brownsville, McAllen-Edinburg and Brownsville-Harlingen games will be thrillers and worth traveling many miles to see. It will be a tough break for those who have to miss seeing any one of them.

The Class B race has settled down to the point where the winner of the Lyford Bulldog-Rio Hondo Bobcat game will wrap up the title. Each has a win over Edcouch-Elsa and no loss has been charged against them.

As this corner predicted before the season got under way, Valley grid fans were in for plenty of fine football. They have had it so far and more is to come before the curtain rings down.

Fireworks Ahead

Thirty-one of 48 football games in the 1940 Southwest Conference schedule have been played, but a lot of fireworks in the strictly family srtuggle are yet to come.

Twelve of the 21 conference games are yet to be played. Three of the 12 are scheduled for next Saturday, when S.M.U. meets Texas A. and M. in Dallas, Arkansas plays Rice in Fayetteville, and Baylor and Texas mix it up at Austin.

Since last summer, grid fans have been pointing out that the Methodists would be the best bet to stop the rampaging Aggies. Whatever this hunch may be worth, it is certain that the Southwest headliner will be played in Dallas next Saturday when these two elevens meet. Coach Matty Bell's boys came close to taking the Farmers in College Station last year, so you can bet that Coach Homer Norton will have his charges primed. Here's where the Eyes of Texas will really be pointing.

Arkansas and Rice have both upset the preseason prognosticators by winning from some good strong teams. Saturday they will be out to upset each other. From the bayous to the Ozarks is quite a jump, and there are those who give the Razorbacks the nod because of this. The record, however, would indicate that the Owls have the power to dispense of the Mountaineers.

In Austin the Longhorns will be out to avenge a 20-to-0 drubbing at the hands of the Baylor Bears in Waco last year. The contest could shed a little light on the chances of the Steers against the Aggies (Baylor having lost to A. and M. 7 to 14.)

The games in Austin and Dallas will be the only ones on Texas soil. While the six other members are engaged in family brawls, T.C.U. will move up to Detroit for the Frogs' final intersectional appearance.

It looks as if Coach Dutch Meyer had caught another hot one in Coach Dutch Dorais' Titans at the University of Detroit. Word comes that the 1940 Titan club is the best in years, and the Frogs — well, they're definitely not that!

ALABAMA 25; KENTUCKY 0

LEXIN(AP)TON, Ky. — (AP) — The mighty Crimson tide of Alabama roared over the University of Kentucky football team 25 to 0 Saturday to give the Kentuckians their first defeat of the year. The bluegrass boys have been tied twice.

Alabama scored twice in the second period and again in the third and fourth. Kentucky never seriously threatened.

GEORGIA 14; AUBURN 13

COLUMBUS, Ga.—(AP)—A hard-fighting Georgia team, which refused to give up, outstayed a last-quarter rally by Auburn Saturday to beat the Tigers, 14-13, before 16,000 spectators.

Ponies Show Fine Display Of Aerials

Power On Ground Is Also Potent

By RAY NEUMANN

AUSTIN, Tex. —(AP)— A baffling blend of power, speed and aerial efficiency gave Southern Methodist University's Mustangs a 21-13 triumph over an University of Texas team here Saturday.

Inaugurating their Southwest Conference schedule, the Methodists held Texas' vaunted ground attack in check but the inspired Longhorns rose to heights to tally twice and stiffened enough to stop other Mustang scoring threats.

All scores were made in the last two periods, the Ponies opening the third period with a touchdown march from their own 21.

A crowd of approximately 25,000 saw Johnnie Clement pass to Dick Miller and then to E. L. Keeton, with the aid of a plunge by Preston Johnston, to place the ball on the Texas 40. Johnston thundered through the line for nine and Clement aerialed to Gus Tunnell for 26. From there Johnston plowed around left end for the tally. He kicked the point.

The kick-off to Texas went out of bounds and from their 35 the Steers got to the 41 with Noble Doss carrying. Doss ripped off five more and two line tries were smeared. Then Pete Layden uncorked a rainbow pass to Jesse Hawthorne who stumbled through several tacklers and, behind good blocking, ran over for the score. Crain's placekick for point was wide.

Shortly thereafter guard Hoyle Simes fell on a Texas fumble on the Longhorns' 34. Clement passed to Ends Bob Maddox and Keeton to the Steer 6 after which Johnston powered through for three and Clement sliced tackle for one. Clement aerialed to Keeton behind the line for the second Pony score and Johnston added the extra point from placement.

Opening the final period on his own 24, R. L. Harkins of Texas hurled two incomplete aerials and then suddenly found Spec Sanders in the clear. Sanders took the pass at a gallop and outran the Methodist secondary to score standing up. On the attempted placekick the ball was fumbled but Sanders grabbed it and dodged through a broken field to add the point.

The Ponies again gained possession of the ball on their own 42 and Clinton McClain plunged for four. Ray Mallouf then aerialed to Tunnell who was nailed on the Steer 43. Kelly Simpson received the next overhead and carried to the Texas 15. On a fake pass, McClain ran over the goal line around right end. Johnston's toe concluded the point getting.

The Methodists got 15 first downs to Texas' two and gained 297 yards by aerials to the Steers' 171.

John Barnum In Mexico Finals

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— Ellsworth Vines, California tennis ace now well on his way to becoming a two-sport star, will meet defending titlist John Barnum of Edinburg, Tex., Sunday in the finals of Mexico's 12th Amateur Golf Championship tourney.

Vines and Barnum shot their way through all competition here Saturday to enter the finals.

Barnum won over a fellow Texan, Jack Tinnin from Dallas, one up Saturday afternoon in his semi-final match.

Vines, driving consistently for 300 yards or better, played the day's great golf. Paired in the other semi-final bracket against Bobby Riegel, Houston titleholder and last year's runner-up here, Vines shot a beautiful 68, four under par for the Mexico City Country Club course.

Riegel scored a 69, and the match was in doubt until Vines' last putt on the 18th green. Sinking the ball from ten feet away, the Californian halved the hole and held his advantage of 1 up.

DUQUESNE 14; MARQUETTE 0

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Scoring in the second and third periods on aerials flung by passing Phil Aswesh, Duquesne University's Dukes handily defeated Marquette University 14 to 0 Saturday before 12,000 on muddy Forbes Field.

WISCONSIN 13; ILLINOIS 6

MADISON, Wis.—(AP)—A 62-yard touchdown pass in the final quarter by Johnny Tennant, fleet Badger back, broke a deadlock and gave Wisconsin a 13 to 6 victory over Illinois in a conference football game before a crowd of 30,000 homecoming fans here Saturday.

Horned Frogs Nose Out Baylor's Bears 14 To 12

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Little Kyle Gillespie returned to gridiron glory here Saturday, slithering through and around Baylor's ponderous Bruins as the spark that once more ignited Texas Christian University's victory fire.

The Horned Frogs won, 14-12, in a thrilling game watched by a crowd of 8,000.

Gillespie, 155-pound quarterback whose trick knee seems at last to have reached the point of supporting him, gamboled 39 yards for one touchdown and set up another with a punt return that put the Frogs on the Baylor 17. Here Logan Ware and Frank Kring combined to smash to the Baylor 6-yard line. Kring got two and Gillespie one, then Kring stepped back and fired a pass over the goal line, the ball settled into the arms of Connie Sparks.

Phil Roach, who Saturday was one of the finest ends ever to cavort at TCU stadium kicked the point—as he had the first one.

It was Roach's sure-footed efforts before the crossbars that paid off. It was Gillespie's all-around good work that put the Frogs in position for Roach to exercise his kicking talents.

By its victory Saturday TCU stayed in the race for the Southwest Conference championship, although it is only a mathematical chance. The Frogs have lost one game.

In the second quarter things picked up with a bang.

Texas Christian got its first touchdown on a lateral from Kring to Sparks to Gillespie that gained 46 yards. Gillespie skipped 39 yards for the counter.

It was a glittering passing attack that brought the Bears their first touchdown.

Big Jack Russell, great Baylor wingman, was on the receiving end of most of the heaves but it was a pitch to Weldon Bigony that set the stage for 210-pound Milton Crain to ram over from the two-yard line.

Baylor scored again early in the fourth quarter with Coleman's fine return of Gillespie's punt to the TCU 25-yard line starting the Bruins to rolling. Jim Witt circled left end for a first down on the TCU 9 and Travis Nelson caught the Frogs flatfooted on a reverse that brought the touchdown. Robert Nelson missed the point.

Firts downs were even but TCU ran up 203 yards rushing and passing to 124 for the Bears.

Texas Aggies Overpower Arkansas Porkers 17-0

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)—Giant John Alec Kimbrough hurtled like a meteor through Arkansas Saturday to shepherd the Texas Aggies to their seventeenth consecutive triumph, 17-0.

The laughing, 222-pound All-America fullback shook a touchdown out of the mountainous Razorbacks midway of the first period with some of his old-fashioned line plowing and then riddled their two boldest aerial attempts with stunning interceptions and runbacks of 47 and 38 yards.

But behind Jarrin' Jawn Saturday was a vicious Aggie line that manufactured break after break with jolting tackles that caused Arkansas to commit five fumbles—all recovered by the Cadets—at quite crucial moments.

On Arkansas' second scrimmage play of the game the Aggies flushed a great break when tackle Chip Routt's vicious block of little Walt Hamberg's attempted quick kick gave Ernie Pannell a chance to recover on the Arkansas 12.

There the Porkers put on a grand defensive show, taking over the ball after Kimbrough's two runs and two passes failed of a score.

But the next break, three minutes later, was an Aggie touchdown. End Boots Simmons jarred the ball from Hamberg's hands on an attempted sweep and guard Marshall Robnett recovered on the Arkansas 17.

Lunging, diving, butting Kimbrough swept straight through the massive Arkansas line for a touchdown on five jolts, the final one from the three. Pugh kicked the point—his ninth straight conversion without a miss this season.

Wild Bill Conatser's 39-yard punt return, and a couple of Marland Jeffrey's passes to Sterling and Henderson, both lateraled off to Kimbrough, carried the Aggies to the Arkansas seven early in the third period, but Arkansas held.

From the 22-yard line, and at a difficult angle, sophomore Jake Webster kicked a field goal, while Jim Thomason held.

Two minutes later and the man Kimbrough broke Arakansas' back again. He stabbed Hamberg's pass at midfield and scurried 38 yards to the Arkansas 22. On the next play Jeffrey sent a smoking touchdown pass to Sterling on the goal line. Robnett converted.

Outstanding for Arkansas on the defensive was Jay Lawhon, a tremendous fellow at fullback who did quite a job of line backing.

The Aggies won handily, but for the first time since the Arkansas game a year ago they were outgained. The towering Porkers gained 226 yards—151 by passing—to the Aggies total of 185 yards.

Score by periods:

Texas Aggies	7	0	10	0	—17

Texas Aggie scoring: touchdowns, Kimbrough, Sterling (pass from Jeffrey); points from try after touchdown, Pugh, Robnett (from placement); field goal, Webster (sub for Sterling) from placement.

Bulldogs Given Reward For Win

McALLEN—As sort of a reward for their 25-6 conference victory over the Brownsville Eagles Friday night, a large number of the McAllen high school Bulldogs were taken to Austin Saturday for the Southern Methodist-University of Texas football game.

The players were lead by Head Coach Maco Stewart. Assistant Coach Kenneth Grimes, School Board Member George Chapapas and others.

Most of the boys were expected to yell for the Mustangs, since Stewart is a product of SMU. He was a member of the 1935 Pony Rose Bowl squad.

Three games remain on the McAllen schedule this year, two of them at home.

The Bulldogs play the strong Mission Eagles, leaders of the class A loop, here next Friday night. The following week, McAllen entertains the San Benito Greyhounds here in a district 16-AA contest, and close the season November 22 at Edinburg in a conference clash with the Bobcats.

So far this season, the Bulldogs have won five games and lost one, rolling up 137 points to 26 for their opponents. McAllen whipped Pharr-San Juan-Alamo 31-0, Mercedes 20-0, Weslaco 28-7, Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio 27-6 and Brownsville 25-6. The Dogs lost to Harlingen 7-6, in a conference game.

Vols Race Over Tigers 28 To 0

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. —(AP)— Tennessee's mighty Volunteers turned loose their full power Saturday to blast the Louisiana State Tigers out of the path leading toward a Southeastern Conference championship and post-season Bowl honors.

Some 18,000 spectators were startled with the ferocity of the Volunteer attack that rolled up four touchdowns for a 28 to 0 victory and set the Tennesseans on the home stretch of a third successive untied and undefeated season after 28 straight regular season victories.

The game was barely under way when Tennessee started a drive from their own 26-yard line that ended with blond Bob Foxx smashing over on a reverse from the five for the first touchdown. Foxx kicked the extra point from placement.

After that drive Louisiana State's offense was smothered by the charging orange-clad forwards.

BROWN 6; YALE 2

YALE BOWL, New Haven, Conn. —(AP)—Dick High ran 88 yards after intercepting a pass in the opening quarter to give Brown a 6 to 2 victory over Yale Saturday in a hard fought battle, most of which was played in a driving rain. The victors took an intentional safety late in the game.

Brumley's Kick Gives Rice Owls Win Over A. - I.

Field Goal Saves Neelymen

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

HOUSTON— (AP) —Fullback Bob Brumley, a man with a charley-horse, went into the game with two seconds to go, but in that breathless time he hauled Rice Institute from the bring of a shocking upset and gave it a 9-6 victory over plucky little Texas A. and I.

The Javelinas had wrestled the big Owls to a 6-6 tie through the third period and shoved them around during the fourth—until Rice got its aerial attack going and Brumley swung his leg.

Starting desperately from its own 19 as the big clock ticked off the dying minutes, Rice surged downfield to the A. and I. 3 on passes from tiny Gene Keel to big Whitlock Zander, fullback, who started the game in Brumley's place.

The last heave hit Zander on the three-yard line. Two seconds were left. Brumley was rushed in and from the 19, pounded a perfect placement kick between the bars.

The entire evening was harrowing for Rice. Through the entire first half it failed to score a single first down, although at game's end, it held the advantage, 10-7.

A. and I. scored the first touchdown and ran up 160 yards to the Owl's 122.

The contest was slow through the first two periods, as Rice, sluggish after last week's upset victory over Texas, failed to show any spark.

Coach Jess Neely skinned them with a pep talk between halves and things were different thereafter, although A. and I. got the jump.

The first time it got its hands on the ball in the third quarter A. and I. churned to a score. J. P. Hilliard, little brother of Texas' illustrious Bohn, raced 72 yards for a touchdown, feinting at right tackle and then blazing around right end.

Tulane Puts End To Clemson Wins

By MORTIMER KREEGER

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—Tulane's resurgent Green Wave, showing its 1939 power, snapped the Clemson Tigers' 13-game winning streak Saturday, 13-0, before 31,000 spectators.

The touchdowns came on an 80-yard drive in the waning moments of the first half and a 30-yard run of an intercepted pass by Fred Gloden, sub fullback.

Joe Blalock, Clemson's star end, was the greatest breakwater the Tigers threw up to the Wave's surges.

Jim Thibaut faded back to toss a 16-yard pass to Albodney, who was alone across the goal line. Thibaut placed kicked the extra point.

Then, later, Maness tried a 19-yard pass to Blalock. Gloden took the ball at a gallop, picked up blockers and crossed the goal line standing up. Blalock blocked Thomas' place kick attempt for the extra point.

The Wave gained 383 net yards rushing to the Tigers' 52.

BOSTON COLLEGE WINS

NEWTON, Mass.—(AP)—Unbeaten Boston College scored once in each period Saturday to compile a 25-0 victory over a scrappy Manhattan eleven which found its clockwork attack handicapped in a sea of mud. Mike Holovak, Boston fullback, scored twice to lead the Eagles to their sixth straight victory before a drenched crowd of 12,000 spectators.

GEORGETOWN 28; SYRACUSE 6

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—(AP)—Georgetown's highly talented football team unbeaten in three years made it 22 games without a defeat Saturday by drubbing Syracuse, 28 to 6, before a crowd of 17,000.

Notre Dame Has Trouble Pushing Over Army Team

Interception Saves Irish Hide

By BILL BONI

NEW YORK—(AP)—A Notre Dame football team that had rolled into town on the wings of the biggest Irish boom since Knute Rockne's day rode out again Saturday night on the very slim side of a 7-0 score over Army, rated the underdog by as much as 7-1.

The score was sufficient to keep the Irish in the diminishing group of unbeaten and untied teams. But the way in which they won did nothing to enhance their reputation or enthuse their supporters in the Yankee Stadium crowd of 78,000.

Never, from kickoff until final whistle, did this supposed gridiron, juggernaut get beyond midfield on its own initiative. Its touchdown came on an 81-yard run back of an intercepted pass in the first quarter. After that the only occasion on which Notre Dame had possession on the Army side of the field was on a quick kick by Army tailback Johnny Hatch which wobbled out of bounds on the Cadet 43, 19 yards from the line of scrimmage.

The lad who got the touchdown was Steve Juzwik, Notre Dame's leading scorer for the season. He broke up the second of five Army threats by snaring sophomore Hank Mazur's pass on his own 19, and then racing to the far end of the field virtually unprotected, outdodging Bill Gillis, Army captain and center, at one point along the way and simply running over Mazur, his last obstacle.

Milt Piepul, big Norte Dame captain and fullback, kicked the extra point—which was about all this highly-touted All-America prospect contributed to the proceedings.

The advance notices which unanimously conceded victory to Notre Dame apparently were just the inspiration Army needed. The Cadets had all the drive, all the fire and almost all the blocking.

Bob Saggau, blond Notre Dame halfback fumbled the opening kickoff and Tom Farrell, Cadet end dropped on the ball on the 13. The steamed-up Cadets sent Johnny Roberts, Mazur and then Roberts again belting into the startled Notre Dame line. That third try missed first down by a foot.

Here Army called time and sent in Ted Lutryzkowski to replace Roberts at quarterback. He went back to the 13 to try a field goal, the ball was deflected by Irish end Johnny O'Brien, and Army's best chance to score was washed up.

PURDUE 21; IOWA 6

IOWA CITY, Ia.—(AP)—Purdue inflicted the third straight Big Ten defeat of the season on Iowa, 21 to 6, to spoil the Hawkeye homecoming here Saturday.

Petty scored two touchdowns for the Boilermakers on dives over the goal from the one-yard line and Anderson the third on a pass from Galvin. Burkett of Iowa recovered a fumbled punt over the goal for the lone Hawkeye score.

Few Major Teams Boast Unbeaten Records

Aggies Stay In Nation's 'Top' Class

Tie Mars Mustangs' Record

By HERB BARKER

NEW YORK—(AP)—Northwestern, Clemson, Navy, Detroit and Kentucky were summarily removed from football's unbeaten class Saturday as Bernie Bierman's Minnesota Gophers roared a new challenge to the Western Conference in particular and the nation in general.

Saturday night just 14 major teams could boast unbeaten records and three of these had been tied. In the East, Cornell, Boston College, Penn State, LaFayette and Georgetown, all had perfect records, as did Minnesota, Notre Dame and Michigan (idle Saturday) in the Midwest; Texas A. and M. in the Southwest; Tennessee in the South, and Stanford in the Far West. Tied but unbeaten were Southern Methodist, Mississippi State and Texas Tech.

It was Minnesota which struck Northwestern off the list, winning a 13-12 decision in a dramatic struggle fought at Evanston before 48,000.

Minnesota's record now shows successive victories over Washington, Nebraska, Ohio State, Iowa and Northwestern which is just about par for the course.

Clemson Defeated

Clemson's Tigers carried the Southern Conference banner into New Orleans but proved no match for revived Tulane which ground out 22 first downs and won, 13-0, with 31,000 looking on. Penn took advantage of the breaks and some doubtful rival strategy to give Navy its first defeat, 20-0, before a crowd of 70,000. Kentucky's unbeaten record was smashed completely by Alabama, 25-0, while Detroit's initial set-back came at the hands of Tulsa, 7-0.

A crowd of 78,000 jammed the Yankee Stadium to see Notre Dame run over twice-beaten Army and remained to cheer the Cadets who played the Irish off their feet all the way, yet succeeded in losing the ball game, 7-0, on Steve Juzwik's 81-yard run with an intercepted pass and on their own questionable field generalship.

All five unbeaten Eastern teams won easily. Cornell, with Hal McCullough tossing three touchdown passes, romped over Columbia, 27-0; Boston College ran up a 25-0 count on Manhattan; Lafayette knocked over Washington and Jefferson by the same score; Penn State took South Carolina over the hurdles, 12-0; and Georgetown mowed down Syracuse, 28-6. Georgetown now has gone 22 games without defeat and Cornell has moved through 17 without a setback.

Big John Kimbrough was the siege gun Texas A. and M. needed to whip Arkansas, 17-0, while Southern Methodist handed Texas its second successive defeat, 21-13. Bob Foxx paced Tennessee to a stunning 28-0 conquest of Louisiana State, as Mississippi State found Southwestern of Memphis a tough nut to crack but won, 13-0. Texas Tech won over Miami (Florida) 61-14 Friday night.

One of the day's most surprising results saw Duke practically run Georgia Tech off the gridiron with a 41-7 victory before 34,000. The Blue Devils, unimpressive earlier in the season, could do no wrong against the engineers.

Georgia Wins

Georgia nosed out Auburn, 14-13, and Mississippi scored over Vanderbilt, 13-7, in Southeastern Conference games.

Jim Blumenstock's powerful running was the feature of Fordham's relatively easy 14-0 victory over North Carolina. Dartmouth, West Virginia and Duquesne also scored intersectional victories for the East. Duquesne stopped Marquette, 14-0; West Virginia disposed of Washington and Lee, 12-7, and Dartmouth halted Sewanee, 26-0. Carnegie fell before the University of Cincinnati, 7-6.

Harvard checked Dave Allerdice's passes and emerged with a "moral victory" in a scoreless draw with Princeton. Brown scored over Yale, 6-2, on Dave High's 88-yard touchdown run; Temple nipped Bucknell, 10-7, and Colgate won over Holy Cross, 6-0.

Beaten three times in a row, Ohio State got back on the rails with a decisive 21-6 defeat of Indiana. Jim Langhurst scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes to the huge delight of a crowd of 56,000. John Tennant's 62-yard run in the final quarter gave Wisconsin a 13-6 victory over Illinois, and John Petty's two touchdowns helped Purdue score over Iowa, 21-6.

Michigan State easily whipped Kansas State, 32-0.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers virtually clinched the Big Six crown by virtue of a 13-0 decision over Oklahoma since the Huskers' only remaining conference foes are Iowa State and Kansas State. Missouri trampled New York University, 33-0. Paul Christman was responsible for three touchdowns.

Texas Christian scored a surprise 14-12 victory over Baylor in the dizzy Southwest Conference race. In the Southern Conference, William and Mary and Virginia Military played a scoreless draw. Virginia Tech won a 6-0 verdict over non-conference Virginia.

A crowd of 55,000 saw Stanford's Indians retain their perfect record with a 20-14 victory over U.C.L.A. It was Stanford's sixth successive victory with dangerous Washington next on the list. It was U.C.L.A.'s sixth defeat in a row, none by more than a touchdown. Oregon State rallied in the late stages to defeat California, 19-13, in the only other Pacific Coast Conference game on the card.

Headliners On The Sidelines

GEORGE KERR, Boston College guard, is a versatile fellow. He's an honor student, debater, and college heavyweight boxing champ. George is pretty good at the piano, too, and here finds a little off-the-field diversion at the keyboard.

MILT PIEPUL is the scholarly young man here exploring the oral cavity of Notre Dame's Sadie, a skeleton used in physical education courses. On the football field Milt is the bonecrushing captain and fullback for the Irish.

NICK DRAHOS, left, All-America tackle, and teammates Bill Murphy, a back, and Kirk Hershey, end, loosen muscle kinks in a whirlpool bath in the Cornell dressing room—spending off-the-field time to get in shape for on-the-field contact.

Give Curlews A Chance

By G. B. SAUNDERS
Research Division
U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service

I met a duck hunter the other day who commented on the numbers of long-billed curlews he had seen on the flats and asked why there is no open season on this bird. The answer will probably interest many hunters, also these comments may be welcome to those who do not realize the curlew is protected. Warden activity during the duck season will probably be increased, as it was during the white wing season, and he who bags a curlew may find himself in federal or state court with a stiff fine to pay and his hunting license revoked.

When one sees those flocks of curlews on the flats or along the ship channel, he should remember that most of the survivors of this species in North America concentrate in winter in this part of the coast. Some stop north of Corpus Christi, others go on to northern Tamaulipas, but most of them prefer to spend the season in a relatively small area which apparently centers on the flats of the Rio Grande delta. We see hundreds of curlews on these flats in favorable locations, but when we consider that they represent the population produced on thousands of square miles of country, we can understand why the curlew is facing possible extermination.

The old story of the destruction of prairie nesting grounds by settlement, agriculture, over-grazing and finally by drought applies to the curlew. At the present time a few curlews nest from the sandhills of western Nebraska to the prairies of Saskatchewan, but they are usually about as scarce as the native Indians.

It is easy to understand why some Valley hunters, not knowing the tragic story of the curlew, would wonder why the species is protected. After learning the reason they can aid in the conservation program by telling others who are not informed on the subject.

There is still some hope that with the return of more normal rainfall and vegetation to the prairies and plains of the west the curlew will stage a partial come back. We can all aid by helping a maximum number survive these bad years.

FORDHAM 14; TAR HEELS 0

POLO GROUNDS, New York—(AP)—A pair of quick first-quarter touchdowns featured by the terrific running of Jim Blumenstock, enabled Fordham to beat a hard-fighting North Carolina eleven, 14 to 0, before a crowd of 16,000 Saturday.

Hope often buds when it is cloudy, but it blooms only in sunshine.

Cornhuskers Win Over Oklahoma's Sooners 13 To 0

Power Drives Tell Whole Story

By AUSTN BEALMEAR

NORMAN, Okla.—(AP)—Nebraska's mighty Cornhuskers powered their way to a 13 to 0 victory over the Sooners of Oklahoma here Saturday to take over first place in the Big Six Conference gridiron race and move within striking distance of their first title since 1937.

As a record-breaking crowd of more than 33,000 looked on, the Huskers drove 80 yards to one touchdown in the second quarter, 40 yards to another in the final period, tied the Sooner ground attack in knots, and blasted the home club's overhead game clear out of the air.

After being thrown back twice in the first quarter with the goal line only five yards away, the Nebraskans finally went to work in earnest with halfback Harry Hopp in the driver's seat.

Hopp started the 80-yard march by slashing off tackle for 15 and alternated with Wayne Blue in stabbing through for short gains as the Nebraska forwards split open the Oklahoma line.

Only 20 seconds of the first half remained when the visitors reached Oklahoma's 30-yard line and Hopp fliped a long pass which Jack Jacobs, the Sooner tailback, stood ready to intercept on the five.

But Jacobs, who was blanketed every time he turned around all afternoon, let the ball slip through his fingers and it dropped into the waiting hands of Allen Zikmund, who merely stepped across the goal line. Hopp missed the kick for extra point.

Dallas Has Good Signal Callers

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

DALLAS—(AP)—Dawn isn't full grown when they come bubbling into the downtown Y. M. C. A. building every Saturday morning.

Noted business leaders, stenographers, messenger boys, college students, city officials jam the banquet hall at daybreak to get fall Saturdays off in the proper direction.

This cross-section comes to talk football.

The Saturday Morning Quarterbacks Association comes to order.

Under the flare of 150 pairs of eyes sits the "condemned man." He eats heartily for 15 minutes, then rises to face this strange "firing squad" which can outdo Baby Snooks as an interrogator.

The speaker might be Matty Bell of Southern Methodist; Homer Norton of Texas A. and M.; Jack Meagher of Auburn; D. X. Bible of Texas; Bill Cunningham, Dallas-bred sports editor of the Boston Post; Dutch Meyer of T. C. U.; Fred Thompsen of Arkansas; Dan D. Rogers, the father of the Cotton Bowl, and T. C. U. athletes, or well known sports writers.

Four years this strange scene has been enacted while most sane persons are at home sleeping, waiting for dawn.

The speaker goes to work. Coaches try to explain why so-and-so didn't punt on third down last week; always stop and park for several minutes on what a fine defense the other team possessed.

Sports writers lamely explain last week's upsets that made them look like waterboys instead of forecasters. The questions start coming. The speakers start going.

Finally, every person in the hall—including the speaker—must list on a card his selections for the day, including the score. At next week's meeting the winners are announced.

Usually the "expert" who so laboriously explained the intricacies of the game to the amateurs the week before winds up near the bottom with his selections. Promptly, the association collects a fund; sends him a cactus plant.

Or, if the selections are extra sour, he gets a bouquet of green persimmons.

For particularly doleful speeches, cluttered with alibis, the guest of honor usually receives a scroll. It reads:

"Second Guessers' Association of North America. Presented in grateful appreciation to the president of the Second Guessers' Association of North America and the executive secretary of the Monday Alibi Club."

At the end of the season, this little body gathers for its piece de resistance — the annual sports achievement dinner presented jointly with the Dallas Y. M. C. A. Last season 900 packed the gymnasium to hear Coach Homer Norton of the Aggies. Before that, similar crowds heard D. X. Bible, Bill Cunningham.

The Saturday morning Quarterback Association of Dallas is an institution.

Tell a boy that he is no good and you will help him to become so.

Claud Liston To Manage Brownsville Golf Course

BROWNSVILLE—Claud Liston, manager of the Harlingen municipal golf course for the past seven years, will take over duties as manager of the Brownsville Country club within the next few days, according to T. H. Sweeney, owner.

Mr. Liston, who has lived in Harlingen for the past 28 years, came here during the past week to inspect the local golf course.

"Brownsville has one of the best layouts of any Valley golf course," Mr. Liston said. "I expect to arrange for golf tournaments and special matches here and am going to give people a golf course that is kept right with courteous service and reasonable prices.

"I am happy to be connected with the club and appreciate the spirit with which Brownsville residents have accepted me," he stated.

Mr. Liston, his wife and nine-year-old daughter will take up residence in Brownsville soon.

Minnesota Gophers Trim Northwestern's Wildcats

EVANSTON, Ill.—(AP)—Still undefeated and untied, Minnesota's Gophers roared along in football's empire Saturday in quest of the Western Conference championship and national honors.

By the margin of a single point after touchdown, Minnesota, unable to beat Northwestern on its home field since 1929, finally triumphed 13 to 12 over the hitherto undefeated Wildcats before a nerve-wracked crowd of 48,000 spectators. It was Minnesota's fifth straight win of the season.

Minnesota's victory, which left the Gophers and Michigan the only undefeated and untied elevens in the conference, was achieved by a powerful rushing game, one timely pass and the place-kicking accuracy of Joe Mernik, whose successful try for point after the first Gopher touchdown ultimately meant victory as the Wildcats missed on two after touchdown attempts.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

More Deer and Turkey

AUSTIN—Not only will hunters have more deer and turkey to hunt in the sections which have been popular for years, but should the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission continue to get as good results the next few years as have been attained this season on eleven deer and turkey areas set up as Pittman-Robertson game restoration projects, Lone Star State nimrods will have many more sections in which to shoot gobblers and bucks.

Reports reaching the executive secretary of the Game Department indicate a larger crop of deer and turkey throughout all the ranges in the state. Ideal weather during the spring and early summer months made possible the survival of more young turkeys and deer. Nesting in South Texas was more than a month late due to the continued drouth through the early months of 1940, but that section will also have a large crop of young deer and turkey.

The Game Department has obtained under lease or co-operative agreement eleven large areas of land totaling more than 150,000 acres. These are scattered throughout the state. Deer and turkey or turkey or deer, in some instances, were planted and have thrived. Game managers report large increases in game on practically all of the areas and an increase on each of them.

Th areas include sections planted with grains and other plants upon which deer and turkey thrive. Area keepers hold the predators at a low level.

From these areas game is expected to spread and it is considered likely that mire than 500,000 acres of Texas land will be restocked as a result of deer and turkey moving in. Turkeys have been found as far as eight miles away from the point where they were released.

Nurses Wild, Tame Fawns

A doe on the H. J. Bussa Ranch in Bandera county has defied civilization in order to continue nursing one of the two fawns born to her this year and yet also nurses the wild one, a member of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster reports.

One of the doe's fawns was picked up in the woods by a ranch hand several month ago and taken to the ranch house. It was not long before the mother appeared, jumped the fence of the enclosure where her baby had been placed, and nursed it. She has continued to do so daily every day since. She returns to the woods immediately after nursing the fawn held in captivity and nurses her other offspring, which is extremely wild. The captured fawn is very tame.

Not only does the mother deer continue to defy civilization in feeding her tame fawn, but any time a dog gets anywhere near the wild fawn she gives battle.

Defends Mourning Doves

Mourning doves have been accused of pulling young corn, especially after it has just shot up out of the ground. However, investigations by Kame Department biologists have shown that the mourning doves do very little, if any harm to young corn. Not a grain of corn was found in any of the crops of fourteen mourning doves taken in and around the corn fields in Robertson county in April and May. Croton, Johnson grass and a variety of other seeds were found. Farmers had claimed depredation.

Tulsa U. Beats Detroit 7 To 0

DETROIT—(AP)—Tulsa University's football behemoths snuffed out Detroit's hopes for a defeatless season Saturday with a convincing 7 to 0 victory before a crowd of 19,861 fans sitting in the warm November sunshine.

The victory, first for Tulsa in five games with Detroit, was accomplished on a 31-yard touchdown pass from N. A. Keithley to Glenn Dobbs midway of the fourth period. Dobbs took the toss on Detroit's 14-yard line and outlegged two pursuing Titans in a race to the goal line. Roy Buffalo came in the game and booted the extra point from placement.

Cornell Swamps Columbia 27-0

ITHACA, N. Y.—(AP)—For a football machine which was accused of traveling on one cylinder, Cornell did pretty well Saturday. It ran over, under and around the Lions of Columbia to a 27 to 0 victory, its 13th in a row and the 17th straight in which it has escaped defeat.

With the grey-clad Carl Gray Snavely bravely defying comment and sitting grimly with the roll of paper which caused the bench coaching charge after the Ohio State game clutched in his hand, the Big Red rolled up and down the field with a snap-snap precision which left the Lions thwarted and bewildered.

Once in the first period, again in the second and twice in the third did a red shirted Cornellian scamper over the goal with the ball clutched tightly and every touchdown came on a pass.

HARVARD 0; PRINCETON 0

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(AP)—A Harvard battered down most of sharpshooter Dave Allerdice's passes on a muddy gridiron and held Princeton's favored Tigers to a scoreless tie Saturday before a rain-drenched crowd of 15,000.

COLGATE 6; HOLY CROSS 0

WORCHESTER, Mass.—(AP)—Joe Hoague, of Colgate, led the Red Raiders to a 6 to 0 victory over outclassed Holy Cross before 4,000 spectators in a driving rain here Saturday.

DARTMOUTH 26; SEWANEE 0

DUKE 41; GEORGIA TECH 7

DURHAM, N. C.—(AP)—Duke's Blue Devils celebrated Homecoming Day by walloping the Georgia Tech Engineers, 41 to 7, Saturday, the worst defeat the Rambling Wreck has suffered in recent years, before a crowd of 34,000.

Better Hunting Seems Assured All Over Texas

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)—Bigger and better hunting is ahead of Texas nimrods this year.

If they get a good weather break—it will be the first since 1937—at the opening of the deer and turkey season Nov. 16, all they'll need is a steady trigger finger to bring home the venison and bird.

That's on the word of the game department which avers all the other signs point to full game bags.

The hill country and South and Southwest Texas offer a big supply of game. What is needed to start it on the move is a biting norther. Incidentally, a chilly spell is calculated to expedite the Southward trek of ducks and geese. The federal government estimates there are 20 to 30 per cent more duck on the wing this year.

The migratory waterfowl season opened Saturday. Deer, turkey, and javelina seasons close Dec. 31. The quail season opens Dec. 1 and extends through Jan. 16 and the supply is reported on the increase.

Here is how regional game managers report conditions and prospects:

Deep East Texas—

Deer: On the increase but not numerous enough to attract outside hunters.

Turkey: Most counties closed to hunting.

Waterfowl: Abundant food and inland water supplies replenished by good rains.

Squirrels: Stocks vary with localities but supply generally is as good or larger than last year.

Central, North Central and North Texas—

Quail: Pentiful.

Squirrels: Good supply. Winter season opened Oct. 1.

Deer: Crop up to par where deer normally found, including Blanco, Comal and other hilly counties.

Turkey: Crop plentiful where ranges suitable.

Southeast, South Texas and Maverick and Zavalla counties region—

Bobwhite quail: Increased stocks in South Texas. Outlook only fairly good from Brazos to Nueces river along the Gulf Coast. Good hunting on Eastern coastal prairies in favorable areas.

Blue quail: Excellent shooting, especially in La Salle, Maverick, McMullen, Starr and Hidalgo counties.

Turkey: Good population.

Javelina: Better than in the last five years.

Deer: Excellent range conditions have increased crop.

Hill country, all the way west to El Paso county—

Whitetail deer: Come and get 'em, and pray for cold weather.

Mule deer: Noticeable increase in population, especially West of the Pecos.

Turkey: Old residents swear supply is the best in from five to 15 years.

Quail: Bobwhite and blues plentiful.

Javelinas: Holding their own and hunters should find plenty of sport.

Northeast Texas, South Plains and Panhandle—

Bobwhite quail: Increased only in areas with suitable habitats. In general quail range better than last year.

Blue quail: Inhabitants say prospects best in seven years.

Turkeys: Gobblers not so plentiful but improved from last year.

Deer: Concentrated along the Canadian river where there is sufficient food and cover.

TEMPLE 10; BUCKNELL 7

LEWISBURG, Pa.—(AP)—Sid Beshunsky's field goal from the 25-yard line in the closing minutes of play gave Temple an uphill 10 to 7 victory over Bucknell Saturday, before 10,000.

Bucknell scored in the second period on a 12-yard aerial, Walt Wenrick to Ed Glass. Temple tied it in the third quarter on Andy Tomasic's 14-yard end run.

Missouri Tigers Wallop Violets In Easy Fashion

Christman's Passes Hit Marks

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

COLUMBIA, Mo.—(AP)—Paul Christian stayed in the game only 23 minutes, but his unerring passes paved the way for three touchdowns in a Missouri Tiger drive which routed New York University, 33 to 0, in an intersectional game Saturday.

It was the same Christman whose passes led to the defeat of the Violets last year.

The Tigers, winners of nine straight games in every period. But no touchdown was as spectacular as that Christman manufactured with Charles Beattie's aid in the first. Following a Violet punt Don (Bull) Reece played the pigskin on the 34 with a 4-yard plunge. On the next play Christman faded back and dropped the ball into Beattie's arms on the New York U. 34 with Joe Frank of the New Yorkers only a step away. The two clattered down the East side lines with the Missourian always inches in front and even one of the 19,000 sun-warmed spectators on their feet.

Christman, handicapped much of the season by a lack of adequate receivers, was the first down the field to congratulate the sophomore halfback, starting his first game.

A 20-yard gain on a flip by Christman to Jack Lister opened the doors for the first marker and in the third period he spanked a two yard effort to Capt. Jack Crockerr for the fourth tally.

With Christman resting, Harry Ice took over the attack for the Tigers and once broke away for 36 yards on his favorite sweep around right end. Four other times he seemed headed for substantial gains only to slip and fall to the turf.

Stanford Trims Uclans 20 To 14

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Stanford's troupe of gridiron magicians played its 1940 engagement in Memorial Coliseum Saturday and brought down the house—and the Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles—with just enough trickery and power to walk off with a cleancut conference victory after the Uclans had threatened in the last period.

Registering their sixth consecutive triumph to remain the only major team unbeaten and untied in the Far West, the sleight of hand lads from Palo Alto bowed off the field as dusk closed in with the scoreboard reading:

Number Of Draftees To Be Called In Cameron Set

FIRST CALLS WILL DRAFT 164 SOLDIERS

Initial Call Slated In November

BROWNSVILLE—Harlingen and Brownsville draft boards will each deliver 59 men and San Benito 46 men to the army in the first six selective service calls, it was estimated here Saturday when the local board was informed of quotas set by the state selective service headquarters in Austin.

Few In November

The first call will come late in November when Harlingen and Brownsville will deliver three men each and San Benito 2. One call in December will require only one man from each board area. Three calls have been announced for January in which Harlingen and Brownsville must supply 38 men each and San Benito 30. One call in February will require 17 men from Harlingen and Brownsville and 15 from San Benito.

Paul G. Greenwood, chairman of the Harlingen board, and Harbert Davenport of the Brownsville board, both estimated their areas probably would supply all of these calls from registered volunteers who ask to be placed at the top of the order of call list.

Men To Report

Four of the 50 who asked to be inducted in Brownsville signed formal requests for classification with the local board Saturday. According to Mr. Davenport these requests will be acted upon soon and the men ordered to report for physical examination. Medical examiners for Brownsville are Drs. R. F. Breeden and T. P. Andrews.

Quotas and time of call have been determined to conform with the War Department program for completion of housing facilities, hospitalization and supplies to provide for the increase at the various camps.

VERDICT MADE IN POISONING

2 Die Oct. 25 After Mixing Toddies

MARSHALL, Tex. —(AP)— Peace Justice H. L. Callaway Saturday returned an inquest verdict that Miss Nora Perkins, 38, storekeeper, met her death "by taking poison unknowingly which had been given to her by John Newman," and that Newman's death was self inflicted.

The two died October 25 after drinking a small quantity of liquor containing poison at the woman's store. Newman, the justice of the peace said, went to the store and asked Miss Perkins to make him a toddy. She mixed one for herself, also, from liquor he brought with him. Both died later after becoming ill.

Students At Texas To Pay Tribute To Dallas News Chief

AUSTIN—(AP)—University of Texas journalism students laid final plans Saturday for a Monday night tribute to the 66-year newspapering career of 81-year old G. B. Dealey, publisher of the Dallas Morning News.

The publisher will be the guest of honor at a banquet arranged by three student groups, Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phia, honorary fraternities for men and women respectively, and the Student Press Club.

Dealey will speak on "Texas Journalism In The Old Days."

MEXICO CALLS CASE WITNESS

President's Slaying May Be Re-Opened

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—The recall to Mexico of Colonel Luis Alamillo as military attache of the Mexican legation in France stimulated reports Saturday the famous "Huitzilac Massacre" case might be reopened.

He was one of the main witnesses in the original investigation of the slaughter of a presidential candidate and a party of 13 friends and relatives 12 years ago.

During the heated presidential campaign of 1928, General Francisco Serrano, who opposed General Alvaro Obregon for the presidency, was assassinated with his party in the village of Huitzilac, near Cuernavaca.

La Presna said Alamillo failed to appear befort the tribunal inquiring into the case as he had already sailed on a diplomatic mission to Europe.

The investigation was adjourned indefinitely, but not closed.

AAA Office Open

Highway Information Is Available Now

HARLINGEN — An American Automobile Association office has been opened in the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel, and will be able to give information concerning all the highways in the United States, as well as airline information. The office can also handle airline reservations.

Mrs. Esther Neilon is in charge of the local A.A.A. office.

The A.A.A. has 724 tourist bureaus over the nation, and this year will assist the Valley in tourist promotion.

Blacksnake's Eyes Blacked By Rabbit

TOPEKA, Kas.—(AP)—State Game Protector Art Benander noticed a rabbit jumping up and down and not getting anywhere. Investigation disclosed the little animal was trying to kill a black-snake by kicking it. Benander finished the job and found bunny had inflicted several cuts in the reptile's hide.

AID OFFERED TO DRAFTEES

Have Five Days To Fill Blanks

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A veritable army of judges and lawyers was ready Saturday to help speed the answering of draft questionnaires preparatory to the actual selection of men for a year's compulsory military training.

Clarence A. Dykstra, selective service director, reminding registrants who receive questionnaires from their local boards that they are required to answer and return them in five days, urged them to make use of advisory boards set up for the purpose if the questions are not clear.

The boards usually are composed of three lawyers, including judges of county and city courts, Dykstra said, and have been afforded every facility to assist the registrants. Officials said the number of advisory boards, which are appointed by state governors, was not immediately available.

Issuance of the eight-page questionnaires, containing about 50 main questions, got underway in many localities Saturday, Dykstra said. They will be sent first to the men whose serial numbers are drawn earliest in the conscription lottery here Tuesday.

Service Is Set For Pioneer At Matador

MATADOR —(AP —Funeral services were held Saturday for Charles P. Wayburn, 73, Motley county pioneer, who died at his home Friday night.

Surviving are two sons, Gerald Wayburn of Matador and Gilbert Wayburn of Houston and a foster son, Wilson Gunn of Sherman.

One version of the origin of the name "Staked Plains" is that the advance guard of Coronado's force found that the grass in the Panhandle-Plains area, which it crossed 350 years ago, became erect so quickly after trampling it was necessary to build mounds of buffalo bones to blaze a trail for the main body following.

TEXAS APPEAL BOARDS NAMED

5-Man Units Study Draft Questons

AUSTIN—(AP)—Twelve district appeal boards of five members each were named Friday by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to further perfect selective service in Texas.

The boards, whose membership is subject to presidential approval, will review decisions on classification of registrants by local draft boards. Their decisions are final, unless modified or reversed by the president.

Members for each board were drawn from labor, industry, medicine, law and agriculture.

The governor also nominated more members to local draft boards to fill vacancies as follows: George C. Johnson of Muleshoe to Bailey county board 1; A. H. Jackson of Gail to Borden county board 1; W. C. Stewart of Angleton to Brazoria county board 1; J. M. Francis of New Braunfels to Comal county board 1; Caleb R. Simmons of Sweetwater to Nolan county board 1; P. K. Birdwell of Tyler to Smith county board 2, and W. E. Caldwell of Sonora to Sutton county board 1.

Radio Speech On US Draft Set Tuesday

AUSTIN —(AP)— Maj. Fred W. Edmiston deputy state director of selective service, will discuss assignment of order numbers from the national master list and other processes of selective service in a radio interview on the Texas State network Tuesday at 4:30 p.m.

McALLEN—Postal receipts in McAllen for October increased more than $500 over the same month last year, Postmaster Harry Merts reported Saturday.

Gross receipts for the past month totaled $5,492.72, representing an increase of $567 over the same month last year, when receipts were $4,925.72.

To the Voters of Willacy County

It has recently come to my attention that certain friends of W. H. (Bill) Phillips, whom I defeated in the Willacy county Democratic primary for county treasurer, are to conduct a "write in" campaign designed to defeat me Tuesday, November 5, in the general election.

I found this out accidentally, since the campaign has been conducted secretly, first information coming to me in the letter which friends of my defeated opponent sent to Nathan Hedges at Ewing, Illinois, seeking his support. Mr. Hedges sent the letter to me and it is here reproduced:

"Mr. Nathan Hedges,
Ewing, Illinois.
Dear Mr. Hedges:

"Over seven hundred (700) friends of W. H. (Bill) Phillips have decided that they are going to conduct a "write-in" campaign and write his name in for re-election as County Treasurer of Willacy County.

"As I know that you are a good friend of Bill's I am asking for your co-operation and also that you please say nothing of it except to those who you know are good friends of his and will be glad to assist him.

"To do this, mark out the name of C. G. (Gus) Nyquist under FOR COUNTY TREASURER in the Democratic Party Column, the first column on the ballot, and write in the space below Nyquist's name W. H. (Bill) Phillips.

"As an absentee voter we urge that you request your absentee ballot from the County Clerk at once, if you have not already done so, and mark your ballot as requested and see that it gets back in time to be counted.

"This action on your part will be greatly appreciated not only by Mr. Phillips but by his hundreds of friends who have come to him with this suggestion.

Respectfully yours,
R. K. FINLAY, JR."

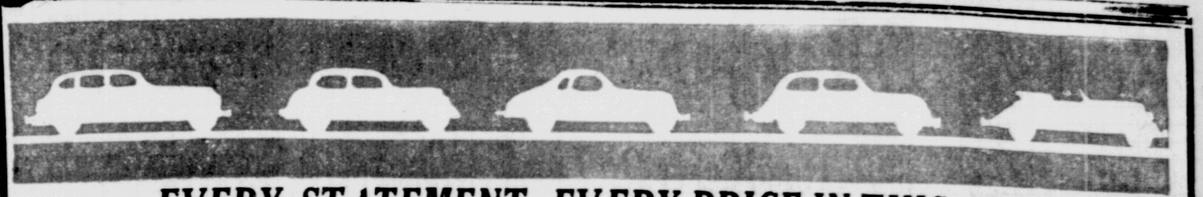

Do Mr. Phillips' friends intend for him not to observe his campaign pledge to seek the office of Willacy County Treasurer "Subject to the action of the Democratic Primary"? Why was this "write-in" campaign conducted secretly? I entered the campaign in the July primary openly and honestly. Do pledges mean nothing? Can't men seek office openly, honestly, and in good faith, without having to be on the alert for this sort of thing?

Since discovering this undercover attempt to defeat me, I have heard rumors that many who supported me in the primary are now ready to aid this "write-in" campaign. I have run down these rumors and find them untrue. I ask the Voters of Willacy County to investigate these rumors themselves and find out as I have that they are UNTRUE.

But above all, I ask all of you to vote Tuesday, for your individual vote in the national election is important in this period of national crisis. Vote as you please, but please vote.

Respectfully,
C. G. (Gus) NYQUIST.
Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer of Willacy County.

Younger Set Entertained

DONNA — Featuring the ancient holy day of Hallowe'en Mrs. A. H. Kammer entertained forty boys and girls Wednesday evening from six until nine in honor of her daughter, Gloria. The yard and entire house were decorated in Halloween colors, the lights all dimmed by jack o'lanterns, streamers of orange and black and burning orange candles overywhere.

A huge lighted pumpkin guarded the front porch, while in the dining room the lace cloth was laid over orange and the tall yellow tapers stood in Hallowe'en holders.

There individual pumpkin pies and punch were served at an early hour and favors of balloons and yellow cat faces distributed.

A fish pond, tubs for apple bobbing and candy swinging on long threads highlighted the evening of merriment.

The Winsome Class of the Baptist Sunday School held its Hallowe'en party on Wednesday night at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Gerry on North eighth street.

The rooms were decorated in orange and black crepe paper, and jack o'lanterns. After many interesting and riotious games were played, refreshments of candy, popcorn, cookies and punch were served.

Guests were Misses Marion Somers, Jane Weaver, Mary Louise Magee, Helen Wyatt, Anie Laura Leadbetter, Melvena Waldrep, Ruth Farris, Jane Frase, Kathryn Range, and Patricia Hammons.

Red Cross Sewing Progressing Nicely In San Benito Area

SAN BENITO — Five skirts in girl size were returned complete and ready for packing to Red Cross headquarters, by Mrs. H. C. Aldridge, according to Mrs. Flint Harris, local chairman of the sewing group for the Red Cross. Practically all materials received so far have been distributed to volunteer workers for sewing, Mrs. Harris said.

She has on hand material for little boys' shirts which interested [illegible] may help in sewing.

Fine Arts Night To Precede Opening

HARLINGEN—Formal opening of the convention of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, will take place with a meeting of the executive board at 6:30 p.m. Thursday evening at the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel. The meeting will precede a dinner given by the executive board to honor state officers and other distinguished visitors.

Reservations for the board dinner should be sent to Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, Harlingen, not later than Wednesday.

Members of the board include Mrs. H. E. Hager, Mercedes, president; Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, Harlingen, vice president; Mrs. Wemple Sanders, La Feria, recording secretary; Mrs. Aubrey Thomas, McAllen, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Losh, McAllen, auditor; Mrs. A. E. Brand, Mercedes, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Orville I. Cox, McAllen, historian; Mrs. J. S. Roe, Alamo, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Paul Shotwell, Mercedes, junior counsellor.

Election of new officers will be an interesting feature of the regular session in McAllen as will the awarding of the Effie Roe cup which was won last year by the San Benito club.

Highlight of the Thursday night program will be the fine arts concert in the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Charles Huntley is in charge of arrangements for the musicale which is open to the public without charge.

Artists who will be presented include the Mark Ensemble of McAllen; Robert K. Reed, San Benito; Mrs. G. G. Eddy, Mercedes; Miss Huldah Walden, San Juan; Sol Zimberoff, Harlingen; Miss Mary Elizabeth Challes, Mrs. Jim Koonce, and Mrs. M. H. Connelly; Mrs. Charles Coulter, Brownsville; and Miss Helen Sheldon, Mission.

After the concert a reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carter. Members of Valley music clubs and interested lovers of music are invited to attend. Hostesses will be members of the Music Lovers Club of Harlingen.

HARLINGEN—Mrs. Bert Hack entertained members of the Linen and Lace Club with a Hallowe'en party Thursday afternoon. The living room was attractively decorated in Hallowe'en colors.

Throughout the evening a series of games and contests were enjoyed with prizes going to Mesdames Cowart, Graham, and Bennie Hack. Mrs. Bennie Hack also won the door prize.

A refreshment plate carrying out the Hallowe'en motif was served to Mesdames Elmo Newberry, T. J. Graham, O. C. Cowart, Bennie Hack, Terry Nesmith, Larry Foster, Jean Hack, and W. H. Vanderford.

Next meeting will be November 14 at the home of Mrs. Nesmith.

Mrs. J. W. Culmer

Beautification Campaign Making Rapid Progress; Banquet Set This Week

HARLINGEN — With the canvass of Harlingen residents regarding care of vacant lots nearly completed, committee members in charge of the city-wide beautification drive announced the coming week would be probably the most important of the campaign. Mrs. Joe L. Junkin, beautification chairman for the Harlingen Garden Club which is conducting the beautification campaign with the co-operation of the city, is general chairman. Highlight of the week will be the beautification dinner at the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel with Mrs. Ralph Conselyea, Houston, as guest speaker.

Mrs. Junkin announced 99 per cent co-operation on one street on which all residents except one signed cards agreeing to water and care for plantings on nearby vacant lots. Full reports of street chairmen had not been compiled at the end of the week but virtually all chairmen reported residents not only willing to care for plantings that might be made on vacant property in their neighborhood but anxious for the opportunity to improve the general appearance of their home surroundings.

With the assurance that plantings would receive adequate care, represented by signatures of residents received during the past week's campaign, committee workers plan next to contact owners of vacant property to ask them to agree to plant whatever is designated by the Harlingen Garden club from the property line to the building line front.

An important link in the city-wide beautification drive is the series of benefits, featuring a bridge tournament and bingo, planned to help obtain funds for extensive plantings being made by the Garden club. Thursday 160 bougainvillea were set out. Hundreds of others as well as other shrubs have been planted. Water and care is furnished by the city.

First of the bridge tournaments will be held Monday at 2:30 p.m. upstairs at Junkin's Furniture store. Other meeting places will be announced in the Monday paper. Admission of 25 cents each day will be asked and at the close of the series of 10 afternoons, a grand prize will be awarded. High score prizes will be presented every day.

Detailed plans for the bingo event will be announced later and everyone interested is invited to donate "white elephants" to be used as prizes. Anything from a cow to a vase is acceptable, Mrs. Junkin Stated. A prize will be given to the person presenting the largest collection of articles for bingo.

The banquet Friday night is planned as a Valley-wide event, she announced further. Chamber of commerce officials, Mayor Hugh Ramsey, and others will assist at the meeting. Mrs. Conselyea, noted for leadership in beautification and gardening activity, will give the principal talk. Mrs. Henry Carisle, secretary of the Harlingen Garden Club, will give a report on the progress of the beautification campaign.

GUEST OF SISTER

COMBES—Mrs. G. M. Hutsell of Kingsville spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. Q. Adams, and Mr. Adams.

Miss Huffman Bride Of Dr. Culmer

BROWNSVILLE — Simple marriage rites were celebrated Saturday at the Travis Park Methodist church in San Antonio when Miss Marjorie Huffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Huffman, became the bride of Dr. J. W. Culmer of San Antonio.

The rites were said at 11 o'clock in the morning by the pastor.

The bride chose for her wedding a becoming costume suit of lightweight wool, in a soft green, worn with brown and gold accessories. Her flowers were bronze chrysanthemums worn in corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Culmer departed for Monterrey by car where they will spend a week, making their home in San Antonio, upon their return.

Mrs. Culmer left here Thursday evening for San Antonio. She attended Brownsville schools, and has been making her home in San Antonio since the completion of her nurse's training. The wedding claims much interest here when she has a host of friends.

Kiddy Show Set Friday

BROWNSVILLE — Models for the kiddie fashion show to be sponsored Friday evening in the high school auditorium by Los Ebanos Parent-Teacher association have been chosen by popular vote by the students in the school.

The following models will display clothes from Bollack's store, and the J. C. Penney company store at 8 o'clock: Richard Graham, Jean Cole, Annette Longnecker, Mary Bell, Margaret Rose Pitt, Hector Garcia, Bobby Duffey, Nancy Fish, Betty Jean Manske, Ester Garcia, Patricia Ann Lynch, George Toland, Ross Henderson, Ellen Lee Fullen, Jane Maxwell, Larry Lynch, Anna May Kinder, Mary Rathjeu and Peggy Jean Lynch.

Admission for adults is twenty-five cents, and for children ten cents. Proceeds will go to the P.-T. A. unit.

Several entertainment numbers will be furnished by pupils from the Frances Leighton Dashiell studio.

Younger Set Guests For Outdoor Event

PHARR—Maxine McLendon was hostess for a delightful Hallowe'en picnic supper and scavenger hunt, Thursday evening, with her mother, Mrs. Dan McLendon, as assistant hostess for the gala affair.

A picnic supper was served around the barbecue pit on the lawn of the McLendon home. Leland McCullough, Gene Darby, Donald Smith and Bobby Sorensen were prize winners in the scavenger hunt. Later guests gathered around the huge bonfire and were served iced drinks. They were Jeanne and Doris Brittain, Jane McCullough, Mary John Cowers, Patricia Devine, Barbara Ann Bailey, Caroline Andrews, Donald Smith, Leland McCullough, Gene Darby, Jr., and Bobby Sorensen.

Lowrie-Roden Rites Formally Announced

HARLINGEN — Announcements have been received here reading: Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Madison Roden announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Frences, to Mr. Carroll Jefferson Lowrie, on Sunday, the thirteenth of October, Corpus Christi, Texas.

The couple is at home at 3021 Minton Street, Corpus Christi.

TO CALIFORNIA

EDCOUCH — Cecil Ray Rinehart left the past week for California where he went to take his niece, Marjorie Bradley, to join her mother, Mrs. Iva Nelson. Marjorie has spent the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rinehart.

President Of Hostess Club

Mrs. Scott Dougherty heads the McAllen Music Club which will be hostess Friday to the meeting here of the eighth district of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs. The convention will be held at the First Methodist Church with a luncheon and tea slated for the Casa de Palmas Hotel.

Banquet Notable Event For Sorority Pledges

BROWNSVILLE—Outstanding for the sentiment and beautiful simplicity was the banquet held at Landrum's Wednesday evening by the Alpha Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

The banquet was a combined initiation ceremony for the four new pledges Misses Elizabeth Canalez, Jane Richardson, Mozelle Pruden, and Mrs. Carl Ellington; and the Ritual of Jewels Ceremony for Miss Laverne Sullivan.

The affair was formal and the Ritual of Jewels Ceremony was conducted by candle light. On the mantle piece was a large replica of the Beta Sigma Phi emblem on which a reflection from the candles played. The centerpiece was of yellow tailsman roses which is the sorority flower in a large black bowl. This carried out the sorority colors of gold and black.

A patriotic theme was noted in the place cards which had a miniature silk American flag attached to them. The place cards were very clever in that a description of the person was in rhyme and each girl found the card which described herself.

The president, Mrs. Tom Barber, Jr., welcomed the pledges and Miss Elizabeth Canalez responded to the welcome.

Mrs. Harvey Nuckols was mistress of ceremonies and announced the program which was also of a patriotic nature. Miss Inez Brulay gave an interesting discussion of the American Red Cross and the work being done by this organization. Mrs. John Dutro talked on the American flag and ended her talk with the alligence to the flag.

The program ended by the group singing of God Bless America.

Daughter Is Honored By Pharr Luncheon

PHARR—Mrs. R. E. Slocum entertained with a small informal luncheon Friday, honoring her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Lindsey of Houston who has been a guest in the home of her parents for the past three weeks.

A variety of autumn flowers were used to center the luncheon table and decorate the living and dining rooms. Guests were Mrs. Donald VanDresser of Corpus Christi and Mrs. Tom Hartley, the honoree, Mrs. Wallace Lindsey and her parents.

Many Attend Alamo Meet

ALAMO—The Federation of Community Church Women met at Alamo Thursday for a covered dish dinner and program.

An attendance of 70 members was present from the three churches of Rio Hondo, San Juan and Alamo. "Prayer" was the subject of the devotionals, led by Mrs. W. D. Whalen, and followed by a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by Mrs. J. S. Roe.

The speaker of the afternoon was Rev. Stewart of Pharr, whose subject was "Community Service." The next meeting will be at San Juan on the last Thursday in May, 1941.

Bridge Events Are Enjoyed During Week

WESLACO—Mrs. R. C. Waters was hostess Thursday afternoon at her home entertaining with a lovely dessert bridge. Gorgeous sprays of white asters were beautifully arranged in white pottery containers, and Mrs. R. A. Rowland was winner of score at the close of games.

Enjoying the delightful autumn party were Mesdames Rowland, Charles Sherrill, Willoughby Gundry, W. H. Baxter, Jr., Gordon Kethley, J. A. Knapp, C. Davenport, J. A. Medley, Alex Gerry, Raymond Mills, C. L. Skaggs and C. H. Schwedes.

Mrs. Frank Koester entertained the Dos Mesas club at her home Thursday. Fall flowers were attractively placed throughout the living rooms.

Mrs. Clyde Young was winner of score and the hostess served pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and coffee to her guests.

Mrs. Clifford Scott entertained with an evening of bridge Thursday. Colorful roses decorated the living room.

Mrs. O. R. Scott was winner of score.

Delicious pie and coffee was served to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pepper, Mr. and Mrs. C. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. David, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Scott and Mr. Scott.

Student Poll Gives Victory To Roosevelt

A. & I. Campus Holds Election

By CARL CHILTON Jr.

KINGSVILLE — Franklin D. Roosevelt will win the 1940 presidential election by a very large majority if a poll taken on the campus of Texas A. and I. is a fair index. The final results showed that Roosevelt got 74.9 percent of the votes cast, while Wendell L. Willkie received 25.1 percent. The students who are eligible to vote in the national election voted as follows: 75.5 percent for Roosevelt and 24.5 percent for Willkie. The pupils not eligible to vote in the national election voted 68.9 percent for Roosevelt and 31.1 percent for Willkie. Of those who voted for Roosevelt, 92.3 percent were Republicans, while the remainder claimed no party affiliation. 35 percent of the Willkie voters were Republicans, 48.8 percent were Democrats, and 16.2 percent claimed no party affiliation. Of those who voted for Roosevelt, 13.3 percent were against a third term.

There were 501 votes cast, which represents slightly less than half of the student body. The voters ranged in age from 16 years to 62 years.

A. and I. is reputed to be the first college to conduct a campus wide poll of the presidential election, and this contest roused considerable interest both on and off the campus. The ballot included the voters age, classification in school, political party, opinion of a third term and why, and preference as to Roosevelt or Willkie.

The student activity at A. and I. in which Rio Grande Valley students are most prominent is probably journalism, where Valley pupils play a very important part in the work of the South Texan, campus newspaper, and El Rancho, college annual. Five Valley students are now engaged in work on El Rancho. They are Dora Hager of Mercedes, associate editor; Richard Rowe of McAllen, business manager; Bill Holmes of McAllen, sports editor; Rosemary Smith of McAllen, class section worker and Betsy Lee Kidder of Mercedes, general assistant.

Valley pupils also play a prominent part in the work on the South Texan. Those working on this publication are Myrtle Wolfshohl of McAllen, editorial writer; Bill Holmes of McAllen, sports editor; Richard Rowe of McAllen, columnist; and George Jean of Donna, business manager.

The oficers of the A. and I. Press Club are from the Valley. These are Richard Rowe, McAllen, president; and Myrtle Wolfshohl, also of McAllen, secretary-treasurer. At the beginning of school a contest was conducted by the South Texan in order to find a suitable name for the sports column which appears weekly in the paper. After all names were in, the winner was found to be Mary Ellen Osborne of Harlingen, who submitted the name, "Javelina Round-Up." This column is written by Bill Holmes of McAllen.

Judy Wahler, senior student from Raymondville, has been elected president of the Cousins Hall House Council. Miss Wahler is also vice president of the Beta Gamma sorority.

Kathryn Jean of Donna, Betty Platt of San Juan, and Ella Beth Melton of Pharr have been elected as members of a group to represent Cousins Hall in the Freshman Girls Council.. Dolores Stephens of Raymondville is representing the Goode House. This council is an important cog in the freshman class organization, as it helps plan parties and otherwise helps with the business of the class.

For Jolly Courtesy

MISSION — Fortunes were told and other Hallowe'en games were played to provide traditional celebration of the season Thursday night when Billy Mack Summers was host for a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. Summers. Colorful costumes worn by the guests gave the keynote to the party hour fun.

Refreshments were served after the games to Mary Catherine Owens, Shirley Smith, Barbara Boyle, Joy Triplett, Wanda Rohr, Mae Daniel, Jo Nell Bryant, Alma Lee Bryant, Billy Gibbs, Tommy West, Louis Gene Marcell, Fannie Bell Toney, Leona Effington, James Garrett, Dan Martin, Richard Sharp, Logan Garrett, Vernon Hill, Robert Rome, June Galloway, Bobby Conine, Margaret Jane Buckley and the host.

Unusual Musical Features Are Included In Program For Fine Arts Concert

Famous Window Is Represented In Music

HARLINGEN — Gifted Valley artists will contribute toward a program of extraordinary interest Thursday evening when a fine arts concert will be presented in the First Baptist Church to open the annual convention of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs. Mrs. Charles Huntley, Harlingen, is in charge of arrangements.

Two unique features of exceptional interest will be the first presentation of "Our Lady of the Beautiful Window," a poem written by E. Eugenia Shepperd of Donna with a musical setting by M. Flora Todd of Harlingen, and harp melodies played by Helen Sheldon of Mission.

Window Inspiration

Inspiration for Miss Shepperd's poem was the best loved of all the windows of the Chartres Cathedral, which made a lasting impression on Miss Shepperd when she was abroad. For 750 years "Our Lady of the Beautiful Window" looked down in the greatest treasure house of stained glass from the Middle Ages. Now the priceless window lies buried deep in the earth to assure safety from bombs of war but when peace comes again it will again give inspiration to thousands.

Miss Shepperd's poem is as follows:

Our Lady of the Beautiful Window

"Lady of Light, most gracious and serene,
With all the world's deep sorrow in your eyes,
With mother-sweetness, pitying and wise,
All joy, all suffering. O Mighty Queen,
The majesty of Heaven is in your mien,
As quietly you watch without surprise,
Each dawn that glows, each day that flames and dies,
Until a thousand passioned years lie clean.

Enthroned upon your lap you hold our King,
And on your head are shining from above
Three rays of Glory from the Heavenly Dove.
While round your throne a bright adoring ring
Of Angels kneel to worship you, and raise
Their candles and their censers in your praise."

Composes Music

Miss Todd, widely known Harlingen composer, composed the musical setting for Miss Shepperd's sonnet to the window and the composition won first prize in the Texas Composers Guild contest sponsored by the Texas Federation of Music Clubs last year. Just recently she arranged it for a trio of women's voices and this arrangement will be performed publicly for the first time at the fine arts concert of the Eighth District Federation of Music Clubs Thursday night, November 7, at the First Baptist Church at 8 o'clock.

Miss Sheldon is remembered by a number of Valley music lovers for her playing a few years ago for a fine arts concert in McAllen and for the Valley Federation of Women's Clubs in Harlingen.

Harpist Well-Known

Miss Sheldon traveled extensively as a child with her family. Her father was the late Arthur Frederic Sheldon, internationally known lecturer, writer, and business scientist. She carried out diversified study with some of the finest masters of the harp in this country and abroad. Among her instructors were Helena Stone Torgerson of Chicago; Maud Morgan of New York; Mme. Baurziech of the Dresden Orchestra; and Mlle. Henriette Renie of Paris.

Most of her training, however, was with Mildred Dilling of New York, and most of her public appearances have been in and around Kingston, N. Y. where her family have a summer home or in New York City where she has done radio work. She has played in leading churches, schools, and colleges with return engagements before such groups as The National Arts Club and International House.

No admission will be asked to the fine arts concert which starts at eight o'clock. Guests are asked to arrive promptly.

PILOT IS VISITOR

MISSION—Lieut. Lawrence M. Brooke, ranking U. S. Air Corps instructor at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala., was a week-end guest in Mission, flying from his base field Saturday morning and returning Sunday night. He was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Ethel Brooke, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lawrence. The plane in which he made the trip was a B T-14.

Five New Members Welcomed

Los Ebanos Garden Club Hears Program

BROWNSVILLE — Members of Los Ebanos Garden club, meeting Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Thurman A. Kinder, Jr., welcomed several new members, heard a report on a recent bridge benefit and a program.

New members are Mrs. John H. Kroeger, Mrs. B. M. Works, Mrs. H. B. Fleming, Mrs. Russell McChesney, and Mrs. Joe Stead.

Mrs. Robert M. Duffey talked on Planting for All-Year Bloom, and Mrs. E. P. Reed discussed bulbs.

Mrs. Joe K. Wells reported the benefit which netted the club eighty-three dollars. Sixteen tables gathered for the games at the Brownsville Country Club. Door prizes went to Mrs. John Puckett, Mrs. H. H. Boyd, and Mrs. J. J. Young, and a bingo prize went to Mrs. Martin Price. Tables prizes of home-made cookies, made up in attractive cellophane packages, were given also.

The tea table, pretty with a centerpiece of white and pink corona was decorated by Mrs. W. E. McDavitt, and was presided over by Mrs. R. A. Porter. Mrs. Larry Lightner was in charge of the cakes and cookies, Mrs. M. P. McNair, the prizes, Mrs. Jack Wiech, tickets.

The club has expressed thanks to the Thomas H. Sweeneys for use of the clubhouse, to the McInnis Floral company, and Los Ebanos Greenhouse for prizes, to C. W. Colgin, for supplies.

The next meeting of the club will be held Nov. 21 when Mrs. Frank L. Davis will be hostess, and Mrs. Jack Wiech and Mrs. Martin Price will be in charge of the program.

Dunkers Club Plans To Continue Aid For Needy Family

HARLINGEN — Miss Frances Payne received the gavel from Mrs. E. O. Matz at the close of the Wednesday night meeting of Dunkers Club, D. S. held at the home of Mrs. Mary Craig. Hostesses for the evening were Misses Edna Belle Farrar and Frances Payne. The new corps of officers will assume their duties at the next meeting at the home of Miss Bernice Prenzler on West Lincoln.

During the meeting plans were made to continue welfare work being carried out by the club group in behalf of a family and baskets will be given at Christmastime and at Thanksgiving.

After the meeting the members enjoyed games of hearts and refreshments noting the Hallowe'en colors were served.

Guild Makes Plans To Aid At Banquet

HARLINGEN — Members of St. Anthony Guild formulated plans for assisting with the banquet November 11 following the formal dedication of the new St. Anthony church when they met this week with Mrs. Larry Powers. Mrs. A. L. Bourg was co-hostess.

Father Antoine was a guest and reported on plans for completing and furnishing the building. Mrs. J. J. Murray, president, had charge of the meeting.

Mrs. J. A. Staats presented the guild with several handsome pottery vases for the new altar.

Announcement was made of the monthly communion for members of the guild who are to attend mass in a body Sunday, November 3, at 7:30 a. m.

Three new members present were Mesdames Walter Linehan, T. S. Morselander, and R. L. Briggs.

Next monthly meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Johnston with Mesdames C. S. McQueeney and Carl Peters as co-hostesses.

Wed In October

Mrs. Wiley V. Slayton of Pharr was before her marriage in early October, Miss Miriam Wildish. She is the daughter of Mrs. Allen Wildish and the late U. S. Army Captain Allen Wildish of Neilsville, Wis. Mr. Slayton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Slayton of Pharr. (Kerr Studio.)

Autumn's Hues Noted In Inviting Setting For Informal Courtesy

HARLINGEN—Mrs. W. A. Blair's home was the setting for a strikingly attractive event of early autumn when she entertained at bridge in the early hours of Thursday afternoon with an additional number of guests coming in later for an informal coffee. Marigolds and yellow roses added to the inviting environment and introduced the seasonal keynote expressed in Hallowe'en symbols and other interesting details.

When scores of bridge guests were tallied, Mrs. John Quincy Adams held top score and Mrs. Joe Coins low. Each received a pretty award.

Mrs. W. H. Bunge presided at the tea table, serving bridge guests for the first hour of the coffee and Mrs. Forrest Runnels poured from five to six o'clock. The table was particularly lovely with its low center arrangement of marigolds and roses flanked by lighted yellow tapers.

Mrs. J. J. Willingham assisted in the dining room throughout the period. About forty guests were entertained.

Fun Frolic Valley-wide

WESLACO — Approximately 300 young people from 16 Valley towns shared in a Hallowe'en party of marked novelty given Tuesday night when a Senior Epworth League festival was held at the migratory camp.

Members and guests were led blindfolded through a "hall of horror" as a prelude to the evening's entertainment which included stunts presented by 14 league groups. Rev. J. E. Lovern, Edinburg, was in charge.

Punch and sandwiches were served in the late evening.

Each guest brought a gift to the camp and the senior young people's group at the camp were special guests.

HEALTH IMPROVED

PHARR—Mrs. Jennie Carrothers, mother of E. M. Carrothers, who has been ill at her home here for the past several days is much improved.

Executive Meeting Set For Music Club

HARLINGEN — An executive board meeting of the Music Lovers Club has been called for Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. preceding the regular meeting at the Woman's Building. Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, president, has urged all officers to attend.

Subject for the day will be "The Classical Viennese." Musical compositions will be from Haydn Mozart, Beethoven, and Debussy. Mrs. J. A. Alderdice is leader.

Dance Is Hallowe'en Feature

McALLEN—McAllen's younger set welcomed Hallowe'en in gay and informal fashion this week when they were guests for an outdoor dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chaleff with Miss Hilda Chaleff as hostess.

Young dancers included Kathleen Wharton, Betty Jean Edelstein, Norma Lee Westerman, Doris Vines, Doris Jolly, Doris Kilborn, Mary Jeanette Bonneau, Aileen Harding, Marjorie Isenberg, Betty Elaine Berman, Shirley Chambers and Gloria Izaguirre;

After an evening spent in dancing, refreshments were served to the group.

Hockaday Honors Harlingen Student

HARLINGEN — Miss Billie Faye Trammell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Trammell, was initiated into membership in the Classical club at Hockaday Junior College where she is a freshman student this year. Meetings will be held weekly in the sitting room of one of the freshman houses.

Miss Trammell was one of the honorees at the President's tea, given Sunday afternoon, November 3, by Miss Ela Hockaday, president of the college, for new members of the Junior College staff, new students and their parents.

Bridge Is Enjoyed By Mission Guests

MISSION—Four guest players added interest to the games of the Friday Bridge Club this week when Mrs. Ross Smiley was hostess Friday afternoon. Three tables were arranged in rooms where decorations featured bouquets of roses.

Out of club players were Mrs. J. C. Monk, McAllen; Mrs. Gene Rowland, Mrs. Tom Overstreet and Mrs. D. A. Perkins. Member players were Mrs. T. B. Waite, Jr., and Mrs. Jack Wilson, McAllen; Mrs. John W. Griffin, Mrs. Marion Dill, Mrs. S. R. Greer, Mrs. H. L. Drummond, Mrs. C. C. Phillips and Mrs. Thomas Robertson.

After the games, Mrs. Smiley served a sandwich course.

Visit Laughter

HARLINGEN — Mr. and Mrs. Claud Carter have gone to Austin to spend the weekend with their daughter, Kathleen, who is a first year student at the University of Texas.

Pretty Event Of Season Is Coffee

Weslaco Setting For Hospitality

WESLACO — One of the prettiest informal courtesies of the autumn season was given by Mrs. K. P. Caskey and Mrs. Jimmy M. Davis, who were hostesses for a coffee at the home of Mrs. Caskey Tuesday morning from nine thirty to twelve.

The mantel in the living room held beautiful arrangements of tithonia with bouquets of chrysanthemums and marigold accenting the colorful theme chosen for the lovely hospitality.

The refreshment table, beautifully laid, was centered with an elaborate arrangement of chrysanthemums and marigolds in crystal bowl.

Presiding at the silver coffee service were Mesdames W. F. Powell, Joe Mead, Jack Zillafro, and Catheryn Chadick, Mercedes assisting in the dining room were Mesdames Nix Harrington and W. B. Lauder of Mercedes, and Mesdames Clifford Scott, C. B. Cooper and Virginia Oltman.

By ANNE ADAMS

Whether you're a school girl or a hard-working career girl, this vivacious Anne Adams jumper style will appeal to you. For Pattern 4609 is disarmingly young, from its pinafore-type back bodice buttoning to its basque-effect front, complete with optional lacings and a pointed waistline. The slim handspan waist is accented by the jaunty flare of the skirt. The pattern includes a fresh little blouse that may have long full sleeves or short puffed sleeves, perhaps trimmed by perky bows to match the fabric or ribbon lacings on the jumper. Stitch up this jumper in wool, in corduroy or in velveteen, and make several blouses—say one in a new patriotic print; another in a soft crepe.

Pattern 4609 is available in junior miss sizes 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17. Size 13, jumper, takes 1 3-4 yards 54 inch fabric; blouse, 1 5-8 yards 35 inch contrast.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

Extra! Extra! Everything about the Anne Adams winter fashion book makes extra news! Its vivid pages are filled with styles new as tomorrow's headlines—each in a sure-to-fit pattern. Smart sewing for the whole family circle, including workaday modes and party frocks . . . tailored twosomes and afternoon dresses . . . slimming matron styles and lively "small fry" outfits . . . basic wardrobes for office and campus. Order your copy now! Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

President Cultura Club

Mrs. R. L. Clayton of La Feria is the president of the Cultura Literary Club. A popular young matron of La Feria, Mrs. Clayton is active in Eastern Star and social circles and in church work. (Holbrook's Studio.)

La Feria Club Groups Busy As Move Toward Varying Objectives

LA FERIA — Pursuit of study topics of widely divergent but engrossing interest will be carried out during the club year, the Inquisitive Reporter, learned in going from one club meeting to another. She sought to learn more about the topic of study and to glimpse the yearbooks.

Yearbooks are compiled by program committees and their distribution at the first club meetings always proves exciting and full of interest. The Inquisitive Reporter knew this and she visited the clubs at their first meetings.

Travel to distant lands has always been popular but due to the chaotic conditions in the Eastern hemisphere, the club studies are remaining on the North American continent. All the Women's Clubs of La Feria have had their initial meetings and the Inquisitive Reporter gleaned the information desired.

The music club, with Mrs. W. C. Seesley, as president, plans to study poets and artists as well as musicians and musical compositions.

"South of the Border," or "Mexico" was the theme chosen by the Sorosis club having Mrs. James Goode as president. Opening meeting of the club was marked by a Mexican luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ruth Craig.

"Canada, Land of the North," and "North of the Border" was presented to the Cultural Club at their annual luncheon which opened activity for the year. Meetings are held each second and fourth Tuesdays. Mrs. R. L. Clayton is president of the club composed of 18 members. Guest Day is an outstanding event on each year's program.

"Live at Home" has been selected for the motto for the Home Demonstration Club. Preservation of foods and balanced diet is urged for every member. Mrs. Ray Foncannon is the president. Meetings are held each first and third Monday of the month.

Mrs. H. H. Clausen, energetic and ambitious president of the Garden Club, has planned a full program for the members this year. The membership plans to have La Feria abloom in the spring forming a part of the Bougainvillea Trail. About 50 are in the club which meets twice monthly, alternating a business with a social meeting.

Dean of all the clubs in La Feria and among the oldest in the Valley is the Twentieth Century which was organized in 1915 and has been a member of the Valley Federation for 14 years. The artistic cover of the yearbook was painted by the artist members of the club. The study topic is "The Modern Woman's Bookshelf." The membership of the club which meets the first Thursday of each month, includes 22. Entertaining of husbands and Guest Day are social events of unusual interest during the year. Mrs. H. W. Voiers is the very efficient president, directing this year's activities.

The Parent-Teacher Association is continuing study directed to promote child welfare and to better and improve conditions for all children in the community, especially aiding in providing better playground equipment. Mrs. A. H. Moore is president and membership totals around 125 each year.

The Child Study Club, the infant in local club groups, has a membership of younger mothers, whose study is based on small children. This group has given very libarally towards the purchase of playground equipment for elementary school. Mrs. D. R. Self is president. Mrs. Hugh Davis is president of the Legion Auxiliary and has advocated aid for the underprivileged children of the community as the major goal for the year. Enlarged membership is to be listed as a minor objective. Yearbooks for this group are unique and original in design.

Objectives For U.D.S. Are Outlined

BROWNSXILLE — Formation of additional chapters of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas is one of the objectives of the patriotic organization this year, Mrs. Harbert Davenport, Brownsville, has announced. Mrs. Davenport is president of the Ft. Brown chapter of Brownsville and is also president of the Lieut. Thomas Barlow chapter, N. S., D.A.R.

Objectives of the Daughters of the Republic are to perpetuate the memory and spirit of those who achieved and maintained the independence of Texas; to encourage historical research into the earliest records of Texas, especially those relating to the Revolution of 1835 and to promote the observance of dates commemorating historic events and birthdays of Texas heroes; the marking of historic spots; and to cherish and preserve the unity of Texas as achieved and established by the fathers and mothers of the Texas Revolution.

Any woman, personally acceptable to the organization, is eligible for membership whose ancestors were of the Old Three Hundred or served the Colonies and the Republic of Texas in a civil or military capacity and were loyal to the Republic of Texas during her struggle for Texas, or received grants of land as settlers before the annexation of Texas Feb. 19, 1846.

The Old Three Hundred refers to the first colony brought by Stephen F. Austin in 1821.

The Ft. Brown chapter, one of two organized on the Rio Grande border last year, is the only one south of Corpus Christi. The other new chapter is in El Paso.

Full information as to membership requirements may be obtained from Mrs. Davenport.

Third Physical Checkup Of Students In Donna Shows Need For Corrections

DONNA — Mrs. W. F. Rose, president, and Mrs. E. K. Ewing, health chairman of the Donna high school P.-T. A. have just completed and released the statistics of the high school health check up that absorbed all of every day last week.

Because of 60 percent corrections needed were indicated after the October 1939 check-up, both local school authorities and the Hidalgo County Health Unit decided to repeat the check for the third consecutive year.

Besides Dr. Joe May and Miss Alma Rollins of the County Health Unit, Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Ewing gave their full time and Dr. Paul Frenzel, Dr. O. C. Hyder and Dr. John Webb each gave a full half day while Mesdames Gayle Martin, Fred Hammons, O. E. Agan, A. W. Nations, R. B. Holmes, E. A. Capen, Mary Ening and Miss Marian Hankin gave a half day or more each.

Out of the 371 students examined fifty or more than 13 1-5 percent were found perfect; 15 per cent were undernourished, 36 percent had dangerously poor posture; 50 percent had bad oral hygiene, 22 were badly in need of dentistry, 45 percent had bad throats, eight percent showed one or other skin infection. Fifty-seven were vaccinated against smallpox, and 76 took the tuberculin test with a result of 57 negatives and 19 positives. Letters has just been mailed to all homes represented excepting only the fifty percent found perfect.

BOWIE CARNIVAL FINANCIAL SUCCESS

HARLINGEN — Checkup of returns from the Hallowe'en carnival staged Tuesday night at Fairpark by the Bowie P.-T. A. shows a net return of slightly more than $80, Mrs. Don Mounts, financial chairman, has reported. Every booth and attraction disposed of stocks and the fish pond, in charge of Mrs. M. F. Drury, was the most popular attraction for children.

ALAMO FINANCE PROJECT SUCCESS

ALAMO—A large crowd attended the Hallowe'en carnival at the Alamo grammar school on Thursday evening. Prizes were given to 12 in the costume parade. An excellent program was presented by the students in charge of Miss Ruth Johnson. A cake walk was a center of interest. The sum of $35 was cleared, which goes to the P.-T. A.

McALLEN—An estimated 1,500 are expected to attend the picture show here November 12 and 13 staged by the members of the Wilson, Lincoln and Junior high schools Parent-Teacher Associations.

Tickets for the moving picture show at the Palace Theatre will go on sale tomorrow morning following a coffee at which delegates from the three associations will be present. The coffee will be held at El Rancho Grande.

The show will feature Gloria Jean in "A Little Bit of Heaven." Tickets are selling for 40 cents each. One half the sale price will be given to the P.-T. A., with the individual school whose representative sells the ticket retaining their part of the sales. No proceeds from box office sales will be turned over to the P.-T. A. Residents were asked to purchase tickets from group members.

The downtown business section has been blocked so that business firms will be called on only once to purchase tickets.

Proceeds from the sale will go toward the association's activity fund.

WILLACY CARNIVAL IS NOTABLE SUCCESS

RYMONDVILLE — Described as the most hilarious community gathering ever held in Raymondville, the fashionable "Womanless Wedding" held major interest at the Hallowe'en carnival Thursday night in the school auditorium.

In the bridal party were Mervin Hayes, bride; "Shorty" Wade, groom; F. E. Fisher, father of the bride; Foster Crowell, best man; A. B. Read, flower girl; Lud Snow, ring bearer; Roger Robinson, Harry Douthit, Harvey Maddy, W. H. Post, N. G. Parr, and Felix Burns, bridesmaids.

M. C. Yeargan, mother of the groom; F. J. Scheel, mother of the bride; Roy Duddlesten, infant brother of the bride; C. N. Howard, Joe Gist, R. K. Finlay, country cousins; E. V. Rinner, soloist, accompanied at the piano by Edwin Hackett.

Harry W. Cook was minister and Hubert Wright announcer.

Claiming particular attention in the carnival setting for their beauty was the gorgeous flower display sponsored by the Raymondville Garden club featuring over 400 roses, flowers, and shrubs. The blossoms in a setting of stately pottery, baskets, and paintings, the handiwork of Mrs. George Lochrie, were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Chambers, Mrs. Frederick Humphrey and Mrs. W. E. Arnold.

An exhibit of dolls including several hundred, a few a hundred or more years old, also was a popular attraction and was arranged by Miss Clara Dean Smith, Miss Ruth Beachum, and Mrs. Crystal Karnes.

Ban Asked By Church Group Is Endorsed

MISSION—Mission church women endorsed a plan for enforcing the regulation against selling liquor to minors when the Federation of Church Societies met Thursday afternoon for a quarterly meeting at the First Methodist Church. A plan sponsored by the Christian social relations committee of the First Methodist Church at Harlingen was presented to the federation and received the endorsement of the federated organization with recommendations for its acceptance by the local units.

Briefly the plan asks that individuals having knowledge of liquor dealers who sell to minors or of minors purchasing liquors may report the circumstances to the state liquor board member, Bill Terry, Brownsville, who will conduct the investigation without revealing the identity of the person reporting. Need for the moulding of public opinion to stamp out illegal sales of liquor in Valley cities was stressed in a letter written by Mrs. Joe Wood, chairman of the Harlingen committee. Church women's groups in the Mission federation planned to send copies of the letter to their individual members.

Other features of the Thursday program included a book review and musical numbers. Mrs. F. W. Dooley, president, directed the business program. Mrs. R. A. Mathis was elected program chairman.

Mrs. Allen G. Roe presented the study feature, a review of "The Book Nobody Knows" by Bruce Barton. Solo numbers were presented by Mrs. A. J. Strawn and Mrs. Everett Tankersley. Mrs. T. A. Humason was at the organ for the accompaniment and for a brief organ concert before the opening of the program.

Hostesses for the social hour were members of the Presbyterian Auxiliary. Refreshments were served to 80 guests.

Mrs. E. P. Reed Given Handkerchief Shower, Luncheon

Babson Says

BELIEVES U. S. VOTERS WILL SOLVE SNARL

Most Important Vote In 2 Generations

By ROGER W. BABSON

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — The most important day in two generations of American voters comes next Tuesday! In the olden times when a sovereign king opened his mouth that settled it. No one could challenge his decision. He might make mistakes; he might be stupid, even ignorant; but he was the "works" and his word was law. So it is when the American voter casts his ballot. In a crisis such as we are facing today in our national life, what group can we count on when it comes to voting? It seems to me we must count on those independent voters who have the horse-sense that enables them to see through bunk and get to the heart of a crucial issue!

Who Are They?

Our Democratic ideals imply that the country can always depend on the consensus of judgment of the average man for the wise direction we need in any given situation. The average man does not rate with the so-called intellectuals nor with the rich. He is, however, far more numerous than all the privileged and favored classes put together. At the ballot box he counts accordingly. The well-to-do still count for more than their actual number, because of the influence they exert on those associated with, or depend upon, them, but their influence is waning.

And yet, even when great issues are at stake at the polls, there is often a fairly close decision. It was certainly so on Lincoln's second election. Furthermore, the slander of that time has never been exceeded unless it was during Washington's campaign. In more recent times do not forget that the Honorable Charles Evans Hughes went to bed on election night in 1916 fully convinced he was the country's next president. He awoke the next morning a defeated man.

Voters Disagree

In the national election four years ago, notwithstanding the tremendous sweep by states made by the Democratic Party, there were 17,000,000 men and women who voted on the other side. These 17,000,000 Republican voters were by no means from the privileged and intellectual classes. Among the 27,000,000 voters on the winning side there was a large proportion of the highly educated and the well-to-do. Included in these millions was also a considerable percentage of the so-called middle-class, not exactly intellectuals and certainly not rich.

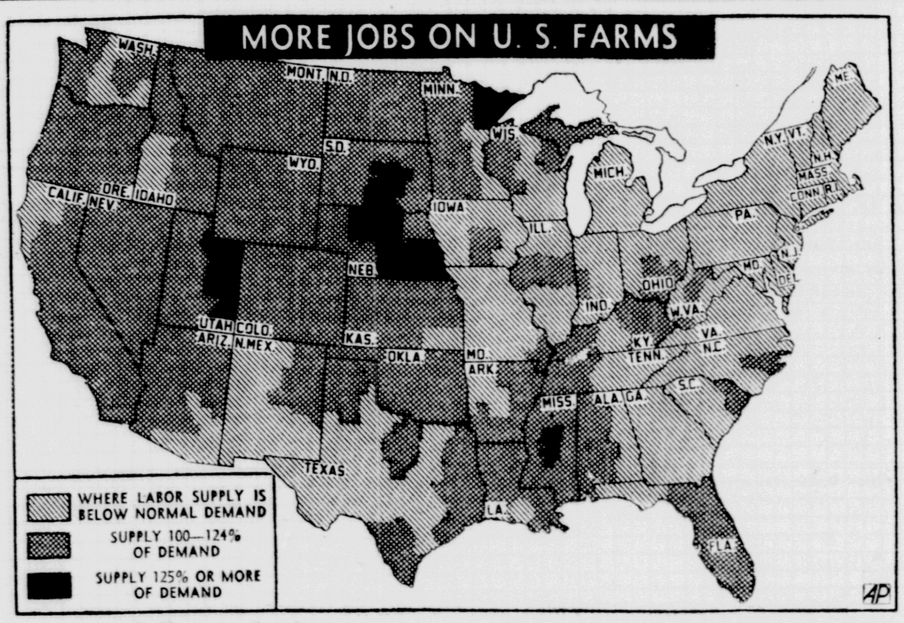

It would appear that out of the 44,000,000 votes cast for the two major candidates there were 34,000,000 voters who tied each other—one vote for, balancing another vote against. I am considering now the popular vote, not the electoral vote where the ratio made the result seem like a thunder clap of popular opinion. The 17,000,000 voters who backed Landon do not see it that way. They know that a shift in less than a million votes, some say 300,000, in a number of crucial states would have given Landon a majority of the electral votes and put him in the White House. If even in a landslide like four years ago a shift in less than two and a half percent of the voters might have changed the final result, what can we expect now where the contest may really be close?

On November fifth, more than ever before, party lines will be ignored by millions. Great numbers of Willkie Democrats have declared themselves, and, as was the case four years ago, there is a flood of Roosevelt Republicans. I am now making no definite forecast, but it certainly seems to me that the results next Tuesday will be determined by the independent voters. What makes independent voters? Certainly one factor is discontent with blind partisanship and disgust with party leaders. Again it is sheer restlessness and dissatisfaction with the way things are going. As the veteran Arizona Senator Ashurst gracefully declared, on his enforced retirement after forty years in the United States Senate: "It is the privilege of the people to displace an official and substitute another for any good reason, or for a bad one, or for no reason at all."

That implies what we all know, that there is no accounting for what the electroate may do in any given situation. Facts, reason, vision, principle, may all play their part, but so do ignorance, prejudice, and passion. Remember that people are governed by their emotions far more than by their intellect! These confusing doubts are the marks of sovereigns all the way down through the pages of history. And by what reason should we expect any more from our 44,000,000 sovereign voters on Tuesday than could be expected of kings, emperors, or dictators?

My Own Beliefs

I, however, have great faith in our voters regardless of their party, race, or creed provided they will take their God and their conscience into the polling booth with them. As I consider the map of the world today who, in his right mind, would want to swap the American electorate for any other system of government? Are our voters wise? Will they do what is fundamentally right next Tuesday? Yes, I believe they will. The natural automatic checks and balances in our religion and body politic, representing among the voters every creed and element, provide a great saving grace. Remember, however, this free flow of human elements at the polls, combined with the provisions of our Constitution, give us the only security upon which we can count.

AP Feature Service

There are more farm jobs than farm workers in many states, reports the department of agriculture.

A yar ago 108 men and women were on hand for every 100 jobs. Now it's the other way round. For each 100 jobs there are 97 workers.

The demand for farm labor, as shown on the map, exceeded supply along virtually the entire Atlantic coast. The corn belt states, busy with fall harvesting, also had more jobs than could be filled. Apple picking and planting of fall wheat in the Pacific northwest put a few white spots on the map there too.

Important New Field Is Developed By Nichols

McALLEN — An important new oil field, known locally as the Nichols field because the prosoect was worked out by C. R. Nichols, McAllen geologist, had been opened Saturday in southwestern Hidalgo county, barely a mile east of the Samfordyce field in an area surrounded by dry holes.

Sharing importance in Valley wildcatting activity was the second production test in an eastern Willacy county wildcat and plans for another 10,000-foot hole in southeastern Cameron county.

The new field opener was Royal Oil and Gas Company No. A-1 Yturria Town and Improvement Company, Portion 45, Reynosa Jurisdiction, at the west edge of the old Samfordyce townsite. Operators cored the discovery sand at 3,489-3,502 feet and cemented casing on bottom at 3,535 feet. Through casing perforations (30 shots) at 3,497-3,503 feet, the well made 75 barrels daily on 1-8-inch tubing choke with 925 pounds tubing working pressure and 1,350 pounds closed-in casing pressure. The sand was about 600 feet deeper than the deepest Samfordyce sand, where most production was found at 2,700 feet. The dark brown crude was Mirando type oil at 28.4 degrees corrected A.P.I. gravity.

The same operators will make a new location shortly. The discovery well is located on an 800-acre block obtained jointly by Royal Oil and Gas of Houston and Baldridge and King, McAllen independent operators and drilling contractors. The latter firm drilled the discovery well. Each holds 400 acres in the block.

As a result of the new discovery, Phillips Petroleum Company was reported to have bought 300 acres in the immediate vicinity, in both Portion 43 and Portion 44, east and north of discovery, at a price of $50 per acre cash, a total consideration of $15,000. Whether Phillips will undertake an immediate drilling campaign was not known. Phillips is heavily interested both in Samfordyce and Sullivan City, and drilled the first producer in the Vicksburg ever completed in this part of South Texas in a 9,600-foot hole in the Sullivan City area.

In northeastern Hidalgo county, Humble Oil and Refining Company No. 1 American Life Insurance Company, Lot 1, Block 13, Mo-Tex Subdivision, Las Mestenas Grant, was reported coring hard shale past 7,600 feet.

In eastern Willacy county, production tests were under in deep sands cored in Pan-American Production Company No. 1 Porfirio Garcia, Share 13, San Juan de Carricitos Grant. The hold was bottomed at 9,002 feet and 7-inch o. d. oil string was cemented at about 8,900 feet. Through casing perforations at 8,635-70 feet, the well failed to produce satisfactorily and operators plugged back to shoot again at 7,698-7,710 feet. Production test is now under way on the shallower perforations. Other sands farther up the hole are reported scheduled for testing if the deep sands do not pay off.

Another important new coastal wildcat was assured for Cameron county, scene of considerable unsuccessful deep drilling thus far when Pure Oil Cmpany let contract for a 10,000-foot hole to Falcon-Seaboard Drilling Company of Houston. The test will be Pure No. 4 Gatewood Newberry and will be 24,724 feet east and 12,900 feet south of the most northerly corner of the Skelton Survey and in Share 3 of the same survey, roughly about six miles southwest of Port Isabel.

Starr county added its usual quota of wildcats to Valley activity Saturday.

In extreme southeastern Starr just west of present production in the Sullivan City field, Baldridge and King No. 1 Garcia Land and Cattle Company, Portion 100, Camargo Jurisdiction, a short distance north of U. S. 83, was temporarily shut down at 4,526 feet. Heavy gas shows were reported in the hole and it was awaiting orders.

In eastern Starr about 1,600 feet east of all production in the big Rincon field, W. N. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. 1 Harry Seyfriedt, Survey 928, a highly important semi-wildcat, was reported coring around its anticipated total depth of 5,300 feet, but no details were being made public.

Another Starr county semi-wildcat, Sun Oil Company No. 2 Mateo Saenz, Survey 80, about five miles north of the Rincon field and 1,700 feet north of the Sun No. 1 Saenz, recently completed discovery well of another new Starr county srea, was drilling around 4,1000 feet. No shows have been reported.

A mile west of present production in the "North Rincon" area, three miles north of the Rincon field proper, Harvey Oil Company No. 1 R. J. Moore, Survey 513, was coring for sand expected around 4,850 feet.

* * *

McALLEN — Lower Rio Grande Valley proven fields had added ten new producers Saturday as operators continued steady development of new acreage. Almost as many new wells were drilling in the fields. Six different fields reported the new producers, five of them being in the Colorado field in western Jim Hogg county.

The new Colorado wells included the following:

Sun Oil Company No. 9 N. S. Thaxton, Survey 630, in the north part of the field, cored the sand at 2,956-62 feet and cemented 5 1-2-inch o. d. oil string atop the sand. The well was reported showing oil on production test, but was not gauged.

Sun Oil No. 11 N. S. Thaxton Survey 630, another north edge well in the field, made 181 barrels daily on 3-16-inch tubing choke with 320 pounds tubing working pressure and 590 pounds closed-in casir g pressure from sand cored at 3,001-0? feet.

Humble Oil and Refining Company added three new wells.

Humble's No. 18 King Ranch-Colorado, Survey 42, gauged 150 barrels daily on 3-16-inch tubing choke from sand at 3,011-20 feet with 175 pounds tubing working pressure and 500 pounds closed-in casing pressure.

In the same survey, Humble's No. 22 King Ranch-Colorado made 202 barrels daily on 3-16-inch tubing choke from sand at 2,990-3,001 feet with 300 pounds tubing working pressure and 500 pounds closed-in casing pressure.

Humble's No. 21 Atwood Heirs, Survey 36, in the southern part of the field, pumped 100 barrels daily from sand at 3,090-3,101 feet, while the No. 20 Atwood Heirs, Survey 36, pumped 10 barrels daily from sand cored at 3,070-72 feet.

The big Rincon field in eastern Starr added two new producers and had two others coring for the field sands.

W. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. B-35 Slick Estate, Survey 486, in the southwest part of the field, made 152 barrels daily on quarter-inch tubing choke through casing perforations (59 shots) at 3,808-18 feet with 175 pounds tubing working pressure and 779 pounds closed-in casing pressure.

In the same part of the field, W. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. B-29 Slick Estate, Survey 266, gauged 190 barrels daily on quarter-inch tubing choke with 325 pounds tubing working pressure and 680 pounds closed-in casing pressure. Producetion came through casing perforations (80 shots) at 4,242-58 feet.

W. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. B-37 Slick Estate, Survey 486, was coring past 3,700 feet, while the W. R. Oavis, Incorporated, No. B-38 Slick Estate, Survey 486, was coring at 3,686 feet.

Onet new test was drilling in the south part of the new Boyle field in southern Starr. Borsodi Petroleum Company No. 3 Juan de Dios Vela, Share 2-A, Portion 91, Camargo Jurisdiction, was coring for the field sand just below 3,200 feet.

The Sullivan City field in southwestern Hidalgo county was adding a new producer while a new test was rigging up to spud.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Tomas (Villareal) lores, Tract 236, Portion 39, Reynosa Jurisdiction, was running production test through casing perforations in sand at 4,065-80 feet after tests in sand at 4,100-05 feet showed a high gas-oil ration. The well made considerable oil on the test.

John Messenger's No. A-1 V. G. Chapa, Tract 238, Portion 40, Reynosa Jurisdiction, was rigging up to spud at once in the northeast part of the field.

In the Sun field in northeastern Starr, Sun Oil No. C-2 George H. Speer, Survey 235, an inside location, was continuing production test through casing perforations (9 shots) at 4,640-42 feet after making oil during the test. The hole was bottomed at 5,002 feet and 5 1-2-inch o. d. casing was cemented at 4,675 feet.

Sun Oil was rigging up the No. No. A-6 N. R. Montalvo, Tract 3, Los Retaches Grant, in the northwest part of the Sun field.

Humble Oil and Refining Company resumed operations in the west half of the Kelsey field in Jim Hogg county with the No. 21 Kelsey-Bass, one location west of the field discovery well in the southeast corner of the Kelsey-Bass Ranch. The well cored sand at 4,738-48 feet, where the hole was bottomed in sand, then cemented 5 1-2-inch o. d. oil string atop the sand.

Humble added another producer in the Brooks county section of the field. The No. 75 J. C. McGill, on the north edge of production, flowed 49 barrels daily on 9-64-inch tubing choke from sand at 4,726-32 feet. The hole wat bottomed in sand and casing was cemented at 4,726 feet. Tubing working pressure was 900 pounds and closed-in casing pressure was 895 pounds.

Humble staked locations for the Nos. 20, 21, 22 and 23 Kelsey-Bass all in the southeast corner of the Kelsey-Bass Ranch, as well as locations for the Nos. 73, 76, 77 and 78 J. C. McGill, all along the north edge of the Brooks county portion of the field.

The Valley Railroad, one mile in length, in McKean County, Pa., is the shortest line-haul railroad in the United States.

TEXAS QUOTAS SET TO JUNE

16,959 To Be Called For Service

AUSTIN — (AP) — State selective service headquarters announced Saturday the estimated net quota for Texas for the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 20, 1941, is approximately 16,959.

Adjutant General J. Watt Page, state director, pointed out that for the present the estimated net allotment for each local board will be prorated on a percentage basis according to the number of registrants in each community.

The maximum requirements for men, to include February 28, 1941, have been estimated by periods as follows: One call in November, not earlier than November 19, 1,573 men; one in December, probably between the first and tenth, 575; three calls in January, the first 2,077, the second 5,535, and the third 2,499; one call in February, 4,700.

Co-ordinate Program

The periods and quotas have been determined to conform with the War Department program for completion of Housing facilities, hospitalization and supplies to provide for the increase at various camps and stations.

After a national quota basis has been established, adjustments will be made locally from time to time, depending upon the number of men placed in class 1-A and those joining the armed forces by entry other than through selective service.

State headquarters will issue calls on local boards for the actual number of selectees required not later than 10 days before inductions.

Mission Building

10-Year Record Hits $170,934 Total

MISSION—Building permits issued here the first 10 months of 1940 have brought the year's total higher than for any full year since 1930, a survey showed this week. October permits totaled $12,500 through Wednesday, bringing the year's figures to $170,934. Nearest figure to that during the decade was in 1937 when the total figure was $122,189.

Permit for construction of the Mission post office was responsible for $63,200 of the 1940 figure. In the 1940 total, 48 residences were included.

October permits included one residence, one church repair project, one residence repair, one business building repair project, an $8,000 brick theater building, and a $1,000 repair project on a vegetable packing shed.

Defense Stimulates American Railroads To Decade Near-Top

CHICAGO—(AP)—Stimulated traffic coincident with national rearmament is bulging railroad budget requirements to near the highest level of the decade, a survey of developments in the rail center indicated Friday.

With freight traffic expanding contraseasonally to the best volume of the year, analysis of recent expenditures for equipment in anticipation of prospective needs to speed the defense program showed that more than half a billion dollars have been spent so far in 1940.

Crowell To Head School Glee Club

McALLEN—Bethel Crowell was elected president of the Boys Glee Club of the McAllen high school the past week. Other officers named were Donald Blair, vice president Tommy Rowe, secretary-treasurer and Logan Cockrum, reporter.

Director William Doyle said the mixed chorus had tentatively decided to meet every Wednesday night as well as Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

Draftee's Sentence Set Aside By Judge

HOUSTON— (AP) —J. P. Souders, 33, told Judge Langston King he had attempted to volunteer but the army turned him down because a two-year suspended sentence for murder was charged against him.

Judge King set aside the judgment so Souders could enlist.

VISITS IN AUSTIN

RIO GRANDE CITY—Mrs. Fred D. Guerra is spending several weeks in Austin where she is the guest of Mrs. Mae Deer.

American Is Credited With Shooting Down Three Nazi Fighters; Has Part Credit For Downing 2 Big Bombers

SALEM, Ill.—(AP)—Exchanging machine-gun bullets with German pursuit and bombing planes over England is described as "fun" in letters received by City Commissioner V. A. Williams from a former Salem shoe factory worker who now is a pilot in the British Royal Air Force.

The writer, Philip Leckrone, was listed this week by the British Air Ministry as the victim of an aircraft accident but not hurt seriously.

Almost weekly since the last of August, Leckrone has written graphic accounts of his experiences and in one letter said he had downed three Messerschmitt German pursuit planes as well as having credit for "a half of a bomber and a third of a bomber."

"There's something strange about it, but I'm not the least bit scared when I'm in combat," he wrote. "In fact, it is fun."

He told of chasing a Messerschmitt 109 "clear across the Channel before he got his last bath. Anti-aircraft guns were shooting at me from the French coast before I got him.

"I had made up my mind to get him if I had to follow him back to Berlin. He never got out of the plane. It hit the water and went under. I felt sorry for him but he would have put me there if he could have. That makes three 109's to my credit now."

Leckrone praised the fighting ability of the R.A.F. and their Spitfire planes, contending in one letter "it is amazing what a few Spitfires can do to a hundred or so Huns."

He said Spitfires dive straight down at 600 miles per hour and every time he pulls the plane out of the dive, it "blacks me out. I'm getting used to being blacked out."

Student Election

Pharr School Names Robert Evans

PHARR—Robert Evans has been elected president of the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo student body for the 1940-41 school year, according to announcement from the school.

Other new officers are: Secretary, Marian Cramer; treasurer, Jayne Rhinehart; reporter, Paul Flowers; and the following class presidents: Seniors, Bernice Baden; juniors, Kenneth Risinger; sophomores, Rex Barrett; freshmen, Helen Cox.

SAN ANTONIO RITES

La VILLA—Funeral services were held in San Antonio on Thursday of the past week for Mrs. Mary Stromeyer, age 85, life-long resident of that city. The deceased is an aunt of Arthur Schneider of this city.

DESTROYERS NO GOOD-NAZI

Haw Tells Britains Ships No Bargains

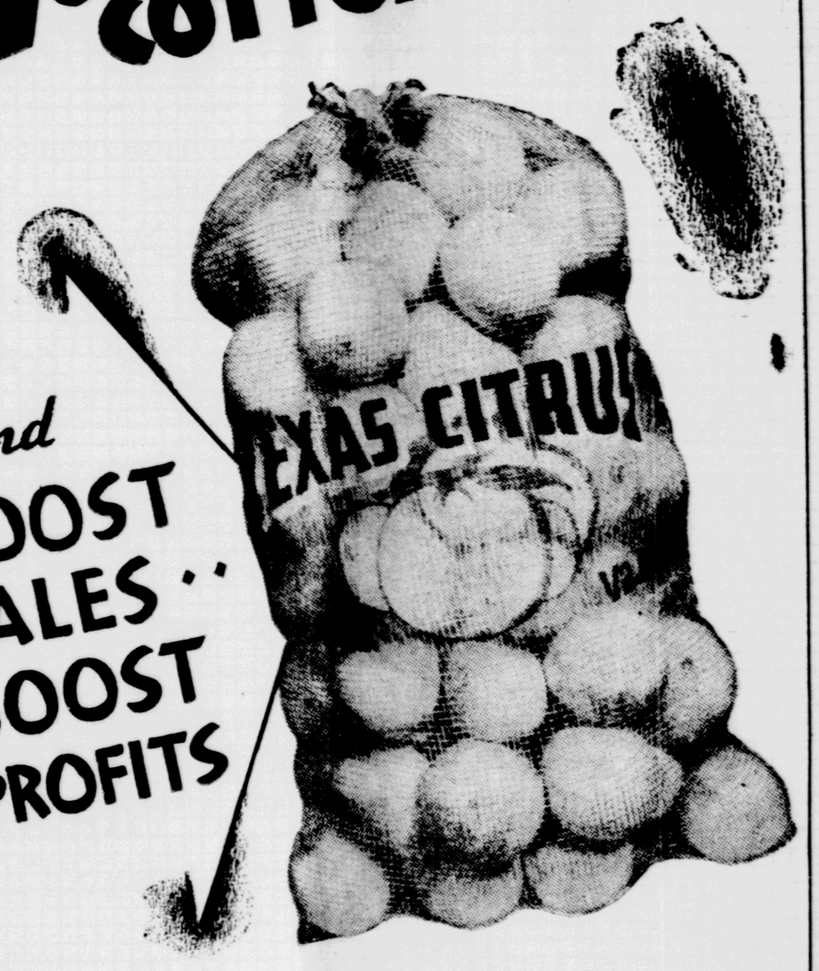

NEW YORK — (AP) — Lord Haw-Haw, Germany's radio commentator, declared Saturday in a broadcast heard by CBS that two of the "decrepit" United States destroyers traded to Britain were so severely damaged crossing the Atlantic "they had to be abandoned and sunk by their crews."

Two more "were so badly damaged they had to be taken in two by others," Lord Haw-Haw declared, adding that this was proof that "the 50 obsolete destroyers which Britain bought from the United States in exchange for valuable naval bases are none too valuable."

DO YOU REALLY LOVE ME, HONEY?

That's the question a young wife asked her husband a few weeks ago. The husband thought for a moment, then answered: "Of course, you know I love you." "Well," said the young wife, "then buy me a home that we can call our own, where we can raise our children in peace." Result: They called 139, Harlingen. Today they own the home they were renting. A nice husband, don't you think? How about asking your husband the same thing? It may pay off.

A LOVELY NEW BRICK home at 1202 East Tyler, large rooms, plenty built-in features. Lovely tile bath, closed in porch. Price and terms you can handle.

813 EAST FILMORE—A large, well-arranged 6-room home. Folks, this is a $5,000 home you can buy for a little more than half its value. Just have your contractor tell you what a new one would cost. Don't wait, this is your opportunity. Good terms.

THAT LARGE, GOOD-AS-NEW 5-room brick, 418 West Buchanan. Folks, it's a steal. Just see for yourself.

DAY'S NEWS OF NATION'S MARKETS

NEW YORK—(AP)—While considerable irregularity prevailed in Saturday's brief stock market, the list managed to emerge from another satisfactory week with small plus signs in the majority.

Dealings were sufficiently lively at times to put up the volume to 466,860 shares, largest two-hour turnover since June 15. It compared with 418,070 last Saturday. Trading for the week also was the liveliest since mid-June.

Gains and losses generally held to negligible fractions and the Associated Press average of 60 issues was up .1 of a point at 45.9, making net improvement for the week .9. A month ago the composite stod at 45 and a year ago at 52.7.

United Aircraft got up a point and fractions were tacked on Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Chrysler, Consolidated Edison, Western Union, Texas Corp., Standard Oil of N. J., United Aircraft, Paramount, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward and Santa Fe.

Losers included U. S. Rubbers, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda, Kennecott, Johns-Manville, Monsanto Chemical, American Can and International Harvester.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—Except for a dip of about ½ cent a bushel early in the session, the wheat market Saturday rode at even keel on the support of quiet buying attributed to mills and professional dealers covering previous short sales or reinstating recently sold out lines.
Corn and other grains also held near Friday's closing levels but soybeans advanced more than a cent to a new high for the season. Pit brokers said the quiet grain trade largely reflected unwillingness of many dealers to take market action before the election.
Wheat closed ¼ lower to ¼ higher compared with Friday, December 84-83⅞, May 83¾-¼; corn ¼-½ higher, December 59⅞, May 61; oats ⅛-¼ up.

FINLAND REBUILDS

AP Feature Service

The Finns aren't licked. With the same gallantry that held the Mannerheim Line under weeks of shell-fire, they are pitching in to rebuild their country. Thousands who lived in areas ceded to Russia are being settled on new farms with the help of $4,000,000 in contributions from abroad. About half of that was Sweden's gift—2,000 ready-made houses.

2 Valley Companies Chartered By State

AUSTIN—(AP)—Two Rio Grande Valley firms were among those chartered Friday by the state of Texas here.

Rio Grande Box Distributors, Weslaco, listed as a manufacturing concern with $10,000 capital stock, named Richard L. Cotton, Mamie M. Cotton and Mabel D. Perry incorporators. Mid-Valley Growers, Donna, a marketing firm, has no capital stock. Incorporators are E. J. Farnsworth, A. O. Smith and R. E. Hart.

Equipment Bought For Science Work

McALLEN—New equipment for the biology, chemistry and physics classes of McAllen high school have arrived, Principal A. M. Weir said Saturday, consisting of electroplating devices, rheostats, hydraulic press model, lucite rod illuminator, a set of pumps, and a convex mirror 15 inches in diameter.

The equipment was ordered from the Chicago Apparatus Company at a cost of $280.

C. C. Secretaries Plan Mission Meet

WESLACO — President J. N. Hager of the Valley Secretaries association announced Saturday that a special welcome would be extended S. M. Patterson, new manager of the Edinburg chamber, when the association meets Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at Mission.

Mrs. Edith Volz, Mission secretary, will arrange the meeting place. Plans for the tourist season and Valley winter celebrations will be the main topics for study, Hager said.

McAllen Collects Funds For Lights

McALLEN—Collection of a special fund to be used for McAllen's Christmas street decorations and a meeting to set the definite scheme for the Yule lights are due to be completed this week by the two McAllen chambers of commerce.

Committees named by President Bill Ely of the junior chamber began work Saturday collecting the special fund required. Chairman O. Terry of the chamber's trade extension committee, will call a joint meeting of his members and a special junior committee to decide on the decoration scheme.

Navy Contract Goes To United Aircraft

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Navy Friday awarded a $3,315,845 contract for airplane engines to the United Aircraft Corporation, Pratt and Whitney aircraft division, East Hartford, Conn.

No details of the type, number, or delivery dates were disclosed.

Negro Draws Chair Death For Slaying

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON—(AP)—(U.S.D.A.)—Business on domestic wools during the past week was mostly very slow in Boston, but quotations were quite firmly maintained. South American wools of fine and half blood grade had a fair demand for lots that had arrived or were due to arrive within a short time. Medium wools of domestic or foreign origin were slow. Australian wools were being bought for import. Graded combing bright fleece wools were quoted at 44-45 cents, in the grease, for fine Delaine and combing half bloods, and at 46-47 cents, in the grease, for three eighths and quarter bloods.

Whitewing Data

Marsh Obtains Facts For Legislation

McALLEN—Data for new legislation to better protect Valley whitewings were being collected this week by E. G. Marsh, biological survey official and members of the Texas State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

A preliminary draft of the legislation will be submitted to a Valley-wide legislative committee, named under a plan proposed by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce for recommendation and study. The group will be named by D. F. Strickland of Mission. The plan agreed on by game officials and Valley sportsmen will be used in an information campaign to be conducted by Valley chambers of commerce.

Walther League Has Hollowe'en Supper

HARLINGEN — The Walther League of Harlingen, St. Paul's Lutheran church, was entertained at the Santa Rosa home of Mrs. Henry Kloepping, with a Hallowe'en supper the night of October 31.

Present for the supper were Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Wolf and children, Dolores and Lenore; Arnold, Leora and Leona Pomrenke, Billy Kloepping, Harold, Violet and Arthur Wendt, Harley Swanson, Mary Lucille Ratliff and Mr. and Mrs. Kloepping.

SPEERS ARE HOME

MISSION—Mr. and Mrs. George Speer have returned home after an extended trip of several weeks to the west coast, across to Maine, and home the coast route through the eastern seaboard and southern Gulf states. Their daughter, Mrs. Hal C. Farley of Austin, accompanied them.

Model Plane Activities

By GARVER MURRAY

THE TRI-CITY CLUB and the McAllen Aeronuts had a nice meet last Sunday, and a large crowd in spite of all the wind. Scotty Bowlin of Harlingen carried off first place, with Buck Guion second and Jimmy Warner, a new comer, taking third. In the gas models Scotty had to chase his "Sailplane" eleven miles before it came down. Some flight. Russell Linnard took first in the rubber powered events with Paul Smith and Ed Timlin taking second and third. R. G. Temple, Jr., had hard luck with his "Sailplane" when it cracked up trying to fight the wind. You boys had better get in some practice on

Mexico's Role In American Defense Shown In Latest March Of Time Film

The role which Mexico's twenty million people will play in American Hemisphere Defense, and the reasons behind Mexico's re-born friendship for the U. S. today are shown in the latest March of Time film, "Mexico."

This newest issue in the March of Time series was filmed by staff cameramen who went to Mexico four months ago, when March of Time's editors first foresaw the increasing importance of Uncle Sam's nearest Latin neighbor-country in the development of American hemisphere defense strategy. The March of Time cameramen have since filmed the recent elections and other events in Mexico which are destined to have a vital effect upon Mexican-U. S. relations.

Mexico has long been resentful of the might and power of the U. S. and has frequently expressed this feeling during recent years by her open sympathy for Soviet Russia and her economic cooperation with Nazi Germany and Japan in the sale of oil and other materials vital to the war machines of those countries.

But Mexico today faces a dilemma, the March of Time film shows, because her leaders realize that cooperation with the U. S. in hemisphere defense is the only way in which Mexican independence can be preserved. The film also reveals for the first time the full story of Mexico's new kind of revolution and how it is affecting her poverty-stricken people today.

The new March of Time is booked for showing Sunday and Monday and both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the State Theatre in Mercedes; Tuesday and Wednesday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen and at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

James Stewart Seen In Comedy Romance

"No Time For Comedy," starring James Stewart and Rosalind Russell is a lightning fast comedy which concerns a young newspaperman who writes hilarious plays about Manhattan's penthouse set, scores a smash hit of Broadway and marries the star of his plays.

His plays a success, the young playwright begins to find more amusement in hob-nobbing with the smart set than writing about them. At one of the parties he meets the lovely blonde wife of a millionaire who convinces him that he is throwing away his genius on writing such frivolous plays and under her influence he begins writing a play with a "message."

On the opening night of his dramatic play, the audience laugh, just as they have always laughed at his plays. But this time no laughs were intended. By the time the play is ended the entire audience has left the theatre, including the playwright's blonde "inspiration."

"No Time For Comedy" is booked for current showing Sunday and Monday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Palace Theatre in McAllen; Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the State Theatre in Mercedes, Thursday and Friday.

Mickey Rooney And Judy Garland Star In Musical Comedy

The gayest, swingiest musical of the season is the Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland starring picture "Strike Up The Band," which also features Paul Whiteman and his band.

With Mickey as its leader and Judy as its girl singer, a high school band in the story wants to go to Chicago and try out for Whiteman's auditions for promising young orchestras. But they don't have enough money, and their methods of getting it are hilarious.

"Strike Up The Band" is booked for showing Sunday and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the Palace Theatre in McAllen, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Brigham Young" Epic Of Early West

Louis Bromfield's thrilling story "Bringham Young—Frontiersman," starring Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell is one of the most impressive love stories the screen has ever told.

Tyrone Power portrays the role of Jonathan Kent, Mormon scout, while Miss Darnell is cast as Zina Webb, a young girl who, although not of Mormon faith, flees with Power's family after her father is killed in the massacre at Nauvoo, Illinois, when masked raiders pillaged the city and struck down defenseless hundreds.

The featured supporting cast in "Brigham Young — Frontiersman" which is scheduled for current showing Sunday and Monday at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

GREEKS HURL FOES BACK INTO ALBANIA

Emergency Indicated By Sudden U. S. Navy Move

3 DESTROYERS QUIT BALBOA DURING NIGHT

Even Some Sailors Left Behind

BALBOA, Canal Zone—(AP)—At least three United States destroyers sped out of Balboa Harbor into the Pacific late Saturday night after suddenly calling some sailors to the boat from shore leave.

Naval officers here indicated belief that no emergency had arisen but would not say definitely that it was mere practice maneuver.

Crew Called Suddenly

Loud-speaker systems in beer gardens were used to call some of the sailors but the ships left so suddenly that some of the crewmen appeared to miss them. One boat load of sailors sped out in the wake of the destroyers apparently seeking to put the men aboard outside the harbor.

Naval officials would not discuss details of the move.

Breaking an official silence on activities of American warships in the Caribbean Sea, the navy department in Washington earlier in the day said that the Atlantic patrol force was now carrying out "scheduled exercises" in that strategic area.

The patrol force of eight destroyers and six patrol-planes, under command of Rear Admiral Hayne Ellis, left Key West, the announcement said, for training and patrol operations in the Guantanamo-San Juan-Culebra Island sector.

While there was no elaboration of the navy's announcement, it was learned that the patrol force's itinerary includes a visit to St. Lucia, British island where an American naval base site may be established.

Officials said the fact that St. Lucia was close by Martinique might account for reports from Vichy that American warships had arrived at that French island.

From St. Lucia the warships could quickly move to Martinique in event the Vichy government's collaboration with Germany was regarded as impairing French sovereignty over the island.

BERLIN GETS HEAVIEST YET

RAF Attacks Last Many Hours

LONDON—(AP)—In two smashes at Berlin officially called the heaviest ever loosed by the RAF, British bombers were declared Saturday night to have repeatedly bombarded three of the German capital's main railway centers and left a mile-long blaze about a vital power station.

One raiding wave, the air ministry said, went into action shortly after 8 p.m. Saturday night and stayed on the job for nearly two hours and another flew in over the city at 2:20 o'clock Sunday morning and fired away with bombs for 40 minutes.

It was Berlin's Klingenburg Power Station, returning pilots reported, which formed the biggest torch left by their tons of explosives and hundreds of incendiary bombs.

The press association said the RAF's harder and more frequent raids on Berlin were due directly to the "vigorous personality" of Britain's new chief of the air staff, Sir Charles Portal, who "believes In dealing heavy blows."

Body Of Texas Man Is Found At Mobile

MOBILE, Ala.—(AP)—The body of a man identified as William Warren Mitchell, Port Arthur, Tex., who had been reported missing for a month, was found near here Saturday.

Sergeant Floyd Davenport of the state highway patrol said the identification was established by papers in the dead man's pockets. He was the mate of the tankship Gulfcoast.

Turkey Calls Twenty Classes To Colors

LONDON (Sunday)—(AP)—A Reuters, British news agency, dispatch from Istanbul today said all Turkish infantry and cavalry men of 20 classes who have not yet done their military service were called to the colors, effective Monday.

'No Fourth Term' Pledges Roosevelt; Willkie Makes Last Major Address

WORLD CRISIS SAID REASON FOR 3RD TERM

'Personal Ambition' Is Denounced

CLEVELAND —(AP)— President Roosevelt said Saturday night that the "storm" now raging over the world was the true reason why he was running for a third term and that "when that term is over there will be another president."

In his "final national address of the campaign," prepared for a nationwide broadcast from Cleveland's public auditorium, he disavowed any "personal ambition."

Appeals For Confidence

Appealing to the nation to give him a "vote of confidence" next Tuesday, the President said:

"There is a great storm raging now; it makes things harder for the world. And that storm, which did not start in this land of ours, is the true reason that I would like to stick by these people of ours until we reach the clear, sure footing ahead.

"We will make it—make it before the next term is over.

"We will make it; and the world, we hope, will make it, too.

"When that term is over there will be another president, and many more presidents in the years to come, and I think that word 'president' will be a word to cheer the hearts of common men and women everywhere."

Tens of thousands of wildly cheering men, women and children stood in a cold wind to see the president pass in an open car on the way from his special train to the auditorium. Thousands more massed about the huge auditorium, which was jammed.

Mrs. Mildred Jaster, Ohio's national Democratic committee woman; former senator Robert J. Bilkley and Charles Sawyer, Democratic national committeeman, rode with him to the hall.

Roar Of Applause

A tremendous burst of applause greeted the President's appearance. It continued for more than three minutes, when Mr. Roosevelt signaled for quiet, and in some seconds of the hall went on after he began speaking.

There was booing in the crowd when the President declared that representatives of "the forces of dictatorship in our own land," which he identified as the Communists on one hand and "the girdlers" on the other, were voting without exception against the New Deal.

Loud cheering greeted his declaration that "the first purpose of our foreign policy is to keep our country out of war."

Future Of Freedom

There was prolonged cheering, too, when Mr. Roosevelt asked for "your vote of confidence" in order he said, that the American people might march forward to "a future which holds the fulfillment of our

Lucian Cary, Demos Candidate, To Vote Republican Tuesday

COLEBROOK, Conn — (AP) — Lucian Cary, the novelist, finds his candidacy for state representative on the Democratic ticket "irritating." So he is going around begging people not to vote for him.

Cary says he was nominated without his consent while on a magazine assignment in the mid-west, wasn't notified by the Democrats and didn't find out he was running until a private organization queries him on election issues.

Next Tuesday, he says, he's going to vote Republican.

18 US Bombardiers Graduate At Denver

DENVER — (AP)— Eighteen young men from 15 states were graduated Saturday in Lowry Field's first class of bombardier instructors and were commissioned second lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserv

Graduates of the 16-week course, who now will give bombing training to Air Corps men, included: Willian M. Crawford, Navasota, Tex.; Everett Davis, Eastland, Tex.; and Harve N. Johnson, Falls, Okla.

Candidates Enter Home Stretch Of Most Heated Of U. S. Campaigns

Both Willkie And Roosevelt Have Election-Eve Broadcasts Slated; 50,000,000 May Vote

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON—A campaign of tremendous—and trivial—issues, a campaign fought out with a slugging tenacity seldom equalled, a campaign holding a fateful decision for America, is almost ended.

On Tuesday the voters of the country will select the man who for four years will, God willing, sit in the White House and mold the nation's destiny in a world at arms.

They will choose between Franklin D. Roosevelt, the personification of the New Deal, and Wendell L. Willkie, lawyer and former public utilities executive who endorses a number of New Deal measures but has denounced New Deal methods and philosophies.

When these expected 50,000,000 voters pick their president they also will be selecting their vice president. He is the constitutional heir to the presidency should a White House vacancy occur, otherwise, the presiding officer of the Senate.

Henry A. Wallace, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, and Senator Charles L. McNary, the Republican candidate, have carried the burden of the campaigning on farm issues.

Thirty-five senators, all but three House members and 33 governors also will be chosen in the Tuesday balloting. Maine, holding its state election in September, already has picked its governor, a senator and three representatives in Congress.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

The minor party slates include the Socialist ticket headed by the veteran Norman Thomas and the Communist party with Earl Browder as its nominee. Roger W. Babson heads the Prohibition party's ticket.

Court actions and the decisions of election boards have ruled the Communist candidates from ballots of a number of states.

WENDELL L. WILLKIE

As election eve approaches, national issues that have been shuffled and re-shuffled through intense days and nights of speech-making take on new stature or diminish as factors likely to determine the outcome of the presidential contest. Two in particular stand out now.

First Issue Is War

The first is war. Willkie, although endorsing all possible material assistance to Great Britain, emphatically contends that a provocative attitude toward the Axis countries will lead to war if the President is re-elected.

In reply, the President says that any charge that he is heading toward war is contrary to all the facts in the record. It is for peace he has labored, he says, and will continue to labor throughout his life.

The second great issue is the summation of months of controversy over the question of concentration of power in Washington. The Republicans contend this issue is epitom-

Seen Man With Birdshot In Britches? He's Wanted

Suspected Chicken Thief Shot In McAllen But Escapes After Hearty Yelp

McALLEN—Police were on the lookout Saturday for a man "with birdshot in his britches."

O. Dooley, resident of 1506 Maple avenue, McAllen, reported to Chief of Police Noah Cannon that he fired a charge of birdshot at a suspected chicken thief about 3 a.m. Saturday.

The marauder shrieke das if he had been hit, then disappeared in the darkness, Dooley said.

Chief of Police Cannon asked any doctor who might have treated a patient for birdshot wounds to report the incident to the police department.

TEACHER DIES AT AGE OF 71

Mrs. G. T. Hamilton Funeral Monday

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. George T. Hamilton, pioneer Brownsville school teacher who taught as children many of the Valley's present day business and civic leaders, died at 12:30 p. m. Saturday at Mercy Hospital here. She was 71.

Mrs. Hamilton had been in ill health since her retirement from the Brownsville school system this year.

A resident of Brownsville for 31 years, the widely-known teacher had been a member of the local system for all but about a year of that time. The last eight years of her service she was librarian at the junior high school. She had taught in every school of the district.

WILLKIE SAYS 'OUR WAY OF LIFE' TOTTERS

Democrats Lead U. S. To 'Destruction'

NEW YORK — (AP) — Wendell L. Willkie, addressing the last major rally of his president campaign, said Saturday night that the Roosevelt administration has been leading the nation down a road "paved with good intentions" to the "destruction of our democratic way of life."

The Republican nominee asked in an address prepared for delivery before a mass meeting of his supporters in Madison Square Garden where the conflict lay between himself and President Roosevelt. He replied to his own question by saying:

"It is, and I say it solemnly and with full understanding of the terrible meaning of the words—it is that for nearly eight years our government has been carrying us step by step down a road that leads to the destruction of our democratic way of life.

Willkie, who came back to New York Saturday after a 34-state, coast-to-coast campaigning tour, asserted that he believed with the new deal in collective bargaining, wage-hour legislation, social security, relief, aid to Great Britain and a powerful national defense.

"Wrong Methods"

He declared, however, that new deal methods "are not the methods of democracy." Instead, he said, the new deal stands for:

"The unlimited spending of borrowed money—the piling up of bureaucracy—the usurpation of powers reserved by the congress—the subjugation of the courts—the concentration of enormous authority in the hands of the executive—the discouragement of enterprise—and the continuance of economic dependence for millions of our citizens upon government."

Willkie asked the support of all who believe "in the principles of American freedom," and said that he had repudiated at the start of the campaign "certain men and groups who tried to connect themselves with us."

"I repudiate, now and forever," he continued, "any and all men and women, individually or collectively, who practice or promote racial or religious intolerance or persecution.

"I want specifically to denounce, as malicious, reckless, and harmful to all concerned the whispering campaign that is being conducted

FD Pays Tribute To White House Driver

NEW YORK—(AP)—Before leaving on his windup campaign swing last night President Roosevelt paid tribute to Francis Robinson, whom he described as "the first chauffeur to drive a car in the White House service." Robinson, 65, died in Washington Friday.

"Francis Robinson, or Robbie as we knew him around the White House for so many years, will be greatly missed," the President's statement said. "He was one of those men one often encounters in government work who do their jobs with such modesty and quiet efficiency that their faithful service is not widely known."

KENEDY ROAD OPENING SET FOR DEC. 17

Plan For Celebration Now Underway

HARLINGEN — Opening of the long-awaited Kenedy County Road will occur on December 17, according to word just received here from D. C. Greer, state highway engineer. The announcement was made in a letter received from Greer by Worth Heffner, Harlingen chamber of commerce manager.

Plans are expected to go forward now for the big road opening celebration long planned by citizens of Raymondville and remainder of Willacy county, who have sought to have the highway constructed for more than 20 years.

Plan Substitute Fete

The Willacy county citizens, who see big things in store for their section as result of opening of the new highway, gave up their annual Onion Fiesta the past spring, partly because of the shortest crop in Willacy onion history, but partly also because of wish to substitute for it a road opening celebration.

Road enthusiasts from Orange to Brownsville are expected to attend the Raymondville celebration, which is expected to be held the day the road is opened. Raymondville highway leaders state they have also received word representatives from many states in the southwest and midwest as well as Canada, will also be present.

The Kenedy County Road when completed will mean mileage saving to travelers from the Valley to

OLD MAN GUNS FOR WILLKIE?

Seized With Pistol At Address

NEW YORK—(AP)—An armed man was intercepted in Madison Square Garden, twenty feet from the speakers' platform, just as Wendell L. Willkie finished his last major campaign speech Saturday night.

The man, about 60 years old, arose as the Republican presidential nominee finished, and started from his seat, followed by a woman who apparently had been sitting with him.

A couple sitting just behind, who identified themselves as Mr. and Mrs. W. Hewitt, of Garden City, Long Island, said the man took a revolver from an inside pocket and transferred it to his overcoat pocket as he arose and started toward the platform, where the candidate, waving to the cheering crowd, stood with his wife.

The Hewitts reported immediately to a patrolman, and a policeman stepped up and intercepted the man.

Police Sergeant Edward Unger, to whom the man was turned over, confirmed the report that the man had a revolver. He said it was a .22-calibre weapon, fully loaded.

The woman who had been trailing behind the prisoner, Sgt. Unger said, informed police that the man with the weapon was a Manhattan physician.

Port Arthur Hunters Get Duck Bag Limit

PORT ARTHUR—(AP)—Dozens of duck hunters returned from their blinds Saturday with limits of 10 fowl each.

Unusually heavy flights were reported in this immediate area and it was estimated that at least 1,000 birds were killed.

Patriotic Grandpop Dares 'Em Not To Let Him Register

PONCA CITY, Okla.—(AP)—Dr. A. B. Macdonald, whose age is his secret but who has a co-ed granddaughter in the University of Kansas, is registering for the draft and is ready to appeal for the right to serve his country.

"And, by gosh, I don't see how they can keep me out," exclaimed the good-natured optometrist.

"The law said every man between 21 and 36 years old had to register, but it didn't say men over that could not register. So there you are."

Draft officials said an inexperienced young clerk took the registration during the rush.

TWO BOYS CUT IN EXPLOSION OF TEST TUBE

Edinburg Collegiates Were Experimenting

McALLEN—Damon Peterson and Howard Andrus of McAllen, students at Edinburg junior college, sustained cuts from flying glass when a test tube full of chemicals exploded in a laboratory at the college Saturday about 9:30 a. m.

Young Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Peterson, was cut about the chest, face and hands. Andrus, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Andrus, received similar injuries.

The boys received treatment at the County-City Hospital, Edinburg. Andrus was released, but Peterson remained there.

The Peterson youth's father said the students had been experimenting with the chemicals outside of class.

Young Peterson had picked up the tube to examine it, and when he set it down the explosion occurred. The injuries were not regarded as serious.

Nazi Bombers Give Raid-Sore British Quiet Night's Rest

LONDON (Sunday)—(AP)—Raid-weary England, Scotland and Wales enjoyed one of the quietest nights in weeks Saturday night and early today as the German and Italian raiding squadrons, beaten back from London time and again Saturday, gave the bomb-battered British a rest.

Early reports showed that with the exception of a few districts in southeast England, the British were getting a sound sleep.

Treasury's Deficit Is $1,329,512,821

WASHINGTON— (AP) —The treasury completed the fourth month of the current fiscal year with a net deficiency of $1,329,512,821.

A summary of the government fiscal condition on October 31 showed that the deficit was $79,000,000 less than at the same time last year although expenditures attributed to national defense had been doubled.

Record Engine Order Given Wright Firm

WASHINGTON— (AP) —The War Department placed a $119,870,920 order Saturday for army and navy warplane engines, which officials said was the largest single such contract in peacetime history.

The contract went to the Wright Aeronautical Corporation, Paterson, N. J. It was believed the contract represented 9,000 or more engines.

BRITISH LAND BLUEJACKETS TO AID ALLY

Turning Of Italian Flank Threatens

By The Associated Press

Greek mountain troops held Albanian territory overlooking Koritza Sunday as Britain officially disclosed her blue-jackets had landed in Greek territory to bolster the defense against Italy.

The Greek command said a furious bayonet charge resulted in the capture Saturday of a hilltop redoubt four miles inside Albania. It opened the way for turning the Italians eastern flank while heavy artillery fire barred the other Fascist thrust in the west toward Ioannina (Janina).

Reliable Athens reports said the Fascists had failed to break the main Greek defense lines after six days' fighting through mountain gorges.

Salonika, upper Aegean port, was raided six times yesterday by as many as 22 Italian planes. Greek airmen fought them over that key port.

A. V. Alexander, first lord of the British admiralty, in a broadcast early today to the British empire said of Greece:

"The British navy is there, air support is being given, military objectives in Naples have been bombed and British troops have landed in Greek territory . . . what we can do we will do."

Land At Crete

He did not say where the troops landed but press reports said the British disembarked at the island of Crete, and the Italian high command said air attacks were directed there against ships unloading troops.

Italian "suicide" squadrons rained more bombs throughout Greece where previous attacks killed or wounded 300 civilians in Salonika.

WRITEIN VOTE IN WILLACY

Nyquist-Phillips Race Flares Anew

RAYMONDVILLE—A renewal of the duel between C. G. (Gus) Nyquist and W. H. (Bill) Phillips for the office of Willacy county treasurer was assured here Saturday night, when Phillips, the incumbent, revealed in telephone conversation that his friends had been quietly conducting a "write-in" campaign for next Tuesday's general election for the past two weeks.

Nyquist, who defeated Phillips in the Democratic primary in July for nomination to the office, said here Saturday that he had just learned of the "write-in" campaign, stating that he found out about it when a letter sent out by Phillips' friends to a voter now in Illinois, had been sent on to him by the Illinois man.

Phillips said that the campaign had been brought into the open only within the past few days, and that a "hundred or so" of his friends had approached him and advised him the campaign would be conducted "whether you like it or not."

Nyquist Saturday urged Willacy voters to turn out in full force for Tuesday's election, so that "the majority may choose," and reminded them that it is important that every voter exercise his franchise in the selection of national leaders in this time of natioinal crisis.

Reds Push Troops To Southeast Provinces

BUCHAREST— (AP) —Soviet Russia has concentrated 31 divisions of troops and three brigades of mechanized equipment in Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, travelers said Saturday upon their arrival here from the provinces which Russia acquired from Rumania last summer.

(A British military expert earlier this week said Germany had concentrated about 70 army divisions or about 1,250,000 men, in southeastern Europe.)

'Greek Victory Would Smash Axis Conquest Scheme'

British Believe Italy At Peak Of War Effort Now; Situation Now Favors England

By DREW MIDDLETON

LONDON—(AP)—British military men said Saturday a decisive check or even a stalemate of Italy's Hellenic campaign by the British and Greeks would smash the Axis scheme for conquest of the Mediterranean.

These and neutral military sources, remarking that Italy's war effort was swiftly approaching the maximum, estimated Italian troops in the field at "well over a million" or at least "70 divisions."

This figure includes units in Libya, Ethiopia, Italian and British Somaliland and those guarding the temporarily peaceful frontiers in Europe and Africa.

"Italy may talk of '6,000,000 bayonets' but these are now enough," one declared. "It is quite probable she does not have modern equipment for more than those in the field now."

British military men said they expected Italy to launch a big scale offensive against the Greek line on the southwest wing of the Albanian-Greek frontier.

Military observers said that the present situation is more favorable to the British than the first stages of the Norwegian, Flanders and French campaigns, because the Italians, and eventually the Germans, would "have to come to the British" instead of the British going to them. Such advances, they say, afford many opportunities for damaging aerial attacks.

Diplomatic sources in London broke their silence to observe that:

Germany probably was disappointed that Italy failed to wait until the Spanish and Germans were ready to strike at Gibraltar.

Failure of a blow at Gibraltar to materialize probably was due to French reluctance to agree immediately with German peace plans.

The Bulgarian government is torn between an army strongly pro-Axis in sentiments and a people strongly pro-Russian and desirous of peace.

WORLD CRISIS SAID REASON FOR 3RD TERM

Personal Ambition Is Denounced

hopes for re freedom, real prosperity, real peace."

"There are certain forces within our own national community, composed of men who call themselves American but who would destroy America," Mr. Roosevelt said. "They are the forces of dictatorship in our own land—on one hand the Communists, and on the other the girdlers.

"It is their constant purpose in this, as in other lands, to weaken Democracy, to destroy the free man's faith in his own cause.

"In this election all the representatives of these forces, without exception, are voting against the New Deal.

Proud Of Opposition

" am proud of this opposition. It is proof positive that what we have built and strengthened in the past seven years is Democracy."

Mr. Roosevelt did not define the term "girdlers" nor explain its origin.

In his address, coming at the end of a day of campaigning through eastern New York, a corner of Pennsylvania and into Ohio, the President asserted that the American people, during the past seven years, had "marched forward out of a wilderness of depression and despair."

"They have marched forward right up to the very threshold of the future—a future which holds the fulfillment of our hopes for real freedom, real prosperity, real peace.

"I want that march to continue for four years more. And for that purpose, I ask your vote of confidence."

Discusses Policies

In a detailed discussion of the administration's foreign policy, the chief executive said its first purpose was to keep the country out o. war.

At the same time, Mr. Roosevelt declared, "we seek to keep foreign conceptions of government out of the United States."

The second purpose of this policy, he said, was "to keep war as far away from the shores of the entire western hemisphere."

"Also our policy is to give all possible material aid to the nations which still resist aggression, across the Atlantic and Pacific oceans," the chief executive said.

"We make it clear that we intend to commit none of the fatal errors of appeasement. . . .

"Ours is the foreign policy of an administration which has an undying faith in the strength of our Democracy today, full confidence in the vitality of our Democracy in the future, and a consistent record in the cause of peace."

Strength Is Known

The nation's strength was measured, he continued, not only in terms of the might of its armaments but also in "the social and economic justice of the system in which we live."

"For you can build ships and tanks and guns galore; but they will not be enough," the President declared. "You must place behind them an invincible faith in the institutions which they have been built to defend.

"The dictators have devised . . . a modern, streamlined version of an ancient system.

"But Americans will have none o that."

Democracy "Moves"

Mr. Roosevelt said Democracy had moved forward in the last seven years but that now "we are asked to stop in our tracks."

"We are asked to turn about, and march back into the wilderness from which we came. Of course we will not turn backward."

The President said it was the destiny of the present American generation to "point the road to the future for all the world to see."

"It is our prayer that all lovers of freedom may join us—the anguished common people of this earth for whom we seek to light the path.

"I see an America where factory workers are not discarded after they reach their prime, where there is no endless chain of poverty from generation to generation, where impoverished farmers and farm hands do not become homeless wanderers, where monopoly does not make youth a begger for a job."

Houston, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and other Texas points, highway leaders point out, 20 miles one may or 40 miles round trip being the saving between San Antonio and such Valley points as Raymondville, Harlingen, San Benito and Brownsville, and 45 miles one way or 90 miles round trip being saving effected for travelers going from the Valley to Houston and Corpus Christi.

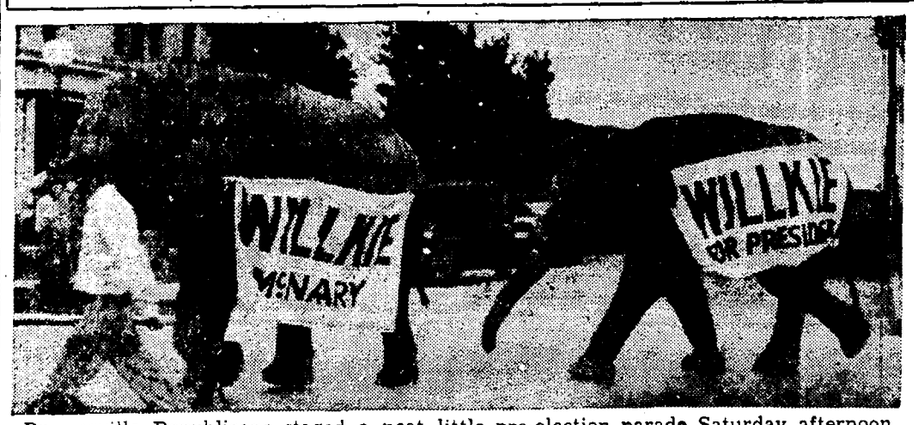

Is Shortest Route

The present highway out of the lower Valley sector to Corpus Christi and points farther upstate, the shortest present route, has to go around Kenedy county.

Because Kenedy county is ranch country, owned by a few large land owners, it was many years before Valley leaders succeeded in getting a road designated through the county.

With opening of the highway, last link in the Hu-The-Coast Highway, expected to be an important national defense unit, will be completed. Widening project on the Kingsville-Rivera road just north of Kenedy County Road, will be completed and opened also on December 17.

Patras and Larissa, and the islands of Corfu and Crete.

The Fascist high command also said its troops had penetrated the "Metaxas Line" in a pincer movement with one column aimed at Salonika in northeastern Greece and another driving south toward Ioannina, which has improved road links with Athens.

Bucharest reports said Soviet Russia has concentrated 31 divisions and three mechanized brigades on the Rumanian border. A British military expert recently estimated Germany had assembled about 70 divisions or about 1,250,000 men in southeastern Europe, ostensibly to guard Rumanian oil fields and "instruct" Rumanian troops.

Berlin Raids Heavy

The British air ministry said RAF attacks on Berlin during Friday night smashed three main railway centers and left a mile-long blaze about the vital Klingenburg power station. One wave attacked the Nazi capital for nearly two hours and a second fired away with bombs for 40 minutes.

Nazi officials said "several" civilians were killed, but asserted the only damage was to dwellings and "a small saw mill."

Aside from the attacks on Berlin, the Ruhr industrial valley in western Germany was bombed, oil plants and refineries reported struck, the great Krupp munitions works at Essen revisited and 15 German airdromes bombed.

At home the British said Axis aerial blows at London and other English cities were faltering. Summing up 12 weeks the air ministry reported the Germans had lost 2,433 bombers and fighters against a British loss of 891 planes since August 8.

Raiders Driven Off

At least six big formations numbering some Italian planes tried to break British southeastern coastal defenses Saturday but were driven off, the British said.

German press reports said new fires and severe damage especially in the Woolwich district southeast of London resulted from Nazi daylight raids.

One section of London was machine-gunned early last night but the all-clear signal sounded before midnight much earlier than usual.

Use For Old Tunnel Is Finally Smelled

WALHALLA, S. C. —(AP)— After 70-odd years a use has been found for the tunnel in Stumphouse mountain. The tunnel, dug in an ambitious railroad construction program, never was completed. Now the Clemson College dairy department has leased it for the manufacture of roquefort cheese.

FROM RAYMONDVILLE

HARLINGEN—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Humphreys of Raymondville were Harlingen visitors Saturday.

PARTIES COUNT ELECTORAL EGGS BEFORE NOV. 5TH

NEW YORK — (AP) — National chairmen of the two major political parties Saturday night predicted substantial victories for their prospective presidential candidates in the general election next Tuesday.

Here are their formal claims:

For Franklin D. Roosevelt, at least 427 electoral votes—predicted by Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic national committee. For Wendell L. Willkie, at least 324 electoral votes—predicted by Joseph W. Martin, Jr., chairman of the Republican national committee.

It requires 266 electoral votes to elect.

identified with civic and church activities in Brownsville, and was deeply concerned with the welfare of underprivileged children here.

In one of her last conversations with her son, Henry O. Condit of Brownsville, she asked that her friends be requested to omit floral tributes at the funeral services, and, instead, make some contribution to the underprivileged children's fund at the Church of the Advent, of which she was a member.

O. E. S. Matron

Mrs. Hamilton was a past worthy matron of Chapter No. 142, Order of the Eastern Star, and at various times had held office in the following organizations: Unit No. 43, American Legion auxiliary; the Daughters of the American Revolution; the Business and Professional Women's club, and the Self Culture club of Brownsville.

Mrs. Hamilton was a native of Jacksonville, Ill. She was born there April 9, 1869, and received her education at the Jacksonville high school.

She and the late George T. Hamilton, her second husband, were married at Jacksonville in 1900. The couple moved to the Valley in 1909. Mr. Hamilton died here several years ago.

Funeral Monday

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon, at a time to be announced, at the Church of the Advent. Rev. Penrose W. Hirst will officiate. The body will be taken by the Darling Funeral Home to San Antonio for cremation, and the ashes will be sent to Jacksonville for burial in the family plot.

Surviving are her son, Mr. Condit of Brownsville, and a brother, George M. Demarest of Hominy, Okla.

Texas Farmer Lads Grow Lots Of Grub

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)—Texas boys, learning to farm while attending public school, raised enough produce and livestock last year to stuff the larders of a small nation.

Surveying the results of vocational agriculture trainnig, the state department lists 33,235 hogs; 500,000 chickens; 3,521 cows; 13,259 sheep; 13,040 beef cattle; 2,406 acres of tomatoes; 16,198 acres of grain sorghums; 21,809 acres of corn.

GOP TO SEEK RANGER HELP

Demos For Willkie Want Protection

HOUSTON—(AP)—Steve Pinckney, campaign manager of the No Third Term Democrats of Houston, said Saturday night that he would appeal to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to give anti-New Deal speakers the protection of Texas Rangers.

The appeal will be based, he said, on incidents at a scheduled Willkie For President rally Saturday afternoon in Carthage.

A. M. Davis, a Houston dairyman supporting Willkie, was scheduled to have made an address, but "in the early part of his talk a group of men broke up the meeting," Pinckney said.

by the opposition to connect me with that kind of intolerance.

Not His Smear

"That kind of a campaign is not a smear on Wendell Willkie. It is a smear on our American principles.

"I will defend and always will have defended the rights and civil liberties of all people, regardless of race, creed or color. They are Americans."

Asking what candidate could bring all the people together, Willkie pledged "a unity that you have not known for eight years. . . .

"Out of that unity will come a confidence of man in man, and in each other's motives and hopes, out of that confidence will grow a new America. . . . Out of confidence will grow new industries, new business, new opportunities, new jobs."

Willkie said this campaign was a crusade of the people of America. "You started it," he continued. "You carried it forward. And you will finish it next Tuesday, won't you?"

"Last of Democracy"

"Within the hollow of your hands is shielded the last unquenched flame of democracy," he continued. "All over the world that light has been going out. Here we must keep it burning—shield it, shield it— so that the imprisoned peoples of other lands may know that light still burns—so that your sons and mine and the men that come after them may have the light to guide them—so that a strong America may once more see that path before it and go forward."

Willkie said that the campaign "is the battle of America," and added: "The drums of victory are rolling. The thunderous drums of an aroused electorate are beating in the nation tonight. Victory, victory, is on the march."

The nominee said that the campaign would mean "the victory of the people" and then quoted President Roosevelt as saying in Madison Square Garden four years ago:

"I should like to have it said of my first administration that in it the forces of selfishness and of lust for power met their match. I should like to have it said of my second administration that in it these forces met their master."

Different Plea

Willkie declared that he came with "a different plea" and continued: "I do not ask to be any man's master.

"People of America, I ask you to make me your servant."

Texas And Oklahoma Settle Land Dispute

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas and Oklahoma are writing finis to 21-year-old border dispute—in a neighborly way.

The fight of many years ended when Texas got the title to 30,000 acres of the two states' Panhandle border by virtue of a U. S. Supreme Court decision.

Texas then passed a law by which Oklahomans who thought they lived in the Sooner state can patent their titles to land which proved to be in Texas for $1 an acre. Much of it is worth $25 to $50 an acre, the Texas land office says.

They have a year from June 27, 1940, in which to perfect their claims.

2 Candidates Enter Home Stretch Of Hottest Race

ized in the proposal that, contrary to tradition, the President be elected for a third term. Dictatorship may be the result, says Willkie.

Roosevelt supporters answer that the powers of the federal government have necessarily been increased to meet successive crises—the depression, the war abroad and the urgent necessity for rearmament. They add that Congress still functions, the election is free, the press is free, speech is free, and they ask:

"What sign is there of an impending dictatorship?" Roosevelt's knowledge of foreign affairs makes a third term necessary, at a time of crisis such as this, they assert.

These two are the predominantly great issues. There are others, too:

The New Deal has discouraged and antagonized business, Willkie argues. Business is better, even, than it was in 1929, the President replies. New Deal spending is leading *to federal bankruptcy, says Will*kie, although acknowledging that defense expenditures will preclude a balanced budget for some years to come. Spending has been necessary, answer the New Dealers, to stimulate business.

"Defense Bogs Down"

The defense program is bogging down because of inefficiency in government, say the Willkie-ites and the President cannot command the confidence of businessmen necessary to speeding it up. False, is the Democratic reply.

The defense program is booming along, the administration already has the cooperation of industry, and, beyond that, can command the confidence and help of the laboring masses to a degree to which Willkie can never aspire.

Hitler and Mussolini want to see Willkie elected, say the President's supporters (and he, himself, once called attention to a newspaper dispatch from Rome to that effect.) The Willkie people answer that Willkie is as much for helping Britain and as opposed to Nazi philosophy as the President is.

And, other issues have arisen—the trivial issues, the little incidents and circumstances which have no bearing upon statecraft or the merit of the candidates, but which may make or change votes.

Elliott Causes Trouble

The President's son, Elliott obtained a captain's commission in the army air corps. It was at a time when all young men of his age were facing compulsory service in a private's barracks. By the thousands, lapel buttons labelled "I Wanna Be A Captain Too" appeared."

Both candidates, but Willkie in particular, were the targets of thrown eggs, vegetables or fruit in some regions.

And, almost at the last minute, Stephen T. Early, the President's secretary, trying to board the President's train in New York had a scuffle with unrecognizing police detail. A Negro policeman was hurt. Early, denying he had kicked the policeman, apologized to him, anyway.

All these things, the issues, the incidents, great and little, have been an essential part of a campaign highly unusual in its outward manifestations and inward turmoil.

Shifts In Support

For one thing, there have been some notable shifts in support. Such former administration lieutenants as John Hanes, one time assistant secretary of the treasury, and Lewis Douglas, first New Deal budget director, are ardently advocating Willkie's election. John L. Lewis, whose CIO organizations pumped $500,000 into the 1936 Roosevelt campaign, plumped for Willkie. Gifford Pinchot, former Republican governor of Pennsylvania, and John G. Winant, former Republican governor of New Hampshire, came out for re-election of the President.

Battling down the stretch, both candidates spoke Saturday night—the President in Cleveland and Willkie in New York. Each also has radio time reserved for an election-eve message.

Tall Corn Grows On Atlantic City Beach

GOP REPORTS FUND TOTALS

$2,993,991 Collected For Campaign

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Republican national committee reported to Congress Saturday that there had been collected $2,993,991 and spent $2,313,400 since January 1. Unpaid commitments on October 31 were listed as $345,413.

Receipts of $102,353 and expenditures of $211,578 from October 21 to October 31 also were reported. The Democrats for Willkie headquarters in New York reported receipts of $157,646 and expenditures of $121,444 during the same period.

Contributions of $14,605 and expenditures of $9,311 between October 7 and October 31 were reported by the colored workers committee for Willkie.

Contributors of $1,000 to the Democrats for Willkie organization included Alfred E. Smith, Democratic presidential nominee in 1927.

Hall Urges Care

Wrong Construction Aid To Fires

AUSTIN —(AP)— State Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall has warned against deficiencies in city building codes.

Hall explained a general study of building fires by the National Board of Fire Underwriters shows several outstanding factors which not only in themselves increase the probability of losses because of *inherent conditions but also pre*vent effective fire fighting.

These features include excessive areas, open stairways, thin walls, improper ventilation systems, interior courts, unprotected windows, inaccessible basements and subbasements, lack of fire doors, steelwork without insulation, weak floors and structural members which will NOT withstand sustained fire without failure and the presence of inaccessible places in which fire can extend vertically and horizontally without discovery.

Hall urged that firemen in every city make a thorough study of building codes with a view to removing deficiencies. Knowledge of safe construction, he added, is essential for fireman training.

HIDALGO MAPS CHARITY WORK

Red Cross Workers Will Be Chosen

EDINBURG—Red Cross roll call workers in every Hidalgo county city will be named this week, A. M. Tarbutton, general chairman, said Saturday.

Tarbutton and Rev. W. W. Stewart of Pharr, county roll call chairman, will direct the work.

Local chairmen have been named by the two leaders already. These persons will select their own assistants. Practically all the local chairmen plan to start their enlistment work November 11 and conclude it that week.

Goal for this county has been set at 5,000 members, the highest *in history, according to Tarbut*ton. More funds are needed for Red Cross work now than perhaps ever before in history, unless it might be for a few weeks during some major disaster, he explained.

Rev. Stewart urged all persons who joined the Red Cross to wear their buttons at least for a week. "A Red Cross button is a badge of honor. It marks the wearer as a sympathizer with suffering humanity and will influence others to join this great organization," the minister declared.

Artillery Duel

Border Fight Fierce As Italy Attacks

EITOLJ, Yugoslavia —(AP)— The heaviest artillery fire of the six-day Italian-Greek battle on the Albanian frontier was heard from across the border Saturday, indicating that both sides were throwing new forces into the fierce mountain fightin, southeast of the strategic Greek town of Phlorina.

Italian Alpine troops and motorized units of infantry, aided by the Fascist air force, were reported hammering strong Greek positions manned by the best of Greece's kilt d, mountain-bred troops.

Look Into The Records

This Home-Owned Business Training Institution has successfully and efficiently served Harlingen and its adjacent territory for five years.

The thorough practical training we offer at reasonable prices to those seeking positions in the Business World, provides the student with not only proficient skill, and general knowledge of business practices, but also instills into their minds the highly important feature of a high standard of moral living.

Positive evidence of our ability to give this type of training, is shown by the fact that the Business Man has learned to depend on us to adequately fill his needs.

These needs are carefully studied, and if future developments call for any additional branch of service, the need will be promptly supplied.

DO YOU WANT THE MAXIMUM FOR YOUR LIFE INSURANCE DOLLAR?

Use the same care in selecting your life insurance agent that you use in selecting your physician!

You wouldn't use the services of a physician who doesn't think enough of his profession to keep abreast of the times . . . and though you may have never thought of it, the proffered services of a life insurance agent who is not a member of the National Association of Life Underwriters should be refused for the same reason.

After studying the objects of the National Association, we believe that you will feel that a member of the Association IS MORE CAPABLE OF HANDLING YOUR INSURANCE.

Here are the Objects of the National Association of Life Underwriters:

To support and maintain the principle of legal reserve life insurance.
To advance public knowledge of legal reserve life insurance and its uses.
To promote the adoption and application of higher standards of ethical conduct in the profession of life underwriting and the business of life insurance.
To increase the knowledge of agents concerning legal reserve life insurance, its uses and its sale.
To provide through local associations for rendering community service and for forming enduring friendships.
To create and maintain a sound public opinion, to promote cooperation and good will, and in all other ways to promote the best interest of legal reserve life insurance.

HIDALGO TAX DRIVE YIELDS HALF MILLION

Two-Year Total May Reach $1,000,000

EDINBURG — Collection of delinquent taxes in Hidalgo county by the close of 1940 should be close to the $500,000 mark, bringing to about $1,000 000 the amount collected in 1939 and 1940, Harry Hall, special county attorney in charge of such collections, said Saturday.

The cost of the work, he added, is averaging about three percent of the total collected.

Hall said tax payments on installment contracts are increasing steadily. During the two years, about $250,0 worth of tax accounts have been placed on the active list through such contracts, and of that total about $150,000 has been paid in cash to date.

Oil Property Problem

Delinquent taxes on oil lands, principally in western Hidalgo county, still remain one of his principal proolems, the attorney declared. During the past week he closed a contract for payment of $6,000 in past due taxes owed by a drilling firm which has operated on a number of tracts in the county.

At the time Hall started the delinquent tax collection drive in 1937, there were about 85,000 tracts of land in the county on which taxes were delinquent. He explained that the work of preparing either installment contracts, payment contracts or tax suits was tedious and required a great amount of time. Each case is checked back on county tax records to determine the complete list of payments, and in numerous cases abstracts are checked for correct titles to property.

The tax office's routine has come to the point where 15 to 20 suits are prepared daily, Hall said.

Of all tax suits filed, only a small percentage result in pre-trial settlements, since the suits are usually lodged only after every other effort to collect the delinquencies has failed.

25,000 To 30,000 Suits

By the time all of the county's overdue taxes are "cleaned up," the attorney said, it is probable that suits will have been filed on 25,000 to 30,000 of them. The difference between these figures and the total of 85,000 tracts on which original work was started will represent the number which have been settled either through cash payments or installment payments.

Hall expressed the opinion that the county-wide tax drive is resulting in a more "tax conscious" situation among property owners. He said benefits of the work have been reflected in improved current tax collections by the county, cities and other subdivisions.

Dr., Mrs. Olmsted Return To Stay

BROWNSVILLE— Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Olmsted have returned here to make their home, and Dr. Olmsted has opened optical offices in Room 415 of the First National Bank building.

Dr. Olmsted is recovering from a second operation as the result of a traffic smash-up near Fort Worth a year ago in which he and his son, Lieutenant Charles Olmsted of the air corps, were injured.

Dr. and Mrs. Olmsted returned here in February at which time it was thought Dr. Olmsted was on the road to recovery, but another hip operation was found necessary and was performed at the army and navy hospital at Hot Springs, Ark.

Much Money Is Said Spent On Campaigns

WASHINGTON— (AP) —Declaring that there had been evidence that "exorbitant sums of money" had been expended in the national political campaigns, Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) proposed that a special joint congressional committee be created to study the entire matter and recommend "remedial legislation."

Gillette is chairman of the special Senate campaign expenditures committee appointed to police the elections of president, vice president and senators. He explained that authority of this group was limited.

LaGuardia Says GOP Fosters Bitterness

NEW YORK — (AP) — Mayor Laguardia asserted that the Republican party had waged a campaign of "greed, hate and bitterness" against President Roosevelt and his social legislation.

The campaign has developed a new form of thought known as "utility mentality," the mayor said in a weekly broadcast over WEVD sponsored by a local of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union (AFL).

Brownsville's Best Known Tin Lizzie Is To Be Replaced As Fire Chief Buys New Wagon With All '41 Trimmings

BROWNSVILLE — The best known Tin Lizzie in Brownsville will fade out of the local picture next week when Fire Chief W. C. Walker gets a new car. Lizzie is a 1933 V-8 with 260,966 miles on the log book. With the exception of one trip to San Antonio, where she was the pride of a firemen's convention, Lizzie has run those miles over the streets of Brownsville.

Her successor will be a Ford two-door sedan, painted a brilliant red, with siren, fire extinguishers, inhalator, and all the other stuff fire chiefs are asked to have handy.

In addition to a new car Fire Chief Walker will get 600 feet of new hose, enough to provide a change for two trucks. The hose will replace worn sections bought in 1932.

Head Hunting Clan Beheads 5 Natives

MANILA, P. I.—(AP)—A band of head hunters swept down out of the mountains of Tayabas province and beheaded five natives of the isolated village of Balongan in the southern Philippines, the constabulary reported.

Officials said the raid brought to 33 the number of Christian Filipinos who have been decapitated since 1937 by Ilongot tribesmen.

CHURCH HEADS ARE INDUCTED

Methodist Stewards Installed Sunday

SAN BENITO — Newly elected stewards of the First Methodist Church will be installed in a special service conducted Sunday morning by Rev. L. J. Rode. The service will close with the Lord's Supper.

Rev. Rode's sermon topic for the morning will be "And He Went A Little Farther." The choir will present a special musical program under the direction of W. E. Hatchett.

Open house will be held at the church from 2 to 5 p. m. when membership pledges will be received for the financial support of the church. Pledges will be taken after the evening service also.

Sunday evening the pastor will speak on "Clouds That Overshadow Us," and music will include a duet by Mrs. W. F. Pitts and S. V. Neely.

Stewards to be installed Sunday morning are: J. E. Thompson, O. A. Kendrick, Russell Edwards, O. E. Gause, Howard Caswell, Fred Graver, R. L. Valentine, J. Roy Taft, K. L. Lake, Jesse Welch, E. L. DEMPSEY IS NOW ARBITRATOR FOR UNION DISPUTES

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jack Dempsey has stepped into a new role —that of labor abritrator.

Appointed by Supreme Court Justice J. Sidney Bernstein, the former heavyweight boxing champion Friday decided a dispute between the American Federation of Office Employes and the Neo-Gravure Printing Company.

The award granted the union a 10 per cent wage increase and a 40-hour week, but vetoed a demand for absolute seniority in dismissals.

Leaders of the AFL organization hailed the ruling as proof that Dempsey was "not only a great fighter but a great arbitrator."

Dempsey summed up his philophy as follows: "Make each side fight clean and give each side an even break."

Wants To Know

Representative Asks Who W. Lee's For

AUSTIN —(AP)— Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's public silence in connection with the Democratic presidential campaign was criticized by Rep. Weldon Burney of Evant.

In a formal statement Burney asked:

"Is the governor with Roosevelt and his social security policies or is he with the Republicans and the bolting Democrats of this state?"

The governor made no immediate comment. A secretary said the executive had left "strict orders" not to be disturbed while in morning conference.

McDonald Criticized For Election Stand

WACO— (AP) —Former Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt and other speakers criticized J. E. McDonald and advocated the write-in campaign in behalf of W. N. Corry of Tarrant county for state agriculture commisisoner.

County Judge D. Y. McDaniel and H. S. Beard, member of the state Democratic executive committee, were the other speakers.

3 ARRESTED IN 2 RAIDS

20 Gallons Mescal Are Confiscated

HARLINGEN — Three persons were lodged in Cameron county jail in Brownsville Saturday afternoon following raids on two Harlingen residences by federal, state and county officers. Twenty gallons of mescal were confiscated in the two raids.

Two men and one woman were arrested by the raiding officers, the men being in one house and the woman in another. Fourteen gallons of mescal was confiscated when the men were arrested and six gallons taken from the home where the woman was arrested.

The raid was made shortly before noon Saturday in west Harlingen. All three arrested were Latin-Americans.

U. S. Commissioner Carlos Watson at Brownsville said hearing for the trio had not yet been held and no charges had been filed.

San Benito VFW Men Attend Convention

SAN BENITO—A delegation from the Sam Robertson post, Veterans of Foreign Post, left Saturday to attend the sixth district VFW and auxiliary convention in Kingsville.

Those listed to attend the meeting include P. Cartwright, district adjutant; Dr. D. S. Meyers, department surgeon; Mrs. D. S. Meyers, patriotic instructor; William Lockmiller, James Scaief, post commander; and William Andresen and Grover Greer of Los Fresnos.

LUNCHEON TO RETURN

HARLINGEN—J. W. Linehan is expected to return the latter part of the week from East Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas and other states where he has gone on business.

WOULD RETAIN PRESENT UNIT OF AMERICAS

Hull Advisor Claims Danger Of Loss

NEW YORK—(AP)—Laurence Duggan, adviser to Secretary Hull on Latin American political relations, said Saturday that the solidarity of American nations "could be lost overnight" if the United States "again undertook to dictate to the other American nations how they should run their own affairs."

In a speech prepared for delivery to the Foreign Policy Association, the State Department spokesman asserted that a return to the policy "of the big stick, dollar diplomacy and intervention" would have such a result, because "intervention and hemisphere solidarity are incompatible."

"If the people of this country prize the friendship of the other American peoples," he said, "then their government must base its relations on recognition of the equality and inviolability of the sovereignty of each of the 21 republics."

Better Rubber Trees

Citing evidences of the degree of solidarity already attained, Duggan said that much has been done to promote development of economic resources in Latin America. One accomplishment, he related, has been the perfection of a strain of rubber tree with an average yield three times as high as that of trees in the Far East, where most rubber used in this country now is produced.

"We may anticipate a considerable reduction in the cost of rubber to the United States consumers as this development proceeds," he said, adding that the present price of 20 cents a pound might be cut in half.

100-Plane Raid

Italy Attacks Malta Air, Naval Base

ROME — (AP) — The Rome radio broadcast a report Saturday night that 100 Italian fighter and bomber planes had attacked the British Mediterranean island of Malta during the afternoon, striking at an aviation camp and naval base in "the most important Italian air action since the outbreak of the war."

"Visible destruction" on the airdrome was claimed and it was stated that at least one British fighter plane, and perhaps two, had been shot down.

Italy Park Dotted With Soldier Graves

ITALY—(AP)—The Italy cemetery is dotted with graves of men who, arms in hand, helped make Texas and American history.

Among these are soldiers who fought with Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans in 1812; one who carried the Texas flag at San Jacinto in 1836; a soldier who fought with Taylor in the Mexican War in 1845; a member of the Rough Riders regiment in the Spanish-American war, and a sailor in Dewey's fleet at Manila Bay, together with Confederate and world war veterans.

Cotton Expert Gives Caprock Prediction

LUBBOCK—(AP)—Harry E. Blocker, cotton expert who has been making crop surveys since 1922, estimates the 1940 cotton crop for the 17 counties atop the caprock will be 414,000 bales. The estimate is based upon the August-end condition of the crop. The area ginned 355,930 bales last season.

Blocker gave Lubbock county first place with 60,000 bales; Hockley second, 55,000; Lamb, third, 52,000; Dawson fourth, 46,500 and Lynn fifth 42,600 bales. The estimate for Hockley county represents an increase of 20,000 bales over 1939.

Sahara Sands Blow Across Sea To Alps

INTERLAKEN, Switzerland—(AP)—Scientists who, throughout the year, occupy a little observatory 12,000 feet above sea level on the Jungfrau in the Swiss Alps, woke up one morning to find big red patches on the snow.

The crevasses of the nearby Aletsch glacier, instead of being deep green or blue in color, also showed a reddish-brown tint.

Investigation revealed that these red patches had been caused by tiny sand particles, blown from the Sahara desert 1,500 miles, across the Mediterranean and Italy into Switzerland.

Paris Dinner Club Has Begun Meetings

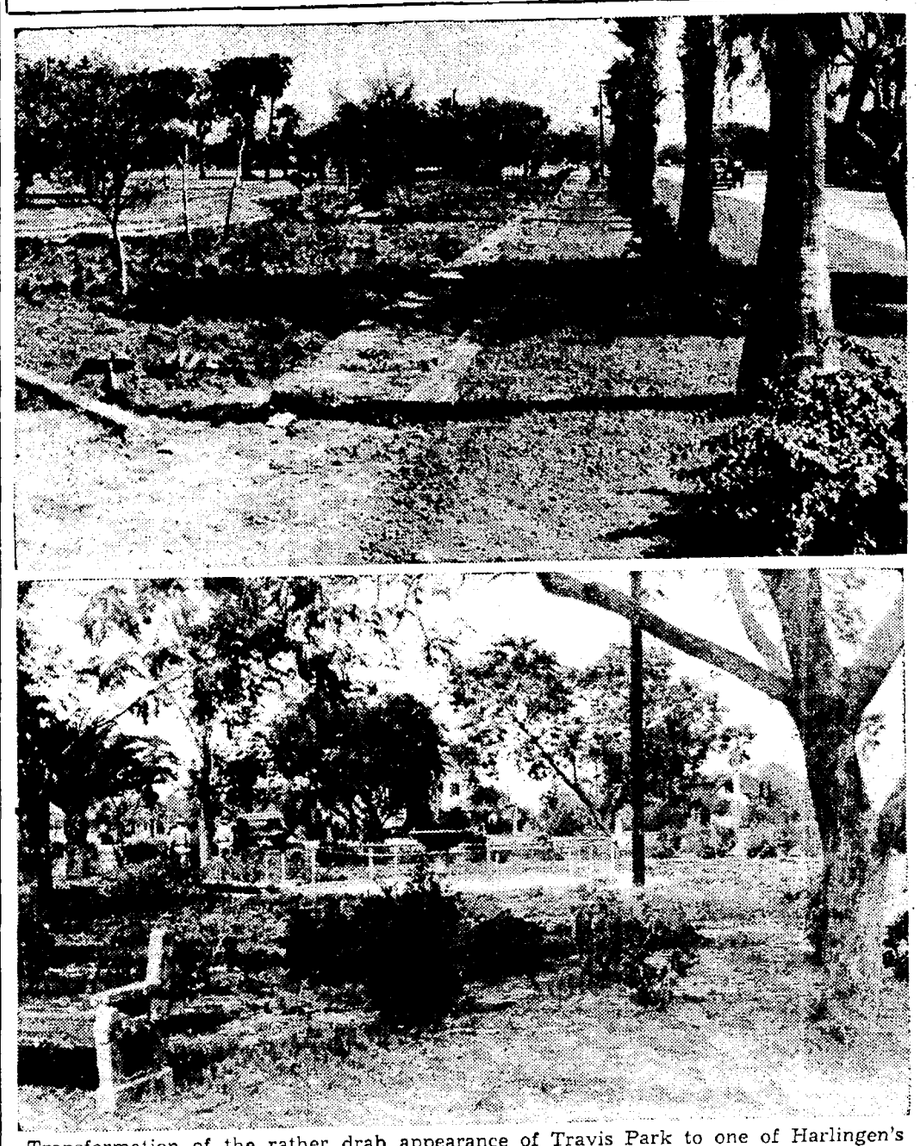

PARIS—(AP)—The American club of Paris, dating back to a dinner club started by Benjamin Franklin when he was envoy to France, has resumed its weekly meetings which were interrupted by German occupation of the city. Thursday luncheons were begun one month after the German entry. Thirty members attended the first one.

Professions Supply Most Cure Patients

DWIGHT, Ill.—(AP)—The Keeley Institute for the treatment of alcoholics has reported that professional men constitute the largest group among patients, with farmers and cattlemen second and bartenders far down the list.

Since 1933, the institute said, 169 physicians have sought treatment, compared to 48 bartenders. Most common occupation among patients, it reported, was that of salesman.

Harlingen Beautification Pushed

Transformation of the rather drab appearance of Travis Park to one of Harlingen's beauty spots was started this week when planting of most of the area to carpet grass was begun under the supervision of the newly organized Flower Lovers Club. Landscaping plans include extensive planting of trees, creation of a lily pond and several flower beds. Donations from non-club members are largely responsible for the excellent start that has been made with the project. Labor and water is furnished by the city. (Photo by Jack Watson.)

CLINIC FUND SAID SUCCESS

McAllen's Building Total $1353.25

McALLEN — Continued success has marked the McAllen Child Clinic building fund campaign, members of the Junior Service League reported Saturday.

A final check on donations will be made Monday afternoon at a tea at 5 p.m. at the Casa de Palmas Hotel for the campaign workers. A tag day Tuesday is expected to wind up the drive.

Through Saturday afternoon $1,353.25 had been deposited in the clinic fund at the City State Bank and Trust Company.

Additional secured pledges made it seem sure, league members said, that the building project would go through.

The league is attempting to raise $2,500 to build a clinic here for the care of underprivileged children. The building will be constructed under a National Youth Administration project.

Opening the drive for funds Wednesday $600 was secured in the first few minutes. The response so far has been excellent, Dr. E. A. Morris, clinic board chairman said. Its continuation will assure the city obtaining the building.

$110 Is Raised

Latin American Fete Aids Clinic

McALLEN—Members of the Latin American Business Men's club turned over $110 to the McAllen Child Clinic fund Saturday as their contribution toward the clinic to be constructed here.

The sum was the proceeds from the benefit picture show the group staged Friday night at the Aztec Theatre. President J. B. Martinez was gratified at the size of the crowd attending.

Among prominent McAllen officials present were Mayor Horace Etchison, City Commissioners Dr. F. E. Osborn, A. F. Vannoy and Fidencio Guerra; Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merts, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Vickers, Mr. and Mrs. O. Terry and Miss Zara Thigpen.

Westerners Develop 2-Wheeled Wagon

FOSSIL, Ore.—(AP)—A farm wagon going back to the principle of the two-wheeled cart has been developed here. A distinctive feature is a sled runner in front, affording three points of support. The runner also acts as a brake on downhill trips.

67-Year-Old Woman Masters Piano Art

ALHAMBRA, Calif. —(AP)— Mrs. Katie Neumann wanted to play the piano all her life, and at the age of 67 she decided it was time to learn. She's 70 now, and appears in public recitals.

Valley Beautiful

Roses Adapted to Valley

By GEORGE H. PLETCHER, Jr.

MOST OF US wonder about our favorite Tea Roses and lovely climbing roses that haunt our northern memories. The easiest reply is that our wonderful winter sunshine prevents the needed rest period required by these northern varieties.

Roses thriving in the Valley, practically all fall into the everblooming Hybrid Tea classification. Roses of this group doing best here are: pink and red Radiance, Briarcliff, Etoil De Holland, Kaiserine E. G. Hill, Talisman, Dainty Bess and Golden Ophelia. Roses thriving but not too prolific are: J. L. Mock, Frances Scott Key, Luxenburg, Roslyn, Sensation, Hoover, Caledonia and Anna Quinard.

There are hundreds of kinds of roses and by trial only can we isolate good varieties. This list is by no means complete.

There are many exceptions as soil, drainage, and water play a very prominent role in rose culture. For example: the Talisman fare very well on certain sandy soils whereas it is practically worthless on heavy clay.

Next week: Winter Blooming Annuals.

3 RESEARCH JOBS FILLED

Clayton Foundation Studies At Texas

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Clayton Foundation of Houston Saturday made possible three major research appointments at the University of Texas.

Dr. Norman B. McCullough, for the last five years research bacteriologist and biochemist with the Parke Davis Research Institute in Detroit, was appointed by university regents as senior research biologist for the study of brucellosis, undulant fever.

Two other posts, research chemist and research biologist, were filled by the appointment of Dr. Maxwell Pollack and Dr. Alred Taylor in the university's $45,000 biochemical institute, recently endowed by the Houston foundation.

The new institute, to be housed in laboratories about December 1, will study the effect of vitamins on all types of living tissue.

Too 'Much' Bull

$17,000 OIL LAND LEASE IS FILED

Phillips Firm Gets Rights In Hidalgo

EDINBURG—A $17,000 oil lease transfer was filed for record Saturday in Hidalgo county, one of the largest in recent weeks for the county.

Under terms of the lease, the Phillips Petroleum Company, which has been operating in the Sullivan City field of western Hidalgo for the past three years, obtains drilling rights on 300 acres of land in Porciones 43 and 44 of western Hidalgo. The land is near the Nichols pool, a mile east of the big Samfordyce oil field, which the Royal Oil and Gas Company recently opened when their No. A-1 Yturria Town and Improvement Company, a 75-barrel producer in sand at 3,500 feet.

The Yturria firm released the land to Phillips.

The lease runs for a term of five years, revenue stamps attached to the document indicating the total amount involved.

In addition to the least, the Yturria firm retains 1-8 overriding royalty and will receive $50 rental payments on any producing gas wells on the acreage.

SATURDAY SET AS POPPY DAY

Harlingen Auxiliary To Sell Flowers

HARLINGEN — Poppy Day will be observed in Harlingen Saturday, November 9, Mrs. Alma McCown, president of Unit 205 of the American Legion auxiliary, said Saturday. On that day all Americans will be asked to wear memorial poppies in tribute to the World War dead and to aid the living victims of the war.

The little red memorial flowers will be distributed here by women and girls under direction of Mrs. W. P. Broussard, chairman of the Poppy Day committee. All contributions received for the poppies will go to Legion and auxiliary welfare work for the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead.

"We feel that Poppy Day will have increased meaning to America this year," said Mrs. McCown, "because renewed warfare in Europe has renewed the memory of those boys of ours who gave their lives 'over there' 22 years ago. It is for them that we put on the poppy each year, to show that we still remember and honor their sacrifices. It is the flower which grew where they fell and which now blooms on the coats of Americans who appreciate their service.

"Events of the past year have shown us clearly that to be secure the United States must have men ready and able to defend the country, willing to give their lives in its defense, if necessary. We can be thankful today that we had such men 22 years ago. From them we can draw inspiration for the patriotic service necessary to maintain our freedom and democracy against today's dangers. Wearing their flower over our hearts means that within our hearts their love of America still lives."

School-Job Gap

Rainey Says Schools Are Challenged

AUSTIN—(AP)—The greatest challenge to American schools in the national defense program is providing means to bridge the gap between school and job, President Homer P. Rainey told 400 personnel officials here Saturday night.

Rainey, speaking at a banquet concluding the second annual Texas personnel conference on the university campus, informed business and industrial executives that although personnel direction stands between the "inbalance of men and jobs today," it would be necessary to "impress our schools with the need of providing the training that youth needs in industry."

2 Commissions

Manufacturers Urge State Body Split

DALLAS, Tex.—(AP)—A separate state oil and gas commission was recommended by the Texas State Manufacturers' Association committee on traffic and new industries with the assertion that the state railroad commission is unable to devote sufficient time to freight rate matters.

The committee said that Texas industrial development was suffering because of inequitable commodity rates, giving northern manufacturers the advantage over the south.

The association, closing a two-day convention today, chose Houston for the 1941 meeting place and re-elected all officers, including W. C. Trout of Lufkin as president, and Porter A. Whaley of San Antonio, executive vice-president and general manager.

Investigating Crash In Which Pilot Dies

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Officials of Randolph Field sought the cause of a plane crash that brought death to Flying Cadet William D. Croft, Jr., of Millington, Tenn.

Croft was killed when the basic training plane he was flying solo fell about two miles east of the field while the cadet was participating in night flying practice.

There were no witnesses of the crash.

CAA Pilots Get Help

FIESTA WON'T DROP PARADE

Mission Citrus Fete Retains Features

MISSION—Every entertainment feature popular in past years at the Texas Citrus Fiesta celebrations will be repeated at the 1941 fete, it was announced Saturday by Vance H. Glasgow, general chairman, in response to a rumor that had been circulated that some features of the fiesta, such as the Parade of Oranges and the coronation, would be eliminated. Prominence will be given the citrus style show, the citrus exhibits and colorful citrus decorations on the streets.

Members of the finance committee were chosen Saturday, it was announced by L. A. Buescher, chairman. They include T. M. Melden, W. R. Parrish, D. W. Cott, J. F. Ewers, R. R. Sheeler, Logan Duncan, E. E. Marburger, T. B. Sammons, P. H. Longoria, Ray Landry, E. M. Goodwin, L. H. Ramey, Miguel Olivarez, S. R. Greer, L. R. Lehman and Charles Roper.

Committees for other main features will be appointed next week, the general chairman planned.

First Mexico Rail Engine Is Finished

LAREDO—(AP)—The first railroad locomotive built in Mexico recently was completed at the shops of the National Railways at Monterrey under the direction of J. O. Trujillo, general shop superintendent. Tests show it capable of hauling 1,485 tons, and railroad officials said it cost about 125,000 pesos, or substantially less than the cost of private manufacture. Work has begun on three more locomotives.

FREIGHT SHIP ARIZPA IS DUE

Foreign - Bound Ship Arrives Monday

BROWNSVILLE—Word has been received here that the S.S. Arizpa, foreign-bound freighter, is on her way from Mobile, Ala., to Port of Brownsville and will arrive here at daybreak Monday to load undisclosed cargo for an unannounced destination.

Notification was received here by Philen Shipping Company, local agents for the Waterman Steamship Corporation, owners of the Arizpa.

Cargo has been assembled at Port of Brownsville, and loading of the ship should be completed about Wednesday, according to Port Director F. W. Hofmokel.

The S.S. Pan Royal, another foreign-bound Waterman freighter, is due here on November 23. The S.S. Azalea City, also owned by the company, is scheduled to load here November 25.

LEGION FETES US CHAPLAIN

W. G. Jilks Banquet Set For Friday

HARLINGEN—Brigadier William G. Jilks of Dallas, national chaplain of the American Legion, will be entertained with a banquet here Friday night at conclusion of a day spent in the upper part of the Valley, according to officials of the Harlingen post.

The visiting official will arrive in McAllen at 6:35 a.m. Friday over the Southern Pacific and will be guest at a breakfast at the Casa de Palmas Hotel in McAllen at 7:15 a.m. All Valley legionnaires are invited to meet the official at the train and to be present at the breakfast.

Brigadier Jilks will meet with the combined service clubs of McAllen at 9 a.m. to perfect plans for a new Salvation Army home to be built there.

At 3:30 p.m., Brigadier Jilks will make a pre-Armistice talk in the Weslaco high school auditorium to which the public is invited.

The Harlingen banquet will be at the Madison Hotel at 7 p.m., sponsored by the Harlingen legion post and auxiliary. All Valley and visiting legionnaires and their families are invited.

Breakfast at McAllen will be 25 cents and the banquet in Harlingen 50 cents.

Did you buy YOUR car on "Millinery"?

YOU hear it said often nowadays that it's millinery that sells automobiles.
All right—let's put it up to one who knows. Did you buy your car on nicknacks, trick devices, novelties?
We don't think so.
We believe that while considering style, and room, and comfort — you really picked your car on what it would do on the road!
Now, we take our hats off to no car for being smarter-looking than Buick. We'll match our product against any for room, for appointments, for fine finish, for comfort.
But beyond all that, we challenge the whole field to equal Buick on its downright all-round performance ability.
On its power—on its pull—on its pick-up—on its easy handling (including freedom from shifting)—yes, and on its thrift.
Nowhere will you find a car that does so much so well and so frugally.
You'll find novelties in the new Buicks of course, but they're not the chief attraction. Instead you'll see the two big basic engineering developments of the year — FIREBALL design and Compound Carburetion.
Buick prices begin at $935 for the Business Coupe delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

The Texas Political Roundup

Democrats Confident

Feel Texas Will Go Roosevelt; Write-Ins Form Only Major Interest In State

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN—(AP)—Steady pelting by no-third-term and Willkie Democrats, fronting for the Republicans, Saturday characterized the fading hours of a curious presidential campaign in Texas.

Professed life-long Democrats, including a state commissioner of agriculture renominated for a sixth term in the summer's Democratic primaries, peppered this Democratic hotbed among the states with arguments against a third term and Rooseveltian policies, especially the New Deal farm program.

Confident Texas would stick to political tradition this year—it has departed only once since the Civil War—regular Democrats evidence little activity, and outstanding Texans in national Democratic circles, such as Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senator Tom Connally, battled for the party in other states.

The size of the Willkie vote was the number one interest of the election within Texas. A strong number two was the reaction of voters to Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald's bolt to the Willkie-McNary standard.

Write-In Candidates

Several "write-in" candidates were urging voters to repudiate the white-haired McDonald, who over national radio hook-ups reaching into the farm belt of the middle-west had castigated the AAA as ruinous to farmers.

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann said in an opinion there was no legal barrier to such write-in voting.

Campaigning for the write-in vote were W. N. Corry of Kellar for whom the Texas Agricultural Association mapped a series of rallies beginning today in Waco and spreadeagling the state in a final blast on election eve, and Tom Martin of Johnson City who makes daily radio addresses.

Myron Blalock, Democratic campaign director, declared the commissioner by his actions had released Democrats from their primary pledge to support nominees in the general election.

Wait For Garner

Leaders of all groups kept ears cupped for any statement from the mesquite-studded neighborhood of Uvalde, where Vice-President John N. Garner, at his home, maintained emphatic silence.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, renominated also in the Democratic primary, drew criticism from State Rep. Weldon Burney of Evant for taking no part in the national campaign. O'Daniel made no reply to the Burney statement.

Although surface activity was slight, compared with a Democratic primary campaign or the memorable campaign of 1928 when Hoover carried Texas, evidences of strong undercurrents of interest were seen by observers, who generally predicted a large vote. Estimates ranged from 850,000 to 1,000,000.

Heavy Vote Expected

Four years ago 842,538 ballots were cast in the general election and interest definitely was very small. In the first Democratic primary this year, 1,193,026 ballots hit the voting boxes, a record for any Texas election and interest was keen.

Now You Tell One-

Wandering Tombstone Back In Cemetery

PHOENIX, Ariz.—(AP)—From an unused cemetery, in which are graves of many Phoenix pioneers, a head-stone bearing the inscription, "To all vulger men and all the Gods: Disturb us not" was stolen eight years ago.

The warning apparently affected the vandals, for two years ago the stone turned up at the city outskirts.

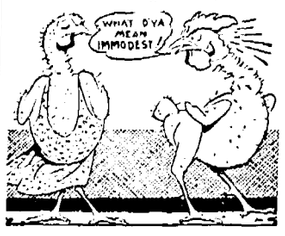

A police officer, finding it unwanted, took it to his home, where it remained until recently when officials of the Pioneers' Cemetery association heard of it.

Today the tombstone is guarding the rebuilt vault of J. H. W. Jensen, picturesque character of early Phoenix.

Well-Dressed Chickens Won't Wear Feathers

TULSA, Okla.—(AP)—Aubrey Baer, hospital X-ray technician, believes after a six-month study that featherless chickens are a "distinct possibility."

X-ray treatment of baby chicks will produce a nude chicken, Baer reports. His problem now is to perfect treatment timing and to cross-

breed to produce a featherless strain.

Baer began his study by X-ray treatment of eggs before incubation. About half hatched. Treating baby chicks, he discovered the rays stopped feather growth. "My work still is very much in the experimental stage," Baer says.

Featherless chickens would be desired for indoor raising of broilers and fryers. The condition would tend to keep the chicken freer of disease, and eliminate necessity for picking feathers.

Short Short Story

TOLEDO, O. —(AP)— Patrolman Fred Addis, running toward a fire, passed his inspector.

"It's too dangerous up there. They just carried a fireman out," the inspector warned.

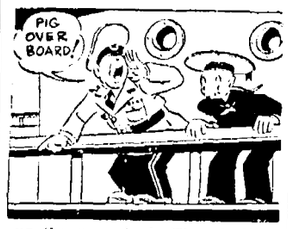

"You're telling me!" said Addis. "I carried the guy out!"

He saluted his superior, and ran on.

Piggy Goes Jump In The Lake

GERSAU, Switzerland—(AP)—An aquatic performance by a porcine passenger delayed a Lake Lucerne steamboat for 30 minutes.

The boat was ready to leave Gersau when a farmer, leading a 200-pound pig, walked up the gangplank. The pig liked the clear blue lake so much that in the middle of the gangplank it made what, for a pig, was a beautiful dive.

A lifeboat was lowered and after a half an hour of rowing and wrestling the squealing passenger was hoisted back on board.

Underwear Overhead

LUCY, Tenn. —(AP)—He was proud of the new car he had parked so carefully in the garage.

But he forgot the missus had strung the day's wash on a line in the garage. It still was on the line when he drove out.

He enjoyed a throb of pride as everybody stared and pointed at, he thought, the shiny, new vehicle. Suddenly, he glanced aloft.

From the car's radio aerial a pair of his wife's unmentionables waved gaily in the breeze.

MORE MEXICO REBELS TAKEN

Chihuahua Rebellion Is Said Ended

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico—(AP)—Surrender of 68 more rebels including the self-styled slayer of Francisco (Pancho) Villa, has ended all rebellious activities in the State of Chihuahua, military officials announced Saturday.

Meliton Losoya, one-time Villista who claims to killing Villa after a quarrel, surrendered at Parral to Gen. Rodrigo Quevedo, former Chihuahua governor.

At the same time Ismael Pelma, leader of a rebel group, surrendered to General Quevedo with 65 men, headquarters stated.

Quevedo, now commander of the Coahila military zone, went to Parral to accept the surrender.

At La Junta another rebel leader, Miguel Delgado, whose men deserted him, gave himself up to Brig. Gen. Augustin de la Vega.

All the rebels were followers of Lit. Col. Cruz Villalva, a lieutenant of Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan.

Villalva, without men, was reported hiding in the Sierra Madre and may attempt to enter the United States, Chihuahua military headquarters said.

Write In Campaign For Commissioner Is Declared Legal

AUSTIN—(AP)—Attorney General Gerald C. Mann said in an opinion Saturday there was no legal bar against scratching the name of the Democratic nominee for the office of commissioner of agriculture and writing in the name of another person in Tuesday's general election.

The opinion was given at the request of C. A. Neal, Ellis county auditor who asked specifically if voters could scratch the name of J. E. McDonald, Democratic nominee for the office, and write in that of W. N. Bill Corry, who announced as a write-in candidate after McDonald endorsed the candidacy of Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican presidential nominee.

Guard Officers Talk Mobilization Plans

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Top-ranking officers of the Texas National Guard assembled here Saturday for a pre-mobilization conference called by Maj.-Gen. Claude V. Birkhead, commander of the 36th Division, Texas National Guard.

The conference was called for the purpose of correlating all plans in connection with mobilization, Gen. Birkhead said.

Examination of the stomach contents of a large number of alligator gars by members of the department of fish and game at A. & M. College showed that gizzard shad, suckers, mullet and small sun fish constitute its diet. No traces of game fish of any kind were found.

Fort Brown Sergeant Retires After 30 Years; Man Who Launched His Career Is His Guest

Frank Bebon Plans To Take It Easy From Now On

BROWNSVILLE — First Sergeant Frank Bebon said goodbye to his mates Saturday night after 30 years in the United States cavalry.

And by a strange course of events, the man who gave Sgt. Bebon his first recruit drill when he joined the army in March, 1910, was present at the ceremony.

Farewell Party

Occasion was a farewell party held by Troop C, 12th Cavalry, at Fort Brown in honor of Sgt. Bebon, whose retirement from the troop became effective October 31.

First Sgt. Fred Baum of Mercedes, retired, the man who gave Sgt. Bebon his initial recruit drill at Fort Sam Houston in 1910, was the retiring sergeant's guest for the evening.

"We had been planning on this reunion for a long time," Sgt. Bebon said. "You know it's not every day that a man can leave the army after 30 years' service and have as his guest the man who started him in the service."

Joined In 1910

Private Bebon (as he was known in those days) joined the army on March 17, 1910, at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, and entered Troop B, 3rd Cavalry.

During his service with the 3rd Cavalry, that regiment had the unique distinction of being in the field for nine continuous years with duty as far south as Brownsville and as far west as the Arizona line, plus a stint overseas during the World War.

The 3rd Cavalry, according to Sgt. Bebon, was the first U. S. cavalry regiment to be sent overseas during the World War and was used on convoy duty during the years of fighting.

In 1919, the 3rd Cavalry returned to the United States and was sent to Fort Ethan Allen in Vermont to be demobilized, but Sgt. Bebon decided he wanted to stay in the army and come to Texas.

Re-enlists In Valley

So he re-enlisted at Fort Brown on October 8, 1919, and had been stationed with the forces here *since that date up until his re-*tirement.

He was provost sergeant for four years at the local post in charge of post police and prisoners.

Sgt. Bebon has been a member of the Brownsville American Legion post for over 12 years and also a member of the Veteran of Foreign Wars post here.

To Take It Easy

He was sergeant bugler for 10 years in the local American Legion bugle and drum corps which won the state title in 1930, and he helped organize the Pan American Airways' drum and bugle corps here.

"Now that I'm retired," he told his army friends, "I'm going to take it easy. I own my own home in Brownsville, and I'm going to remain here and spend the rest of my time fishing and hunting."

Sgt. Bebon's home is only a block and a half from the post grounds.

"I'll have a hard time keeping from answering that post bugle when it blows every morning, but I guess I'll get used to having nothing to do but rest," he declared.

Col. E. C. Wilbourn, commanding officer of the Twelfth Cavalry, presented a gold watch to Sgt. Bebon on behalf of Troop C.

NEW HIDALGO JURY CALLED

Panel Will Meet At Edinburg Monday

EDINBURG — Hidalgo county's new grand jury will be impaneled by Criminal District Judge Bryce Ferguson Monday morning, District Attorney Tom Hartley announced Saturday.

Thus far, the prosecutor said, his office has only one minor burglary case to present to the jury, but the panel will remain on hand through December to handle any cases that may develop to the first of the year. The grand jury which ended its work last week cleared up all cases pending at that time, Hartley said.

The 12 talesmen will be chosen from the following 16, who were named by the jury commission last week: Judson Friday, Weslaco; W. E. Baden, Pharr; Amador Rodriguez, Edinburg; U. J. Boehnke, San Juan; A. L. Cramer, Elsa; Ross Carter, Edinburg; H. E. Whittenburg, McAllen; T. B. Ewing, Mercedes; Edmundo Cavazos, Edinburg; A. F. Volz, Mission; Ralph E. Deer, McAllen; W. M. Bell, Donna; E. O. Clark, Pharr; S. T. Tillson, Mission; A. G. McHenry, Edinburg, and F. M. Duncan, Mission.

WOMAN BALKS CAR'S THEFT

Man Leaps Clear As Car Gains Speed

McALLEN— A McAllen woman nipped in the bud what city police believed was an attempted car theft early Friday evening.

After driving her auto in the garage, the Maple Avenue resident went into the house to return a few minutes later to drive downtown.

When she had driven about two blocks from her home down south on Main Street, a man kicked the front seat over and leaped from the car, she told police.

Police were unable to waylay the man whose description the woman gave them.

State Balance High In Spite Of Deficit

AUSTIN—(AP)—Despite a deficit of more than $30,000,000 in two funds, the state had an over-all balance of slightly over $18,000,000 in its treasury October 31, the comptroller's department reported Saturday.

Funds with deficits were general *revenue with $22,226,603 and Con*federate pension with $2,155,945. Accounts with cash balances totaled $48,470,391.

Gen. Avila Camacho Abandons U. S. Trip

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—Gen. Manuel Avila Camacho, president-elect of Mexico, said he would not be able to make a trip to the United States because of lack of time. He said he had planned the trip for rest and recreation.

BAPTISTS MAY SET UP CAMPS

Social Centers For Army Boys Up

DALLAS—(AP)—Texas Baptists are making preliminary plans to establish religious and social centers adjacent to conscript training camps, Dr. R. C. Campbell, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, revealed.

Details will be discussed at the convention's 55th session in Houston, November 11-15, he said. Actual authorization and financing of the program, however, will come from the executive board of the convention, which meets December 3.

A $25,000 budget will be proposed to put the plan in operation, Dr. Campbell said. Tentative organization calls for camps to be directed by Baptist ministers.

Services Are Held At Fort Worth For A. D. Dickinson, Sr.

BROWNSVILLE— A. D. Dickinson, Sr., was buried at Fort Worth late last week, according to word received here Saturday by friends. He visited his late son, A. D. Jr., here frequently, had numerous friends in this section.

Mrs. A. D. Dickinson, Jr., went to Fort Worth to attend the last rites for her father-in-law.

Negro Not To Take Apology From Early

NEW YORK—(AP)—James Sloan, 42-year-old Negro policeman, said he had received a letter of apology from Stephen Early, President Roosevelt's press secretary, as an aftermath of a scuffle near the presidential train in which the patrolman was injured in the groin.

"I am not accepting the apology," was Sloan's comment.

Oklahoma Drilling 57 New Test Wells

TULSA—(AP)—Drilling of 57 new test wells was started in Oklahoma during the past week, compared with 33 in the preceding seven-day period.

Completions numbered 42, including 25 oil wells producing 6,042 barrels daily, four gas wells yielding 118,547,000 cubic feet a day, one input well and 12 dry holes.

Italy Says Only 'Peace By Sword' Now Possible

RUSHES CRACK TROOPS INTO FRONT LINES

Desperato Air Force Also Used

By The Associated Press

ROME—The Italians sent their crack "desperato" squadron of bombers and fighters against Greece Saturday, planting bombs from shore to shore of the invaded kingdom, and said the only peace the Greeks would get from them would be by the sword.

"Italy has no intention of entering into peace negotiations with Greece," an authoritative source said. "The Greek rejection of our ultimatum set the Italian military machine in motion. It will proceed to deal with the situation."

Pinchers Close In

The high command reported that an Italian land pinchers was closing on the strategic northwestern base town of Ioannina (Janina), both from the Kalamas River Valley on the northwest of the town and from the Pindos (Pindus) heights on the northeast, which reach elevations above 7,000 feet.

Unofficially it has been said these columns have penetrated the "Metaxas Line" of light fortifications which are especially thick in the Kalanas Valley.

From this valley to the Quays of Salonika, Crete, Corfu and Patras the Italian bombers blasted away with explosive and incendiary bombs, ton upon ton of them.

Suicide Squadron Used

The "desperato" or suicide squadron, which Count Ciano, the Italian foreign minister, led in Ethiopia, struck at the naval base of Salonika on the Aegean. The Stefani agency said the first raid, Friday, left the fortified zone devastated, the planes smashing and firing barracks, supply dumps, reservoirs and other military and naval objectives.

There were rumors that Ciano himself flew a plane in one of the two waves, but this was not confirmed. Ciano was, however, promoted to an air force lieut.-colonel Rome announced.

Dive bombers lunged at Patras, third largest Greek port, dropping bombs on the docks where troops were being loaded onto ships. The Corinth Canal, within the steep walls of which small warships and troop transports take a short cut from Athens to Corfu and other points in western Greece, was reported damaged.

Bomb Landing Troops

Other planes, the high command said, bombed troops (perhaps British) who were disembarking from ships Friday at the Island of Crete. Ships, port facilities and stores were said to have been damaged.

Play Rehearsals

'Safety First' Set For San Benito

SAN BENITO—Rehearsals are under way for the play "Safety First" to be presented at the high school November 19 under the sponsorship of the San Benito chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Miss Margaret Conrardy is directing and those in the cast include Mrs. Charles Bowie, Mrs. James D. Casey, Miss Jane Bohner, J. B. Mack, Dr. E. L. Sullivan, Ray Reed, Bud Bohner, and H. J. Glasscock.

Part of the proceeds from this entertainment will be donated to the San Benito Library Building fund.

London Papers Are Watching Race For President Of U. S.

LONDON — (AP) — News of the United States presidential campaign competed Saturday with war Communiques for the attention of a British public eagerly watching the politics of a nation to which they look for planes and guns.

Although British commentators frequently say "no matter which side wins it's all right for us," the press features news of the campaign second only to war developments.

A prominent headline in the London Chronicle informed its readers that "odds on Roosevelt are now 5 to 4," while a Daily Mail head said: "Roosevelt and Willkie neck and neck."

Mexico Now Issues Tourist Passports

RIO RICO, Mexico—Valley residents who have not yet obtained their identification cards may do so within the next 90 days although no one may now enter Mexico without one, according to Joe Ortega, proprietor of Joe's Place.

It is necessary to bring along two photographs to obtain the identification cards. Pictures of the snapshot type will not do but passport pictures are easily obtainable in most Valley towns, it was said.

Teachers Injured In Wreck At Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH— (AP) —Five victims, including three Corsicana school teachers, injured late Friday in an automobile collision on Highway 34 about three miles from Fort Worth, remained under treatment in hospitals here Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Ruth Inman, who sustained a skull injury and a nose fracture, appeared to be the most seriously hurt. Misses Fay Quinley and Carrie Berry suffered head cuts and bruises.

'But Please Vote!'

Between now and November 5 you'll be urged to vote —regardless of your political philosophy. Braniff Airways, contributing to the cause of a record poll, is urging its passengers to vote. In its airliners and in its offices the word is "Be sure to vote November 5" or "Fly home to vote on November 5." Braniff Hostess Miss Ona Ready is shown in the cabin of a 21-passenger Super B-Liner pointing out the message to her passengers.

The Greeks Have A Word For It

How To Pronounce New Words In News

By FRANK COLBY

The Greco-Italic scrimmage has introduced a number of new and exotic place-names into the current Blitzkrieg vocabulary, and, as was the case when the Stukas roared over Europe, most of our commentators and newscasters are badly fumbling the pronouncing ball.

AEGEAN: Strategic sea between Greece and Turkey. Do not say "AY-jee-un." The first syllable rhymes with see, and the second syllable receives the accent: ee-JEE-un.

CRETE: Important island in the Mediterranean off the south coast of Greece. Not "krait" to rhyme with great, nor "kree-tee" to rhyme with meaty. The correct rhyme is with street, as: KREET.

CORFU: Ionian island off northwest Greece. Do not say "KAWR-few." The second syllable is accented and rhymes with boo! Correct pronounciation: kawr-FOO.

DODECANESE: Tewlve islands in the Aegean Sea. Do not refer to this group as the "DOE-duh-kuh-NEEZ." Accent the second and fourth syllables: doe-DEK-uh-NEESS.

The islands are: Sporades (SPAWR - uh - deez); Calchi (KAHL-kee); Calino (kah-LEE-noe); Caso (Kah-soe) Coo (koe) Lero (Lay-roe); Lipso (LIP-soe); Nisiro (NEE-see-roe); Patmo (PAHT-moe); Piscopi PEES-koe-pee); Scarpanto (SKAHR-pahn-toe); Simi (SEE-mee); Stampalia (STAHM-pah-LEE-ah).

METAXAS: Premier of Greece. Not "muh-TAX-iss." The first syllable is like the word may; the third syllable has the "ah" sound, as: may-TAX-ahss. Note: The premier's first name is NOT John, but Ioannis, pronounced: EE-oh-AH-neess.

SALONIKA: Large city in northeast Greece. Do not say "suh-LON-i-kuh." Accent the first and third syllables: SAH-loe-NEE-kah.

(Capitals indicate syllables to be accented.)

Raymondville's Baptists Honor W. A. Addingtons

RAYMONDVILLE—As an expression of appreciation and affectionate regard for Mr. and Mrs. William A. Addington, the First Baptist church of Raymondville, has dedicated a room at the Valley Baptist Hospital in their honor. The plaque reads: "Dedicated to William and Cora Addington by the First Baptist Church of Raymondville."

The formal opening will be on Sunday, November 9, from 4 to 5 p. m., with several members of the church receiving.

Addington has been an active member of the board of deacons for 16 years. He was a teacher in the Sunday school for 12 years or more and has served as superintendent of the Sunday school also.

Mrs. Addington has served as president of the Woman's Missionary Union and has been active in other departments of the church.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Addington have contributed generously to both the spiritual and material up-building of the church, and the members "took this way to express something of their gratitude to them," spokesmen said.

Mr. and Mrs. Addington came to the Rio Grande Valley in September, 1924, from Smithville, Mississippi. They have two sons, both well known in the Valley; Stanley, noted baritone of Texas and chairman of music for Texas-Oklahoma district of Kiwanis International, and James of Cuero, who is a geologist.

TOURIST MEET IS SCHEDULED

McAllen Activity To Get Under Way

McALLEN—The McAllen tourist entertainment season will begin Thursday when the first party of the year is held at 2 p.m. at the community hall at the Samson trailer park. The second meeting will be at Cockrum's A.B.C. camp and the third at Steele's.

William G. Olson, president of the McAllen Tourist association, expressed his thanks to owners of the three parks for extending the use of their community halls to the tourist club until the new annex is finished at the McAllen Chamber of Commerce building.

After a brief program Thursday, the meeting will be thrown open for short talks by the tourists, and complete announcements will be made concerning regular club meetings and special programs for the year.

All tourists or winter visitors in McAllen or this vicinity were invited to attend the meeting.

Indies Envoy Hints At Jap-Java Accord

TOKYO —(AP)— Ichizo Kobayashi, special Japanese envoy to the Dutch East Indies, asserted Saturday on his return here from Batavia, Java, that a "certain understanding" had been reached in discussions by which Japan seeks to obtain East Indian Oil.

He added, however, that there was "no final conclusion."

The total value of petroleum and its products shipped to foreign countries in 1939 was $386,535,668, or the equivalent of 12.4 per cent of all United States merchandise exports that year.

MARSH PINKS SELL HIGHER

$2.21 Average Seen In U. S. Markets

WESLACO—A difference of 47 cents a box in the prices received for Marsh seedless and Marsh pink grapefruit during the past week is revealed in figures completed by the Federal-State Market News Service here.

The average for Valley Marsh seedless grapefruit the past week was only $1.74 per box while Marsh pinks averaged $2.21 per box. That the volume of pink grapefruit has grown considerably is shown by the fact that 34,173 boxes of white fruit were offered on the auction markets and 16,769 boxes of pink fruit.

Both white and pink Valley fruit again outsold Florida fruit on the markets. The Florida average for 71,983 boxes of white grapefruit was $1.66 and the average for 1,401 boxes of pink grapefruit was $1.78 so that Texas white Marsh brought almost as much as Florida pink.

Track holdings of grapefruit in 16 principal markets Saturday totalled 119 cars of grapefruit, 411 of oranges and 15 of mixed citrus.

Texas shipments as of Saturday totalled 3,284 cars as compared to 2,649 as of even date last season while Florida had shipped 2,950 compared to 6,395 to the same date in 1939.

Project Asked

McAllen Seeks Work On Airport

McALLEN—An application for a WPA project for the McAllen Municipal Airport was forwarded to Austin Saturday by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce.

The briefs were prepared by chamber officials and maps were made from surveyor's drawings by Mrs. Bess Dunlavcy.

The brief, signed by Mayor Horace Etchison, City Secretary C. D. Martin and City Airport Chairman John Boeye call for immediate limit markers for the field, some clearing on the 88.96 acres donated by S. L. Miller and later construction of additional hangars and an administration building. Airport Manager Walter Fullwood assisted the chamber in compiling the data.

US Draftees Now 21 Since Registration Awaiting FD's Call

HARLINGEN—Men becoming 21 years of age since October 16, draft registration day, need not register until the President issues another proclamation, the local draft board has been advised by state officials.

A number of persons are under the impression that they must register as soon as they become 21 years old but this is not so, Ralph Ormesher, clerk for the Harlingen draft board, said Saturday.

There are now 3,441 registrants in commissioner's precinct No. 4 and the official lists of order numbers is expected early in the week, having been mailed to the state boards from Washington Thursday.

Harry Bridges Backs Lewis' Bolt To GOP

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Declaring himself "100 per cent in support of John L. Lewis on everything he said," Harry Bridges asserted Friday night that the re-election of President Roosevelt would mean a severe blow at the labor movement and a sure step toward war.

"Support of President Roosevelt," he told 700 members of the CIO industrial union council, "is one of the most foolish things a working man or woman can contemplate."

No Tires May Force 1908 Mason To Quit

HUMANSVILLE, Mo. —(AP)—Burrell Hughes is in the two-car class, but not for much longer. He's going to have to quit riding in his 1908 Mason—the tires are worn thin and no one makes them that size anymore.

Trainer Of Animals Is 'Carnegie Hero'

PITTSBURGH— (AP) —An animal trainer who saved the life of a man attacked by four untrained lions was one of 25 persons sent medals by the Carnegie hero fund commission Saturday in recognition of heroic acts.

The trainer, Joseph R. Arcaris, 31, of Nashua, N. H., went to the rescue of Chester Czaja, a caretaker, after the lions sprang upon Czaja in an enclosure at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., last February 9.

Swiss Ban Talk On Higher Food Prices

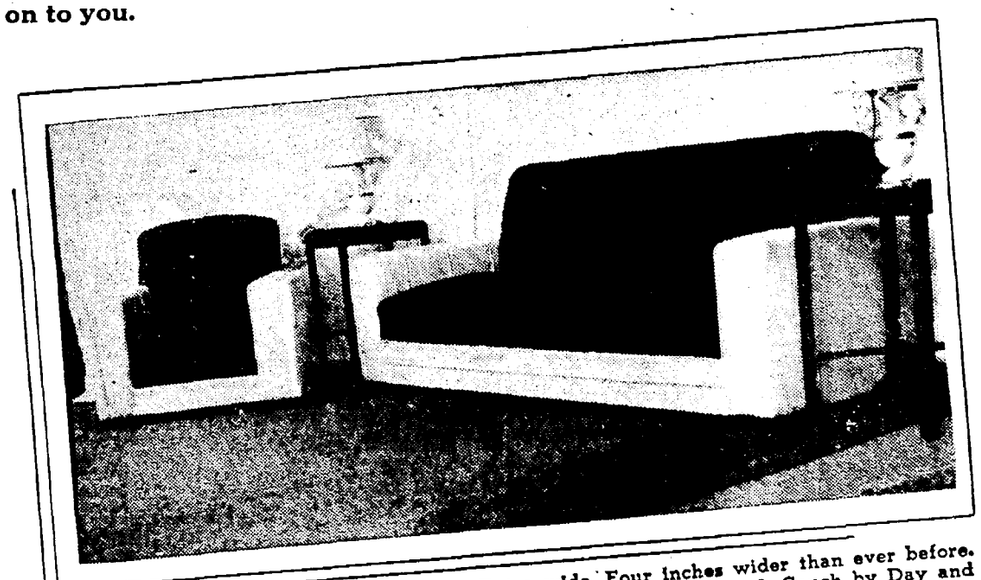

BERN, Switzerland — (AP) — The Swiss department of economics forbade mention of price increases or shortages of merchandise in newspapers, letters or by word of mouth which might lead to excessive purchases.

Willkie Winner In Club's Straw Vote

SHARYLAND—In a "straw vote" taken Friday night by members of the North Sharyland Club, Wendell Willkie received 24 votes and Franklin Roosevelt six. The meeting was held at the Wimodausis Clubhouse on Shary Boulevard.

Interpreting The War News

British Get Stronger

Invasion Of Greece Gives Them Foothold On Continent Again; War 427 Days Old Now

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

The second world war was only 427 days old as October ended, but it already has carved a grisly trail of destruction and disaster across continental Europe unmatched in recorded history.

Nation after nation has succumbed to force or threats; some have lost their national identity. More than one hundred million dwellers on that continent have been brought under the domination of alien masters. Half a million square miles of territory are under alien flags.

Yet the essential fact of the war at this time is that Britain's island fortress remains unconquered, and the bulldog grip of the British navy remains unbroken on all the deep-seas that wash the shores of tragic Europe.

Nazi-Fascist expectancy of a short war is a shattered dream after 14 months of conflict. And while Britain endures, the Axis-mapped new order in Europe remains also an unrealized dream.

Menace To Axis

There is a deadly menace for the Axis in the long war for which the European stage is being reset. Britain has still to reap the full benefit of her seapower, still to attain the peak of her war effort.

Victory slipped from the grasp of Imperial Germany in 1914 at the Marne. It may have just been missed by Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy at the English Channel in 1940. The Axis partners are urgently seeking means to offset in the east the deadlock that confronts them in the west.

That has brought little Greece into peril of a fate similar to that suffered by upward of a dozen other continental nations and peoples since Germany struck at Poland on September 1, 1949.

Really Aids Britain

Yet that fresh Axis aggression, whatever its ultimate strategic meaning, has done something else. It has given Britain footholds at the back door of the continent to carry the war to her foes. Four months ago with British evacuation of Narvik and Dunkerque she had been driven completely from the mainland of Europe.

British bombing of Naples in southern Italy indicates that it is an offensive, not a defensive role, which Britain will attempt in the east.

British planes may have hopped to that target from airplane carriers in the Mediterranean, or from bases on Crete or other Greek islands. From Crete, Naples is within easy bombing distance.

'SOUP BOWL' TILT SLATED

Service Club Elevens Spruce For Classic

BROWNSVILLE—Tickets are on sale for the classic of the century, the "Soup Bowl" football game to be held at Tucker Field December 6 with the Brownsville Kiwanis Club opposing the Brownsville Lions in a rough-house exhibition of how not to play football.

California may have its Rose Bowl, Florida may have its Orange Bowl, but these are nothing compared to the "Soup Bowl," which was inaugurated in 1937.

Lions Won Then

The roaring Lions won that contest, 6 to 0, in a drizzling rain in the final minute of play.

Both teams came out of the game looking like the wreck of the old '97 and were forced to take a three-year layoff to recuperate and scout new grid talent.

But now they're ready to go again with new faces in their lineups and new hopes in their hearts.

For Good Cause

Ducats will cost $1, but it's for a plenty good cause—the Brownsville Band Boosters fund.

In appreciation for the interest shown in them by the local service clubs, the Brownsville high school band members have agreed to play a concert at the field on game night.

Clarence Colgin, president of the Kiwanis Club, started the ball rolling by purchasing the first ticket, and since that time the ducats are "going like hot cakes," according to George McGonigle, ticket sales chairman.

Air Corps Jobs

Civil Service Wants Inspectors Now

HARLINGEN—More procurement inspectors are needed at the Air Corps, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, for the following branches of inspection: aircraft, engines, instruments, parachutes, aircraft propellers, and tools and gauges.

The Civil Service Commission has been seeking experienced men for these jobs but it announces that a new type of position has just been added to those to be filled, that of junior procurement inspector, $1,620 a year. The upper grades pay from $2,000 to $2,600 a year, all salaries subject to three and one-half per cent deduction for retirement annuity.

Applicants will not be given a written test. They will be rated on their education and experience as shown in their applications, subject to verification by the Commission. The work is an important part of the national defense program. Apply for details to the secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, or to any first or second class post office.

Tear Gas Is Used To Break Up Big Rally

MADISON, Wis.—(AP)—Police used tear gas to break up a University of Wisconsin homecoming demonstration during which an estimated 8,000 persons created bedlam for two hours on State Street and Capitol Square.

Thirty-four persons were taken into custody but most of them were released later. Thirteen university and high school students were ordered to report to superior court on charges of disorderly conduct and vandalism.

Coy Is Re-Arrested In Bad Check Case

EDINBURG — Charlie Coy, Hidalgo county rancher, was free on bond of $250 Saturday after being re-arrested on a charge of swindling with a worthless check.

His trial on the charge got under way Friday, but the court quashed the complaint when the latter was found to be faulty. A new complaint was shown out and Coy again was placed under arrest. No date for his new trial has been set in county court.

The charge grew out of Coy's alleged payment for three calves with a $35 check.

NOV. 11 FETE OPENS MONDAY

San Benito Schools Hear 8 Talks

SAN BENITO—Patriotic addresses in eight schools in this area initiates Monday the program of the Sixth Annual Armistic Week Celebration arranged by the American Legion, Sam Jackson post 111, which slates a full week of activities to be climaxed November 11 with a colorful parade, services at the stadium, joint service club luncheon and finals of the model plane contest.

Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor University and former Governor of Texas, is the principal speaker at the special service November 10 at the First Baptist church and at the Armistice program at the stadium Monday.

Monday Program

School addresses Monday will be presented by Grady St. Clair, superintendent of San Benito school, at Villa Nueva, Encantada, La Paloma, Landrum and that afternoon at Los Indios, Santa Maria, Rangerville and Highland. Roswell J. Bohner will talk at five schools Tuesday and Ralph T. Agar, John Prentiss and Roy A. Brink will continue the school program Wednesday.

Another attraction this week sponsored by the legion are the Santa Fe shows which will play all week on the San Benito-Brownsville highway across from the American Legion hall.

Stag Party

Thursday night the annual stag party will be held at the hall under the direction of James D. Ward and J. E. McAnally. The barbecue features a "floor show and entertainment de luxe" as listed on the program.

Saturday's events include a "traffic lane" staged by the Cameron County 40 and 8 and fines collected will go to the voiture's child welfare program. James Ward has been named "Judge" of the Roy Bean court by Chef de Gare Harry Harris. Court will be held again Monday. Also on this day the preliminary trials of the model plane contest to be conducted under the rules of the National Aeronautic Association will be held at 2 p.m. at the municipal airport with Garver Murray of Harlingen in charge.

Officials Listed

Dr E. O. Seiser is general chairman of the week's celebration and committee chairmen are: W. J. Harris, parade; J. W. Spradley, R. B. Temple, and B. A. Epstein, decorations and finance; J. D. Ward and J. E. McAnally, stag party; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson, entertainment and reception; John Prentiss, special Sunday service; Harry Carroll, service clubs luncheon; J. C. Hall, drum and bugle corps and bands; Floyd S. Worth, school program; J. D. Denson, speakers stand; Lieut. Col. H. M. Carroll, Capt. F. S. Worth, Capt. Lew Williams, reception of visiting Army Units; Zipper Lee, parade marshall, and I. V. Jolly, model plane contest.

Minimum Price

Group Set To Study Law For Citrus

MERCEDES — Committees were named by Texas Citriculture Institute, Inc., at a meeting here Friday night to confer Monday on definite plans for a legislative program which may include a proposed new law for placing a minimum price to the grower for citrus fruits.

Some discussion was had at the Friday night meeting at the city hall which was attended by growers from various parts of the Valley but no decision was reached. Price fixing has been in the minds of some members since the early season decline in the market for citrus fruits.

A number of new directors were elected at the meeting including Mrs. Jim Ragland of Mission, Mrs. W. A. Wulf of San Juan, M. Heinzelman of Edinburg, Bert Matteson of Donna, C. A. Barnes of McAllen, and Dr. Frank Smith of San Benito.

Funeral Set Sunday For Father of Solon

EASTLAND—(AP)—Funeral services will be held here Sunday for G. A. Davisson, Sr., 56, father of G. A. Davisson, Jr., former legislator from the 106th district and former candidate for state senator and lieutenant governor.

Davisson, a road contractor and oil operator, died here Friday night.

Kensington Palace Is Admitted Bombed

LONDON —(AP)— Kensington Palace, where Queen Victoria was born in 1819, has been damaged by incendiary bombs. Authorities permitted publication of this fact Saturday, but said there were no casualties.

The brick structure, on Kensington Gardens, was a royal residence from 1691 until 1760. Portions of it have been opened to the public since the time of Queen Victoria.

Heaviest Of Italian Raids Is Reported

NEW YORK —(AP)— The Rome radio reported Saturday that 100 Italian bombers carried out the heaviest raid of the war on Malta, striking at both the British naval base and the airport of Miccabba.

WESLACO SETS BAND CONCERT

First Of Season To Be Free Sunday

WESLACO—The Weslaco high school band will give its first concert of the season in Stephen F. Austin school auditorium at 4 p.m. Sunday. It will be free to the public, according to William Krauledat, band director.

A program with a varied appeal has been arranged. A feature will be a cornet solo, "Willow Echoes" by Doyle Betts with band accompaniment. Betts has played a cornet for six years and is a senior in the band.

The band has several assistant directors and on this program will be presented Billy Lee, who will conduct two numbers. Billy also is a senior band member and plays solo clarinet.

Sheppard In Favor Of FD Re-Election

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Sheppard (D-Tex) declared that any second-term president would have been elected to a third term and would have accepted had an international situation comparable to the present existed at the end of their second terms.

The veteran legislator, chairman of the military affairs committee, expressed his view in a prepared statement made public just before he left for his home in Texarkana by automobile to "vote for Roosevelt and Wallace."

CROWD OUSTS GOP SPEAKER

Campaigner Chased Out Of Carthage

CARTHAGE, Tex. —(AP)— Neal Estes, Carthage newspaper publisher, said a crowd of 150 persons Saturday refused to permit a campaigner for Wendell Willkie to complete a speech he started on the courthouse square.

A group of men dismantled sound equipment over which A. M. Davis of Houston was speaking, placed it in Davis' automobile and suggested he leave town, Estes said, adding that Davis was told "this is a Roosevelt county."

Red Cross Campaign Discussion Monday

SAN BENITO—Invitations have been extended to about 70 San Benitans to attend a dinner at 7 p.m. Monday at the Stonewall Jackson hotel as guests of the local Red Cross Roll Call drive committee of which Rudy Bendixen is chairman. Plans for the membership drive to be staged November 14 will be discussed.

Four Are Tried In Courts At McAllen

McALLEN—Fined in city court Saturday morning were Jesus Adame, B. Villarreal and Ceferino Loza, $5 each, on a drunk charge.

Justice of the Peace T. J. Powell fined Hobert Rachel $10 on a speeding charge filed by State Highway Patrolman J. H. Hollyfield.

Harlingen Movie

Sixshooter Junction Is Filmed Here

HARLINGEN — Shooting of the scenes for "Sixshooter Junction," movie short presenting members of the Lower Valley's Little Theatre will be postponed one week because of the absence of E. N. Loeb, script writer who has been called to Chicago by the death of his mother.

November 10 is the new date set for making movie records of street scenes representing early Harlingen. Much research has been carried out to duplicate street scenes from photographs made of Harlingen when it was first settled.

Leaders in the project are interested in obtaining a typical old-time water cart formed of a barrel mounted on two wheels and drawn by a burro. Anyone knowing where such a vehicle may be found in Cameron county is asked to notify Charlie Holbrook, or other members of the Little Theatre, or the chamber of commerce.

Sunday Service Set At Baptist Church

HARLINGEN — Rev. E. Douglas Carver, pastor will speak on "The Cure For A Sin-Sick World" at the Sunday morning service, beginning at 10:55 a.m., at the First Baptist Church here.

Foster Tebbe at the organ will play prelude "Salve Domine," and the offertory will be Chopin's Nocturne. Anthem will be "Strike The Cymbal," by Schubert.

Rev. Carver will preach on "Overcoming Difficulties," at the Sunday evening service, which will also be featured by two vocal selections by the male quartet. Anthem will be "Face To Face," Fuller, and the offertory by Dvorak.

Thwart Nazis Trying To Take Greenland

NEW YORK—(AP)—A German-language broadcast by the British Broadcasting Corporation said a German expedition of 50 men had been captured in an unsuccessful attempt to seize the meteorological observation station at Greenland. The Norwegian patrol boat Fritjof Nansen made them prisoners, it said.

The broadcast was heard by CBS in New York.

Bank Building Jinx For These Voters

FAYETTE CITY, Pa.—(AP)—Some 50 persons asked the Fayette county court to prevent transfer of next Tuesday's polling place from the Borough Building to quarters once occupied by a bank.

"A lot of people lost money in the bank and they won't go near it again—not even to vote," said Pat F. Hynes, one of the petitioners.

Two Boys From Idaho Ride Bicycles To Valley

Hitch-Hiking Far Cheaper, They Discover

HARLINGEN—It's a long, long way to the Valley from Twin Falls, Idaho, and a couple of young men were in town Saturday as proof of the fact.

Ray Jacobs, 24, of Rolla, Mo.; and Ralph Todd, 21, of Helenville, Wisc., pedalled all the way to the sunshiny Valley from Idaho to spend the winter working.

It took them just 14 days and three hours to make it to Harlingen and that counts a lot of time that they caught rides in the more than 2000-mile trip.

Usually they rented cabins overnight and paid for their meals, but one night they slept out and another they rode all night.

"It costs more to travel on a bicycle than any other way," Jacobs said here Saturday. "By the time you figure the miles you make each day and the cost of food and lodging, it is cheaper to hitch hike."

The minimum the boys made while riding on the bikes was around 125 miles daily, but when they got rides from trucks or pickups they managed to hike the ante quite some.

They are working for O. T. Burns, 505 North First, now and think they'll head back north after winter passes.

It gets pretty cold up there," Todd said.

The Texas Predatory Animal Control Association reports taking 14,191 coyotes, 2,086 bobcats and 18 mountain lions in the fiscal year ending June 30. This represented a decrease of 1,622 coyotes, 171 bobcats, and four lions under the preceding year.

Bike Mishap Fatal

JACKSONVILLE —(AP)— Lloyd Simpson, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Simpson, was killed Saturday when his bicycle and a car crashed.

The South Plains, best known for cotton and livestock, ships 2,500,000 dozen of eggs annually from Lubbock alone. Almost 5,000,000 pounds of butter also is manufactured yearly at Lubbock, and 3,000,000 pounds of poultry dressed.

Sierra Trail Signs Mark Goldrush Days

AUBURN, Calif.—(AP)—Twenty-two miles of trail over the high Sierras, used by emigrant trains of the gold rush days, has been marked with signs. Since most of the route is obscured by forest, diaries and other records owned by pioneer families were used for guides.

GOP VOTERS' BUREAUS SET

Hidalgo Tells How Ballots Marked

MISSION — Voters information bureaus will be set up in each precinct of Hidalgo county, it was planned at the luncheon session of the Republican Women's club of the county, held at McAllen Thursday. Robert N. Clarke, county Republican chairman, was one of the program speakers and outlined plans for the respective bureaus. Voters who wish to cast their ballots for Willkie, yet vote for Democratic nominees in state and county contests will be given information how to mark their ballots.

An information booth in the Mission precinct was set up Saturday afternoon in the alcove entrance of the Mission Times. Mrs. Rosette and Mrs. Heber Marcell are in charge. The booth will be kept open Monday and Tuesday also.

Other units in the county have planned similar information bureaus, to be kept open through Tuesday.

At Thursday's meeting, Jason Matthews, McAllen author, was one of the principal speakers outlining arguments against the third term. Mrs. Beatrice Frase, Republican committee woman, was another speaker. Musical numbers were presented by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stevens, McAllen. Forty women attended the session.

Definite plans for continuing the monthly meetings of the club have been made, Mrs. Rosette announced. Meetings will be held each third Thursday, possibly in the afternoon. Women interested in studying government affairs are invited to join. Meeting time and place for the November session will be announced at an early date.

Flag Signals Show City Safety Record

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Accident prevention police will remind Miamians of their daily safety record with a set of flags raised at a downtown intersection.

A flag showing a green cross within a green circle will denote a day with no injuries or deaths from motor accidents.

A red flag will indicate injuries.

Mayor Has A Flair For Detective Work

HAMPTON, Va.—(AP)—Mayor J. V. Bickford answered his telephone and a voice told him the party calling was Mayor Earl B. Horner, of Burlington, N. C., who would like Mayor Bickford to identify him at a local bank to have a check cashed.

Acting on a hunch Bickford called Mayor Horner on the telephone—and found him presiding at a council session in Burlington. Two detectives instead of the mayor called to "identify" the telephone caller.

HIDALGO FOOD STAMP WORK SET TO START

Three Offices Will Be Open Monday

EDINBURG—More than 150 grocery stores in Hidalgo County will participate in the "federal food stamp plan" which opens officially Monday morning. James Walsh, county welfare organizer, said Saturday.

Persons eligible to participate in the program may purchase food stamps at any of the three offices established over the county. The central office is located in the courthouse annex in Edinburg under the immediate supervision Herbert Carter. Sub-issuing stamp offices located at 12 South Fifteenth Street at McAllen under the direction of Ned Brown, cashier, and the Travelers hotel building at Weslaco under the direction of Cecil Boone, cashier.

To Get Free Stamps

For each $1 worth of orange stamps bought, the purchaser receives 50 cents worth of blue stamps free The stamps are exchanged for food at groceries over the county participating in the program. The grocers redeem the stamps at face value at the office of Travis S. Masterson, area supervisor of the Surplus Marketing Administration, in the Courthouse Annex here.

Purposes of the food stamp plan are to remove surplus food products, the distribution of food to needy persons, and the utilization of established trade channels to increase the business of retailers and wholesalers.

The county department of public welfare must certify each eligible family to the stamp office where a complete account with that family is established and maintained. Each eligible family is given an identification card and provided with necessary information for participation.

Orange stamps may be used to purchase any kind of goods sold by the participating firms, but only designated surplus commodities may be purchased with the blue stamps.

Many Commodities

The surplus commodities designated for the period beginning Nov. 1 by the secretary of agriculture are as follows:

Butter, raisins, rice, pork lard, pork, corn meal, shell eggs, dried prunes, hominy grits, wheat flour and whole wheat (graham), fresh oranges, fresh grapefruit, onions, (except green onions), dry edible beans, fresh cabbage, Irish potatoes, fresh apples and fresh pears. (Pork includes all cuts, fresh, chilled or frozen, pickled, salted, cured or smoked, but not including cooked or packed in metal or glass containers.)

Walsh poses here with the $7,200 worth of stamps. He has been in charge of the county welfare program for several years.

VALLEY FLIER IN AIR CRASH

Lloyd Sloan Escapes Hurt In Plane

SHARYLAND—Details of an air crash at the Naval Air Training Base in Pensacola, Fla., were received Saturday by parents of Lloyd Sloan, one of the principals in the crash. Cadet Sloan "bailed out" to safety after the plane in which he was receiving instructions figured in a mid-air crash with another training plane. Both Sloan and his instructor used their parachutes after bailing out at 750 feet altitude while the student and instructor in the second plane were both killed when the plane in which were riding struck the ground.

Messages sent to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sloan, Sharyland, parents of the cadet, told of his safety and of his being cleared of any blame for the accident. News releases from upstate and southern radio stations and newspapers carried news of the crash late Wednesday.

The Sharyland cadet went to Pensacola in August to begin the second phase of his air training after having completed the first period at Ope Locka, Fla., in June. He will be at Pensacola for one year before being sent to San Diego for further training.

Three Escape Injury In Saturday Crash

HARLINGEN — Three persons escaped with minor bruises from an auto-automobile collision at Pletcher's Station on Highway 4 west of here Saturday night.

Sanchez Hernandez, driver of a Model A Ford and James Noblett, La Feria, driving a motorcycle, were cited to appear in Judge Menton Murray's court here Tuesday at 10 a.m., when investigation will be completed. State Patrolman Ben Thomas said Hernandez was turning out of the station onto the highway. Noblett's companion was not identified.

Paging Mr. Johnson Any Johnson Will Do

And all because J. H. Leatherwood, large-scale strawberry grower, says no one can beat a Johnson when it comes to picking berries.

"I had six Johnsons picking for me last year," Leatherwood wrote the state employment office., "and they all were such good pickers that all I want this year are Johnsons, Send me 25 of them."

The employment office rounded up all the Johnsons it could.

Leader Breaks Nose At Baton Practice

KEWANEE, Ill. —(AP)— Beverly Busch, baton twirler for the Sons of Legion drum corps, has decided that it's a good policy to keep her nose out of even her own business. Her whirling baton broke her nose while she was practicing to appear at a county fair.

PIONEER DIES AT HARLINGEN

J. F. Hathaway Rites Await Children

HARLINGEN—James F. Hathaway, 79, pioneer Valley farmer and construction contractor once associated with the late Lon C. Hill, died at his Dixieland Road home near here Saturday about 9 p.m. after a long illness.

Funeral service, to be under direction of Stotler-Burdette Mortuary, had not been set late Saturday.

Hathaway was born in California September 10, 1861. He had lived in Texas 62 years, and moved to the Valley 36 years ago from Kerrville.

Hathaway was connected with construction of the Mercedes irrigation canals and with work in other districts, and was associated with Lon C. Hill in construction work around Harlingen. He had also been a gin operator.

Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Nora Hathaway; three sons, B. H. Hathaway, San Antonio; James A. Hathaway, La Feria; Henry H. Hathaway, Uvalde; four daughters, Mrs. Harold Looney, Mrs. Dallas Ingle, Mrs. Crockett Campbell, all of Harlingen, and Mrs. Guy Cunningham, Miami, Okla.; and a brother, A. S. Hathaway, Grenville, N. M.

Deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge.

Fresh Water Well Is Drilled In Bay

HOUSTON —(AP)— A water well, of all things, was drilled five miles out in Galveston bay near Seabrook by the Humble Oil and Refining Company.

The company said it needed the water for boilers, well washing and other uses at a wildcat oil test in the bay

It is easier to drill a well for fresh water than to set up a condenser and extract salt from the bay water.

OBITUARY

A. A. WILLIAMS

SAN JUAN—Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday from the Kreidler Funeral Home, McAllen, for Alvin Allen Williams, 80, pioneer Upper Valley resident who died at his home here late Thursday afternoon after an illness of several months.

Pallbearers will be Thornton Thacker, John Tompkins, Paul Reichert, Bill Lemen, W. H. Gossage and W. G. Rice. Survivors include his wife; one son, M. E. Williams, Adel Iowa; three daughters, Mrs. S. L. Miller of McAllen, Mrs. Banks Miller and Mrs. Clark Mellenbruck of San Juan; two brothers, two sisters and four grandchildren.

Mr. Williams came here 23 years ago. He served on the official board of the People's Church for many years and was treasurer of the San Juan Masonic lodge.

Chicken House Trap For Reckless Hawk

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va.—(AP)—A big chicken hawk swooped into Mrs. C. L. Long's chicken house just as Mrs. Long entered the chicken yard. She slammed the chicken house door, donned gloves and caught the hawk alive.

Dog Of Priest Not Exempt From Taxes

FRANKFORT, Ky., —(AP)— A dog owned by a priest is not exempt from a license tax, the Kentucky attorney-general's office has held. A priest, who asked the ruling, contended the dog was the "property of the church" and, therefore, tax exempt.

ADVICE GIVEN ON PASSPORTS

2 Photographs Are Needed At Border

HARLINGEN — Manager Worth Heffner of the Harlingen Chamber of Commerce Saturday announced that Valley residents seeking Mexican passports should take two small photographs with them, and go to the Mexican immigration office on Mexico side of the Rio Grande and obtain their identification cards, but added out-of-Valley residents would have slightly more difficulty.

Out-of-Valley people must have papers or letters proving United States citizenship in order to get the cards. Heffner said, adding that anyone wishing to do so may come to the chamber of commerce office with their proper papers, and receive a letter which they can take to the Mexican immigration office and receive a tourist courtesy card.

Now She Can Knit For Another Fight

BRYAN, Tex.—(AP)—Mrs. W. S. Stuart has aided soldiers from 1861 to 1940. The 86-year-old woman recently turned in to the Red Cross three pairs of woolen gloves she knitted in 10 days, destined for relief to soldiers in Europe.

At the age of eight she helped her father mold bullets for Confederate soldiers, and in the first World war she knitted, sewed, made surgical dressings, and nursed during the influenza epidemic in a Texas camp.

Traffic From Mexico Shows Marked Increase Last Month

BROWNSVILLE — Figures kept on traffic from Mexico into the United States here during October show an increase of more than 1,000 vehicles and approximately 6,000 persons over figures during September, according to A. E. Kraut, deputy collector of United States customs.

A total of 12,430 vehicles and 52,478 people crossed the border into the United States during October here as compared with 11,083 vehicles and 46,697 persons crossing in September.

More aircraft crossed the border during October, but a smaller number of passengers was carried in this bracket during the month, figures show.

Mr. Kraut reported a total of 74 aircraft entering with 661 passengers. September totals were 68 airplanes with 718 passengers.

Automobiles entering totalled 9,493 and carried 21,338 passengers, and 2,603 buses brought 24,492 passengers. A total of 224 other vehicles brought 287 passengers. Thirty-six freight cars entered, and crossings of 5,700 pedestrians were recorded.

Totals for the year since July 1 show crossings of 43,968 vehicles and 177,186 persons.

A total of 1,260 packages of merchandise were examined by customs men here during October, with 673 entries noted and 1,321 export declarations.

VISUAL CLASS WORK STARTS

McAllen To Join New Co-Op Next Year

McALLEN—McAllen high school is expected to join the group of Valley schools who have formed a visual education association for next year, when the school has finished paying for its motion picture projector, Principal A. M. Weir said Saturday.

Weir said it would cosht $300 to join the association, which buys and distributes films. Meanwhile, the McAllen school will use films rented from the University.

The school last spring began purchase of a 16 millimeter utility model projector, using money from the Doghouse Fund. The down payment was $300. Miss Hazel Myers, Doghouse sponsor, said about $30 had been set aside on the $100 remaining to be paid. C. H. Britton Jr., high school student, the past week screened films on Mexico and biological subjects at a meeting of the Thomas A. Edison Science club.

Mission Explosion Causes $200 Damage

MISSION—A defective gas connection on a room heater caused an explosion and damage estimated at $200 Saturday morning at the J. F. Ewers home, 1521 Conway boulevard. Mission Fire Department members called to the scene within a few minutes used the chemical truck apparatus to control the blaze. Damage was confined to curtains, furniture and wall finishes in one room of the home.

Sparing The Horses With New Trailers

DENVER—(AP)—New technique of U. S. Forest Service in patrolling hundreds of thousands of acres of forest lands is to load their horses into trailers and drive on highways as far as possible.

Modern rangers are completing in one or two days trips that used to require a week or more by pack trail. Sometimes in the old days their duties required them to pack along provisions for a month. The new horse trailers are to be used throughout the 107 forest districts.

THREE TRUCKS ARE DAMAGED

Drivers Are Unhurt In Accidents

EDINBURG—Three truck drivers escaped injury in a series of auto accidents in the Edinburg area early Saturday morning, but the mishaps left plenty of damage.

An empty fruit truck driven by Tom Hardy of Vincennes, Ind., crashed into a concrete abutment on the canal which dips beneath Highway 83 a half mile south of Edinburg. Although Hardy was only scratched, his machine was badly damaged.

Lloyd Eli Clark of Edinburg was the driver of a truck which crashed into a telephone pole on East Harriman avenue in east Edinburg, snapping the pole in two and lowering the lines across the avenue. A crew repaired the damage Saturday morning.

Both the Hardy and Clark mishaps occurred about 1:30 a. m., according to County Patrolman Walter Lysinger, who investigated each.

The day's third crash occurred a mile west of Elsa on the highway to Edinburg when a truck whose driver's name was not immediately learned struck a horse owned by C. Gonzalez of Elsa.

Valley Football

With the Rio Grande Valley's 1940 football season turning into the home stretch this week-end, fans are over their jitters regarding the District Class A race and have decided that the Mission Eagles are "in" to all intent sand purposes.

Last Friday night the Eagles removed the Donna Redskins from a deadlock for first place in the district standings by handing them a 40-14 trimming. The victory gave the Eagles four wins against no losses in conference with two district games yet to be played. It will be up to either La Feria or Pharr-San Juan-Alamo or both to knock the Eagles over if any other team in the district is to lay claim to the championship.

The Harlingen Cardinals are leading the pack with two wins and no losses. To go through the South zone of District 16-AA with a clean slate, the Red Birds must win over their two remaining conference opponents, San Benito and Brownsville. McAllen still has San Benito and Edinburg to play; Brownsville must meet Edinburg and Harlingen; and Edinburg has Brownsville and McAllen remaining on their schedule. All of these games have a direct bearing on the race and are certain to be bitterly fought. It is certain that ALL of the Class AA teams cannot win their remaining games but picking the winners will present quite a problem to the "experts" who have discovered that naming the winning teams in Valley high school play is a pretty tough proposition.

Incidentally it would be a good idea for fans to bear in mind that the Edinburg-Brownsville, McAllen-Edinburg and Brownsville-Harlingen games will be thrillers and worth traveling many miles to see. It will be a tough break for those who have to miss seeing any one of them.

The Class B race has settled down to the point where the winner of the Lyford Bulldog-Rio Hondo Bobcat game will wrap up the title. Each has a win over Edcouch-Elsa and no loss has been charged against them.

As this corner predicted before the season got under way, Valley grid fans were in for plenty of fine football. They have had it so far and more is to come before the curtain rings down.

Fireworks Ahead

Thirty-one of 48 football games in the 1940 Southwest Conference schedule have been played, but a lot of fireworks in the strictly family struggle are yet to come.

Twelve of the 21 conference games are yet to be played. Three of the 12 are scheduled for next Saturday, when S.M.U. meets Texas A. and M. in Dallas, Arkansas plays Rice in Fayetteville, and Baylor and Texas mix it up at Austin.

Since last summer, grid fans have been pointing out that the Methodists would be the best bet to stop the rampaging Aggies. Whatever this hunch may be worth, it is certain that the Southwest headliner will be played in Dallas next Saturday when these two elevens meet Coach Matty Bell's boys came close to taking the Farmers in College Station last year, so you can bet that Coach Homer Norton will have his charges primed. Here's where the Eyes of Texas will really be pointing.

Arkansas and Rice have both upset the prescason prognosticators by winning from some good strong teams. Saturday they will be out to upset each other. From the bayous to the Ozarks is quite a jump, and there are those who give the Razorbacks the nod because of this. The record, however, would indicate that the Owls have the power to dispense of the Mountaineers.

In Austin the Longhorns will be out to avenge a 20-to-0 drubbing at the hands of the Baylor Bears in Waco last year. The contest could shed a little light on the chances of the Steers against the Aggies (Baylor having lost to A. and M. 7 to 14.)

The games in Austin and Dallas will be the only ones on Texas soil. While the six other members are engaged in family brawls, T.C.U. will move up to Detroit for the Frogs' final intersectional appearance.

It looks as if Coach Dutch Meyer had caught another hot one in Coach Dutch Dorais' Titans at the University of Detroit. Word comes that the 1940 Titan club is the best in years, and the Frogs — well, they're definitely not that!

ALABAMA 25; KENTUCKY 0

LEXINGTON, Ky. — (AP) — The mighty Crimson tide of Alabama roared over the University of Kentucky football team 25 to 0 Saturday to give the Kentuckians their first defeat of the year. The bluegrass boys have been tied twice.

Alabama scored twice in the second period and again in the third and fourth. Kentucky never seriously threatened.

GEORGIA 14; AUBURN 13

COLUMBUS, Ga.—(AP)—A hard-fighting Georgia team, which refused to give up, outstayed a last-quarter rally by Auburn Saturday to beat the Tigers, 14-13, before 18,000 spectators.

Ponies Show Fine Display Of Aerials

Power On Ground Is Also Potent

By RAY NEUMANN

AUSTIN, Tex. —(AP)— A baffling blend of power, speed and aerial efficiency gave Southern Methodist University's Mustangs a 21-13 triumph over an University of Texas team here Saturday.

Inaugurating their Southwest Conference schedule, the Methodists held Texas' vaunted ground attack in check but the inspired Longhorns rose to heights to tally twice and stiffened enough to stop other Mustang scoring threats.

All scores were made in the last two periods, the Ponies opening the third period with a touchdown march from their own 21.

A crowd of approximately 25,000 saw Johnnie Clement pass to Dick Miller and then to E. L. Keeton, with the aid of a plunge by Preston Johnston, to place the ball on the Texas 40. Johnston thundered through the line for nine and Clement aerialed to Gus Tunnell for 26. From there Johnston plowed around left end for the tally. He kicked the point.

The kick-off to Texas went out of bounds and from their 35 the Steers got to the 41 with Noble Doss carrying. Doss ripped off five more and two line tries were smeared. Then Pete Layden uncorked a rainbow pass to Jesse Hawthorne who stumbled through several tacklers and, behind good blocking, ran over for the score. Crain's placekick for point was wide.

Shortly thereafter guard Hoyle Simes fell on a Texas fumble on the Longhorns' 34. Clement passed to Ends Bob Maddox and Keeton to the Steer 6 after which Johnston powered through for three and Clement sliced tackle for one. Clement aerialed to Keeton behind the line for the second Pony score and Johnston added the extra point from placement.

Opening the final period on his own 24, R. L. Harkins of Texas hurled two incomplete aerials and then suddenly found Spec Sanders in the clear. Sanders took the pass at a gallop and outran the Methodist secondary to score standing up. On the attempted placekick the ball was fumbled but Sanders grabbed it and dodged through a broken field to add the point.

The Ponies again gained possession of the ball on their own 42 and Clinton McClain plunged for four. Ray Mallouf then aerialed to Tunnell who was nailed on the Steer 43. Kelly Simpson received the next overhead and carried to the Texas 15. On a fake pass, McClain ran over the goal line around right end. Johnston's toe concluded the point getting.

The Methodists got 15 first downs to Texas' two and gained 297 yards by aerials to the Steers' 171.

John Barnum In Mexico Finals

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— Ellsworth Vines, California tennis ace now well on his way to becoming a two-sport star, will meet defending titlist John Barnum of Edinburg, Tex., Sunday in the finals of Mexico's 12th Amateur Golf Championship tourney.

Vines and Barnum shot their way through all competition here Saturday to enter the finals.

Barnum won over a fellow Texan, Jack Tinnin from Dallas, one up Saturday afternoon in his semi-final match.

Vines, driving consistently for 300 yards or better, played the day's great golf. Paired in the other semi-final bracket against Bobby Riegel, Houston titleholder and last year's runner-up here, Vines shot a beautiful 68, four under par for the Mexico City Country Club course.

Riegel scored a 69, and the match was in doubt until Vines' last putt on the 18th green. Sinking the ball from ten feet away, the Californian halved the hole and held his advantage of 1 up.

DUQUESNE 14; MARQUETTE 0

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Scoring in the second and third periods on aerials flung by passing Phil Aswesh, Duquesne University's Dukes handily defeated Marquette University 14 to 0 Saturday before 12,000 on muddy Forbes Field.

WISCONSIN 13; ILLINOIS 6

MADISON, Wis.—(AP)—A 62-yard touchdown pass in the final quarter by Johnny Tennant, fleet Badger back, broke a deadlock and gave Wisconsin a 13 to 6 victory over Illinois in a conference football game before a crowd of 30,000 homecoming fans here Saturday.

Horned Frogs Nose Out Baylor's Bears 14 To 12

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Little Kyle Gillespie returned to gridiron glory here Saturday, slithering through and around Baylor's ponderous Bruins as the spark that once more ignited Texas Christian University's victory fire.

The Horned Frogs won, 14-12, in a thrilling game watched by a crowd of 8,000.

Gillespie, 155-pound quarterback whose trick knee seems at last to have reached the point of supporting him, gamboled 39 yards for one touchdown and set up another with a punt return that put the Frogs on the Baylor 17. Here Logan Ware and Frank Kring combined to smash to the Baylor 6-yard line. Kring got two and Gillespie one, then Kring stepped back and fired a pass over the goal line, the ball settled into the arms of Connie Sparks.

Phil Roach, who Saturday was one of the finest ends ever to cavort at TCU stadium kicked the point—as he had the first one.

It was Roach's sure-footed efforts before the crossbars that paid off. It was Gillespie's all-around good work that put the Frogs in position for Roach to exercise his kicking talents.

By its victory Saturday TCU stayed in the race for the Southwest Conference championship, although it is only a mathematical chance. The Frogs have lost one game.

In the second quarter things picked up with a bang.

Texas Christian got its first touchdown on a lateral from Kring to Sparks to Gillespie that gained 46 yards. Gillespie skipped 39 yards for the counter.

It was a glittering passing attack that brought the Bears their first touchdown.

Big Jack Russell, great Baylor wingman, was on the receiving end of most of the heaves but it was a pitch to Weldon Bigony that set the stage for 210-pound Milton Crain to ram over from the two-yard line.

Baylor scored again early in the fourth quarter with Coleman's fine return of Gillespie's punt to the TCU 25-yard line starting the Bruins to rolling. Jim Witt circled left end for a first down on the TCU 9 and Travis Nelson caught the Frogs flatfooted on a reverse that brought the touchdown. Robert Nelson missed the point.

Firts downs were even but TCU ran up 203 yards rushing and passing to 124 for the Bears.

Texas Aggies Overpower Arkansas Porkers 17-0

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)—Giant John Alec Kimbrough hurtled like a meteor through Arkansas Saturday to shepherd the Texas Aggies to their seventeenth consecutive triumph, 17-0.

The laughing, 222-pound All-America fullback shook a touchdown out of the mountainous Razorbacks midway of the first period with some of his old-fashioned line plowing and then riddled their two boldest aerial attempts with stunning interceptions and runbacks of 47 and 38 yards.

But behind Jarrin' Jawn Saturday was a vicious Aggie line that manufactured break after break with jolting tackles that caused Arkansas to commit five fumbles—all recovered by the Cadets—at quite crucial moments.

On Arkansas' second scrimmage play of the game the Aggies flushed a great break when tackle Chip Routt's vicious block of little Walt Hamberg's attempted quick kick gave Ernie Pannell a chance to recover on the Arkansas 12.

There the Porkers put on a grand defensive show, taking over the ball after Kimbrough's two runs and two passes failed of a score.

But the next break, three minutes later, was an Aggie touchdown. End Boots Simmons jarred the ball from Hamberg's hands on an attempted sweep and guard Marshall Robnett recovered on the Arkansas 17.

Lunging, diving, butting Kimbrough swept straight through the massive Arkansas line for a touchdown on five jolts, the final one from the three. Pugh kicked the point—his ninth straight conversion without a miss this season.

Wild Bill Conatser's 39-yard punt return, and a couple of Marland Jeffrey's passes to Sterling and Henderson, both lateraled off to Kimbrough, carried the Aggies to the Arkansas seven early in the third period, but Arkansas held.

From the 22-yard line, and at a difficult angle, sophomore Jake Webster kicked a field goal, while Jim Thomason held.

Two minutes later and the man Kimbrough broke Arakansas' back again. He stabbed Hamberg's pass at midfield and scurried 38 yards to the Arkansas 22. On the next play Jeffrey sent a smoking touchdown pass to Sterling on the goal line. Robnett converted.

Outstanding for Arkansas on the defensive was Jay Lawhon, a tremendous fellow at fullback who did quite a job of line backing.

The Aggies won handily, but for the first time since the Arkansas game a year ago they were outgained. The towering Porkers gained 226 yards—151 by passing—to the Aggies total of 185 yards.

Score by periods:

Texas Aggies	7	0	10	0	—17

Texas Aggie scoring: touchdowns, Kimbrough, Sterling (pass from Jeffrey); points from try after touchdown, Pugh, Robnett (from placement); field goal, Webster (sub for Sterling) from placement.

Bulldogs Given Reward For Win

McALLEN—As sort of a reward for their 25-6 conference victory over the Brownsville Eagles Friday night, a large number of the McAllen high school Bulldogs were taken to Austin Saturday for the Southern Methodist-University of Texas football game.

The players were lead by Head Coach Maco Stewart, Assistant Coach Kenneth Grimes, School Board Member George Chapapas and others.

Most of the boys were expected to yell for the Mustangs, since Stewart is a product of SMU. He was a member of the 1935 Pony Rose Bowl squad.

Three games remain on the McAllen schedule this year, two of them at home.

The Bulldogs play the strong Mission Eagles, leaders of the class A loop, here next Friday night. The following week, McAllen entertains the San Benito Greyhounds here in a district 16-AA contest, and close the season November 22 at Edinburg in a conference clash with the Bobcats.

So far this season, the Bulldogs have won five games and lost one, rolling up 137 points to 26 for their opponents. McAllen whipped Pharr-San Juan-Alamo 31-0, Mercedes 20-0, Weslaco 28-7, Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio 27-6 and Brownsville 25-6. The Dogs lost to Harlingen 7-6, in a conference game.

Vols Race Over Tigers 28 To 0

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. —(AP)— Tennessee's mighty Volunteers turned loose their full power Saturday to blast the Louisiana State Tigers out of the path leading toward a Southeastern Conference championship and post-season Bowl honors.

Some 18,000 spectators were startled with the ferocity of the Volunteer attack that rolled up four touchdowns for a 28 to 0 victory and set the Tennesseans on the home stretch of a third successive untied and undefeated season after 28 straight regular season victories.

The game was barely under way when Tennessee started a drive from their own 26-yard line that ended with blond Bob Foxx smashing over on a reverse from the five for the first touchdown. Foxx kicked the extra point from placement.

After that drive Louisiana State's offense was smothered by the charging orange-clad forwards.

BROWN 6; YALE 2

YALE BOWL; New Haven, Conn. —(AP)—Dick High ran 88 yards after intercepting a pass in the opening quarter to give Brown a 6 to 2 victory over Yale Saturday in a hard fought battle, most of which was played in a driving rain. The victors took an intentional safety late in the game.

Hardin-Simmons Beats Buffaloes

CANYON, Tex. —(AP)— The jinx which Hardin-Simmons University has held over West Texas State for 16 years continued Saturday as the Cowboys defeated the Buffaloes, 28 to 7.

Fullback "Moon" Mullins crashed over for two quick touchdowns against the Buffaloes, one of which was set up by L. B. Russell's 33-yard gallop. Evans kicked both extra points.

Goodnight and Bryson then ripped through the Buffalo line, Bryson bucking the ball over from the 4-yard line. Bryson converted.

Early in the second quarter, Russell sliced off tackle and ran 30 yards for the fourth Cowboy touchdown. Morrison blocked Evans' try to placekick, but Goodnight grabbed the ball and ran it across for the point.

The Buffaloes battled the Cowboys on even terms in the third quarter. They scored in the middle of the fourth when little Ben Collins passed and ran to the Cowboy 33, then made the touchdown on a zig-zag scoring thrust. He placekicked the point.

The Cowboys made 14 first downs to 5 for the Buffaloes and gained 251 yards rushing to 125.

Brumley's Kick Gives Rice Owls Win Over A. - I.

Field Goal Saves Neelymen

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

HOUSTON— (AP) —Fullback Bob Brumley, a man with a charley-horse, went into the game with two seconds to go, but in that breathless time he hauled Rice Institute from the bring of a shocking upset and gave it a 9-6 victory over plucky little Texas A. and I.

The Javelinas had wrestled the big Owls to a 6-6 tie through the third period and shoved them around during the fourth—until Rice got its aerial attack going and Brumley swung his leg.

Starting desperately from its own 19 as the big clock ticked off the dying minutes; Rice surged downfield to the A. and I. 3 on passes from tiny Gene Keel to big Whitlock Zander, fullback, who started the game in Brumley's place.

The last heave hit Zander on the three-yard line. Two seconds were left. Brumley was rushed in and from the 19, pounded a perfect placement kick between the bars.

The entire evening was harrowing for Rice. Through the entire first half it failed to score a single first down, although at game's end, it held the advantage, 10-7.

A. and I. scored the first touchdown and ran up 160 yards to the Owl's 122.

The contest was slow through the first two periods, as Rice, sluggish after last week's upset victory over Texas, failed to show any spark.

Coach Jess Neely skinned them with a pep talk between halves and things were different thereafter, although A. and I. got the jump.

The first time it got its hands on the ball in the third quarter A. and I. churned to a score. J. P. Hilliard, little brother of Texas' illustrious Bohn, raced 72 yards for a touchdown, feinting at right tackle and then blazing around right end.

Tulane Puts End To Clemson Wins

By MORTIMER KREEGER

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—Tulane's resurgent Green Wave, showing its 1939 power, snapped the Clemson Tigers' 13-game winning streak Saturday, 13-0, before 31,000 spectators.

The touchdowns came on an 80-yard drive in the waning moments of the first half and a 30-yard run of an intercepted pass by Fred Gloden, sub fullback.

Joe Blalock, Clemson's star end, was the greatest breakwater the Tigers threw up to the Wave's surges.

Taking the ball on a punt over their own goal line after holding Clemson's first drive across the midstripe, the Greenies began marching. After two first downs Lou Thomas, Tulane's sophomore left halfback, cut back sharply over left tackle and ran 41 yards to Clemson's 16.

Jim Thibaut faded back to toss a 16-yard pass to Albodney, who was alone across the goal line. Thibaut placed kicked the extra point.

Then, later, Maness tried a 10-yard pass to Blalock. Gloden took the ball at a gallop, picked up blockers and crossed the goal line standing up. Blalock blocked Thomas' place kick attempt for the extra point.

The Wave gained 383 net yards rushing to the Tigers' 52.

BOSTON COLLEGE WINS

NEWTON, Mass.—(AP)—Unbeaten Boston College scored once in each period Saturday to compile a 25-0 victory over a scrappy Manhattan eleven which found its clockwork attack handicapped in a sea of mud. Mike Holovak, Boston fullback, scored twice to lead the Eagles to their sixth straight victory before a drenched crowd of 12,000 spectators.

GEORGETOWN 28; SYRACUSE 6

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—(AP)—Georgetown's highly talented football team unbeaten in three years made it 22 games without a defeat Saturday by drubbing Syracuse, 28 to 6, before a crowd of 17,000.

Notre Dame Has Trouble Pushing Over Army Team

Interception Saves Irish Hide

By BILL BONI

NEW YORK—(AP)—A Notre Dame football team that had rolled into town on the wings of the biggest Irish boom since Knute Rockne's day rode out again Saturday night on the very slim side of a 7-0 score over Army, rated the underdog by as much as 7-1.

The score was sufficient to keep the Irish in the diminishing group of unbeaten and untied teams. But the way in which they won did nothing to enhance their reputation or enthuse their supporters in the Yankee Stadium crowd of 78,000.

Never, from kickoff until final whistle, did this supposed gridiron juggernaut get beyond midfield on its own initiative. Its touchdown came on an 81-yard run back of an intercepted pass in the first quarter. After that the only occasion on which Notre Dame had possession on the Army side of the field was on a quick kick by Army tailback Johnny Hatch which wobbled out of bounds on the Cadet 43. 19 yards from the line of scrimmage.

The lad who got the touchdown was Steve Juzwik, Notre Dame's leading scorer for the season. He broke up the second of five Army threats by snaring sophomore Hank Mazur's pass on his own 19, and then racing to the far end of the field virtually unprotected, outdodging Bill Gillis, Army captain and center, at one point along the way and simply running over Mazur, his last obstacle.

Milt Piepul, big Norte Dame captain and fullback, kicked the extra point—which was about all this highly-touted All-America prospect contributed to the proceedings.

The advance notices which unanimously conceded victory to Notre Dame apparently were just the inspiration Army needed. The Cadets had all the drive, all the fire and almost all the blocking.

Bob Saggau, blond Notre Dame halfback fumbled the opening kickoff and Tom Farrell, Cadet end dropped on the ball on the 13. The steamed-up Cadets sent Johnny Roberts, Mazur and then Roberts again belting into the startled Notre Dame line. That third try missed first down by a foot.

Here Army called time and sent in Ted Lutryzkowski to replace Roberts at quarterback. He went back to the 13 to try a field goal, the ball was deflected by Irish end Johnny O'Brien, and Army's best chance to score was washed up.

PURDUE 21; IOWA 6

IOWA CITY, Ia.—(AP)—Purdue inflicted the third straight Big Ten defeat of the season on Iowa, 21 to 6, to spoil the Hawkeye homecoming here Saturday.

Petty scored two touchdowns for the Boilermakers on dives over the goal from the one-yard line and Anderson the third on a pass from Galvin. Burkett of Iowa recovered a fumbled punt over the goal for the lone Hawkeye score.

Few Major Teams Boast Unbeaten Records

Aggies Stay In Nation's 'Top' Class

Tie Mars Mustangs' Record

By HERB BARKER

NEW YORK—(AP)—Northwestern, Clemson, Navy, Detroit and Kentucky were summarily removed from football's unbeaten class Saturday as Bernie Bierman's Minnesota Gophers roared a new challenge to the Western Conference in particular and the nation in general.

Saturday night just 14 major teams could boast unbeaten records and three of these had been tied. In the East, Cornell, Boston College, Penn State, LaFayette and Georgetown, all had perfect records, as did Minnesota, Notre Dame and Michigan (idle Saturday) in the Midwest; Texas A. and M. in the Southwest; Tennessee in the South, and Stanford in the Far West. Tied but unbeaten were Southern Methodist, Mississippi State and Texas Tech.

It was Minnesota which struck Northwestern off the list, winning a 13-12 decision in a dramatic struggle fought at Evanston before 48,000.

Minnesota's record now shows successive victories over Washington, Nebraska, Ohio State, Iowa and Northwestern which is just about par for the course.

Clemson Defeated

Clemson's Tigers carried the Southern Conference banner into New Orleans but proved no match for revived Tulane which ground out 22 first downs and won, 13-0, with 31,600 looking on. Penn took advantage of the breaks and some doubtful rival strategy to give Navy its first defeat, 20-0, before a crowd of 70,000. Kentucky's unbeaten record was smashed completely by Alabama, 25-0, while Detroit's initial set-back came at the hands of Tulsa, 7-0.

A crowd of 76,000 jammed the Yankee Stadium to see Notre Dame run over twice-beaten Army and remained to cheer the Cadets who played the Irish off their feet all the way, yet succeeded in losing the ball game, 7-0, on Steve Juzwik's 81-yard run with an intercepted pass and on their own questionable field generalship.

All five unbeaten Eastern teams won easily. Cornell, with Hal McCullough tossing three touchdown passes, romped over Columbia, 27-0; Boston College ran up a 25-0 count on Manhattan; Lafayette knocked over Washington and Jefferson by the same score; Penn State took South Carolina over the hurdles, 12-0; and Georgetown mowed down Syracuse, 28-6. Georgetown now has gone 22 games without defeat and Cornell has moved through 17 without a setback.

Big John Kimbrough was the siege gun Texas A. and M. needed to whip Arkansas, 17-0, while Southern Methodist handed Texas its second successive defeat, 21-13. Bob Foxx paced Tennessee to a stunning 28-0 conquest of Louisiana State, as Mississippi State found Southwestern of Memphis a tough nut to crack but won, 13-0. Texas Tech won over Miami (Florida) 61-14 Friday night.

One of the day's most surprising results saw Duke practically run Georgia Tech off the gridiron with a 41-7 victory before 34,000. The Blue Devils, unimpressive earlier in the season, could do no wrong against the engineers.

Georgia Wins

Georgia nosed out Auburn, 14-13, and Mississippi scored over Vanderbilt, 13-7, in Southeastern Conference games.

Jim Blumenstock's powerful running was the feature of Fordham's relatively easy 14-0 victory over North Carolina. Dartmouth, West Virginia and Duquesne also scored intersectional victories for the East. Duquesne stopped Marquette, 14-0; West Virginia disposed of Washington and Lee, 12-7, and Dartmouth halted Sewanee, 26-0. Carnegie fell before the University of Cincinnati, 7-6.

Harvard checked Dave Allerdice's passes and emerged with a "moral victory" in a scoreless draw with Princeton. Brown scored over Yale, 6-2, on Dave High's 88-yard touchdown run; Temple nipped Bucknell, 10-7, and Colgate won over Holy Cross, 6-0.

Beaten three times in a row, Ohio State got back on the rails with a decisive 21-6 defeat of Indiana. Jim Langhurst scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes to the huge delight of a crowd of 58,000. John Tennant's 62-yard run in the final quarter gave Wisconsin a 13-6 victory over Illinois, and John Petty's two touchdowns helped Purdue score over Iowa, 21-6.

Michigan State easily whipped Kansas State, 32-0.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers virtually clinched the Big Six crown by virtue of a 13-0 decision over Oklahoma since the Huskers' only remaining conference foes are Iowa State and Kansas State. Missouri trampled New York University, 33-0. Paul Christman was responsible for three touchdowns.

Texas Christian scored a surprise 14-12 victory over Baylor in the dizzy Southwest Conference race. In the Southern Conference, William and Mary and Virginia Military played a scoreless draw. Virginia Tech won a 6-0 verdict over non-conference Virginia.

A crowd of 55,000 saw Stanford's Indians retain their perfect record with a 20-14 victory over U.C.L.A. It was Stanford's sixth successive victory with dangerous Washington next on the list. It was U.C.L.A.'s sixth defeat in a row, none by more than a touchdown. Oregon State rallied in the late stages to defeat California, 19-13, in the only other Pacific Coast Conference game on the card.

Headliners On The Sidelines

GEORGE KERR, Boston College guard, is a versatile fellow. He's an honor student, debater, and college heavyweight boxing champ. George is pretty good at the piano, too, and here finds a little off-the-field diversion at the keyboard.

MILT PIEPUL is the scholarly young man here exploring the oral cavity of Notre Dame's Sadie, a skeleton used in physical education courses. On the football field Milt is the bonecrushing captain and fullback for the Irish.

NICK DRAHOS, left, All-America tackle, and teammates Bill Murphy, a back, and Kirk Hershey, end, loosen muscle kinks in a whirlpool bath in the Cornell dressing room—spending off-the-field time to get in shape for on-the-field contact.

Give Curlews A Chance

By G. B. SAUNDERS
Research Division
U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service

I met a duck hunter the other day who commented on the numbers of long-billed curlews he had seen on the flats and asked why there is no open season on this bird. The answer will probably interest many hunters, also these comments may be welcome to those who do not realize the curlew is protected. Warden activity during the duck season will probably be increased, as it was during the white wing season, and he who bags a curlew may find himself in federal or state court with a stiff fine to pay and his hunting license revoked.

When one sees those flocks of curlews on the flats or along the ship channel, he should remember that most of the survivors of this species in North America concentrate in winter in this part of the coast. Some stop north of Corpus Christi, others go on to northern Tamaulipas, but most of them prefer to spend the season in a relatively small area which apparently centers on the flats of the Rio Grande delta. We see hundreds of curlews on these flats in favorable locations, but when we consider that they represent the population produced on thousands of square miles of country, we can understand why the curlew is facing possible extermination.

The old story of the destruction of prairie nesting grounds by settlement, agriculture, over-grazing and finally by drought applies to the curlew. At the present time a few curlews nest from the sandhills of western Nebraska to the prairies of Saskatchewan, but they are usually about as scarce as the native Indians.

It is easy to understand why some Valley hunters, not knowing the tragic story of the curlew, would wonder why the species is protected. After learning the reason they can aid in the conservation program by telling others who are not informed on the subject.

There is still some hope that with the return of more normal rainfall and vegetation to the prairies and plains of the west the curlew will stage a partial come back. We can all aid by helping a maximum number survive these bad years.

FORDHAM 14; TAR HEELS 0

POLO GROUNDS, New York—(AP)—A pair of quick first-quarter touchdowns, featured by the terrific running of Jim Blumenstock, enabled Fordham to beat a hard-fighting North Carolina eleven, 14 to 0, before a crowd of 16,000 Saturday.

Hope often buds when it is cloudy, but it blooms only in sunshine.

Cornhuskers Win Over Oklahoma's Sooners 13 To 0

Power Drives Tell Whole Story

By AUSTN BEALMEAR

NORMAN, Okla.—(AP)—Nebraska's mighty Cornhuskers powered their way to a 13 to 0 victory over the Sooners of Oklahoma here Saturday to take over first place in the Big Six Conference gridiron race and move within striking distance of their first title since 1937.

As a record-breaking crowd of more than 33,000 looked on, the Huskers drove 80 yards to one touchdown in the second quarter, 40 yards to another in the final period, tied the Sooner ground attack in knots, and blasted the home club's overhead game clear out of the air.

After being thrown back twice in the first quarter with the goal line only five yards away, the Nebraskans finally went to work in earnest with halfback Harry Hopp in the driver's seat.

Hopp started the 80-yard march by slashing off tackle for 15 and alternated with Wayne Blue in stabbing through for short gains as the Nebraska forwards split open the Oklahoma line.

Only 20 seconds of the first half remained when the visitors reached Oklahoma's 30-yard line and Hopp fliped a long pass which Jack Jacobs, the Sooner tailback, stood ready to intercept on the five.

But Jacobs, who was blanketed every time he turned around all afternoon, let the ball slip through his fingers and it dropped into the waiting hands of Allen Zikmund, who merely stepped across the goal line. Hopp missed the kick for extra point.

Dallas Has Good Signal Callers

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

DALLAS—(AP)—Dawn isn't full grown when they come bubbling into the downtown Y. M. C. A. building every Saturday morning.

Noted business leaders, stenographers, messenger boys, college students, city officials jam the banquet hall at daybreak to get fall Saturdays off in the proper direction.

This cross-section comes to talk football.

The Saturday Morning Quarterbacks Association comes to order.

Under the flare of 150 pairs of eyes sits the "condemned man." He eats heartily for 15 minutes, then rises to face this strange "firing squad" which can outdo Baby Snooks as an interrogator.

The speaker might be Matty Bell of Southern Methodist; Homer Norton of Texas A. and M.; Jack Meagher of Auburn; D. X. Bible of Texas; Bill Cunningham, Dallas-bred sports editor of the Boston Post; Dutch Meyer of T. C. U.; Fred Thompsen of Arkansas; Dan D. Rogers, the father of the Cotton Bowl, and T. C. U. athletes, or well known sports writers.

Four years this strange scene has been enacted while most sane persons are at home sleeping, waiting for dawn.

The speaker goes to work. Coaches try to explain why so-and-so didn't punt on third down last week; always stop and park for several minutes on what a fine defense the other team possessed.

Sports writers lamely explain last week's upsets that made them look like waterboys instead of forecasters. The questions start coming. The speakers start going.

Finally, every person in the hall—including the speaker—must list on a card his selections for the day, including the score. At next week's meeting the winners are announced.

Usually the "expert" who so laboriously explained the intricacies of the game to the amateurs the week before winds up near the bottom with his selections. Promptly, the association collects a fund; sends him a cactus plant.

Or, if the selections are extra sour, he gets a bouquet of green persimmons.

For particularly doleful speeches, cluttered with alibis, the guest of honor usually receives a scroll. It reads:

"Second Guessers' Association of North America. Presented in grateful appreciation to the president of the Second Guessers' Association of North America and the executive secretary of the Monday Alibi Club."

At the end of the season, this little body gathers for its piece de resistance — the annual sports achievement dinner presented jointly with the Dallas Y. M. C. A. Last season 900 packed the gymnasium to hear Coach Homer Norton of the Aggies. Before that, similar crowds heard D. X. Bible, Bill Cunningham.

The Saturday morning Quarterback Association of Dallas is an institution.

Tell a boy that he is no good and you will help him to become so.

Claud Liston To Manage Brownsville Golf Course

BROWNSVILLE—Claud Liston, manager of the Harlingen municipal golf course for the past seven years, will take over duties as manager of the Brownsville Country club within the next few days, according to T. H. Sweeney, owner.

Mr. Liston, who has lived in Harlingen for the past 28 years, came here during the past week to inspect the local golf course.

"Brownsville has one of the best layouts of any Valley golf course," Mr. Liston said. "I expect to arrange for golf tournaments and special matches here and am going to give people a golf course that is kept right with courteous service and reasonable prices.

"I am happy to be connected with the club and appreciate the spirit with which Brownsville residents have accepted me," he stated.

Mr. Liston, his wife and nine-year-old daughter will take up residence in Brownsville soon.

Minnesota Gophers Trim Northwestern's Wildcats

EVANSTON, Ill.—(AP)—Still undefeated and untied, Minnesota's Gophers roared along in football's empire Saturday in quest of the Western Conference championship and national honors.

By the margin of a single point after touchdown, Minnesota, unable to beat Northwestern on its home field since 1929, finally triumphed 13 to 12 over the hitherto undefeated Wildcats before a nerve-wracked crowd of 48,000 spectators. It was Minnesota's fifth straight win of the season.

Minnesota's victory, which left the Gophers and Michigan the only undefeated and untied elevens in the conference, was achieved by a powerful rushing game, one timely pass and the place-kicking accuracy of Joe Mernik, whose successful try for point after the first Gopher touchdown ultimately meant victory as the Wildcats missed on two after touchdown attempts.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

More Deer and Turkey

AUSTIN—Not only will hunters have more deer and turkey to hunt in the sections which have been popular for years, but should the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission continue to get as good results the next few years as have been attained this season on eleven deer and turkey areas set up as Pittman-Robertson game restoration projects, Lone Star State nimrods will have many more sections in which to shoot gobblers and bucks.

Reports reaching the executive secretary of the Game Department indicate a larger crop of deer and turkey throughout all the ranges in the state. Ideal weather during the spring and early summer months made possible the survival of more young turkeys and deer. Nesting in South Texas was more than a month late due to the continued drouth through the early months of 1940, but that section will also have a large crop of young deer and turkey.

The Game Department has obtained under lease or co-operative agreement eleven large areas of land totaling more than 150,000 acres. These are scattered throughout the state. Deer and turkey or turkey or deer, in some instances, were planted and have thrived. Game managers report large increases in game on practically all of the areas and an increase on each of them.

Th areas include sections planted with grains and other plants upon which deer and turkey thrive. Area keepers hold the predators at a low level.

From these areas game is expected to spread and it is considered likely that mire than 500,000 acres of Texas land will be restocked as a result of deer and turkey moving in. Turkeys have been found as far as eight miles away from the point where they were released.

Nurses Wild, Tame Fawns

A doe on the H. J. Bussa Ranch in Bandera county has defied civilization in order to continue nursing one of the two fawns born to her this year and yet also nurses the wild one, a member of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster reports.

One of the doe's fawns was picked up in the woods by a ranch hand several month ago and taken to the ranch house. It was not long before the mother appeared, jumped the fence of the enclosure where her baby had been placed, and nursed it. She has continued to do so daily every day since. She returns to the woods immediately after nursing the fawn held in captivity and nurses her other offspring, which is extremely wild. The captured fawn is very tame.

Not only does the mother deer continue to defy civilization in feeding her tame fawn, but any time a dog gets anywhere near the wild fawn she gives battle.

Defends Mourning Doves

Mourning doves have been accused of pulling young corn, especially after it has just shot up out of the ground. However, investigations by Kame Department biologists have shown that the mourning doves do very little, if any harm to young corn. Not a grain of corn was found in any of the crops of fourteen mourning doves taken in and around the corn fields in Robertson county in April and May. Croton, Johnson grass and a variety of other seeds were found. Farmers had claimed depredation.

Tulsa U. Beats Detroit 7 To 0

DETROIT—(AP)—Tulsa University's football behemoths snuffed out Detroit's hopes for a defeatless season Saturday with a convincing 7 to 0 victory before a crowd of 19,861 fans sitting in the warm November sunshine.

The victory, first for Tulsa in five games with Detroit, was accomplished on a 31-yard touchdown pass from N. A. Keithley to Glenn Dobbs midway of the fourth period. Dobbs took the toss on Detroit's 14-yard line and outlegged two pursuing Titans in a race to the goal line. Roy Buffalo came in the game and booted the extra point from placement.

Cornell Swamps Columbia 27-0

ITHACA, N. Y.—(AP)—For a football machine which was accused of traveling on one cylinder, Cornell did pretty well Saturday. It ran over, under and around the Lions of Columbia to a 27 to 0 victory, its 13th in a row and the 17th straight in which it has escaped defeat.

With the grey-clad Carl Gray Snavely bravely defying comment and sitting grimly with the roll of paper which caused the bench coaching charge after the Ohio State game clutched in his hand, the Big Red rolled up and down the field with a snap-snap precision which left the Lions thwarted and bewildered.

Once in the first period, again in the second and twice in the third did a red shirted Cornellian scamper over the goal with the ball clutched tightly and every touchdown came on a pass.

HARVARD 0; PRINCETON 0

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(AP)—A Harvard battered down most of sharpshooter Dave Allerdice's passes on a muddy gridiron and held Princeton's favored Tigers to a scoreless tie Saturday before a rain-drenched crowd of 15,000.

COLGATE 6; HOLY CROSS 0

WORCHESTER, Mass.—(AP)—Joe Hoague, of Colgate, led the Red Raiders to a 6 to 0 victory over outclassed Holy Cross before 4,000 spectators in a driving rain here Saturday.

DARTMOUTH 26; SEWANEE 0

HANOVER, N. H.—(AP)—Ray Wolfe ran his way to three touchdowns for the Big Green as Dartmouth outclassed Sewanee here Saturday afternoon 26-0 before a house party crowd of 3,000 rain-soaked spectators.

DUKE 41; GEORGIA TECH 7

DURHAM, N. C.—(AP)—Duke's Blue Devils celebrated Homecoming Day by walloping the Georgia Tech Engineers, 41 to 7, Saturday, the worst defeat the Rambling Wreck has suffered in recent years, before a crowd of 34,000.

Better Hunting Seems Assured All Over Texas

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)—Bigger and better hunting is ahead of Texas nimrods this year.

If they get a good weather break—it will be the first since 1937—at the opening of the deer and turkey season Nov. 16, all they'll need is a steady trigger finger to bring home the venison and bird.

That's on the word of the game department which avers all the other signs point to full game bags.

The hill country and South and Southwest Texas offer a big supply of game. What is needed to start it on the move is a biting norther. Incidentally, a chilly spell is calculated to expedite the Southward trek of ducks and geese. The federal government estimates there are 20 to 30 per cent more duck on the wing this year.

The migratory waterfowl season, opened Saturday. Deer, turkey, and javelina seasons close Dec. 31. The quail season opens Dec. 1 and extends through Jan. 16 and the supply is reported on the increase.

Here is how regional game managers report conditions and prospects:

Deep East Texas—

Deer: On the increase but not numerous enough to attract outside hunters.

Turkey: Most counties closed to hunting.

Waterfowl: Abundant food and inland water supplies replenished by good rains.

Squirrels: Stocks vary with localities but supply generally is as good or larger than last year.

Central, North Central and North Texas—

Quail: Pentiful.

Squirrels: Good supply. Winter season opened Oct. 1.

Deer: Crop up to par where deer normally found, including Blanco, Comal and other hilly counties.

Turkey: Crop plentiful where ranges suitable.

Southeast, South Texas and Maverick and Zavalla counties region—

Bobwhite quail: Increased stocks in South Texas. Outlook only fairly good from Brazos to Nueces river along the Gulf Coast. Good hunting on Eastern coastal prairies in favorable areas.

Blue quail: Excellent shooting, especially in La Salle, Maverick, McMullen, Starr and Hidalgo counties.

Turkey: Good population.

Javelina: Better than in the last five years.

Deer: Excellent range conditions have increased crop.

Hill country, all the way west to El Paso county—

Whitetail deer: Come and get 'em, and pray for cold weather.

Mule deer: Noticeable increase in population, especially West of the Pecos.

Turkey: Old residents swear supply is the best in from five to 15 years.

Quail: Bobwhite and blues plentiful.

Javelinas: Holding their own and hunters should find plenty of sport.

Northeast Texas, South Plains and Panhandle—

Bobwhite quail: Increased only in areas with suitable habitats. In general quail range better than last year.

Blue quail: Inhabitants say prospects best in seven years.

Turkeys: Gobblers not so plentiful but improved from last year.

Deer: Concentrated along the Canadian river where there is sufficient food and cover.

TEMPLE 10; BUCKNELL 7

LEWISBURG, Pa.—(AP)—Sid Beshunsky's field goal from the 25-yard line in the closing minutes of play gave Temple an uphill 10 to 7 victory over Bucknell Saturday, before 10,000.

Bucknell scored in the second period on a 12-yard aerial, Walt Wenrick to Ed Glass. Temple tied it in the third quarter on Andy Tomasic's 14-yard end run.

Missouri Tigers Wallop Violets In Easy Fashion

Christman's Passes Hit Marks

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

COLUMBIA, Mo.—(AP)—Paul Christian stayed in the game only 23 minutes, but his unerring passes paved the way for three touchdowns in a Missouri Tiger drive which routed New York University, 33 to 0, in an intersectional game Saturday.

It was the same Christman whose passes led to the defeat of the Violets last year.

The Tigers, winners of nine straight games on their home field, counted in every period. But no touchdown was as spectacular as that Christman manufactured with Charles Beattie's aid in the first. Following a Violet punt Don (Bull) Reece played the pigskin on the 34 with a 4-yard plunge. On the next play Christman faded back and dropped the ball into Beattie's arms on the New York U. 34 with Joe Frank of the New Yorkers only a step away. The two clattered down the East side lines with the Missourian always inches in front and even one of the 19,000 sun-warmed spectators on their feet.

Christman, handicapped much of the season by a lack of adequate receivers, was the first down the field to congratulate the sophomore halfback, starting his first game.

A 20-yard gain on a flip by Christman to Jack Lister opened the doors for the first marker and in the third period he spanked a two yard effort to Capt. Jack Crockerr for the fourth tally.

With Christman resting, Harry Ice took over the attack for the Tigers and once broke away for 36 yards on his favorite sweep around right end. Four other times he seemed headed for substantial gains only to slip and fall to the turf.

Stanford Trims Uclans 20 To 14

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Stanford's troupe of gridiron magicians played its 1940 engagement in Memorial Coliseum Saturday and brought down the house—and the Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles—with just enough trickery and power to walk off with a cleancut conference victory after the Uclans had threatened in the last period.

Registering their sixth consecutive triumph to remain the only major team unbeaten and untied in the Far West, the sleight of hand lads from Palo Alto bowed off the field as dusk closed in with the scoreboard reading:

Number Of Draftees To Be Called In Cameron Set

FIRST CALLS WILL DRAFT 164 SOLDIERS

Initial Call Slated In November

BROWNSVILLE—Harlingen and Brownsville draft boards will each deliver 59 men and San Benito 46 men to the army in the first six selective service calls, it was estimated here Saturday when the local board was informed of quotas set by the state selective service headquarters in Austin.

Few In November

The first call will come late in November when Harlingen and Brownsville will deliver three men each and San Benito 2. One call in December will require only one man from each board area. Three calls have been announced for January in which Harlingen and Brownsville must supply 38 men each and San Benito 30. One call in February will require 17 men from Harlingen and Brownsville and 15 from San Benito.

Paul G. Greenwood, chairman of the Harlingen board, and Harbert Davenport of the Brownsville board, both estimated their areas probably would supply all of these calls from registered volunteers who ask to be placed at the top of the order of call list.

Men To Report

Four of the 50 who asked to be inducted in Brownsville signed formal requests for classification with the local board Saturday. According to Mr. Davenport these requests will be acted upon soon and the men ordered to report for physical examination. Medical examiners for Brownsville are Drs. R. F. Breeden and T. P. Andrews.

Quotas and time of call have been determined to conform with the War Department program for completion of housing facilities, hospitalization and supplies to provide for the increase at the various camps.

VERDICT MADE IN POISONING

2 Die Oct. 25 After Mixing Toddies

MARSHALL, Tex. —(AP)— Peace Justice H. L. Callaway Saturday returned an inquest verdict that Miss Nora Perkins, 38, storekeeper, met her death "by taking poison unknowingly which had been given to her by John Newman," and that Newman's death was self inflicted.

The two died October 25 after drinking a small quantity of liquor containing poison at the woman's store. Newman, the justice of the peace said, went to the store and asked Miss Perkins to make him a toddy. She mixed one for herself, also, from liquor he brought with him. Both died later after becoming ill.

MEXICO CALLS CASE WITNESS

President's Slaying May Be Re-Opened

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—The recall to Mexico of Colonel Luis Alamillo as military attache of the Mexican legation in France stimulated reports Saturday the famous "Huitzilac Massacre" case might be reopened.

He was one of the main witnesses in the original investigation of the slaughter of a presidential candidate and a party of 13 friends and relatives 12 years ago.

During the heated presidential campaign of 1928, General Francisco Serrano, who opposed General Alvaro Obregon for the presidency, was assassinated with his party in the village of Huitzilac, near Cuernavaca.

La Presna said Alamillo failed to appear befort the tribunal inquiring into the case as he had already sailed on a diplomatic mission to Europe.

The investigation was adjourned indefinitely, but not closed.

AAA Office Open

Highway Information Is Available Now

AID OFFERED TO DRAFTEES

Have Five Days To Fill Blanks

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A veritable army of judges and lawyers was ready Saturday to help speed the answering of draft questionnaires preparatory to the actual selection of men for a year's compulsory military training.

Clarence A. Dykstra, selective service director, reminding registrants who receive questionnaires from their local boards that they are required to answer and return them in five days, urged them to make use of advisory boards set up for the purpose if the questions are not clear.

The boards usually are composed of three lawyers, including judges of county and city courts, Dykstra said, and have been afforded every facility to assist the registrants. Officials said the number of advisory boards, which are appointed by state governors, was not immediately available.

Issuance of the eight-page questionnaires, containing about 50 main questions, got underway in many localities Saturday, Dykstra said They will be sent first to the men whose serial numbers are drawn earliest in the conscription lottery here Tuesday.

Service Is Set For Pioneer At Matador

MATADOR —(AP —Funeral services were held Saturday for Charles D. Wayburn, 73, Motley county pioneer, who died at his home Friday night.

Surviving are two sons, Gerald Wayburn of Matador and Gilbert Wayburn of Houston and a foster son, Wilson Gunn of Sherman.

One version of the origin of the name "Staked Plains" is that the advance guard of Coronado's force found that the grass in the Panhandle-Plains area, which it crossed 350 years ago, became erect so quickly after trampling it was necessary to build mounds of buffalo bones to blaze a trail for the main body following.

TEXAS APPEAL BOARDS NAMED

5-Man Units Study Draft Questons

AUSTIN—(AP)—Twelve district appeal boards of five members each were named Friday by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to further perfect selective service in Texas.

The boards, whose membership is subject to presidential approval, will review decisions on classification of registrants by local draft boards. Their decisions are final, unless modified or reversed by the president.

Members for each board were drawn from labor, industry, medicine, law and agriculture.

The governor also nominated more members to local draft boards to fill vacancies as follows: George C. Johnson of Muleshoe to Bailey county board 1; A. H. Jackson of Gail to Borden county board 1; W. C. Stewart of Angleton to Brazoria county board 1; J. M. Francis of New Braunfels to Comal county board 1; Caleb R. Simmons of Sweetwater to Nolan county board 1; P. K. Birdwell of Tyler to Smith county board 2, and W. E Caldwell of Sonora to Sutton county board 1.

Radio Speech On US Draft Set Tuesday

Postal Receipts Gain At McAllen

McALLEN—Postal receipts in McAllen for October increased more than $500 over the same month last year, Postmaster Harry Merts reported Saturday.

Gross receipts for the past month totaled $5,492.72, representing an increase of $567 over the same month last year, when receipts were $4,925.72.

To the Voters of Willacy County

It has recently come to my attention that certain friends of W. H. (Bill) Phillips, whom I defeated in the Willacy county Democratic primary for county treasurer, are to conduct a "write in" campaign designed to defeat me Tuesday, November 5, in the general election.

I found this out accidentally, since the campaign has been conducted secretly, first information coming to me in the letter which friends of my defeated opponent sent to Nathan Hedges at Ewing, Illinois, seeking his support. Mr. Hedges sent the letter to me and it is here reproduced:

"Mr. Nathan Hedges,
Ewing, Illinois.
Dear Mr. Hedges:

"Over seven hundred (700) friends of W. H. (Bill) Phillips have decided that they are going to conduct a "write-in" campaign and write his name in for re-election as County Treasurer of Willacy County.

"As I know that you are a good friend of Bill's I am asking for your co-operation and also that you please say nothing of it except to those who you know are good friends of his and will be glad to assist him.

"To do this, mark out the name of C. G. (Gus) Nyquist under FOR COUNTY TREASURER in the Democratic Party Column, the first column on the ballot, and write in the space below Nyquist's name W. H. (Bill), Phillips.

"As an absentee voter we urge that you request your absentee ballot from the County Clerk at once, if you have not already done so, and mark your ballot as requested and see that it gets back in time to be counted.

"This action on your part will be greatly appreciated not only by Mr. Phillips but by his hundreds of friends who have come to him with this suggestion.

Respectfully yours,
R. K. FINLAY, JR."

Do Mr. Phillips' friends intend for him not to observe his campaign pledge to seek the office of Willacy County Treasurer "Subject to the action of the Democratic Primary"? Why was this "write-in" campaign conducted secretly? I entered the campaign in the July primary openly and honestly. Do pledges mean nothing? Can't men seek office openly, honestly, and in good faith, without having to be on the alert for this sort of thing?

Since discovering this undercover attempt to defeat me, I have heard rumors that many who supported me in the primary are now ready to aid this "write-in" campaign. I have run down these rumors and find them untrue. I ask the Voters of Willacy County to investigate these rumors themselves and find out as I have that they are UNTRUE.

But above all, I ask all of you to vote Tuesday, for your individual vote in the national election is important in this period of national crisis. Vote as you please, but please vote.

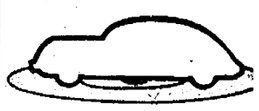

Respectfully,
C. G. (Gus) NYQUIST.
Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer of Willacy County.

Younger Set Entertained

DONNA — Featuring the ancient holy day of Hallowe'en Mrs. A. H. Kammer entertained forty boys and girls Wednesday evening from six until nine in honor of her daughter, Gloria. The yard and entire house were decorated in Halloween colors, the lights all dimmed by jack o'lanterns, streamers of orange and black and burning orange candles everywhere.

A huge lighted pumpkin guarded the front porch, while in the dining room the lace cloth was laid over orange and the tall yellow tapers stood in Hallowe'en holders.

There individual pumpkin pies and punch were served at an early hour and favors of balloons and yellow cat faces distributed.

A fish pond, tubs for apple bobbing and candy swinging on long threads highlighted the evening of merriment.

The Winsome Class of the Baptist Sunday School held its Hallowe'en party on Wednesday night at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Gerry on North eighth street.

The rooms were decorated in orange and black crepe paper, and jack o'lanterns. After many interesting and riotious games were played, refreshments of candy, popcorn, cookies and punch were served.

Guests were Misses Marion Somers, Jane Weaver, Mary Louise Magee, Helen Wyatt, Anie Laura Leadbetter, Melvena Waldrep, Ruth Farris, Jane Frase, Kathryn Range, and Patricia Hammons.

Red Cross Sewing Progressing Nicely In San Benito Area

SAN BENITO — Five skirts in girl size were returned, complete and ready for packing to Red Cross headquarters, by Mrs. H. C. Aldridge, according to Mrs. Flint Harris, local chairman of the sewing group for the Red Cross. Practically all materials received so far have been distributed to volunteer workers for sewing, Mrs. Harris said.

She has on hand material for little boys' shirts which interested women may help in sewing.

Fine Arts Night To Precede Opening

HARLINGEN—Formal opening of the convention of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, will take place with a meeting of the executive board at 6:30 p.m. Thursday evening at the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel. The meeting will precede a dinner given by the executive board to honor state officers and other distinguished visitors.

Reservations for the board dinner should be sent to Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, Harlingen, not later than Wednesday.

Members of the board include Mrs. H. E. Hager, Mercedes, president; Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, Harlingen, vice president; Mrs. Wemple Sanders, La Feria, recording secretary; Mrs. Aubrey Thomas, McAllen, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Losh, McAllen, auditor; Mrs. A. E. Other guests were Mrs. H. E. Gilbert, Mrs. N. McCloughlin, Mrs. W. W. Utzman, Bobby and Billy Utzman and O. E. Avery.

Linen, Lace Club Has Seasonal Party

HARLINGEN—Mrs. Bert Hack entertained members of the Linen and Lace Club with a Hallowe'en party Thursday afternoon. The living room was attractively decorated in Hallowe'en colors.

Throughout the evening a series of games and contests were enjoyed with prizes going to Mesdames Cowart, Graham, and Bennie Hack. Mrs. Bennie Hack also won the door prize.

A refreshment plate carrying out the Hallowe'en motif was served to Mesdames Elmo Newberry, T. J. Graham, O. C. Cowart, Bennie Hack, Terry Nesmith, Larry Foster, Jean Hack, and W. H. Vanderford.

Next meeting will be November 14 at the home of Mrs. Nesmith.

Mrs. J. W. Culmer

Mrs. J. W. Culmer of San Antonio was before her marriage Saturday in the Alamo City, Miss Marjorie Huffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Huffman of Brownsville. Dr. and Mrs. Culmer are on a brief honeymoon trip to Monterrey. (Staff Photo.)

Beautification Campaign Making Rapid Progress; Banquet Set This Week

HARLINGEN — With the canvass of Harlingen residents regarding care of vacant lots nearly completed, committee members in charge of the city-wide beautification drive announced the coming week would be probably the most important of the campaign. Mrs. Joe L. Junkin, beautification chairman for the Harlingen Garden Club which is conducting the beautification campaign with the co-operation of the city, is general chairman. Highlight of the week will be the beautification dinner at the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel with Mrs. Ralph Conselyea, Houston, as guest speaker.

Mrs. Junkin announced 99 per cent co-operation on one street on which all residents except one signed cards agreeing to water and care for plantings on nearby vacant lots. Full reports of street chairmen had not been compiled at the end of the week but virtually all chairmen reported residents not only willing to care for plantings that might be made on vacant property in their neighborhood but anxious for the opportunity to improve the general appearance of their home surroundings.

With the assurance that plantings would receive adequate care, represented by signatures of residents received during the past week's campaign; committee workers plan next to contact owners of vacant property to ask them to agree to plant whatever is designated by the Harlingen Garden club from the property line to the building line front.

An important link in the city-wide beautification drive is the series of benefits, featuring a bridge tournament and bingo, planned to help obtain funds for extensive plantings being made by the Garden club. Thursday 160 bougainvillea were set out. Hundreds of others as well as other shrubs have been planted. Water and care is furnished by the city.

First of the bridge tournaments will be held Monday at 2:30 p.m. upstairs at Junkin's Furniture store. Other meeting places will be announced in the Monday paper. Admission of 25 cents each day will be asked and at the close of the series of 10 afternoons, a grand prize will be awarded. High score prizes will be presented every day.

Detailed plans for the bingo event will be announced later and everyone interested is invited to donate "white elephants" to be used as prizes. Anything from a cow to a vase is acceptable, Mrs. Junkin Stated. A prize will be given to the person presenting the largest collection of articles for bingo.

The banquet Friday night is planned as a Valley-wide event, she announced further. Chamber of commerce officials, Mayor Hugh Ramsey, and others will assist at the meeting. Mrs. Conselyea, noted for leadership in beautification and gardening activity, will give the principal talk. Mrs. Henry Carisle, secretary of the Harlingen Garden Club, will give a report on the progress of the beautification campaign.

GUEST OF SISTER

COMBES—Mrs. G. M. Hutsell of Kingsville spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. Q. Adams, and Mr. Adams.

Miss Huffman Bride Of Dr. Culmer

BROWNSVILLE — Simple marriage rites were celebrated Saturday at the Travis Park Methodist church in San Antonio when Miss Marjorie Huffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Huffman, became the bride of Dr. J. W. Culmer of San Antonio.

The rites were said at 11 o'clock in the morning by the pastor.

The bride chose for her wedding a becoming costume suit of lightweight wool, in a soft green, worn with brown and gold accessories. Her flowers were bronze chrysanthemums worn in corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Culmer departed for Monterrey by car where they will spend a week, making their home in San Antonio, upon their return.

Mrs. Culmer left here Thursday evening for San Antonio. She attended Brownsville schools, and has been making her home in San Antonio since the completion of her nurse's training. The wedding claims much interest here when she has a host of friends.

Kiddy Show Set Friday

BROWNSVILLE — Models for the kiddie fashion show to be sponsored Friday evening in the high school auditorium by Los Ebanos Parent-Teacher association have been chosen by popular vote by the students in the school.

The following models will display clothes from Bollack's store, and the J. C. Penney company store at 8 o'clock: Richard Graham, Jean Cote, Annette Longnecker, Mary Bell, Margaret Rose Pitt, Hector Garcia, Bobby Duffey, Nancy Fish, Betty Jean Manske, Ester Garcia, Patricia Ann Lynch, George Toland, Ross Henderson, Ellen Lee Fullen, Jane Maxwell, Larry Lynch, Anna May Kinder, Mary Rathjeu and Peggy Jean Lynch.

Admission for adults is twenty-five cents, and for children ten cents. Proceeds will go to the P.-T. A. unit.

Several entertainment numbers will be furnished by pupils from the Frances Leighton Dashiell studio.

Younger Set Guests For Outdoor Event

PHARR—Maxine McLendon was hostess for a delightful Hallowe'en picnic supper and scavenger hunt, Thursday evening, with her mother, Mrs. Dan McLendon, as assistant hostess for the gala affair.

A picnic supper was served around the barbecue pit on the lawn of the McLendon home. Leland McCullough, Gene Darby, Donald Smith and Bobby Sorensen were prize winners in the scavenger hunt. Later guests gathered around the huge bonfire and were served iced drinks. They were Jeanne and Doris Brittain, Jane McCullough, Mary John Cowers, Patricia Devine, Barbara Ann Bailey, Caroline Andrews, Donald Smith, Leland McCullough, Gene Darby, Jr., and Bobby Sorensen.

Lowrie-Roden Rites Formally Announced

HARLINGEN — Announcements have been received here reading: Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Madison Roden announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Frences, to Mr. Carroll Jefferson Lowrie, on Sunday, the thirteenth of October, Corpus Christi, Texas.

The couple is at home at 3021 Minton Street, Corpus Christi.

TO CALIFORNIA

EDCOUCH — Cecil Ray Rinehart left the past week for California where he went to take his niece, Marjorie Bradley, to join her mother, Mrs. Iva Nelson. Marjorie has spent the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rinehart.

President Of Hostess Club

Mrs. Scott Dougherty heads the McAllen Music Club which will be hostess Friday to the meeting here of the eighth district of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs. The convention will be held at the First Methodist Church with a luncheon and tea slated for the Casa de Palmas Hotel.

Banquet Notable Event For Sorority Pledges

BROWNSVILLE—Outstanding for the sentiment and beautiful simplicity was the banquet held at Landrum's Wednesday evening by the Alpha Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

The banquet was a combined initiation ceremony for the four new pledges Misses Elizabeth Canalez, Jane Richardson, Mozelle Pruden, and Mrs. Carl Ellington; and the Ritual of Jewels Ceremony for Miss Laverne Sullivan.

The affair was formal and the Ritual of Jewels Ceremony was conducted by candle light. On the mantle piece was a large replica of the Beta Sigma Phi emblem on which a reflection from the candles played. The centerpiece was of yellow tailsman roses which is the sorority flower in a large black bowl. This carried out the sorority colors of gold and black.

A patriotic theme was noted in the place cards which had a miniature silk American flag attached to them. The place cards were very clever in that a description of the person was in rhyme and each girl found the card which described herself.

The president, Mrs. Tom Barber, Jr., welcomed the pledges and Miss Elizabeth Canalez responded to the welcome.

Mrs. Harvey Nuckols was mistress of ceremonies and announced the program which was also of a patriotic nature. Miss Inez Brulay gave an interesting discussion of the American Red Cross and the work being done by this organization. Mrs. John Dutro talked on the American flag and ended her talk with the alligence to the flag.

The program ended by the group singing of God Bless America.

Daughter Is Honored By Pharr Luncheon

PHARR—Mrs. R. E. Slocum entertained with a small informal luncheon Friday, honoring her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Lindsey of Houston who has been a guest in the home of her parents for the past three weeks.

A variety of autumn flowers were used to center the luncheon table and decorate the living and dining rooms. Guests were Mrs. Donald VanDresser of Corpus Christi and Mrs. Tom Hartley, the honoree, Mrs. Wallace Lindsey and her parents.

Many Attend Alamo Meet

ALAMO—The Federation of Community Church Women met at Alamo Thursday for a covered dish dinner and program.

An attendance of 70 members was present from the three churches of Rio Hondo, San Juan and Alamo. "Prayer" was the subject of the devotionals, led by Mrs. W. D. Whalen, and followed by a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by Mrs. J. S. Roe.

The speaker of the afternoon was Rev. Stewart of Pharr, whose subject was "Community Service." The next meeting will be at San Juan on the last Thursday in May, 1941.

Bridge Events Are Enjoyed During Week

WESLACO—Mrs. R. C. Waters was hostess Thursday afternoon at her home entertaining with a lovely dessert bridge. Gorgeous sprays of white asters were beautifully arranged in white pottery containers, and Mrs. R. A. Rowland was winner of score at the close of games.

Enjoying the delightful autumn party were Mesdames Rowland, Charles Sherrill, Willoughby Gundry, W. H. Baxter, Jr., Gordon Keihley, J. A. Knapp, C. Davenport, J. A. Medley, Alex Gerry, Raymond Mills, C. L. Skaggs and C. H. Schwedes.

Mrs. Frank Koester entertained the Dos Mesas club at her home Thursday. Fall flowers were attractively placed throughout the living rooms.

Mrs. Clyde Young was winner of score and the hostess served pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and coffee to her guests.

Mrs. Clifford Scott entertained with an evening of bridge Thursday. Colorful roses decorated the living room.

Mrs. O. R. Scott was winner of score.

Delicious pie and coffee was served to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pepper, Mr. and Mrs. C. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. David, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Scott and Mr. Scott.

Student Poll Gives Victory To Roosevelt

A. & I. Campus Holds Election

By CARL CHILTON Jr.

KINGSVILLE — Franklin D. Roosevelt will win the 1940 presidential election by a very large majority if a poll taken on the campus of Texas A. and I. is a fair index. The final results showed that Roosevelt got 74.9 percent of the votes cast, while Wendell L. Willkie received 25.1 percent. The students who are eligible to vote in the national election voted as follows: 75.5 percent for Roosevelt and 24.5 percent for Willkie. The pupils not eligible to vote in the national election voted 68.9 percent for Roosevelt and 31.1 percent for Willkie. Of those who voted for Roosevelt, 92.3 percent were Republicans, while the remainder claimed no party affiliation. 35 percent of the Willkie voters were Republicans, 48.8 percent were Democrats, and 16.2 percent claimed no party affiliation. Of those who voted for Roosevelt, 13.3 percent were against a third term.

There were 501 votes cast, which represents slightly less than half of the student body. The voters ranged in age from 16 years to 62 years.

A. and I. is reputed to be the first college to conduct a campus wide poll of the presidential election, and this contest roused considerable interest both on and off the campus. The ballot included the voters age, classification in school, political party, opinion of a third term and why, and preference as to Roosevelt or Willkie.

The student activity at A. and I. in which Rio Grande Valley students are most prominent is probably journalism, where Valley pupils play a very important part in the work of the South Texan, campus newspaper, and El Rancho, college annual. Five Valley students are now engaged in work on El Rancho. They are Dora Hager of Mercedes, associate editor; Richard Rowe of McAllen, business manager; Bill Holmes of McAllen, sports editor; Rosemary Smith of McAllen, class section worker and Betsy Lee Kidder of Mercedes, general assistant.

Valley pupils also play a prominent part in the work on the South Texan. Those working on this publication are Myrtle Wolfshohl of McAllen, editorial writer; Bill Holmes of McAllen, sports editor; Richard Rowe of McAllen, columnist; and George Jean of Donna, business manager.

The oficers of the A. and I. Press Club are from the Valley. These are Richard Rowe, McAllen, president; and Myrtle Wolfshohl, also of McAllen, secretary-treasurer. At the beginning of school a contest was conducted by the South Texan in order to find a suitable name for the sports column which appears weekly in the paper. After all names were in, the winner was found to be Mary Ellen Osborne of Harlingen, who submitted the name, "Javelina Round-Up." This column is written by Bill Holmes of McAllen.

Judy Wahler, senior student from Raymondville, has been elected president of the Cousins Hall House Council. Miss Wahler is also vice president of the Beta Gamma sorority.

Kathryn Jean of Donna, Betty Platt of San Juan, and Ella Beth Melton of Pharr have been elected as members of a group to represent Cousins Hall in the Freshman Girls Council.. Dolores Stephens of Raymondville is representing the Goode House. This council is an important cog in the freshman class organization, as it helps plan parties and otherwise helps with the business of the class.

For Jolly Courtesy

MISSION — Fortunes were told and other Hallowe'en games were played to provide traditional celebration of the season Thursday night when Billy Mack Summers was host for a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. Summers. Colorful costumes worn by the guests gave the keynote to the party hour fun.

Refreshments were served after the games to Mary Catherine Owens, Shirley Smith, Barbara Boyle, Joy Triplett, Wanda Rohr, Mae Daniel, Jo Nell Bryant, Alma Lee Bryant, Billy Gibbs, Tommy West, Louis Gene Marcell, Fannie Bell Toney, Leona Effington, James Garrett, Dan Martin, Richard Sharp, Logan Garrett, Vernon Hill, Robert Rome, June Galloway, Bobby Conine, Margaret Jane Buckley and the host.

Unusual Musical Features Are Included In Program For Fine Arts Concert

Famous Window Is Represented In Music

HARLINGEN — Gifted Valley artists will contribute toward a program of extraordinary interest Thursday evening when a fine arts concert will be presented in the First Baptist Church to open the annual convention of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs. Mrs. Charles Huntley, Harlingen, is in charge of arrangements.

Two unique features of exceptional interest will be the first presentation of "Our Lady of the Beautiful Window," a poem written by E. Eugenia Shepperd of Donna with a musical setting by M. Flora Todd of Harlingen, and harp melodies played by Helen Sheldon of Mission.

Window Inspiration

Inspiration for Miss Shepperd's poem was the best loved of all the windows of the Chartres Cathedral, which made a lasting impression on Miss Shepperd when she was abroad. For 750 years "Our Lady of the Beautiful Window" looked down in the greatest treasure house of stained glass from the Middle Ages. Now the priceless window lies buried deep in the earth to assure safety from bombs of war but when peace comes again it will again give inspiration to thousands.

Miss Shepperd's poem is as follows:

Our Lady of the Beautiful Window

"Lady of Light, most gracious and serene,
With all the world's deep sorrow in your eyes,
With mother-sweetness, pitying and wise,
All joy, all suffering, O Mighty Queen,
The majesty of Heaven is in your mien,
As quietly you watch without surprise,
Each dawn that glows, each day that flames and dies,
Until a thousand passioned years lie clean.

Enthroned upon your lap you hold our King,
And on your head are shining from above
Three rays of Glory from the Heavenly Dove.
While round your throne a bright adoring ring
Of Angels kneel to worship you, and raise
Their candles and their censers in your praise."

Composes Music

Miss Todd, widely known Harlingen composer, composed the musical setting for Miss Shepperd's sonnet to the window and the composition won first prize in the Texas Composers Guild contest sponsored by the Texas Federation of Music Clubs last year. Just recently she arranged it for a trio of women's voices and this arrangement will be performed publicly for the first time at the fine arts concert of the Eighth District Federation of Music Clubs Thursday night, November 7, at the First Baptist Church at 8 o'clock.

Miss Sheldon is remembered by a number of Valley music lovers for her playing a few years ago for a fine arts concert in McAllen and for the Valley Federation of Women's Clubs in Harlingen.

Harpist Well-Known

Miss Sheldon traveled extensively as a child with her family. Her father was the late Arthur Frederic Sheldon, internationally known lecturer, writer, and business scientist. She carried out diversified study with some of the finest masters of the harp in this country and abroad. Among her instructors were Helena Stone Torgerson of Chicago; Maud Morgan of New York; Mme. Baurziech of the Dresden Orchestra; and Mlle. Henriette Renie of Paris.

Most of her training, however, was with Mildred Dilling of New York, and most of her public appearances have been in and around Kingston, N. Y. where her family have a summer home or in New York City where she has done radio work. She has played in leading churches, schools, and colleges with return engagements before such groups as The National Arts Club and International House.

No admission will be asked to the fine arts concert which starts at eight o'clock. Guests are asked to arrive promptly.

Harpist Will Play At Convention Opening

PILOT IS VISITOR

MISSION—Lieut. Lawrence M. Brooke, ranking U. S. Air Corps instructor at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala., was a week-end guest in Mission, flying from his base field Saturday morning and returning Sunday night. He was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Ethel Brooke, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lawrence. The plane in which he made the trip was a B T-14.

Five New Members Welcomed

Los Ebanos Garden Club Hears Program

BROWNSVILLE — Members of Los Ebanos Garden club, meeting Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Thurman A. Kinder, Jr., welcomed several new members, heard a report on a recent bridge benefit and a program.

New members are Mrs. John H. Kroeger, Mrs. B. M. Works, Mrs. H. B. Fleming, Mrs. Russell McChesney, and Mrs. Joe Stead.

Mrs. Robert M. Duffey talked on Planting for All-Year Bloom, and Mrs. E. P. Reed discussed bulbs.

Mrs. Joe K. Wells reported the benefit which netted the club eighty-three dollars. Sixteen tables gathered for the games at the Brownsville Country Club. Door prizes went to Mrs. John Puckett, Mrs. H. H. Boyd, and Mrs. J. J. Young, and a bingo prize went to Mrs. Martin Price. Tables prizes of home-made cookies, made up in attractive cellophane packages, were given also.

The tea table, pretty with a centerpiece of white and pink corona was decorated by Mrs. W. E. McDavitt, and was presided over by Mrs. R. A. Porter. Mrs. Larry Lightner was in charge of the cakes and cookies, Mrs. M. P. McNair, the prizes, Mrs. Jack Wiech, tickets.

The club has expressed thanks to the Thomas H. Sweeneys for use of the clubhouse, to the McInnis Floral company, and Los Ebanos Greenhouse for prizes, to C. W. Colgin, for supplies.

The next meeting of the club will be held Nov. 21 when Mrs. Frank L. Davis will be hostess, and Mrs. Jack Wiech and Mrs. Martin Price will be in charge of the program.

Dunkers Club Plans To Continue Aid For Needy Family

HARLINGEN — Miss Frances Payne received the gavel from Mrs. E. O. Matz at the close of the Wednesday night meeting of Dunkers Club, D. S. held at the home of Mrs. Mary Craig. Hostesses for the evening were Misses Edna Belle Farrar and Frances Payne. The new corps of officers will assume their duties at the next meeting at the home of Miss Bernice Prenzler on West Lincoln.

During the meeting plans were made to continue welfare work being carried out by the club group in behalf of a family and baskets will be given at Christmastime and at Thanksgiving.

After the meeting the members enjoyed games of hearts and refreshments noting the Hallowe'en colors were served.

Guild Makes Plans To Aid At Banquet

HARLINGEN — Members of St. Anthony Guild formulated plans for assisting with the banquet November 11 following the formal dedication of the new St. Anthony church when they met this week with Mrs. Larry Powers. Mrs. A. L. Bourg was co-hostess.

Father Antoine was a guest and reported on plans for completing and furnishing the building. Mrs. J. J. Murray, president, had charge of the meeting.

Mrs. J. A. Staats presented the guild with several handsome pottery vases for the new altar.

Announcement was made of the monthly communion for members of the guild who are to attend mass in a body Sunday, November 3, at 7:30 a. m.

Three new members present were Mesdames Walter Linehan, T. S. Morselander, and R. L. Briggs.

Next monthly meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Johnston with Mesdames C. S. McQueeney and Carl Peters as co-hostesses.

Wed In October

Mrs. Wiley V. Slayton of Pharr was before her marriage in early October, Miss Miriam Wildish. She is the daughter of Mrs. Allen Wildish and the late U. S. Army Captain Allen Wildish of Neilsville, Wis. Mr. Slayton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Slayton of Pharr. (Kerr Studio.)

Autumn's Hues Noted In Inviting Setting For Informal Courtesy

HARLINGEN—Mrs. W. A. Blair's home was the setting for a strikingly attractive event of early autumn when she entertained at bridge in the early hours of Thursday afternoon with an additional number of guests coming in later for an informal coffee. Marigolds and yellow roses added to the inviting environment and introduced the seasonal keynote expressed in Hallowe'en symbols and other interesting details.

When scores of bridge guests were tallied, Mrs. John Quincy Adams held top score and Mrs. Joe Coins low. Each received a pretty award.

Mrs. W. H. Bunge presided at the tea table, serving bridge guests for the first hour of the coffee and Mrs. Forrest Runnels poured from five to six o'clock. The table was particularly lovely with its low center arrangement of marigolds and roses flanked by lighted yellow tapers.

Mrs. J. J. Willingham assisted in the dining room throughout the period. About forty guests were entertained.

Fun Frolic Valley-wide

WESLACO — Approximately 300 young people from 16 Valley towns shared in a Hallowe'en party of marked novelty given Tuesday night when a Senior Epworth League festival was held at the migratory camp.

Members and guests were led blindfolded through a "hall of horror" as a prelude to the evening's entertainment which included stunts presented by 14 league groups. Rev. J. E. Lovern, Edinburg, was in charge.

Punch and sandwiches were served in the late evening.

Each guest brought a gift to the camp and the senior young people's group at the camp were special guests.

HEALTH IMPROVED

PHARR—Mrs. Jennie Carrothers, mother of E. M. Carrothers, who has been ill at her home here for the past several days is much improved.

Executive Meeting Set For Music Club

HARLINGEN — An executive board meeting of the Music Lovers Club has been called for Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. preceding the regular meeting at the Woman's Building. Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, president, has urged all officers to attend.

Subject for the day will be "The Classical Viennese." Musical compositions will be from Haydn Mozart, Beethoven, and Debussy. Mrs. J. A. Alderdice is leader.

Dance Is Hallowe'en Feature

McALLEN—McAllen's younger set welcomed Hallowe'en in gay and informal fashion this week when they were guests for an outdoor dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chaleff with Miss Hilda Chaleff as hostess.

Young dancers included Kathleen Wharton, Betty Jean Edelstein, Norma Lee Westerman, Doris Vines, Doris Jolly, Doris Kilborn, Mary Jeanette Bonneau, Aileen Harding, Marjorie Isenberg, Betty Elaine Berman, Shirley Chambers and Gloria Izaguirre:

Pat Lindsay, William Moore, Dave Horger, Vannie Cook, Maynard Kreidler, Eugene Kayser, Robert Reis, Whitney Reese, Fred Pearce, Donald Blair, Johnny Suttle and Phillip Chaleff.

After an evening spent in dancing, refreshments were served to the group.

Hockaday Honors Harlingen Student

HARLINGEN — Miss Billie Faye Trammell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Trammell, was initiated into membership in the Classical club at Hockaday Junior College where she is a freshman student this year. Meetings will be held weekly in the sitting room of one of the freshman houses.

Miss Trammell was one of the honorees at the President's tea, given Sunday afternoon, November 3, by Miss Ela Hockaday, president of the college, for new members of the Junior College staff, new students and their parents.

Bridge Is Enjoyed By Mission Guests

MISSION—Four guest players added interest to the games of the Friday Bridge Club this week when Mrs. Ross Smiley was hostess Friday afternoon. Three tables were arranged in rooms where decorations featured bouquets of roses.

Out of club players were Mrs. J. C. Monk, McAllen; Mrs. Gene Rowland, Mrs. Tom Overstreet and Mrs. D. A. Perkins. Member players were Mrs. T. B. Waite, Jr., and Mrs. Jack Wilson, McAllen; Mrs. John W. Griffin, Mrs. Marion Dill, Mrs. S. R. Greer, Mrs. H. L. Drummond, Mrs. C. C. Phillips and Mrs. Thomas Robertson.

After the games, Mrs. Smiley served a sandwich course.

Visit Laughter

HARLINGEN — Mr. and Mrs. Claud Carter have gone to Austin to spend the weekend with their daughter, Kathleen, who is a first year student at the University of Texas.

Pretty Event Of Season Is Coffee

Weslaco Setting For Hospitality

WESLACO — One of the prettiest informal courtesies of the autumn season was given by Mrs. K. P. Caskey and Mrs. Jimmy M. Davis, who were hostesses for a coffee at the home of Mrs. Caskey Tuesday morning from nine thirty to twelve.

The mantel in the living room held beautiful arrangements of tithonia with bouquets of chrysanthemums and marigold accenting the colorful theme chosen for the lovely hospitality.

The refreshment table, beautifully laid, was centered with an elaborate arrangement of chrysanthemums and marigolds in crystal bowl.

Presiding at the silver coffee service were Mesdames W. F. Powell, Joe Mead, Jack Zillafro, and Catheryn Chadick. Mercedes assisting in the dining room were Mesdames Nix Harrington and W. B. Lauder of Mercedes, and Mesdames Clifford Scott, C. B. Cooper and Virginia Oltman.

Monthly Dinner Set Thursday By Episcopal Group

This will be a chicken spaghetti supper, and will be open to the public. Mrs. Herbert L. Thomas is chairman, and will be assisted by Mrs. E. M. Dierlam, and other ladies of the church.

Young Basque

PATTERN 4609
By ANNE ADAMS

Whether you're a school girl or a hard-working career girl, this vivacious Anne Adams jumper style will appeal to you. For Pattern 4609 is disarmingly young, from its pinafore-type back bodice buttoning to its basque-effect front, complete with optional lacings and a pointed waistline. The slim handspan waist is accented by the jaunty flare of the skirt. The pattern includes a fresh little blouse that may have long full sleeves or short puffed sleeves, perhaps trimmed by perky bows to match the fabric or ribbon lacings on the jumper. Stitch up this jumper in wool, in corduroy or in velveteen, and make several blouses—say one in a new patriotic print; another in a soft crepe.

Pattern 4609 is available in junior miss sizes 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17. Size 13, jumper, takes 1 3-4 yards 54 inch fabric; blouse, 1 5-8 yards 35 inch contrast.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

Extra! Extra! Everything about the Anne Adams winter fashion book makes extra news! Its vivid pages are filled with styles new as tomorrow's headlines—each in a sure-to-fit pattern. Smart sewing for the whole family circle, including workaday modes and party frocks . . . tailored twosomes and afternoon dresses . . . slimming matron styles and lively "small fry" outfits . . . basic wardrobes for office and campus. Order your copy now! Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

President Cultura Club

Mrs. R. L. Clayton of La Feria is the president of the Cultura Literary Club. A popular young matron of La Feria, Mrs. Clayton is active in Eastern Star and social circles and in church work. (Holbrook's Studio.)

La Feria Club Groups Busy As Move Toward Varying Objectives

LA FERIA — Pursuit of study topics of widely divergent but engrossing interest will be carried out during the club year, the Inquisitive Reporter, learned in going from one club meeting to another. She sought to learn more about the topic of study and to glimpse the yearbooks.

Yearbooks are compiled by program committees and their distribution at the first club meetings always proves exciting and full of interest. The Inquisitive Reporter knew this and she visited the clubs at their first meetings.

Travel to distant lands has always been popular but due to the chaotic conditions in the Eastern hemisphere, the club studies are remaining on the North American continent. All the Women's Clubs of La Feria have had their initial meetings and the Inquisitive Reporter gleaned the information desired.

The music club, with Mrs. W. C. Beesley, as president, plans to study poets and artists as well as musicians and musical compositions.

"South of the Border," or "Mexico" was the theme chosen by the Sorosis club having Mrs. James Goode as president. Opening meeting of the club was marked by a Mexican luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ruth Craig.

"Canada, Land of the North," and "North of the Border" was presented to the Cultural Club at their annual luncheon which opened activity for the year. Meetings are held each second and fourth Tuesdays. Mrs. R. L. Clayton is president of the club composed of 18 members. Guest Day is an outstanding event on each year's program.

"Live at Home" has been selected for the motto for the Home Demonstration Club. Preservation of foods and balanced diet is urged for every member. Mrs. Ray Foncannon is the president. Meetings are held each first and third Monday of the month.

Mrs. H. H. Clausen, energetic and ambitious president of the Garden Club, has planned a full program for the members this year. The membership plans to have La Feria abloom in the spring forming a part of the Bougainvillea Trail. About 50 are in the club which meets twice monthly, alternating a business with a social meeting.

Dean of all the clubs in La Feria and among the oldest in the Valley is the Twentieth Century which was organized in 1915 and has been a member of the Valley Federation for 14 years. The artistic cover of the yearbook was painted by the artist members of the club. The study topic is "The Modern Woman's Bookshelf." The membership of the club which meets the first Thursday of each month, includes 22. Entertaining of husbands and Guest Day are social events of unusual interest during the year. Mrs. H. W. Voiers is the very efficient president, directing this year's activities.

The Parent-Teacher Association is continuing study directed to promote child welfare and to better and improve conditions for all children in the community, especially aiding in providing better playground equipment. Mrs. A. H. Moore is president and membership totals around 125 each year.

The Child Study Club, the infant in local club groups, has a membership of younger mothers, whose study is based on small children. This group has given very libarally towards the purchase of playground equipment for elementary school. Mrs. D. R. Self is president. Mrs. Hugh Davis is president of the Legion Auxiliary and has advocated aid for the underprivileged children of the community as the major goal for the year. Enlarged membership is to be listed as a minor objective. Yearbooks for this group are unique and original in design.

Objectives For U.D.S. Are Outlined

BROWNSXILLE — Formation of additional chapters of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas is one of the objectives of the patriotic organization this year, Mrs. Harbert Davenport, Brownsville, has announced. Mrs. Davenport is president of the Ft. Brown chapter of Brownsville and is also president of the Lieut. Thomas Barlow chapter, N. S., D.A.R.

Objectives of the Daughters of the Republic are to perpetuate the memory and spirit of those who achieved and maintained the independence of Texas; to encourage historical research into the earliest records of Texas, especially those relating to the Revolution of 1835; and to promote the observance of dates commemorating historic events and birthdays of Texas heroes; the marking of historic spots; and to cherish and preserve the unity of Texas as achieved and established by the fathers and mothers of the Texas Revolution.

Any woman, personally acceptable to the organization, is eligible for membership whose ancestors were of the Old Three Hundred or served the Colonies and the Republic of Texas in a civil or military capacity and were loyal to the Republic of Texas during her struggle for Texas, or received grants of land as settlers before the annexation of Texas Feb. 19, 1846.

The Old Three Hundred refers to the first colony brought by Stephen F. Austin in 1821.

The Ft. Brown chapter, one of two organized on the Rio Grande border last year, is the only one south of Corpus Christi. The other new chapter is in El Paso.

Full information as to membership requirements may be obtained from Mrs. Davenport.

Third Physical Checkup Of Students In Donna Shows Need For Corrections

DONNA — Mrs. W. E. Rose, president, and Mrs. E. K. Ewing, health chairman of the Donna high school P.-T. A. have just completed and released the statistics of the high school health check up that absorbed all of every day last week.

Because of 60 percent corrections needed were indicated after the October 1939 check-up, both local school authorities and the Hidalgo County Health Unit decided to repeat the check for the third consecutive year.

Besides Dr. Joe May and Miss Alma Rollins of the County Health Unit, Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Ewing gave their full time and Dr. Paul Frenzel, Dr. O. C. Hyder and Dr. John Webb each gave a full half day while Mesdames Gayle Martin, Fred Hammons, O. E. Agan, A. W. Nations, R. B. Holmes, E. A. Capen, Mary Eining and Miss Marian Hankin gave a half day or more each.

Out of the 371 students examined fifty or more than 13 1-5 percent were found perfect; 15 per cent were undernourished, 36 percent had dangerously poor posture; 50 percent had bad oral hygiene, 22 were badly in need of dentistry, 45 percent had bad throats, eight percent showed one or other skin infection. Fifty-seven were vaccinated against smallpox, and 76 took the tuberculin test with a result of 57 negatives and 19 positives. Letters has just been mailed to all homes represented excepting only the fifty percent found perfect.

BOWIE CARNIVAL FINANCIAL SUCCESS

HARLINGEN — Checkup of returns from the Hallowe'en carnival staged Tuesday night at Fairpark by the Bowie P.-T. A. shows a net return of slightly more than $80, Mrs. Don Mounts, financial chairman, has reported. Every booth and attraction disposed of stocks and the fish pond, in charge of Mrs. M. F. Drury, was the most popular attraction for children.

ALAMO FINANCE PROJECT SUCCESS

ALAMO—A large crowd attended the Hallowe'en carnival at the Alamo grammar school on Thursday evening. Prizes were given to 12 in the costume parade. An excellent program was presented by the students in charge of Miss Ruth Johnson. A cake walk was a center of interest. The sum of $35 was cleared, which goes to the P.-T. A.

McALLEN—An estimated 1,500 are expected to attend the picture show here November 12 and 13 staged by the members of the Wilson, Lincoln and Junior high schools Parent-Teacher Associations.

Tickets for the moving picture show at the Palace Theatre will go on sale tomorrow morning following a coffee at which delegates from the three associations will be present. The coffee will be held at El Rancho Grande.

The show will feature Gloria Jean in "A Little Bit of Heaven." Tickets are selling for 40 cents each. One half the sale price will be given to the P.-T. A. with the individual school whose representative sells the ticket retaining their part of the sales. No proceeds from box office sales will be turned over to the P.-T. A. Residents were asked to purchase tickets from group members.

The downtown business section has been blocked so that business firms will be called on only once to purchase tickets.

Proceeds from the sale will go toward the association's activity fund.

WILLACY CARNIVAL IS NOTABLE SUCCESS

RYMONDVILLE — Described as the most hilarious community gathering ever held in Raymondville, the fashionable "Womanless Wedding" held major interest at the Hallowe'en carnival Thursday night in the school auditorium.

In the bridal party were Mervin Hayes, bride; "Shorty" Wade, groom; F. E. Fisher, father of the bride; Foster Crowell, best man; A. B. Read, flower girl; Lud Snow, ring bearer; Roger Robinson, Harry Douthit, Harvey Maddy, W. H. Post, N. G. Parr, and Felix Burns, bridesmaids.

M. C. Yeargan, mother of the groom; F. J. Scheel, mother of the bride; Roy Duddlesten, infant brother of the bride; C. N. Howard, Joe Gist, P. K. Finlay, country cousins; E. V. Rinner, soloist, accompanied at the piano by Edwin Hackett.

Harry W. Cook was minister and Hubert Wright announcer.

Claiming particular attention in the carnival setting for their beauty was the gorgeous flower display sponsored by the Raymondville Garden club featuring over 400 roses, flowers, and shrubs. The blossoms in a setting of stately pottery, baskets, and paintings, the handiwork of Mrs. George Lochrie, were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Chambers, Mrs. Frederick Humphrey and Mrs. W. E. Arnold.

An exhibit of dolls including several hundred, a few a hundred or more years old, also was a popular attraction, and was arranged by Miss Clara Dean Smith, Miss Ruth Beachum, and Mrs. Crystal Karnes.

Ban Asked By Church Group Is Endorsed

MISSION—Mission church women endorsed a plan for enforcing the regulation against selling liquor to minors when the Federation of Church Societies met Thursday afternoon for a quarterly meeting at the First Methodist Church. A plan sponsored by the Christian social relations committee of the First Methodist Church at Harlingen was presented to the federation and received the endorsement of the federated organization with recommendations for its acceptance by the local units.

Briefly the plan asks that individuals having knowledge of liquor dealers who sell to minors or of minors purchasing liquors may report the circumstances to the state liquor board member, Bill Terry, Brownsville, who will conduct the investigation without revealing the identity of the person reporting. Need for the moulding of public opinion to stamp out illegal sales of liquor in Valley cities was stressed in a letter written by Mrs. Joe Wood, chairman of the Harlingen committee. Church women's groups in the Mission federation planned to send copies of the letter to their individual members.

Other features of the Thursday program included a book review and musical numbers. Mrs. F. W. Dooley, president, directed the business program. Mrs. R. A. Mathis was elected program chairman.

Mrs. Allen G. Roe presented the study feature, a review of "The Book Nobody Knows" by Bruce Barton. Solo numbers were presented by Mrs. A. J. Strawn and Mrs. Everett Tankersley. Mrs. T. A. Humason was at the organ for the accompaniment and for a brief organ concert before the opening of the program.

Hostesses for the social hour were members of the Presbyterian Auxiliary. Refreshments were served to 80 guests.

Babson Says

BELIEVES U. S. VOTERS WILL SOLVE SNARL

Most Important Vote In 2 Generations

By ROGER W. BABSON

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — The most important day in two generations of American voters comes next Tuesday! In the olden times when a sovereign king opened his mouth that settled it. No one could challenge his decision. He might make mistakes; he might be stupid, even ignorant; but he was the "works" and his word was law. So it is when the American voter casts his ballot In a crisis such as we are facing today in our national life, what group can we count on when it comes to voting? It seems to me we must count on those independent voters who have the horse-sense that enables them to see through bunk and get to the heart of a crucial issue!

Who Are They?

Our Democratic Ideals imply that the country can always depend on the consensus of judgment of the average man for the wise direction we need in any given situation. The average man does not rate with the so-called intellectuals nor with the rich. He is, however, far more numerous than all the privileged and favored classes put together. At the ballot box he counts accordingly. The well-to-do still count for more than their actual number, because of the influence they exert on those associated with, or depend upon, them, but their influence is waning.

And yet, even when great issues are at stake at the polls, there is often a fairly close decision. It was certainly so on Lincoln's second election. Furthermore, the slander of that time has never been exceeded unless it was during Washington's campaign. In more recent times do not forget that the Honorable Charles Evans Hughes went to bed on election night in 1916 fully convinced he was the country's next president. He awoke the next morning a defeated man.

Voters Disagree

In the national election four years ago, notwithstanding the tremendous sweep by states made by the Democratic Party, there were 17,000,000 men and women who voted on the other side. These 17,000,000 Republican voters were by no means from the privileged and intellectual classes. Among the 27,000,000 voters on the winning side there was a large proportion of the highly educated and the well-to-do. Included in these millions was also a considerable percentage of the so-called middle-class, not exactly intellectuals and certainly not rich.

It would appear that out of the 44,000,000 votes cast for the two major candidates there were 34,000,000 voters who tied each other—one vote for, balancing another vote against. I am considering now the popular vote, not the electoral vote where the ratio made the result seem like a thunder clap of popular opinion. The 17,000,000 voters who backed Landon do not see it that way. They know that a shift in less than a million votes, some say 300,000, in a number of crucial states would have given Landon a majority of the electral votes and put him in the White House. If even in a landslide like four years ago a shift in less than two and a half percent of the voters might have changed the final result, what can we expect now where the contest may really be close?

On November fifth, more than ever before, party lines will be ignored by millions. Great numbers of Willkie Democrats have declared themselves, and, as was the case four years ago, there is a flood of Roosevelt Republicans. I am now making no definite forecast, but it certainly seems to me that the results next Tuesday will be determined by the independent voters. What makes independent voters? Certainly one factor is discontent with blind partisanship and disgust with party leaders. Again it is sheer restlessness and dissatisfaction with the way things are going. As the veteran Arizona Senator Ashurst gracefully declared, on his enforced retirement after forty years in the United States Senate: "It is the privilege of the people to displace an official and substitute another for any good reason, or for a bad one, or for no reason at all."

That implies what we all know, that there is no accounting for what the electroate may do in any given situation. Facts, reason, vision, principle, may all play their part, but so do ignorance, prejudice, and passion. Remember that people are governed by their emotions far more than by their intellect! These confusing doubts are the marks of sovereigns all the way down through the pages of history. And by what reason should we expect any more from our 44,000,000 sovereign voters on Tuesday than could be expected of kings, emperors, or dictators?

My Own Beliefs

I, however, have great faith in our voters regardless of their party, race, or creed provided they will take their God and their conscience into the polling booth with them. As I consider the map of the world today who, in his right mind, would want to swap the American electorate for any other system of government? Are our voters wise? Will they do what is fundamentally right next Tuesday? Yes, I believe they will. The natural automatic checks and balances in our religion and body politic, representing among the voters every creed and element, provide a great saving grace. Remember, however, this free flow of human elements at the polls, combined with the provisions of our Constitution, give us the only security upon which we can count.

AP Feature Service

There are more farm jobs than farm workers in many states, reports the department of agriculture.

A yar ago 108 men and women were on hand for every 100 jobs. Now it's the other way round. For each 100 jobs there are 97 workers.

The demand for farm labor, as shown on the map, exceeded supply along virtually the entire Atlantic coast. The corn belt states, busy with fall harvesting, also had more jobs than could be filled. Apple picking and planting of fall wheat in the Pacific northwest put a few white spots on the map there too.

Important New Field Is Developed By Nichols

McALLEN — An important new oil field, known locally as the Nichols field because the prosoect was worked out by C. R. Nichols, McAllen geologist, had been opened Saturday in southwestern Hidalgo county, barely a mile east of the Samfordyce field in an area surrounded by dry holes.

Sharing importance in Valley wildcatting activity was the second production test in an eastern Willacy county wildcat and plans for another 10,000-foot hole in southeastern Cameron county.

The new field opener was Royal Oil and Gas Company No. A-1 Yturria Town and Improvement Company, Portion 45, Reynosa Jurisdiction, at the west edge of the old Samfordyce townsite. Operators cored the discovery sand at 3,489-3,502 feet and cemented casing on bottom at 3,535 feet. Through casing perforations (30 shots) at 3,497-3,503 feet, the well made 75 barrels daily on 1-8-inch tubing choke with 925 pounds tubing working pressure and 1,350 pounds closed-in casing pressure. The sand was about 600 feet deeper than the deepest Samfordyce sand, where most production was found at 2,700 feet. The dark brown crude was Mirando type oil at 28.4 degrees corrected A.P.I. gravity.

The same operators will make a new location shortly. The discovery well is located on an 800-acre block obtained jointly by Royal Oil and Gas of Houston and Baldridge and King, McAllen independent operators and drilling contractors. The latter firm drilled the discovery well. Each holds 400 acres in the block.

As a result of the new discovery, Phillips Petroleum Company was reported to have bought 300 acres in the immediate vicinity, in both Portion 43 and Portion 44, east and north of discovery, at a price of $50 per acre cash, a total consideration of $15,000. Whether Phillips will undertake an immediate drilling campaign was not known. Phillips is heavily interested both in Samfordyce and Sullivan City, and drilled the first producer in the Vicksburg ever completed in this part of South Texas in a 9,600-foot hole in the Sullivan City area.

In northeastern Hidalgo county, Humble Oil and Refining Company No. 1 American Life Insurance Company, Lot 1, Block 13, Mo-Tex Subdivision, Las Mestenas Grant, was reported coring hard shale past 7,600 feet.

In eastern Willacy county, production tests were under in deep sands cored in Pan-American Production Company No. 1 Porfirio Garcia, Share 13, San Juan de Carricitos Grant. The hold was bottomed at 9,002 feet and 7-inch o. d. oil string was cemented at about 8,900 feet. Through casing perforations at 8,635-70 feet, the well failed to produce satisfactorily and operators plugged back to shoot again at 7,698-7,710 feet. Production test is now under way on the shallower perforations. Other sands farther up the hole are reported scheduled for testing if the deep sands do not pay off.

Another important new coastal wildcat was assured for Cameron county, scene of considerable unsuccessful deep drilling thus far when Pure Oil Cmpany let contract for a 10,000-foot hole to Falcon-Seaboard Drilling Company of Houston. The test will be Pure No. 4 Gatewood Newberry and will be 24,724 feet east and 12,900 feet south of the most northerly corner of the Skelton Survey and in Share 3 of the same survey, roughly about six miles southwest of Port Isabel.

Starr county added its usual quota of wildcats to Valley activity Saturday.

In extreme southeastern Starr just west of present production in the Sullivan City field, Baldridge and King No. 1 Garcia Land and Cattle Company, Portion 100, Camargo Jurisdiction, a short distance north of U. S. 83, was temporarily shut down at 4,526 feet. Heavy gas shows were reported in the hole and it was awaiting orders.

In eastern Starr about 1,600 feet east of all production in the big Rincon field, W. N. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. 1 Harry Seyfriedt, Survey 928, a highly important semi-wildcat, was reported coring around its anticipated total depth of 5,300 feet, but no details were being made public.

Another Starr county semi-wildcat, Sun Oil Company No. 2 Mateo Saenz, Survey 80, about five miles north of the Rincon field and 1,700 feet north of the Sun No. 1 Saenz, recently completed discovery well of another new Starr county srea, was drilling around 4,1000 feet. No shows have been reported.

A mile west of present production in the "North Rincon" area, three miles north of the Rincon field proper, Harvey Oil Company No. 1 R. J. Moore, Survey 513, was coring for sand expected around 4,850 feet.

McALLEN — Lower Rio Grande Valley proven fields had added ten new producers Saturday as operators continued steady development of new acreage. Almost as many new wells were drilling in the fields. Six different fields reported the new producers, five of them being in the Colorado field in western Jim Hogg county.

Sun Oil Company No. 9 N. S. Thaxton, Survey 630, in the north part of the field, cored the sand at 2,956-62 feet and cemented 5 1-2-inch o. d. oil string atop the sand. The well was reported showing oil on production test, but was not gauged.

Sun Oil No. 11 N. S. Thaxton, Survey 630, another north edge well in the field, made 181 barrels daily on 3-16-inch tubing choke with 320 pounds tubing working pressure and 590 pounds closed-in casi*n* pressure from sand cored at 3,001-0*8* feet.

Humble Oil and Refining Company added three new wells.

Humble's No. 18 King Ranch-Colorado, Survey 42, gauged 150 barrels daily on 3-16-inch tubing choke from sand at 3,011-20 feet with 175 pounds tubing working pressure and 500 pounds closed-in casing pressure.

In the same survey, Humble's No. 22 King Ranch-Colorado made 202 barrels daily on 3-16-inch tubing choke from sand at 2,990-3,001 feet with 300 pounds tubing working pressure and 500 pounds closed-in casing pressure.

Humble's No. 21 Atwood Heirs, Survey 36, in the southern part of the field, pumped 100 barrels daily from sand at 3,090-3,101 feet, while the No. 20 Atwood Heirs, Survey 36, pumped 10 barrels daily from sand cored at 3,070-72 feet.

The big Rincon field in eastern Starr added two new producers and had two others coring for the field sands.

W. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. B-35 Slick Estate, Survey 486, in the southwest part of the field, made 152 barrels daily on quarter-inch tubing choke through casing perforations (59 shots) at 3,808-18 feet with 175 pounds tubing working pressure and 779 pounds closed-in casing pressure.

In the same part of the field, W. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. B-29 Slick Estate, Survey 266, gauged 190 barrels daily on quarter-inch tubing choke with 325 pounds tubing working pressure and 680 pounds closed-in casing pressure. Producetion came through casing perforations (80 shots) at 4,242-58 feet.

W. R. Davis, Incorporated, No. B-37 Slick Estate, Survey 486, was coring past 3,700 feet, while the W. R. Oavis, Incorporated, No. B-38 Slick Estate, Survey 486, was coring at 3,686 feet.

Onet new test was drilling in the south part of the new Boyle field in southern Starr. Borsodi Petroleum Company No. 3 Juan de Dios Vela, Share 2-A, Portion 91, Camargo Jurisdiction, was coring for the field sand just below 3,200 feet.

The Sullivan City field in southwestern Hidalgo county was adding a new producer while a new test was rigging up to spud.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Tomas (Villareal) Jores, Tract 236, Portion 39, Reynosa Jurisdiction, was running production test through casing perforations in sand at 4,065-80 feet after tests in sand at 4,100-05 feet showed a high gas-oil ration. The well made considerable oil on the test.

John Messenger's No. A-1 V. G. Chapa, Tract 238, Portion 40, Reynosa Jurisdiction, was rigging up to spud at once in the northeast part of the field.

In the Sun field in northeastern Starr, Sun Oil No. C-2 George H. Speer, Survey 235, an inside location, was continuing production test through casing perforations (9 shots) at 4,640-42 feet after making oil during the test. The hole was bottomed at 5,002 feet and 5 1-2-inch o. d. casing was cemented at 4,675 feet.

Sun Oil was rigging up the No. No. A-8 N. R. Montalvo, Tract 3, Los Retaches Grant, in the northwest part of the Sun field.

Humble Oil and Refining Company resumed operations in the west half of the Kelsey field in Jim Hogg county with the No. 21 Kelsey-Bass, one location west of the field discovery well in the southeast corner of the Kelsey-Bass Ranch. The well cored sand at 4,738-48 feet, where the hole was bottomed in sand, then cemented 5 1-2-inch o. d. oil string atop the sand.

Humble added another producer in the Brooks county section of the field. The No. 75 J. C. McGill, on the north edge of production, flowed 49 barrels daily on 9-64-inch tubing choke from sand at 4,726-32 feet. The hole wat bottomed in sand and casing was cemented at 4,726 feet. Tubing working pressure was 900 pounds and closed-in casing pressure was 895 pounds.

Humble staked locations for the Nos. 20, 21, 22 and 23 Kelsey-Bass, all in the southeast corner of the Kelsey-Bass Ranch, as well as locations for the Nos. 73, 76, 77 and 78 J. C. McGill, all along the north edge of the Brooks county portion of the field.

The Valley Railroad, one mile in length, in McKean County, Pa., is the shortest line-haul railroad in the United States.

TEXAS QUOTAS SET TO JUNE

16,959 To Be Called For Service

AUSTIN — (AP) — State selective service headquarters announced Saturday the estimated net quota for Texas for the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 20, 1941, is approximately 16,959.

Adjutant General J. Watt Page, state director, pointed out that for the present the estimated net allotment for each local board will be prorated on a percentage basis according to the number of registrants in each community.

The maximum requirements for men, to include February 28, 1941, have been estimated by periods as follows: One call in November, not earlier than November 19, 1,573 men; one in December, probably between the first and tenth, 575; three calls in January, the first 2,077, the second 5,535, and the third 2,499; one call in February, 4,700.

Co-ordinate Program

The periods and quotas have been determined to conform with the War Department program for completion of Housing facilities, hospitalization and supplies to provide for the increase at various camps and stations.

After a national quota basis has been established, adjustments will be made locally from time to time, depending upon the number of men placed in class 1-A and those joining the armed forces by entry other than through selective service.

State headquarters will issue calls on local boards for the actual number of selectees required not later than 10 days before inductions.

Mission Building

10-Year Record Hits $170,934 Total

MISSION—Building permits issued here the first 10 months of 1940 have brought the year's total higher than for any full year since 1930, a survey showed this week. October permits totaled $12,500 through Wednesday, bringing the year's figures to $170,934. Nearest figure to that during the decade was in 1937 when the total figure was $122,189.

Permit for construction of the Mission post office was responsible for $63,200 of the 1940 figure. In the 1940 total, 48 residences were included.

October permits included one residence, one church repair project, one residence repair, one business building repair project, an $8,000 brick theater building, and a $1,000 repair project on a vegetable packing shed.

Defense Stimulates American Railroads To Decade Near-Top

CHICAGO—(AP)—Stimulated traffic coincident with national rearmament is bulging railroad budget requirements to near the highest level of the decade, a survey of developments in the rail center indicated Friday.

With freight traffic expanding contraseasonally to the best volume of the year, analysis of recent expenditures for equipment in anticipation of prospective needs to speed the defense program showed that more than half a billion dollars have been spent so far in 1940.

Crowell To Head School Glee Club

McALLEN—Bethel Crowell was elected president of the Boys Glee Club of the McAllen high school the past week. Other officers named were Donald Blair, vice president Tommy Rowe, secretary-treasurer and Logan Cockrum, reporter.

Director William Doyle said the mixed chorus had tentatively decided to meet every Wednesday night as well as Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

Draftee's Sentence Set Aside By Judge

HOUSTON—(AP)—J. P. Souders, 33, told Judge Langston King he had attempted to volunteer but the army turned him down because a two-year suspended sentence for murder was charged against him.

Judge King set aside the judgment so Souders could enlist.

VISITS IN AUSTIN

RIO GRANDE CITY—Mrs. Fred D. Guerra is spending several weeks in Austin where she is the guest of Mrs. Mae Deer.

American Is Credited With Shooting Down Three Nazi Fighters; Has Part Credit For Downing 2 Big Bombers

SALEM, Ill.—(AP)—Exchanging machine-gun bullets with German pursuit and bombing planes over England is described as "fun" in letters received by City Commissioner V. A. Williams from a former Salem shoe factory worker who now is a pilot in the British Royal Air Force.

The writer, Philip Leckrone, was listed this week by the British Air Ministry as the victim of an aircraft accident but not hurt seriously.

Almost weekly since the last of August, Leckrone has written graphic accounts of his experiences and in one letter said he had downed three Messerschmitt German pursuit planes as well as having credit for "a half of a bomber and a third of a bomber."

"There's something strange about it, but I'm not the least bit scared when I'm in combat," he wrote. "In fact, it is fun."

He told of chasing a Messerschmitt 109 "clear across the Channel before he got his last bath. Anti-aircraft guns were shooting at me from the French coast before I got him.

"I had made up my mind to get him if I had to follow him back to Berlin. He never got out of the plane. It hit the water and went under. I felt sorry for him but he would have put me there if he could have. That makes three 109's to my credit now."

Leckrone praised the fighting ability of the R.A.F. and their Spitfire planes, contending in one letter "it is amazing what a few Spitfires can do to a hundred or so Huns."

He said Spitfires dive straight down at 600 miles per hour and every time he pulls the plane out of the dive, it "blacks me out. I'm getting used to being blacked out."

Student Election

Pharr School Names Robert Evans

PHARR—Robert Evans has been elected president of the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo student body for the 1940-41 school year, according to announcement from the school.

Other new officers are: Secretary, Marian Cramer; treasurer, Jayne Rhinehart; reporter, Paul Flowers; and, the following class presidents: Seniors, Bernice Baden; juniors, Kenneth Risinger; sophomores, Rex Barrett; freshmen, Helen Cox.

Councilmen-at-large are: Dennie Earl Clark, Virginia Mae Maddux, Frances Thomason and Marjorie Britten.

SAN ANTONIO RITES

La VILLA—Funeral services were held in San Antonio on Thursday of the past week for Mrs. Mary Stromeyer, age 85, life-long resident of that city. The deceased is an aunt of Arthur Schneider of this city.

DESTROYERS NO GOOD—NAZI

Haw Tells Britains Ships No Bargains

NEW YORK — (AP) — Lord Haw-Haw, Germany's radio commentator, declared Saturday in a broadcast heard by CBS that two of the "decrepit" United States destroyers traded to Britain were so severely damaged crossing the Atlantic "they had to be abandoned and sunk by their crews."

Two more "were so badly damaged they had to be taken in tow by others," Lord Haw-Haw declared, adding that this was proof that "the 50 obsolete destroyers which Britain bought from the United States in exchange for valuable naval bases are none too valuable."

DO YOU REALLY LOVE ME, HONEY?

That's the question a young wife asked her husband a few weeks ago. The husband thought for a moment, then answered: "Of course, you know I love you." "Well," said the young wife, "then buy me a home that we can call our own, where we can raise our children in peace." Result: They called 139, Harlingen. Today they own the home they were renting. A nice husband, don't you think? How about asking your husband the same thing? It may pay off.

DAY'S NEWS OF NATION'S MARKETS

NEW YORK—(AP)—While considerable irregularity prevailed in Saturday's brief stock market, the list managed to emerge from another satisfactory week with small plus signs in the majority.

Dealings were sufficiently lively at times to put up the volume to 466,860 shares, largest two-hour turnover since June 15. It compared with 418,070 last Saturday. Trading for the week also was the liveliest since mid-June.

Gains and losses generally held to negligible fractions and the Associated Press average of 60 issues was up .1 of a point at 46.9, making net improvement for the week .9. A month ago the composite stod at 45 and a year ago at 52.7.

United Aircraft got up a point and fractions were tacked on Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Chrysler, Consolidated Edison, Western Union, Texas Corp., Standard Oil of N. J., United Aircraft, Paramount, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward and Santa Fe.

Losers included U. S. Rubbers, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda, Kennecott, Johns-Manville, Monsanto Chemical, American Can and International Harvester.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—Except for a dip of about ½ cent a bushel early in the session, the wheat market Saturday rode at even keel on the support of quiet buying attributed to mills and professional dealers covering previous short sales or reinstating recently sold out lines.

Corn and other grains also held near Friday's closing levels but soybeans advanced more than a cent to a new high for the season. Pit brokers said the quiet grain trade largely reflected unwillingness of many dealers to take market action before the election.

Wheat closed ¼ lower to ¼ higher compared with Friday, December 84-83⅞, May 83⅜-¼; corn ⅛-½ higher, December 58⅞, May 61; oats ⅛-¼ up.

FINLAND REBUILDS

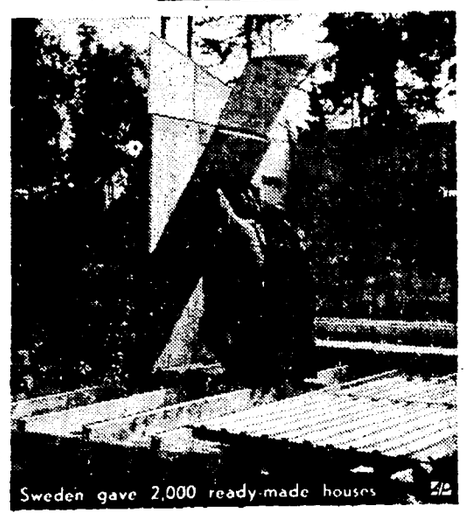

Mortar: women work too

AP Feature Service

The Finns aren't licked. With the same gallantry that held the Mannerheim Line under weeks of shell-fire, they are pitching in to rebuild their country. Thousands who lived in areas ceded to Russia are being settled on new farms with the help of $4,000,000 in contributions from abroad. About half of that was Sweden's gift—2,000 ready-made houses.

2 Valley Companies Chartered By State

AUSTIN—(AP)—Two Rio Grande Valley firms were among those chartered Friday by the state of Texas here.

Rio Grande Box Distributors, Weslaco, listed as a manufacturing concern with $10,000 capital stock, named Richard L. Cotton, Mamie M. Cotton and Mabel D. Perry incorporators. Mid-Valley Growers, Donna, a marketing firm, has no capital stock. Incorporators are E. J. Farnsworth, A. O. Smith and R. E. Hart.

Equipment Bought For Science Work

McALLEN—New equipment for the biology, chemistry and physics classes of McAllen high school have arrived, Principal A. M. Weir said Saturday, consisting of electroplating devices, rheostats, hydraulic press model, lucite rod illuminator, a set of pumps, and a convex mirror 15 inches in diameter.

The equipment was ordered from the Chicago Apparatus Company at a cost of $280.

C. C. Secretaries Plan Mission Meet

WESLACO — President J. N. Hager of the Valley Secretaries association announced Saturday that a special welcome would be extended S. M. Patterson, new manager of the Edinburg chamber, when the association meets Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at Mission.

Mrs. Edith Volz, Mission secretary, will arrange the meeting place. Plans for the tourist season and Valley winter celebrations will be the main topics for study, Hager said.

McAllen Collects Funds For Lights

McALLEN—Collection of a special fund to be used for McAllen's Christmas street decorations and a meeting to set the definite scheme for the Yule lights are due to be completed this week by the two McAllen chambers of commerce.

Committees named by President Bill Ely of the junior chamber began work Saturday collecting the special fund required. Chairman O. Terry of the chamber's trade extension committee, will call a joint meeting of his members and a special junior committee to decide on the decoration scheme.

Navy Contract Goes To United Aircraft

No details of the type, number, or delivery dates were disclosed.

Negro Draws Chair Death For Slaying

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON—(AP)—(U.S.D.A.)—Business on domestic wools during the past week was mostly very slow in Boston, but quotations were quite firmly maintained. South American wools of fine and half blood grades had a fair demand for lots that had arrived or were due to arrive within a short time. Medium wools of domestic or foreign origin were slow. Australian wools were being bought for import. Graded combing bright fleece wools were quoted at 44-45 cents, in the grease, for fine Delaine and combing half bloods, and at 46-47 cents, in the grease, for three eighths and quarter bloods.

Whitewing Data

Marsh Obtains Facts For Legislation

McALLEN—Data for new legislation to better protect Valley whitewings were being collected this week by E. G. Marsh, biological survey official and members of the Texas State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

A preliminary draft of the legislation will be submitted to a Valley-wide legislative committee, named under a plan proposed by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce for recommendation and study. The group will be named by D. F. Strickland of Mission. The plan agreed on by game officials and Valley sportsmen will be used in an information campaign to be conducted by Valley chambers of commerce.

Mexico's Role In American Defense Shown In Latest March Of Time Film

The role which Mexico's twenty million people will play in American Hemisphere Defense, and the reasons behind Mexico's re-born friendship for the U. S. today are shown in the latest March of Time film, "Mexico."

This newest issue in the March of Time series was filmed by staff cameramen who went to Mexico four months ago, when March of Time's editors first foresaw the increasing importance of Uncle Sam's nearest Latin neighbor-country in the development of American hemisphere defense strategy. The March of Time cameramen have since filmed the recent elections and other events in Mexico which are destined to have a vital effect upon Mexican-U. S. relations.

Mexico has long been resentful of the might and power of the U. S. and has frequently expressed this feeling during recent years by her open sympathy for Soviet Russia and her economic cooperation with Nazi Germany and Japan in the sale of oil and other materials vital to the war machines of those countries.

But Mexico today faces a dilemma, the March of Time film shows, because her leaders realize that cooperation with the U. S. in hemisphere defense is the only way in which Mexican independence can be preserved. The film also reveals for the first time the full story of Mexico's new kind of revolution and how it is affecting her poverty-stricken people today.

The new March of Time is booked for showing Sunday and Monday and both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the State Theatre in Mercedes; Tuesday and Wednesday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen and at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

James Stewart Seen In Comedy Romance

"No Time For Comedy," starring James Stewart and Rosalind Russell is a lightning fast comedy which concerns a young newspaperman who writes hilarious plays about Manhattan's penthouse set, scores a smash hit of Broadway and marries the star of his plays.

His plays a success, the young playwright begins to find more amusement in hob-nobbing with the smart set than writing about them. At one of the parties he meets the lovely blonde wife of a millionaire who convinces him that he is throwing away his genius on writing such frivolous plays and under her influence he begins writing a play with a "message."

On the opening night of his dramatic play, the audience laugh, just as they have always laughed at his plays. But this time no laughs were intended. By the time the play is ended the entire audience has left the theatre, including the playwright's blonde "inspiration."

"No Time For Comedy" is booked for current showing Sunday and Monday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Palace Theatre in McAllen; Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the State Theatre in Mercedes, Thursday and Friday.

Mickey Rooney And Judy Garland Star In Musical Comedy

The gayest, swingiest musical of the season is the Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland starring picture "Strike Up The Band," which also features Paul Whiteman and his band.

With Mickey as its leader and Judy as its girl singer, a high school band in the story wants to go to Chicago and try out for Whiteman's auditions for promising young orchestras. But they don't have enough money, and their methods of getting it are hilarious.

"Strike Up The Band" is booked for showing Sunday and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the Palace Theatre in McAllen, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Brigham Young" Epic Of Early West

Louis Bromfield's thrilling story "Bringham Young—Frontiersman," starring Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell is one of the most impressive love stories the screen has ever told.

Tyrone Power portrays the role of Jonathan Kent, Mormon scout, while Miss Darnell is cast as Zina Webb, a young girl who, although not of Mormon faith, flees with Power's family after her father is killed in the massacre at Nauvoo, Illinois, when masked raiders pillaged the city and struck down defenseless hundreds.

The featured supporting cast in "Brigham Young — Frontiersman" which is scheduled for current showing Sunday and Monday at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

"The Ramparts We Watch," which is showing Friday and Saturday at the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito, features startling scenes from Hitler's terror film, "Baptism Of Fire."

Emergency Indicated By Sudden U. S. Navy Move

3 DESTROYERS QUIT BALBOA DURING NIGHT

Even Some Sailors Left Behind

BALBOA, Canal Zone—(AP)—At least three United States destroyers sped out of Balboa Harbor into the Pacific late Saturday night after suddenly calling some sailors to the boat from shore leave.

Naval officers here indicated belief that no emergency had arisen but would not say definitely that it was mere practice maneuver.

Crew Called Suddenly

Loud-speaker systems in beer gardens were used to call some of the sailors but the ships left so suddenly that some of the crewmen appeared to miss them. One boat load of sailors sped out in the wake of the destroyers apparently seeking to put the men aboard outside the harbor.

Naval officials would not discuss details of the move.

Breaking an official silence on activities of American warships in the Caribbean Sea, the navy department in Washington earlier in the day said that the Atlantic patrol force was now carrying out "scheduled exercises" in that strategic area.

The patrol force of eight destroyers and six patrol-planes, under command of Rear Admiral Hayne Ellis, left Key West, the announcement said, for training and patrol operations in the Guantanamo-San Juan-Culebra Island sector.

While there was no elaboration of the navy's announcement, it was learned that the patrol force's itinerary includes a visit to St. Lucia, British island where an American naval base site may be established.

Officials said the fact that St. Lucia was close by Martinique might account for reports from Vichy that American warships had arrived at that French island.

From St. Lucia the warships could quickly move to Martinique in event the Vichy government's collaboration with Germany was regarded as impairing French sovereignty over the island.

BERLIN GETS HEAVIEST YET

RAF Attacks Last Many Hours

LONDON—(AP)—In two smashes at Berlin officially called the heaviest ever loosed by the RAF, British bombers were declared Saturday night to have repeatedly bombarded three of the German capital's main railway centers and left a mile-long blaze about a vital power station.

One raiding wave, the air ministry said, went into action shortly after 8 p.m. Saturday night and stayed o. the job for nearly two hours and another flew in over the city at 2:20 o'clock Sunday morning and fired away with bombs for 40 minutes.

It was Berlin's Klingenburg Power Station, returning pilots reported, which formed the biggest torch left by their tons of explosives and hundreds of incendiary bombs.

The press association said the RAF's harder and more frequent raids on Berlin were due directly to the "vigorous personality" of Britain's new chief of the air staff, Sir Charles Portal, who "believes in dealing heavy blows."

Body Of Texas Man Is Found At Mobile

MOBILE, Ala.—(AP)—The body of a man identified as William Warren Mitchell, Port Arthur, Tex., who had been reported missing for a month, was found near here Saturday.

Sergeant Floyd Davenport of the state highway patrol said the identification was established by papers in the dead man's pockets. He was the mate of the tankship Gulfcoast.

'No Fourth Term' Pledges Roosevelt; Willkie Makes Last Major Address

WORLD CRISIS SAID REASON FOR 3RD TERM

'Personal Ambition' Is Denounced

CLEVELAND —(AP)— President Roosevelt said Saturday night that the "storm" now raging over the world was the true reason why he was running for a third term and that "when that term is over there will be another president."

In his "final national address of the campaign," prepared for a nationwide broadcast from Cleveland's public auditorium, he disavowed any "personal ambition."

Appeals For Confidence

Appealing to the nation to give him a "vote of confidence" next Tuesday, the President said:

"There is a great storm raging now; it makes things harder for the world. And that storm, which did not start in this land of ours, is the true reason that I would like to stick by these people of ours until we reach the clear, sure footing ahead.

"We will make it—make it before the next term is over.

"We will make it; and the world, we hope, will make it, too.

"When that term is over there will be another president, and many more presidents in the years to come, and I think that word 'president' will be a word to cheer the hearts of common men and women everywhere."

Tens of thousands of wildly cheering men, women and children stood in a cold wind to see the president pass in an open car on the way from his special train to the auditorium. Thousands more massed about the huge auditorium, which was jammed.

Mrs. Mildred Jaster, Ohio's national Democratic committee woman; former senator Robert J. Bilkley and Charles Sawyer, Democratic national committeeman, rode with him to the hall.

Roar Of Applause

A tremendous burst of applause greeted the President's appearance. It continued for more than three minutes, when Mr. Roosevelt signaled for quiet, and in some sections of the hall went on after he began speaking.

There was booing in the crowd when the President declared that representatives of "the forces of dictatorship in our own land," which he identified as the Communists on one hand and "the girdlers" on the other, were voting without exception against the New Deal.

Loud cheering greeted his declaration that "the first purpose of our foreign policy is to keep our country out of war."

Future Of Freedom

There was prolonged cheering, too, when Mr. Roosevelt asked for "your vote of confidence" in order he said, that the American people might march forward to "a future which holds the fulfillment of our

Lucian Cary, Demos Candidate, To Vote Republican Tuesday

COLEBROOK, Conn — (AP) — Lucian Cary, the novelist, finds his candidacy for state representative on the Democratic ticket "irritating." So he is going around begging people not to vote for him.

Cary says he was nominated without his consent while on a magazine assignment in the mid-west, wasn't notified by the Democrats and didn't find out he was running until a private organization queries him on election issues.

Next Tuesday, he says, he's going to vote Republican.

18 US Bombardiers Graduate At Denver

DENVER — (AP)— Eighteen young men from 15 states were graduated Saturday in Lowry Field's first class of bombardier instructors and were commissioned second lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserv

Graduates of the 16-week course, who now will give bombing training to Air Corps men, included: Willian M. Crawford, Navasota, Tex.; Everett Davis, Eastland, Tex.; and Harve N. Johnson, Falls, Okla.

Candidates Enter Home Stretch Of Most Heated Of U. S. Campaigns

Both Willkie And Roosevelt Have Election-Eve Broadcasts Slated; 50,000,000 May Vote

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON—A campaign of tremendous—and trivial—issues, a campaign fought out with a slugging tenacity seldom equalled, a campaign holding a fateful decision for America, is almost ended.

On Tuesday the voters of the country will select the man who for four years will, God willing, sit in the White House and mold the nation's destiny in a world at arms.

They will choose between Franklin D. Roosevelt, the personification of the New Deal, and Wendell L. Willkie, lawyer and former public utilities executive who endorses a number of New Deal measures but has denounced New Deal methods and philosophies.

When these expected 50,000,000 voters pick their president they also will be selecting their vice president. He is the constitutional heir to the presidency should a White House vacancy occur, otherwise, the presiding officer of the Senate.

Henry A. Wallace, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, and Senator Charles L. McNary, the Republican candidate, have carried the burden of the campaigning on farm issues.

Thirty-five senators, all but three House members and 33 governors also will be chosen in the Tuesday balloting. Maine, holding its state election in September, already has picked its governor, a senator and three representatives in Congress.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

The minor party slates include the Socialist ticket headed by the veteran Norman Thomas and the Communist party with Earl Browder as its nominee. Roger W. Babson heads the Prohibition party's ticket.

Court actions and the decisions of election boards have ruled the Communist candidates from ballots of a number of states.

WENDELL L. WILLKIE

As election eve approaches, national issues that have been shuffled and re-shuffled through intense days and nights of speech-making take on new stature or diminish as factors likely to determine the outcome of the presidential contest. Two in particular stand out now.

First Issue Is War

The first is war. Willkie, although endorsing all possible material assistance to Great Britain, emphatically contends that a provocative attitude toward the Axis countries will lead to war if the President is re-elected.

In reply, the President says that any charge that he is heading toward war is contrary to all the facts in the record. It is for peace he has labored, he says, and will continue to labor throughout his life.

The second great issue is the summation of months of controversy over the question of concentration of power in Washington. The Republicans contend this issue is epitom-

Seen Man With Birdshot In Britches? He's Wanted

Suspected Chicken Thief Shot In McAllen But Escapes After Hearty Yelp

McALLEN—Police were on the lookout Saturday for a man "with birdshot in his britches."

O. Dooley, resident of 1506 Maple avenue, McAllen, reported to Chief of Police Noah Cannon that he fired a charge of birdshot at a suspected chicken thief about 3 a.m. Saturday.

The marauder shrieke das if he had been hit, then disappeared in the darkness, Dooley said.

Chief of Police Cannon asked any doctor who might have treated a patient for birdshot wounds to report the incident to the police department.

TEACHER DIES AT AGE OF 71

Mrs. G. T. Hamilton Funeral Monday

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. George T. Hamilton, pioneer Brownsville school teacher who taught as children many of the Valley's present day business and civic leaders, died at 12:30 p. m. Saturday at Mercy Hospital here. She was 71.

Mrs. Hamilton had been in ill health since her retirement from the Brownsville school system this year.

A resident of Brownsville for 31 years, the widely-known teacher had been a member of the local system for all but about a year of that time. The last eight years of her service she was librarian at the junior high school. She had taught in every school of the district.

Mrs. Hamilton long had been

WILLKIE SAYS 'OUR WAY OF LIFE' TOTTERS

Democrats Lead U. S. To 'Destruction'

NEW YORK—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie, addressing the last major rally of his president campaign, said Saturday night that the Roosevelt administration has been leading the nation down a road "paved with good intentions" to the "destruction of our democratic way of life."

The Republican nominee asked in an address prepared for delivery before a mass meeting of his supporters in Madison Square Garden where the conflict lay between himself and President Roosevelt. He replied to his own question by saying:

"It is, and I say it solemnly and with full understanding of the terrible meaning of the words—it is that for nearly eight years our government has been carrying us step by step down a road that leads to the destruction of our democratic way of life.

"That road is paved with good intentions."

Willkie, who came back to New York Saturday after a 34-state, coast-to-coast campaigning tour, asserted that he believed with the new deal in collective bargaining, wage-hour legislation, social security, relief, aid to Great Britain and a powerful national defense.

"Wrong Methods"

He declared, however, that new deal methods "are not the methods of democracy." Instead, he said, the new deal stands for:

"The unlimited spending of borrowed money—the piling up of bureaucracy—the usurpation of powers reserved by the congress—the subjugation of the courts—the concentration of enormous authority in the hands of the executive—the discouragement of enterprise—and the continuance of economic dependence for millions of our citizens upon government."

Willkie asked the support of all who believe "in the principles of American freedom," and said that he had repudiated at the start of the campaign "certain men and groups who tried to connect themselves with us."

"I repudiate, now and forever," he continued, "any and all men and women, individually or collectively, who practice or promote racial or religious intolerance or persecution.

"I want specifically to denounce, as malicious, reckless, and harmful to all concerned the whispering campaign that is being conducted

FD Pays Tribute To White House Driver

NEW YORK—(AP)—Before leaving on his windup campaign swing last night President Roosevelt paid tribute to Francis Robinson, whom he described as "the first chauffeur to drive a car in the White House service." Robinson, 65, died in Washington Friday.

"Francis Robinson, or Robbie as we knew him around the White House for so many years, will be greatly missed," the President's statement said. "He was one of those men one often encounters in government work who do their jobs with such modesty and quiet efficiency that their faithful service is not widely known."

KENEDY ROAD OPENING SET FOR DEC. 17

Plan For Celebration Now Underway

HARLINGEN — Opening of the long-awaited Kenedy County Road will occur on December 17, according to word just received here from D. C. Greer, state highway engineer. The announcement was made in a letter received from Greer by Worth Heffner, Harlingen chamber of commerce manager.

Plans are expected to go forward now for the big road opening celebration long planned by citizens of Raymondville and remainder of Willacy county, who have sought to have the highway constructed for more than 20 years.

Plan Substitute Fete

The Willacy county citizens, who see big things in store for their section as result of opening of the new highway, gave up their annual Onion Fiesta the past spring, partly because of the shortest crop in Willacy onion history, but partly also because of wish to substitute for it a road opening celebration.

Road enthusiasts from Orange to Brownsville are expected to attend the Raymondville celebration, which is expected to be held the day the road is opened. Raymondville highway leaders state they have also received word representatives from many states in the southwest and midwest as well as Canada, will also be present.

The Kenedy County Road when completed will mean mileage saving to travelers from the Valley to

OLD MAN GUNS FOR WILLKIE?

Seized With Pistol At Address

NEW YORK—(AP)—An armed man was intercepted in Madison Square Garden, twenty feet from the speakers' platform, just as Wendell L. Willkie finished his last major campaign speech Saturday night.

The man, about 60 years old, arose as the Republican presidential nominee finished, and started from his seat, followed by a woman who apparently had been sitting with him.

A couple sitting just behind, who identified themselves as Mr. and Mrs. W. Hewitt, of Garden City, Long Island, said the man took a revolver from an inside pocket and transferred it to his overcoat pocket as he arose and started toward the platform, where the candidate, waving to the cheering crowd, stood with his wife.

The Hewitts reported immediately to a patrolman, and a policeman stepped up and intercepted the man.

Police Sergeant Edward Unger, to whom the man was turned over, confirmed the report that the man had a revolver. He said it was a .22-calibre weapon, fully loaded.

The woman who had been trailing behind the prisoner, Sgt. Unger said, informed police that the man with the weapon was a Manhattan physician.

Port Arthur Hunters Get Duck Bag Limit

PORT ARTHUR—(AP)—Dozens of duck hunters returned from their blinds Saturday with limits of 10 fowl each.

Unusually heavy flights were reported in this immediate area and it was estimated that at least 1,000 birds were killed.

Patriotic Grandpop Dares 'Em Not To Let Him Register

PONCA CITY, Okla.—(AP)—Dr. A. B. Macdonald, whose age is his secret but who has a co-ed granddaughter in the University of Kansas, is registering for the draft and is ready to appeal for the right to serve his country.

"And, by gosh, I don't see how they can keep me out," exclaimed the good-natured optometrist.

"The law said every man between 21 and 36 years old had to register, but it didn't say men over that could not register. So there you are."

Draft officials said an inexperienced young clerk took the registration during the rush.

TWO BOYS CUT IN EXPLOSION OF TEST TUBE

Edinburg Collegiates Were Experimenting

McALLEN—Damon Peterson and Howard Andrus of McAllen, students at Edinburg junior college, sustained cuts from flying glass when a test tube full of chemicals exploded in a laboratory at the college Saturday about 9:30 a. m.

Young Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Peterson, was cut about the chest, face and hands. Andrus, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Andrus, received similar injuries.

The boys received treatment at the County-City Hospital, Edinburg. Andrus was released, but Peterson remained there.

The Peterson youth's father said the students had been experimenting with the chemicals outside of class.

Young Peterson had picked up the tube to examine it, and when he set it down the explosion occurred. The injuries were not regarded as serious.

Nazi Bombers Give Raid-Sore British Quiet Night's Rest

LONDON (Sunday)—(AP)—Raid-weary England, Scotland and Wales enjoyed one of the quietest nights in weeks Saturday night and early today as the German and Italian raiding squadrons, beaten back from London time and again Saturday, gave the bomb-battered British a rest.

Early reports showed that with the exception of a few districts in southeast England, the British were getting a sound sleep.

Treasury's Deficit Is $1,329,512,821

WASHINGTON— (AP) —The treasury completed the fourth month of the current fiscal year with a net deficiency of $1,329,512,821.

A summary of the government fiscal condition on October 31 showed that the deficit was $79,000,000 less than at the same time last year although expenditures attributed to national defense had been doubled.

Record Engine Order Given Wright Firm

WASHINGTON— (AP) —The War Department placed a $119,870,920 order Saturday for army and navy warplane engines, which officials said was the largest single such contract in peacetime history.

The contract went to the Wright Aeronautical Corporation, Paterson, N. J. It was believed the contract represented 9,000 or more engines.

BRITISH LAND BLUEJACKETS TO AID ALLY

Turning Of Italian Flank Threatens

By The Associated Press

Greek mountain troops held Albanian territory overlooking Koritza Sunday as Britain officially disclosed her blue-jackets had landed in Greek territory to bolster the defense against Italy.

The Greek command said a furious bayonet charge resulted in the capture Saturday of a hilltop redoubt four miles inside Albania. It opened the way for turning the Italians eastern flank while heavy artillery fire barred the other Fascist thrust in the west toward Ioannina (Janina).

Reliable Athens reports said the Fascists had failed to break the main Greek defense lines after six days' fighting through mountain gorges.

Salonika, upper Aegean port, was raided six times yesterday by as many as 22 Italian planes. Greek airmen fought them over that key port.

A. V. Alexander, first lord of the British admiralty, in a broadcast early today to the British empire said of Greece:

"The British navy is there, air support is being given, military objectives in Naples have been bombed and British troops have landed in Greek territory . . . what we can do we will do."

Land At Crete

He did not say where the troops landed but press reports said the British disembarked at the island of Crete, and the Italian high command said air attacks were directed there against ships unloading troops.

Italian "suicide" squadrons rained more bombs throughout Greece where previous attacks killed or wounded 300 civilians in Salonika.

WRITE IN VOTE IN WILLACY

Nyquist-Phillips Race Flares Anew

RAYMONDVILLE—A renewal of the duel between C. G. (Gus) Nyquist and W. H. (Bill) Phillips for the office of Willacy county treasurer was assured here Saturday night, when Phillips, the incumbent, revealed in telephone conversation that his friends had been quietly conducting a "write-in" campaign for next Tuesday's general election for the past two weeks.

Nyquist, who defeated Phillips in the Democratic primary in July for nomination to the office, said here Saturday that he had just learned of the "write-in" campaign, stating that he found out about it when a letter sent out by Phillips' friends to a voter now in Illinois, had been sent on to him by the Illinois man.

Phillips said that the campaign had been brought into the open only within the past few days, and that a "hundred or so" of his friends had approached him and advised him the campaign would be conducted "whether you like it or not."

Nyquist Saturday urged Willacy voters to turn out in full force for Tuesday's election, so that "the majority may choose," and reminded them that it is important that every voter exercise his franchise in the selection of national leaders in this time of natioinal crisis.

Reds Push Troops To Southeast Provinces

BUCHAREST— (AP) —Soviet Russia has concentrated 31 divisions of troops and three brigades of mechanized equipment in Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, travelers said Saturday upon their arrival here from the provinces which Russia acquired from Rumania last summer.

(A British military expert earlier this week said Germany had concentrated about 70 army divisions or about 1,250,000 men, in southeastern Europe.)

'Greek Victory Would Smash Axis Conquest Scheme'

British Believe Italy At Peak Of War Effort Now; Situation Now Favors England

By DREW MIDDLETON

LONDON—(AP)—British military men said Saturday a decisive check or even a stalemate of Italy's Hellenic campaign by the British and Greeks would smash the Axis scheme for conquest of the Mediterranean.

These and neutral military sources, remarking that Italy's war effort was swiftly approaching the maximum, estimated Italian troops in the field at "well over a million" or at least "70 divisions."

This figure includes units in Libya, Ethiopia, Italian and British Somaliland and those guarding the temporarily peaceful frontiers in Europe and Africa.

"Italy may talk of 6,000,000 bayonets' but these are now enough," one declared. "It is quite probable she does not have modern equipment for more than those in the field now."

British military men said they expected Italy to launch a big scale offensive against the Greek line on the southwest wing of the Albanian-Greek frontier.

Military observers said that the present situation is more favorable to the British than the first stages of the Norwegian, Flanders and French campaigns, because the Italians, and eventually the Germans, would "have to come to the British" instead of the British going to them. Such advances, they say, afford many opportunities for damaging aerial attacks.

Diplomatic sources in London broke their silence to observe that:

Germany probably was disappointed that Italy failed to wait until the Spanish and Germans were ready to strike at Gibraltar.

Failure of a blow at Gibraltar to materialize probably was due to French reluctance to agree immediately with German peace plans.

The Bulgarian government is torn between an army strongly pro-Axis in sentiments and a people strongly pro-Russian and desirous of peace.

Personal Ambition Is Denounced

hopes for re freedom, real prosperity, real peace."

"There are certain forces within our own national community, composed of men who call themselves American but who would destroy America," Mr. Roosevelt said. "They are the forces of dictatorship in our own land—on one hand the Communists, and on the other the girdlers.

"It is their constant purpose in this, as in other lands, to weaken Democracy, to destroy the free man's faith in his own cause.

"In this election all the representatives of these forces, without exception, are voting against the New Deal.

Proud Of Opposition

" am proud of this opposition. It is proof positive that what we have built and strengthened in the past seven years is Democracy."

Mr. Roosevelt did not define the term "girdlers" nor explain its origin.

In his address, coming at the end of a day of campaigning through eastern New York, a corner of Pennsylvania and into Ohio, the President asserted that the American people, during the past seven years, had "marched forward out of a wilderness of depression and despair."

"They have marched forward right up to the very threshold of the future—a future which holds the fulfillment of our hopes for real freedom, real prosperity, real peace.

"I want that march to continue for four years more. And for that purpose, I ask your vote of confidence."

Discusses Policies

In a detailed discussion of the administration's foreign policy, the chief executive said its first purpose was to keep the country out of war.

At the same time, Mr. Roosevelt declared, "we seek to keep foreign conceptions of government out of the United States."

The second purpose of this policy, he said, was "to keep war as far away from the shores of the entire western hemisphere."

"Also our policy is to give all possible material aid to the nations which still resist aggression, across the Atlantic and Pacific oceans," the chief executive said.

"We make it clear that we intend to commit none of the fatal errors of appeasement. . .

"Ours is the foreign policy of an administration which has an undying faith in the strength of our Democracy today, full confidence in the vitality of our Democracy in the future, and a consistent record in the cause of peace."

Strength Is Known

The nation's strength was measured, he continued, not only in terms of the might of its armaments but also in "the social and economic justice of the system in which we live."

"For you can build ships and tanks and guns galore; but they will not be enough," the President declared. "You must place behind them an invincible faith in the institutions which they have been built to defend.

"The dictators have devised . . . a modern, streamlined version of an ancient system.

"But Americans will have none of that."

Democracy "Moves"

Mr. Roosevelt said Democracy had moved forward in the last seven years but that now "we are asked to stop in our tracks."

"We are asked to turn about, and march back into the wilderness from which we came. Of course we will not turn backward."

The President said it was the destiny of the present American generation to "point the road to the future for all the world to see."

"It is our prayer that all lovers of freedom may join us—the anguished common people of this earth for whom we seek to light the path.

"I see an America where factory workers are not discarded after they reach their prime, where there is no endless chain of poverty from generation to generation, where impoverished farmers and farm hands do not become homeless wanderers, where monopoly does not make youth a begger for a job."

KENEDY ROAD OPENING SET

Houston, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and other Texas points, highway leaders point out. 20 miles one may or 40 miles round trip being the saving between San Antonio and such Valley points as Raymondville, Harlingen, San Benito and Brownsville, and 45 miles one way or 90 miles round trip being saving effected for travelers going from the Valley to Houston and Corpus Christi.

Is Shortest Route

The present highway out of the lower Valley sector to Corpus Christi and points farther upstate, the shortest present route, has to go around Kenedy county.

Because Kenedy county is ranch country, owned by a few large land owners, it was many years before Valley leaders succeeded in getting a road designated through the county.

With opening of the highway, last link in the Hu-The-Coast Highway, expected to be an important national defense unit, will be completed. Widening project on the Kingsville-Rivera road just north of Kenedy County Road, will be completed and opened also on December 17.

G.O.P. Elephants Parade In Valley

Brownsville Republicans staged a neat little pre-election parade Saturday afternoon, strapping Willkie banners on a couple of G. O. P. elephants and adding a pair of "No Third Term" Democratic donkeys to the little procession. (Staff Photo.)

Responsible for the Republican parade idea at Brownsville were Carlos Watson (right) and his fellow conspirator, Cuban Monsees, shown above watching the proceedings just after having some little difficulty with a Democrat parking lot owner, who didn't want any "Republican Animals" on his premises. Patras and Larissa, and the islands of Corfu and Crete.

The Fascist high command also said its troops had penetrated the "Metaxas Line" in a pincer movement with one column aimed at Salonika in northeastern Greece and another driving south toward Ioannina, which has improved road links with Athens.

Bucharest reports said Soviet Russia has concentrated 31 divisions and three mechanized brigades on the Rumanian border. A British military expert recently estimated Germany had assembled about 70 divisions or about 1,250,000 men in southeastern Europe, ostensibly to guard Rumanian oil fields and "instruct" Rumanian troops.

Berlin Raids Heavy

The British air ministry said RAF attacks on Berlin during Friday night smashed three main railway centers and left a mile-long blaze about the vital Klingenburg power station. One wave attacked the Nazi capital for nearly two hours and a second fired away with bombs for 40 minutes.

Nazi officials said "several" civilians were killed, but asserted the only damage was to dwellings and "a small saw mill."

Aside from the attacks on Berlin, the Ruhr industrial valley in western Germany was bombed, oil plants and refineries reported struck, the great Krupp munitions works at Essen revisited and 15 German airdromes bombed.

At home the British said Axis aerial blows at London and other English cities were faltering. Summing up 12 weeks the air ministry reported the Germans had lost 2,433 bombers and fighters against a British loss of 891 planes since August 8.

Raiders Driven Off

At least six big formations numbering some Italian planes tried to break British southeastern coastal defenses Saturday but were driven off, the British said.

German press reports said new fires and severe damage especially in the Woolwich district southeast of London resulted from Nazi daylight raids.

One section of London was machine-gunned early last night but the all-clear signal sounded before midnight much earlier than usual.

Use For Old Tunnel Is Finally Smelled

WALHALLA, S. C. —(AP)— After 70-odd years a use has been found for the tunnel in Stumphouse mountain. The tunnel, dug in an ambitious railroad construction program, never was completed. Now the Clemson College dairy department has leased it for the manufacture of roquefort cheese.

1 Pilot Is Killed As 2 Planes Crash

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—(AP)—Two light planes collided 600 feet in the air and crashed here Saturday killing Raymond G. Reess, 43, St. Louis, and injuring two other fliers.

Reess was piloting his own ship. The injured men, in the other plane, are Robert Worrick, 22, a flying instructor of East St. Louis and Jack Stuckenberg, 26, a student of Jennings, Mo.

PARTIES COUNT ELECTORAL EGGS BEFORE NOV. 5TH

NEW YORK — (AP) — National chairmen of the two major political parties Saturday night predicted substantial victories for their prospective presidential candidates in the general election next Tuesday.

Here are their formal claims:

For Franklin D. Roosevelt, at least 427 electoral votes—predicted by Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic national committee. For Wendell L. Willkie, at least 324 electoral votes—predicted by Joseph W. Martin, Jr., chairman of the Republican national committee.

It requires 266 electoral votes to elect.

identified with civic and church activities in Brownsville, and was deeply concerned with the welfare of underprivileged children here.

In one of her last conversations with her son, Henry O. Condit of Brownsville, she asked that her friends be requested to omit floral tributes at the funeral services, and, instead, make some contribution to the underprivileged children's fund at the Church of the Advent, of which she was a member.

O. E. S. Matron

Mrs. Hamilton was a past worthy matron of Chapter No. 142, Order of the Eastern Star, and at various times had held office in the following organizations: Unit No. 43, American Legion auxiliary; the Daughters of the American Revolution; the Business and Professional Women's club, and the Self Culture club of Brownsville.

Mrs. Hamilton was a native of Jacksonville, Ill. She was born there April 9, 1869, and received her education at the Jacksonville high school.

She and the late George T. Hamilton, her second husband, were married at Jacksonville in 1900. The couple moved to the Valley in 1909. Mr. Hamilton died here several years ago.

Funeral Monday

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon, at a time to be announced, at the Church of the Advent. Rev. Penrose W. Hirst will officiate. The body will be taken by the Darling Funeral Home to San Antonio for cremation, and the ashes will be sent to Jacksonville for burial in the family plot.

Surviving are her son, Mr. Condit of Brownsville, and a brother, George M. Demarest of Hominy, Okla.

Texas Farmer Lads Grow Lots Of Grub

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)—Texas boys, learning to farm while attending public school, raised enough produce and livestock last year to stuff the larders of a small nation.

Surveying the results of vocational agriculture trainnig, the state department lists 33,235 hogs; 500,000 chickens; 3,521 cows; 13,259 sheep; 13,040 beef cattle; 2,406 acres of tomatoes; 16,198 acres of grain sorghums; 21,809 acres of corn.

GOP TO SEEK RANGER HELP

Demos For Willkie Want Protection

HOUSTON—(AP)—Steve Pinckney, campaign manager of the No Third Term Democrats of Houston, said Saturday night that he would appeal to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to give anti-New Deal speakers the protection of Texas Rangers.

The appeal will be based, he said, on incidents at a scheduled Willkie For President rally Saturday afternoon in Carthage.

A. M. Davis, a Houston dairyman supporting Willkie, was scheduled to have made an address, but "in the early part of his talk a group of men broke up the meeting," Pinckney said.

WILLKIE SAYS 'LIFE' TOTTERS

by the opposition to connect me with that kind of intolerance.

Not His Smear

"That kind of a campaign is not a smear on Wendell Willkie. It is a smear on our American principles.

"I will defend and always will have defended the rights and civil liberties of all people, regardless of race, creed or color. They are Americans."

Asking what candidate could bring all the people together, Willkie pledged "a unity that you have not known for eight years. . . .

"Out of that unity will come a confidence of man in man, and in each other's motives and hopes, out of that confidence will grow a new America. . . . Out of confidence will grow new industries, new business, new opportunities, new jobs."

Willkie said this campaign was a crusade of the people of America. "You started it," he continued. "You carried it forward. And you will finish it next Tuesday, won't you?"

"Last of Democracy"

"Within the hollow of your hands is shielded the last unquenched flame of democracy," he continued. "All over the world that light has been going out. Here we must keep it burning—shield it, shield it— so that the imprisoned peoples of other lands may know that light still burns—so that your sons and mine and the men that come after them may have the light to guide them—so that a strong America may once more see that path before it and go forward."

Willkie said that the campaign "is the battle of America," and added: "The drums of victory are rolling. The thunderous drums of an aroused electorate are beating in the nation tonight. Victory, victory, is on the march."

The nominee said that the campaign would mean "the victory of the people" and then quoted President Roosevelt as saying in Madison Square Garden four years ago:

"I should like to have it said of my first administration that in it the forces of selfishness and of lust for power met their match. I should like to have it said of my second administration that in it these forces met their master."

Different Plea

Willkie declared that he came with "a different plea" and continued: "I do not ask to be any man's master.

"People of America, I ask you to make me your servant."

Texas And Oklahoma Settle Land Dispute

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas and Oklahoma are writing finis to 21-year-old border dispute—in a neighborly way.

The fight of many years ended when Texas got the title to 30,000 acres of the two states' Panhandle border by virtue of a U. S. Supreme Court decision.

Texas then passed a law by which Oklahomans who thought they lived in the Sooner state can patent their titles to land which proved to be in Texas for $1 an acre. Much of it is worth $25 to $50 an acre, the Texas land office says.

They have a year from June 27, 1940, in which to perfect their claims.

2 Candidates Enter Home Stretch Of Hottest Race

ized in the proposal that, contrary to tradition, the President be elected for a third term. Dictatorship may be the result, says Willkie.

Roosevelt supporters answer that the powers of the federal government have necessarily been increased to meet successive crises—the depression, the war abroad and the urgent necessity for rearmament. They add that Congress still functions, the election is free, the press is free, speech is free, and they ask:

"What sign is there of an impending dictatorship?" Roosevelt's knowledge of foreign affairs makes a third term necessary, at a time of crisis such as this, they assert.

These two are the predominantly great issues. There are others, too:

The New Deal has discouraged and antagonized business, Willkie argues. Business is better, even, than it was in 1929, the President replies. New Deal spending is leading to federal bankruptcy, says Willkie, although acknowledging that defense expenditures will preclude a balanced budget for some years to come. Spending has been necessary, answer the New Dealers, to stimulate business.

"Defense Bogs Down"

The defense program is bogging down because of inefficiency in government, say the Willkie-ites and the President cannot command the confidence of businessmen necessary to speeding it up. False, is the Democratic reply.

The defense program is booming along, the administration already has the cooperation of industry, and, beyond that, can command the confidence and help of the laboring masses to a degree to which Willkie can never aspire.

Hitler and Mussolini want to see Willkie elected, say the President's supporters (and he, himself, once called attention to a newspaper dispatch from Rome to that effect.) The Willkie people answer that Willkie is as much for helping Britain and as opposed to Nazi philosophy as the President is.

And, other issues have arisen—the trivial issues, the little incidents and circumstances which have no bearing upon statecraft or the merit of the candidates, but which may make or change votes.

Elliott Causes Trouble

The President's son, Elliott obtained a captain's commission in the army air corps. It was at a time when all young men of his age were facing compulsory service in a private's barracks. By the thousands, lapel buttons labelled "I Wanna Be A Captain Too" appeared."

Both candidates, but Willkie in particular, were the targets of thrown eggs, vegetables or fruit in some regions.

And, almost at the last minute, Stephen T. Early, the President's secretary, trying to board the President's train in New York had a scuffle with unrecognizing police detail. A Negro policeman was hurt. Early, denying he had kicked the policeman, apologized to him, anyway.

All these things, the issues, the incidents, great and little, have been an essential part of a campaign highly unusual in its outward manifestations and inward turmoil.

Shifts In Support

For one thing, there have been some notable shifts in support. Such former administration lieutenants as John Hanes, one time assistant secretary of the treasury, and Lewis Douglas, first New Deal budget director, are ardently advocating Willkie's election. John L. Lewis, whose CIO organizations pumped $500,000 into the 1936 Roosevelt campaign, plumped for Willkie. Gifford Pinchot, former Republican governor of Pennsylvania, and John G. Winant, former Republican governor of New Hampshire, came out for re-election of the President.

Battling down the stretch, both candidates spoke Saturday night—the President in Cleveland and Willkie in New York. Each also has radio time reserved for an election-eve message.

GOP REPORTS FUND TOTALS

$2,993,991 Collected For Campaign

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Republican national committee reported to Congress Saturday that there had been collected $2,993,991 and spent $2,313,400 since January 1. Unpaid commitments on October 31 were listed as $345,413.

Receipts of $102,353 and expenditures of $211,578 from October 21 to October 31 also were reported. The Democrats for Willkie headquarters in New York reported receipts of $157,616 and expenditures of $121,444 during the same period.

Contributions of $14,605 and expenditures of $9,311 between October 7 and October 31 were reported by the colored workers committee for Willkie.

Contributors of $1,000 to the Democrats for Willkie organization included Alfred E. Smith, Democratic presidential nominee in 1927.

Hall Urges Care

Wrong Construction Aid To Fires

AUSTIN —(AP)— State Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall has warned against deficiencies in city building codes.

Hall explained a general study of building fires by the National Board of Fire Underwriters shows several outstanding factors which not only in themselves increase the probability of losses because of inherent conditions but also prevent effective fire fighting.

These features include excessive areas, open stairways, thin walls, improper ventilation systems, interior courts, unprotected windows, inaccessible basements and subbasements, lack of fire doors, steelwork without insulation, weak floors and structural members which will NOT withstand sustained fire without failure and the presence of inaccessible places in which fire can extend vertically and horizontally without discovery.

Hall urged that firemen in every city make a thorough study of building codes with a view to removing deficiencies. Knowledge of safe construction, he added, is essential for fireman training.

HIDALGO MAPS CHARITY WORK

Red Cross Workers Will Be Chosen

EDINBURG—Red Cross roll call workers in every Hidalgo county city will be named this week, A. M. Tarbutton, general chairman, said Saturday.

Tarbutton and Rev. W. W. Stewart of Pharr, county roll call chairman, will direct the work.

Local chairmen have been named by the two leaders already. These persons will select their own assistants. Practically all the local chairmen plan to start their enlistment work November 11 and conclude it that week.

Goal for this county has been set at 5,000 members, the highest in history, according to Tarbutton. More funds are needed for Red Cross work now than perhaps ever before in history, unless it might be for a few weeks during some major disaster, he explained.

Rev. Stewart urged all persons who joined the Red Cross to wear their buttons at least for a week. "A Red Cross button is a badge of honor. It marks the wearer as a sympathizer with suffering humanity and will influence others to join this great organization," the minister declared.

Artillery Duel

Border Fight Fierce As Italy Attacks

BITOLJ, Yugoslavia —(AP)— The heaviest artillery fire of the six-day Italian-Greek battle on the Albanian frontier was heard from across the border Saturday, indicating that both sides were throwing new forces into the fierce mountain fighting southeast of the strategic Greek town of Phlorina.

Italian Alpine troops and motorized units of infantry, aided by the Fascist air force, were reported hammering strong Greek positions manned by the best of Greece's kilted, mountain-bred troops.

HIDALGO TAX DRIVE YIELDS HALF MILLION

Two-Year Total May Reach $1,000,000

EDINBURG — Collection of delinquent taxes in Hidalgo county by the close of 1940 should be close to the $500,000 mark, bringing to about $1,000 000 the amount collected in 1939 and 1940, Harry Hall, special county attorney in charge of such collections, said Saturday.

The cost of the work, he added, is averaging about three percent of the total collected.

Hall said tax payments on installment contracts are increasing steadily. During the two years, about $250,0 worth of tax accounts have been placed on the active list through such contracts, and of that total about $150,000 has been paid in cash to date.

Oil Property Problem

Delinquent taxes on oil lands, principally in western Hidalgo county, still remain one of his principal proulems, the attorney declared. During the past week he closed a contract for payment of $6,000 in past due taxes owed by a drilling firm which has operated on a number of tracts in the county.

At the time Hall started the delinquent tax collection drive in 193?, there were about 85,000 tracts of land in the county on which taxes were delinquent. He explained that the work of preparing either installment contracts, payment contracts or tax suits was tedious and required a great amount of time. Each case is checked back on county tax records to determine the complete list of payments, and in numerous cases abstracts are checked for correct titles to property.

The tax office's routine has come to the point where 15 to 20 suits are prepared daily, Hall said.

Of all tax suits filed, only a small percentage result in pre-trial settlements, since the suits are usually lodged only after every other effort to collect the delinquencies has failed.

25,000 To 30,000 Suits

By the time all of the county's overdue taxes are "cleaned up," the attorney said, it is probable that suits will have been filed on 25,000 to 30,000 of them. The difference between these figures and the total o 85,000 tracts on which original work was started will represent the number which have been settled either through cash payments or installment payments.

Hall expressed the opinion that the county-wide tax drive is resulting in a more "tax conscious" situation among property owners. He said benefits of the work have been reflected in improved current tax collections by the county, cities and other subdivisions.

Dr., Mrs. Olmsted Return To Stay

BROWNSVILLE — Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Olmsted have returned here to make their home, and Dr. Olmsted has opened optical offices in Room 415 of the First National Bank building.

Dr. Olmsted is recovering from a second operation as the result of a traffic smash-up near Fort Worth a year ago in which he and his son, Lieutenant Charles Olmsted of the air corps, were injured.

Dr. and Mrs. Olmsted returned here in February at which time it was thought Dr. Olmsted was on the road to recovery, but another hip operation was found necessary and was performed at the army and navy hospital at Hot Springs, Ark.

Much Money Is Said Spent On Campaigns

WASHINGTON— (AP) —Declaring that there had been evidence that "exorbitant sums of money" had been expended in the national political campaigns, Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) proposed that a special joint congressional committee be created to study the entire matter and recommend "remedial legislation."

Gillette is chairman of the special Senate campaign expenditures committee appointed to police the elections of president, vice president and senators. He explained that authority of this group was limited.

LaGuardia Says GOP Fosters Bitterness

NEW YORK — (AP) — Mayor Laguardia asserted that the Republican party had waged a campaign of "greed, hate and bitterness" against President Roosevelt and his social legislation.

The campaign has developed a new form of thought known as "utility mentality," the mayor said in a weekly broadcast over WEVD sponsored by a local of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union (AFL).

Brownsville's Best Known Tin Lizzie Is To Be Replaced As Fire Chief Buys New Wagon With All '41 Trimmings

BROWNSVILLE — The best known Tin Lizzie in Brownsville will fade out of the local picture next week when Fire Chief W. C. Walker gets a new car. Lizzie is a 1933 V-8 with 260,966 miles on the log book. With the exception of one trip to San Antonio, where she was the pride of a firemen's convention, Lizzie has run those miles over the streets of Brownsville.

Her successor will be a Ford two-door sedan, painted a brilliant red, with siren, fire extinguishers, inhalator, and all the other stuff fire chiefs are asked to have handy.

In addition to a new car Fire Chief Walker will get 600 feet of new hose, enough to provide a change for two trucks. The hose will replace worn sections bought in 1932.

Head Hunting Clan Beheads 5 Natives

MANILA, P. I.—(AP)—A band of head hunters swept down out of the mountains of Tayabas province and beheaded five natives of the isolated village of Balongan in the southern Philippines, the constabulary reported.

Officials said the raid brought to 33 the number of Christian Filipinos who have been decapitated since 1937 by Ilongot tribesmen.

CHURCH HEADS ARE INDUCTED

Methodist Stewards Installed Sunday

SAN BENITO — Newly elected stewards of the First Methodist Church will be installed in a special service conducted Sunday morning by Rev. L. J. Rode. The service will close with the Lord's Supper.

Rev. Rode's sermon topic for the morning will be "And He Went A Little Farther." The choir will present a special musical program under the direction of W. E. Hatchett.

Open house will be held at the church from 2 to 5 p. m. when membership pledges will be received for the financial support of the church. Pledges will be taken after the evening service also.

Sunday evening the pastor will speak on "Clouds That Overshadow Us," and music will include a duet by Mrs. W. F. Pitts and S. V. Neely.

Stewards to be installed Sunday morning are: J. E. Thompson, O. A. Kendrick, Russell Edwards, O. E. Gause, Howard Caswell, Fred Graver, R. L. Valentine, J. Roy Taft, K. L. Lake, Jesse Welch, E. L. DEMPSEY IS NOW ARBITRATOR FOR UNION DISPUTES

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jack Dempsey has stepped into a new role —that of labor abritrator.

Appointed by Supreme Court Justice J. Sidney Bernstein, the former heavyweight boxing champion Friday decided a dispute between the American Federation of Office Employes and the Neo-Gravure Printing Company.

The award granted the union a 10 per cent wage increase and a 40-hour week, but vetoed a demand for absolute seniority in dismissals.

Leaders of the AFL organization hailed the ruling as proof that Dempsey was "not only a great fighter but a great arbitrator."

Dempsey summed up his philosphy as follows: "Make each side fight clean and give each side an even break."

Wants To Know

Representative Asks Who W. Lee's For

AUSTIN —(AP)— Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's public silence in connection with the Democratic presidential campaign was criticized by Rep. Weldon Burney of Evant.

In a formal statement Burney asked:

"Is the governor with Roosevelt and his social security policies or is he with the Republicans and the bolting Democrats of this state?"

The governor made no immediate comment. A secretary said the executive had left "strict orders" not to be disturbed while in morning conference.

McDonald Criticized For Election Stand

WACO— (AP) —Former Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt and other speakers criticized J. E. McDonald and advocated the write-in campaign in behalf of W. N. Corry of Tarrant county for state agriculture commisisoner.

3 ARRESTED IN 2 RAIDS

20 Gallons Mescal Are Confiscated

HARLINGEN — Three persons were lodged in Cameron county jail in Brownsville Saturday afternoon following raids on two Harlingen residences by federal, state and county officers. Twenty gallons of mescal were confiscated in the two raids.

Two men and one woman were arrested by the raiding officers, the men being in one house and the woman in another. Fourteen gallons of mescal was confiscated when the men were arrested and six gallons taken from the home where the woman was arrested.

The raid was made shortly before noon Saturday in west Harlingen. All three arrested were Latin-Americans.

U. S. Commissioner Carlos Watson at Brownsville said hearing for the trio had not yet been held and no charges had been filed.

WOULD RETAIN PRESENT UNIT OF AMERICAS

Hull Advisor Claims Danger Of Loss

NEW YORK—(AP)—Laurence Duggan, adviser to Secretary Hull on Latin American political relations, said Saturday that the solidarity of American nations "could be lost overnight" if the United States "again undertook to dictate to the other American nations how they should run their own affairs."

In a speech prepared for delivery to the Foreign Policy Association, the State Department spokesman asserted that a return to the policy "of the big stick, dollar diplomacy and intervention" would have such a result, because "intervention and hemisphere solidarity are incompatible."

"If the people of this country prize the friendship of the other American peoples," he said, "then their government must base its relations on recognition of the equality and inviolability of the sovereignty of each of the 21 republics."

Better Rubber Trees

Citing evidences of the degree of solidarity already attained, Duggan said that much has been done to promote development of economic resources in Latin America. One accomplishment, he related, has been the perfection of a strain of rubber tree with an average yield three times as high as that of trees in the Far East, where most rubber used in this country now is produced.

"We may anticipate a considerable reduction in the cost of rubber to the United States consumers as this development proceeds," he said, adding that the present price of 20 cents a pound might be cut in half.

100-Plane Raid

Italy Attacks Malta Air, Naval Base

ROME — (AP) — The Rome radio broadcast a report Saturday night that 100 Italian fighter and bomber planes had attacked the British Mediterranean island of Malta during the afternoon, striking at an aviation camp and naval base in "the most important Italian air action since the outbreak of the war."

"Visible destruction" on the airdrome was claimed and it was stated that at least one British fighter plane, and perhaps two, had been shot down.

Among these are soldiers who fought with Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans in 1812; one who carried the Texas flag at San Jacinto in 1836; a soldier who fought with Taylor in the Mexican War in 1845; a member of the Rough Riders regiment in the Spanish-American war, and a sailor in Dewey's fleet at Manila Bay, together with Confederate and world war veterans.

Cotton Expert Gives Caprock Prediction

LUBBOCK—(AP)—Harry E. Blocker, cotton expert who has been making crop surveys since 1922, estimates the 1940 cotton crop for the 17 counties atop the caprock will be 414,000 bales. The estimate is based upon the August-end condition of the crop. The area ginned 355,93? bales last season.

Blocker gave Lubbock county first place with 60,000 bales; Hockley second, 55,000; Lamb, third, 52,00; Dawson fourth, 46,500 and Lynn fifth 42,600 bales. The estimate for Hockley county represents an increase of 20,000 bales over 1939.

Sahara Sands Blow Across Sea To Alps

INTERLAKEN, Switzerland—(AP)—Scientists who, throughout the year, occupy a little observatory 12,000 feet above sea level on the Jungfrau in the Swiss Alps, woke up one morning to find big red patches on the snow.

The crevases of the nearby Aletsch glacier, instead of being deep green or blue in color, also showed a reddish-brown tint.

Investigation revealed that these red patches had been caused by tiny sand particles, blown from the Sahara desert 1,500 miles, across the Mediterranean and Italy into Switzerland.

Professions Supply Most Cure Patients

DWIGHT, Ill.—(AP)—The Keeley Institute for the treatment of alcoholics has reported that professional men constitute the largest group among patients, with farmers and cattlemen second and bartenders far down the list.

Since 1933, the institute said, 169 physicians have sought treatment, compared to 48 bartenders. Most common occupation among patients, it reported, was that of salesman.

Harlingen Beautification Pushed

Transformation of the rather drab appearance of Travis Park to one of Harlingen's beauty spots was started this week when planting of most of the area to carpet grass was begun under the supervision of the newly organized Flower Lovers Club. Landscaping plans include extensive planting of trees, creation of a lily pond and several flower beds. Donations from non-club members are largely responsible for the excellent start that has been made with the project. Labor and water is furnished by the city. (Photo by Jack Watson.)

CLINIC FUND SAID SUCCESS

McAllen's Building Total $1353.25

McALLEN — Continued success has marked the McAllen Child Clinic building fund campaign, members of the Junior Service League reported Saturday.

A final check on donations will be made Monday afternoon at a tea at 5 p.m. at the Casa de Palmas Hotel for the campaign workers. A tag day Tuesday is expected to wind up the drive.

Through Saturday afternoon $1,353.25 had been deposited in the clinic fund at the City State Bank and Trust Company.

Additional secured pledges made it seem sure, league members said, that the building project would go through.

The league is attempting to raise $2,500 to build a clinic here for the care of underprivileged children. The building will be constructed under a National Youth Administration project.

Opening the drive for funds Wednesday $600 was secured in the first few minutes. The response so far has been excellent, Dr. E. A. Morris, clinic board chairman said. Its continuation will assure the city obtaining the building.

$110 Is Raised

Latin American Fete Aids Clinic

McALLEN—Members of the Latin American Business Men's club turned over $110 to the McAllen Child Clinic fund Saturday as their contribution toward the clinic to be constructed here.

The sum was the proceeds from the benefit picture show the group staged Friday night at the Aztec Theatre. President J. B. Martinez was gratified at the size of the crowd attending.

Among prominent McAllen officials present were Mayor Horace Erchison, City Commissioners Dr. F. E. Osborn, A. F. Vannoy and Fidencio Guerra; Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merts, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Vickers, Mr. and Mrs. O. Terry and Miss Zara Thigpen.

Valley Beautiful

Roses Adapted to Valley

By GEORGE H. PLETCHER, Jr.

MOST OF US wonder about our favorite Tea Roses and lovely climbing roses that haunt our northern memories. The easiest reply is that our wonderful winter sunshine prevents the needed rest period required by these northern varieties.

Roses thriving in the Valley, practically all fall into the everblooming Hybrid Tea classification. Roses of this group doing best here are: pink and red Radiance, Briarcliff, Etoil De Holland, Kaiserine E. G. Hill, Talisman, Dainty Bess and Golden Ophelia. Roses thriving but not too prolific are: J. L. Mock, Frances Scott Key, Luxenburg, Roslyn, Sensation, Hoover, Caledonia and Anna Quinard.

There are hundreds of kinds of roses and by trial only can we isolate good varieties. This list is by no means complete.

There are many exceptions as soil, drainage, and water play a very prominent role in rose culture. For example: the Talisman fare very well on certain sandy soils whereas it is practically worthless on heavy clay.

Next week: Winter Blooming Annuals.

3 RESEARCH JOBS FILLED

Clayton Foundation Studies At Texas

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Clayton Foundation of Houston Saturday made possible three major research appointments at the University of Texas.

Dr. Norman B. McCullough, for the last five years research bacteriologist and biochemist with the Parke Davis Research Institute in Detroit, was appointed by university regents as senior research biologist for the study of brucellosis, undulant fever.

Two other posts, research chemist and research biologist, were filled by the appointment of Dr. Maxwell Pollack and Dr. Alred Taylor in the university's $45,000 biochemical institute, recently endowed by the Houston foundation.

The new institute, to be housed in laboratories about December 1, will study the effect of vitamins on all types of living tissue.

$17,000 OIL LAND LEASE IS FILED

Phillips Firm Gets Rights In Hidalgo

EDINBURG—A $17,000 oil lease transfer was filed for record Saturday in Hidalgo county, one of the largest in recent weeks for the county.

Under terms of the lease, the Phillips Petroleum Company, which has been operating in the Sullivan City field of western Hidalgo for the past three years, obtains drilling rights on 300 acres of land in Porciones 43 and 44 of western Hidalgo. The land is near the Nichols pool, a mile east of the big Samfordyce oil field, which the Royal Oil and Gas Company recently opened when their No. A-1 Yturria Town and Improvement Company, a 75-barrel producer in sand at 3,500 feet.

The Yturria firm released the land to Phillips.

The lease runs for a term of five years, revenue stamps attached to the document indicating the total amount involved.

In addition to the least, the Yturria firm retains 1-8 overriding royalty and will receive $50 rental payments on any producing gas wells on the acreage.

SATURDAY SET AS POPPY DAY

Harlingen Auxiliary To Sell Flowers

HARLINGEN — Poppy Day will be observed in Harlingen Saturday, November 9, Mrs. Alma McCown, president of Unit 205 of the American Legion auxiliary, said Saturday. On that day all Americans will be asked to wear memorial poppies in tribute to the World War dead and to aid the living victims of the war.

The little red memorial flowers will be distributed here by women and girls under direction of Mrs. W. P. Broussard, chairman of the Poppy Day committee. All contributions received for the poppies will go to Legion and auxiliary welfare work for the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead.

"We feel that Poppy Day will have increased meaning to America this year," said Mrs. McCown, "because renewed warfare in Europe has renewed the memory of those boys of ours who gave their lives 'over there' 22 years ago. It is for them that we put on the poppy each year, to show that we still remember and honor their sacrifices. It is the flower which grew where they fell and which now blooms on the coats of Americans who appreciate their service.

"Events of the past year have shown us clearly that to be secure the United States must have men ready and able to defend the country, willing to give their lives in its defense, if necessary. We can be thankful today that we had such men 22 years ago. From them we can draw inspiration for the patriotic service necessary to maintain our freedom and democracy against today's dangers. Wearing their flower over our hearts means that within our hearts their love of America still lives."

School-Job Gap

Rainey Says Schools Are Challenged

AUSTIN—(AP)—The greatest challenge to American schools in the national defense program is providing means to bridge the gap between school and job, President Homer P. Rainey told 400 personnel officials here Saturday night.

Rainey, speaking at a banquet concluding the second annual Texas personnel conference on the university campus, informed business and industrial executives that although personnel direction stands between the "inbalance of men and jobs today," it would be necessary to "impress our schools with the need of providing the training that youth needs in industry."

2 Commissions

Manufacturers Urge State Body Split

DALLAS, Tex.—(AP)—A separate state oil and gas commission was recommended by the Texas State Manufacturers' Association committee on traffic and new industries with the assertion that the state railroad commission is unable to devote sufficient time to freight rate matters.

The committee said that Texas industrial development was suffering because of inequitable commodity rates, giving northern manufacturers the advantage over the south.

The association, closing a two-day convention today, chose Houston for the 1941 meeting place and re-elected all officers, including W. C. Trout of Lufkin as president, and Porter A. Whaley of San Antonio, executive vice-president and general manager.

Investigating Crash In Which Pilot Dies

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Officials of Randolph Field sought the cause of a plane crash that brought death to Flying Cadet William D. Croft, Jr., of Millington, Tenn.

Croft was killed when the basic training plane he was flying solo fell about two miles east of the field while the cadet was participating in night flying practice.

There were no witnesses of the crash.

FIESTA WON'T DROP PARADE

Mission Citrus Fete Retains Features

MISSION—Every entertainment feature popular in past years at the Texas Citrus Fiesta celebrations will be repeated at the 1941 fete, it was announced Saturday by Vance H. Glasgow, general chairman, in response to a rumor that had been circulated that some features of the fiesta, such as the Parade of Oranges and the coronation, would be eliminated. Prominence will be given the citrus style show, the citrus exhibits and colorful citrus decorations on the streets.

Members of the finance committee were chosen Saturday, it was announced by L. A. Buescher, chairman. They include T. M. Melden, W. R. Parrish, D. W. Cott, J. F. Ewers, R. R. Sheeler, Logan Duncan, E. E. Marburger, T. B. Sammons, P. H. Longoria, Ray Landry, E. M. Goodwin, L. H. Ramey, Miguel Olivarez, S. R. Greer, L. R. Lehman and Charles Roper.

Committees for other main features will be appointed next week, the general chairman planned.

First Mexico Rail Engine Is Finished

LAREDO—(AP)—The first railroad locomotive built in Mexico recently was completed at the shops of the National Railways at Monterrey under the direction of J. O. Trujillo, general shop superintendent. Tests show it capable of hauling 1,485 tons, and railroad officials said it cost about 125,000 pesos, or substantially less than the cost of private manufacture. Work has begun on three more locomotives.

FREIGHT SHIP ARIZPA IS DUE

Foreign - Bound Ship Arrives Monday

BROWNSVILLE—Word has been received here that the S.S. Arizpa, foreign-bound freighter, is on her way from Mobile, Ala., to Port of Brownsville and will arrive here at daybreak Monday to load undisclosed cargo for an unannounced destination.

Notification was received here by Philen Shipping Company, local agents for the Waterman Steamship Corporation, owners of the Arizpa.

Cargo has been assembled at Port of Brownsville, and loading of the ship should be completed about Wednesday, according to Port Director F. W. Hofmokel.

The S.S. Pan Royal, another foreign-bound Waterman freighter, is due here on November 23. The S.S. Azalea City, also owned by the company, is scheduled to load here November 25.

LEGION FETES US CHAPLAIN

W. G. Jilks Banquet Set For Friday

HARLINGEN—Brigadier William G. Jilks of Dallas, national chaplain of the American Legion, will be entertained with a banquet here Friday night at conclusion of a day spent in the upper part of the Valley, according to officials of the Harlingen post.

The visiting official will arrive in McAllen at 6:35 a.m. Friday over the Southern Pacific and will be guest at a breakfast at the Casa de Palmas Hotel in McAllen at 7:15 a.m. All Valley legionnaires are invited to meet the official at the train and to be present at the breakfast.

Brigadier Jilks will meet with the combined service clubs of McAllen at 9 a.m. to perfect plans for a new Salvation Army home to be built there.

At 3:30 p.m., Brigadier Jilks will make a pre-Armistice talk in the Weslaco high school auditorium to which the public is invited.

The Harlingen banquet will be at the Madison Hotel at 7 p.m., sponsored by the Harlingen legion post and auxiliary. All Valley and visiting legionnaires and their families are invited.

Breakfast at McAllen will be 25 cents and the banquet in Harlingen 50 cents.

Did you buy YOUR car on "Millinery"?

YOU hear it said often nowadays that it's millinery that sells automobiles.
All right—let's put it up to one who knows. Did you buy your car on nick-nacks, trick devices, novelties?
We don't think so.
We believe that while considering style, and room, and comfort — you really picked your car on what it would do on the road!
Now, we take our hats off to no car for being smarter-looking than Buick. We'll match our product against any for room, for appointments, for fine finish, for comfort.
But beyond all that, we challenge the whole field to equal Buick on its downright all-round performance ability.
On its power—on its pull—on its pick-up—on its easy handling (including freedom from shifting)—yes, and on its thrift.
Nowhere will you find a car that does so much so well and so frugally.
You'll find novelties in the new Buicks of course, but they're not the chief attraction. Instead you'll see the two big basic engineering developments of the year — FIREBALL design and Compound Carburetion.
Buick prices begin at $935 for the Business Coupe delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

Democrats Confident

Feel Texas Will Go Roosevelt; Write-Ins Form Only Major Interest In State

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN—(AP)—Steady pelting by no-third-term and Willkie Democrats, fronting for the Republicans, Saturday characterized the fading hours of a curious presidential campaign in Texas.

Professed life-long Democrats, including a state commissioner of agriculture renominated for a sixth term in the summer's Democratic primaries, peppered this Democratic hotbed among the states with arguments against a third term and Rooseveltian policies, especially the New Deal farm program.

Confident Texas would stick to political tradition this year—it has departed only once since the Civil War—regular Democrats evidence little activity, and outstanding Texans in national Democratic circles, such as Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senator Tom Connally, battled for the party in other states.

The size of the Willkie vote was the number one interest of the election within Texas. A strong number two was the reaction of voters to Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald's bolt to the Willkie-McNary standard.

Write-In Candidates

Several "write-in" candidates were urging voters to repudiate the white-haired McDonald, who over national radio hook-ups reaching into the farm belt of the middle-west had castigated the AAA as ruinous to farmers.

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann said in an opinion there was no legal barrier to such write-in voting.

Campaigning for the write-in vote were W. N. Corry of Kellar for whom the Texas Agricultural Association mapped a series of rallies beginning today in Waco and spreadeagling the state in a final blast on election eve, and Tom Martin of Johnson City who makes daily radio addresses.

Myron Blalock, Democratic campaign director, declared the commissioner by his actions had released Democrats from their primary pledge to support nominees in the general election.

Wait For Garner

Leaders of all groups kept ears cupped for any statement from the mosquite-studded neighborhood of Uvalde, where Vice-President John N. Garner, at his home, maintained emphatic silence.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, renominated also in the Democratic primary, drew criticism from State Rep. Weldon Burney of Evant for taking no part in the national campaign. O'Daniel made no reply to the Burney statement.

Although surface activity was slight, compared with a Democratic primary campaign or the memorable campaign of 1928 when Hoover carried Texas, evidences of strong undercurrents of interest were seen by observers, who generally predicted a large vote. Estimates ranged from 850,000 to 1,000,000.

Heavy Vote Expected

Four years ago 842,538 ballots were cast in the general election and interest definitely was very small. In the first Democratic primary this year, 1,193,026 ballots hit the voting boxes, a record for any Texas election and interest was keen.

Wandering Tombstone Back In Cemetery

PHOENIX, Ariz.—(AP)—From an unused cemetery, in which are graves of many Phoenix pioneers, a head-stone bearing the inscription, "To all vulger men and all the Gods: Disturb us not" was stolen eight years ago.

The warning apparently affected the vandals, for two years ago the stone turned up at the city outskirts.

A police officer, finding it unwanted, took it to his home, where it remained until recently when officials of the Pioneers' Cemetery association heard of it.

Today the tombstone is guarding the rebuilt vault of J. H. W. Jensen, picturesque character of early Phoenix.

Well-Dressed Chickens Won't Wear Feathers

TULSA, Okla.—(AP)—Aubrey Baer, hospital X-ray technician, believes after a six-month study that featherless chickens are a "distinct possibility."

X-ray treatment of baby chicks will produce a nude chicken, Baer reports. His problem now is to perfect treatment timing and to cross-breed to produce a featherless strain.

Baer began his study by X-ray treatment of eggs before incubation. About half hatched. Treating baby chicks, he discovered the rays stopped feather growth. "My work still is very much in the experimental stage," Baer says.

Featherless chickens would be desired for indoor raising of broilers and fryers. The condition would tend to keep the chicken freer of disease, and eliminate necessity for picking feathers.

Short Short Story

TOLEDO, O. —(AP)— Patrolman Fred Addis, running toward a fire, passed his inspector.

"It's too dangerous up there. They just carried a fireman out," the inspector warned.

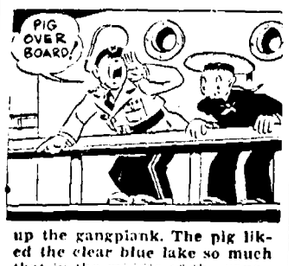

"You're telling me?" said Addis. "I carried the guy out!"

He saluted his superior, and ran on.

Piggy Goes Jump In The Lake

GERSAU, Switzerland—(AP)—An aquatic performance by a porcine passenger delayed a Lake Lucerne steamboat for 30 minutes.

The boat was ready to leave Gersau when a farmer, leading a 200-pound pig, walked up the gangplank. The pig liked the clear blue lake so much that in the middle of the gangplank it made what, for a pig, was a beautiful dive.

A lifeboat was lowered and after a half an hour of rowing and wrestling the squealing passenger was hoisted back on board.

Underwear Overhead

LUCY, Tenn. —(AP)—He was proud of the new car he had parked so carefully in the garage.

But he forgot the missus had strung the day's wash on a line in the garage. It still was on the line when he drove out.

He enjoyed a throb of pride as everybody stared and pointed at, he thought, the shiny, new vehicle. Suddenly, he glanced aloft.

From the car's radio aerial a pair of his wife's unmentionables waved gaily in the breeze.

MORE MEXICO REBELS TAKEN

Chihuahua Rebellion Is Said Ended

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico—(AP)—Surrender of 68 more rebels including the self-styled slayer of Francisco (Pancho) Villa, has ended all rebellious actvities in the State of Chihuahua, military officials announced Saturday.

Meliton Losoya, one-time Villista who claims to killing Villa after a quarrel, surrendered at Parral to Gen. Rodrigo Quevedo, former Chihuahua governor.

At the same time Ismael Pelma, leader of a rebel group, surrendered to General Quevedo with 65 men, headquarters stated.

Quevedo, now commander of the Coahila military zone, went to Parral to accept the surrender.

At La Junta another rebel leader, Miguel Delgado, whose men deserted him, gave himself up to Brig. Gen. Augustin de la Vega.

All the rebels were followers of Lit. Col. Cruz Villalva, a lieutenant of Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan.

Villalva, without men, was reported hiding in the Sierra Madre and may attempt to enter the United States, Chihuahua military headquarters said.

Write In Campaign For Commissioner Is Declared Legal

AUSTIN—(AP)—Attorney General Gerald C. Mann said in an opinion Saturday there was no legal bar against scratching the name of the Democratic nominee for the office of commissioner of agriculture and writing in the name of another person in Tuesday's general election.

The opinion was given at the request of C. A. Neal, Ellis county auditor who asked specifically if voters could scratch the name of J. E. McDonald, Democratic nominee for the office, and write in that of W. N. Bill Corry, who announced as a write-in candidate after McDonald endorsed the candidacy of Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican presidential nominee.

Guard Officers Talk Mobilization Plans

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Top-ranking officers of the Texas National Guard assembled here Saturday for a pre-mobilization conference called by Maj.-Gen. Claude V. Birkhead, commander of the 36th Division, Texas National Guard.

The conference was called for the purpose of correlating all plans in connection with mobilization, Gen. Birkhead said.

Examination of the stomach contents of a large number of alligator gars by members of the department of fish and game at A. & M. College showed that gizzard shad, suckers, mullet and small sun fish constitute its diet. No traces of game fish of any kind were found.

BAPTISTS MAY SET UP CAMPS

Social Centers For Army Boys Up

DALLAS—(AP)—Texas Baptists are making preliminary plans to establish religious and social centers adjacent to conscript training camps, Dr. R. C. Campbell, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, revealed.

Details will be discussed at the convention's 55th session in Houston, November 11-15, he said. Actual authorization and financing of the program, however, will come from the executive board of the convention, which meets December 3.

A $25,000 budget will be proposed to put the plan in operation, Dr. Campbell said. Tentative organization calls for camps to be directed by Baptist ministers.

Services Are Held At Fort Worth For A. D. Dickinson, Sr.

BROWNSVILLE— A. D. Dickinson, Sr., was buried at Fort Worth late last week, according to word received here Saturday by friends. He visited his late son, A. D. Jr., here frequently, had numerous friends in this section.

Mrs. A. D. Dickinson, Jr., went to Fort Worth to attend the last rites for her father-in-law.

Negro Not To Take Apology From Early

NEW YORK—(AP)—James Sloan, 42-year-old Negro policeman, said he had received a letter of apology from Stephen Early, President Roosevelt's press secretary, as an aftermath of a scuffle near the presidential train in which the patrolman was injured in the groin.

"I am not accepting the apology," was Sloan's comment.

Oklahoma Drilling 57 New Test Wells

TULSA—(AP)—Drilling of 57 new test wells was started in Oklahoma during the past week, compared with 33 in the preceding seven-day period.

Completions numbered 42, including 25 oil wells producing 6,042 barrels daily, four gas wells yielding 118,547,000 cubic feet a day, one input well and 12 dry holes.

Fort Brown Sergeant Retires After 30 Years; Man Who Launched His Career Is His Guest

Frank Bebon Plans To Take It Easy From Now On

BROWNSVILLE — First Sergeant Frank Bebon said goodbye to his mates Saturday night after 30 years in the United States cavalry.

And by a strange course of events, the man who gave Sgt. Bebon his first recruit drill when he joined the army in March, 1910, was present at the ceremony.

Farewell Party

Occasion was a farewell party held by Troop C, 12th Cavalry, at Fort Brown in honor of Sgt. Bebon, whose retirement from the troop became effective October 31.

First Sgt. Fred Baum of Mercedes, retired, the man who gave Sgt. Bebon his initial recruit drill at Fort Sam Houston in 1910, was the retiring sergeant's guest for the evening.

"We had been planning on this reunion for a long time." Sgt. Bebon said. "You know it's not every day that a man can leave the army after 30 years' service and have as his guest the man who started him in the service."

Joined In 1910

Private Bebon (as he was known in those days) joined the army on March 17, 1910, at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, and entered Troop B, 3rd Cavalry.

During his service with the 3rd Cavalry, that regiment had the unique distinction of being in the field for nine continuous years with duty as far south as Brownsville and as far west as the Arizona line, plus a stint overseas during the World War.

The 3rd Cavalry, according to Sgt. Bebon, was the first U. S. cavalry regiment to be sent overseas during the World War and was used on convoy duty during the years of fighting.

In 1919, the 3rd Cavalry returned to the United States and was sent to Fort Ethan Allen in Vermont to be demobilized, but Sgt. Bebon decided he wanted to stay in the army and come to Texas.

Re-enlists In Valley

So he re-enlisted at Fort Brown on October 8, 1919, and had been stationed with the forces here since that date up until his retirement.

He was provost sergeant for four years at the local post in charge of post police and prisoners.

Sgt. Bebon has been a member of the Brownsville American Legion post for over 12 years and also a member of the Veteran of Foreign Wars post here.

To Take It Easy

He was sergeant bugler for 10 years in the local American Legion bugle and drum corps which won the state title in 1930, and he helped organize the Pan American Airways' drum and bugle corps here.

"Now that I'm retired," he told his army friends, "I'm going to take it easy. I own my own home in Brownsville, and I'm going to remain here and spend the rest of my time fishing and hunting."

Sgt. Bebon's home is only a block and a half from the post grounds.

"I'll have a hard time keeping from answering that post bugle when it blows every morning, but I guess I'll get used to having nothing to do but rest," he declared.

Col. E. C. Wilbourn, commanding officer of the Twelfth Cavalry, presented a gold watch to Sgt. Bebon on behalf of Troop C.

Col. E. Wilbourn, commanding officer of the 12th Cavalry at Fort Brown, is shown presenting a gold watch to First Sergeant Frank Bebon, retired, given to Bebon by members of Troop C. Bebon had served 30 years with the cavalry. At left in civilian clothes is First Sergeant Fred C. Baum of Mercedes, who gave Bebon his first recruit drill when he enlisted at Fort Sam Houston. Also shown in the picture are Major Henry L. Kennison, commanding officer of the First Squadron, and First Sergeant Charles Wells.

WOMAN BALKS CAR'S THEFT

Man Leaps Clear As Car Gains Speed

McALLEN— A McAllen woman nipped in the bud what city police believed was an attempted car theft early Friday evening.

After driving her auto in the garage, the Maple Avenue resident went into the house to return a few minutes later to drive downtown.

When she had driven about two blocks from her home down south on Main Street, a man kicked the front seat over and leaped from the car, she told police.

Police were unable to waylay the man whose description the woman gave them.

State Balance High In Spite Of Deficit

AUSTIN—(AP)—Despite a deficit of more than $30,000,000 in two funds, the state had an over-all balance of slightly over $18,000,000 in its treasury October 31, the comptroller's department reported Saturday.

Funds with deficits were general revenue with $22,226,603 and Confederate pension with $2,155,945. Accounts with cash balances totaled $48,470,391.

Gen. Avila Camacho Abandons U. S. Trip

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—Gen. Manuel Avila Camacho, president-elect of Mexico, said he would not be able to make a trip to the United States because of lack of time. He said he had planned the trip for rest and recreation.

NEW HIDALGO JURY CALLED

Panel Will Meet At Edinburg Monday

EDINBURG — Hidalgo county's new grand jury will be impaneled by Criminal District Judge Bryce Ferguson Monday morning, District Attorney Tom Hartley announced Saturday.

Thus far, the prosecutor said, his office has only one minor burglary case to present to the jury, but the panel will remain on hand through December to handle any cases that may develop to the first of the year. The grand jury which ended its work last week cleared up all cases pending at that time, Hartley said.

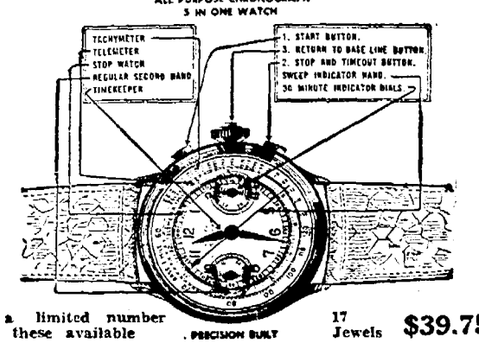

The 12 talesmen will be chosen from the following 16, who were named by the jury commission last week: Judson Friday, Weslaco; W. E. Baden, Pharr; Amador Rodriguez, Edinburg; U. J. Bochnke, San Juan; A. L. Cramer, Elsa; Ross Carter, Edinburg; H. E. Whittenburg, McAllen; T. B. Ewing, Mercedes; Edmundo Cavazos, Edinburg; A. F. Volz, Mission; Ralph E. Deer, McAllen; W. M. Bell, Donna; E. O. Clark, Pharr; S. T. Tilson, Mission; A. G. McHenry, Edinburg, and F. M. Duncan, Mission.

Italy Says Only 'Peace By Sword' Now Possible

RUSHES CRACK TROOPS INTO FRONT LINES

Desperato Air Force Also Used

By The Associated Press

ROME—The Italians sent their crack "desperato" squadron of bombers and fighters against Greece Saturday, planting bombs from shore to shore of the invaded kingdom, and said the only peace the Greeks would get from them would be by the sword.

"Italy has no intention of entering into peace negotiations with Greece," an authoritative source said. "The Greek rejection of our ultimatum set the Italian military machine in motion. It will proceed to deal with the situation."

Pinchers Close In

The high command reported that an Italian land pinchers was closing on the strategic northwestern base town of Ioannina (Janina), both from the Kalamas River Valley on the northwest of the town and from the Pindos (Pindus) heights on the northeast, which reach elevations above 7,000 feet.

Unofficially it has been said these columns have penetrated the "Metaxas Line" of light fortifications which are especially thick in the Kalanas Valley.

From this valley to the Quays of Salonika, Crete, Corfu and Patras the Italian bombers blasted away with explosive and incendiary bombs, ton upon ton of them.

Suicide Squadron Used

The "desperato" or suicide squadron, which Count Ciano, the Italian foreign minister, led in Ethiopia, struck at the naval base of Salonika on the Aegean. The Stefani agency said the first raid, Friday, left the fortified zone devastated, the planes smashing and firing barracks, supply dumps, reservoirs and other military and naval objectives.

There were rumors that Ciano himself flew a plane in one of the two waves, but this was not confirmed. Ciano was, however, promoted to an air force lieut.-colonel Rome announced.

Dive bombers lunged at Patras, third largest Greek port, dropping bombs on the docks where troops were being loaded onto ships. The Corinth Canal, within the steep walls of which small warships and troop transports take a short cut from Athens to Corfu and other points in western Greece, was reported damaged.

Bomb Landing Troops

Other planes, the high command said, bombed troops (perhaps British) who were disembarking from ships Friday at the Island of Crete. Ships, port facilities and stores were said to have been damaged.

Play Rehearsals

'Safety First' Set For San Benito

SAN BENITO—Rehearsals are under way for the play "Safety First" to be presented at the high school November 19 under the sponshorship of the San Benito chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Miss Margaret Conrardy is directing and those in the cast include Mrs. Charles Bowie, Mrs. James D. Casey, Miss Jane Bohner, J. B. Mack, Dr. E. L. Sullivan, Ray Reed, Bud Bohner, and H. J. Glasscock.

Part of the proceeds from this entertainment will be donated to the San Benito Library Building fund.

London Papers Are Watching Race For President Of U. S.

LONDON — (AP) — News of the United States presidential campaign competed Saturday with war Communiques for the attention of a British public eagerly watching the politics of a nation to which they look for planes and guns.

Although British commentators frequently say "no matter which side wins it's all right for us," the press features news of the campaign second only to war developments.

A prominent headline in the London Chronicle informed its readers that "odds on Roosevelt are now 5 to 4," while a Daily Mail head said: "Roosevelt and Willkie neck and neck."

Mexico Now Issues Tourist Passports

RIO RICO, Mexico—Valley residents who have not yet obtained their identification cards may do so within the next 90 days although no one may now enter Mexico without one, according to Joe Ortega, proprietor of Joe's Place.

It is necessary to bring along two photographs to obtain the identification cards. Pictures of the snapshot type will not do but passport pictures are easily obtainable in most Valley towns, it was said.

Teachers Injured In Wreck At Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH— (AP) —Five victims, including three Corsicana school teachers, injured late Friday in an automobile collision on Highway 34 about three miles from Fort Worth, remained under treatment in hospitals here Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Ruth Inman, who sustained a skull injury and a nose fracture, appeared to be the most seriously hurt. Misses Fay Quinley and Carrie Berry suffered head cuts and bruises.

'But Please Vote!'

Between now and November 5 you'll be urged to vote—regardless of your political philosophy. Braniff Airways, contributing to the cause of a record poll, is urging its passengers to vote. In its airliners and in its offices the word is "Be sure to vote November 5" or "Fly home to vote on November 5." Braniff Hostess Miss Ona Ready is shown in the cabin of a 21-passenger Super B-Liner pointing out the message to her passengers.

The Greeks Have A Word For It

How To Pronounce New Words In News

By FRANK COLBY

The Greco-Italic scrimmage has introduced a number of new and exotic place-names into the current Blitzkrieg vocabulary, and, as was the case when the Stukas roared over Europe, most of our commentators and newscasters are badly fumbling the pronouncing ball.

AEGEAN: Strategic sea between Greece and Turkey. Do not say "AY-jee-un." The first syllable rhymes with see, and the second syllable receives the accent: ee-JEE-un.

CRETE: Important island in the Mediterranean off the south coast of Greece. Not "krait" to rhyme with great, nor "kree-tee" to rhyme with meaty. The correct rhyme is with street, as: KREET.

CORFU: Ionian island off northwest Greece. Do not say "KAWR-few." The second syllable is accented and rhymes with boo! Correct pronounciation: kawr-FOO.

DODECANESE: Tewlve islands in the Aegean Sea. Do not refer to this group as the "DOE-duh-kuh-NEEZ." Accent the second and fourth syllables: doe-DEK-uh-NEESS.

The islands are: Sporades (SPAWR - uh - deez); Calchi (KAHL-kee); Calino (kah-LEE-noe); Caso (Kah-soe) Coo (koe) Lero (Lay-roe); Lipso (LIP-soe); Nisiro (NEE-see-roe); Patmo (PAHT-moe); Piscopi PEES-koe - pee); Scarpanto (SKAHR-pahn-toe); Simi (SEE-mee); Stampalia (STAHM-pah-LEE-ah).

METAXAS: Premier of Greece. Not "muh-TAX-iss." The first syllable is like the word may; the third syllable has the "ah" sound, as: may-TAX-ahss. Note: The premier's first name is NOT John, but Ioannis, pronounced: EE-oh-AH-neess.

SALONIKA: Large city in northeast Greece. Do not say "suh-LON-i-kuh." Accent the first and third syllables: SAH-loe-NEE-kah.

(Capitals indicate syllables to be accented.)

Raymondville's Baptists Honor W. A. Addingtons

RAYMONDVILLE—As an expression of appreciation and affectionate regard for Mr. and Mrs. William A. Addington, the First Baptist church of Raymondville, has dedicated a room at the Valley Baptist Hospital in their honor. The plaque reads: "Dedicated to William and Cora Addington by the First Baptist Church of Raymondville."

The formal opening will be on Sunday, November 9, from 4 to 5 p. m., with several members of the church receiving.

Addington has been an active member of the board of deacons for 16 years. He was a teacher in the Sunday school for 12 years or more and has served as superintendent of the Sunday school also.

Mrs. Addington has served as president of the Woman's Missionary Union and has been active in other departments of the church.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Addington have contributed generously to both the spiritual and material up-building of the church, and the members "took this way to express something of their gratitude to them," spokesmen said.

Mr. and Mrs. Addington came to the Rio Grande Valley in September, 1924, from Smithville, Mississippi. They have two sons, both well known in the Valley; Stanley, noted baritone of Texas and chairman of music for Texas-Oklahoma district of Kiwanis International, and James of Cuero, who is a geologist.

TOURIST MEET IS SCHEDULED

McAllen Activity To Get Under Way

McALLEN—The McAllen tourist entertainment season will begin Thursday when the first party of the year is held at 2 p.m. at the community hall at the Samson trailer park. The second meeting will be at Cockrum's A.B.C. camp and the third at Steele's.

William G. Olson, president of the McAllen Tourist association, expressed his thanks to owners of the three parks for extending the use of their community halls to the tourist club until the new annex is finished at the McAllen Chamber of Commerce building.

After a brief program Thursday, the meeting will be thrown open for short talks by the tourists, and complete announcements will be made concerning regular club meetings and special programs for the year.

All tourists or winter visitors in McAllen or this vicinity were invited to attend the meeting.

Indies Envoy Hints At Jap-Java Accord

TOKYO —(AP)— Ichizo Kobayashi, special Japanese envoy to the Dutch East Indies, asserted Saturday on his return here from Batavia, Java, that a "certain understanding" had been reached in discussions by which Japan seeks to obtain East Indian Oil.

He added, however, that there was "no final conclusion."

The total value of petroleum and its products shipped to foreign countries in 1939 was $386,535,668, or the equivalent of 12.4 per cent of all United States merchandise exports that year.

MARSH PINKS SELL HIGHER

$2.21 Average Seen In U. S. Markets

WESLACO—A difference of 47 cents a box in the prices received for Marsh seedless and Marsh pink grapefruit during the past week is revealed in figures completed by the Federal-State Market News Service here.

The average for Valley Marsh seedless grapefruit the past week was only $1.74 per box while Marsh pinks averaged $2.21 per box. That the volume of pink grapefruit has grown considerably is shown by the fact that 34,173 boxes of white fruit were offered on the auction markets and 16,769 boxes of pink fruit.

Both white and pink Valley fruit again outsold Florida fruit on the markets. The Florida average for 71,983 boxes of white grapefruit was $1.66 and the average for 1,401 boxes of pink grapefruit was $1.78 so that Texas white Marsh brought almost as much as Florida pink.

Track holdings of grapefruit in 16 principal markets Saturday totalled 119 cars of grapefruit, 411 of oranges and 15 of mixed citrus.

Texas shipments as of Saturday totalled 3,284 cars as compared to 2,649 as of even date last season while Florida had shipped 2,950 compared to 6,395 to the same date in 1939.

Project Asked

McAllen Seeks Work On Airport

McALLEN—An application for a WPA project for the McAllen Municipal Airport was forwarded to Austin Saturday by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce.

The briefs were prepared by chamber officials and maps were made from surveyor's drawings by Mrs. Bess Dunlavey.

The brief, signed by Mayor Horace Etchison, City Secretary C. D. Martin and City Airport Chairman John Boeye call for immediate limit markers for the field, some clearing on the 88.96 acres donated by S. L. Miller and later construction of additional hangars and an administration building. Airport Manager Walter Fullwood assisted the chamber in compiling the data.

US Draftees Now 21 Since Registration Awaiting FD's Call

HARLINGEN—Men becoming 21 years of age since October 16, draft registration day, need not register until the President issues another proclamation, the local draft board has been advised by state officials.

A number of persons are under the impression that they must register as soon as they become 21 years old but this is not so, Ralph Ormesher, clerk for the Harlingen draft board, said Saturday.

There are now 3,441 registrants in commissioner's precinct No. 4 and the official lists of order numbers is expected early in the week, having been mailed to the state boards from Washington Thursday.

Harry Bridges Backs Lewis' Bolt To GOP

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Declaring himself "100 per cent in support of John L. Lewis on everything he said," Harry Bridges asserted Friday night that the re-election of President Roosevelt would mean a severe blow at the labor movement and a sure step toward war.

"Support of President Roosevelt," he told 700 members of the CIO industrial union council, "is one of the most foolish things a working man or woman can contemplate."

HUMANSVILLE, Mo. —(AP)—Burrell Hughes is in the two-car class, but not for much longer. He's going to have to quit riding in his 1:08 Mason—the tires are worn thin and no one makes them that size anymore.

Trainer Of Animals Is 'Carnegie Hero'

PITTSBURGH— (AP) —An animal trainer who saved the life of a man attacked by four untrained lions was one of 25 persons sent medals by the Carnegie hero fund commission Saturday in recognition of heroic acts.

The trainer, Joseph R. Arcaris, 31, of Nashua, N. H., went to the rescue of Chester Czaja, a caretaker, after the lions sprang upon Czaja in an enclosure at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., last February 9.

Miners Ask Lewis To Quit If FD Wins

WALSENBURG, Colo.—(AP)—In a newspaper advertisement, three Huerfano county locals of the United Mine Workers of America called upon John L. Lewis to quit as national president of the mine workers as well as resign as CIO chairman if President Roosevelt is re-elected.

Huerfano county is one of Colorado's largest coal producing counties. The numbers of members in the three locals was not stated.

Jap Minister Can't Dope US Withdrawal

TOKYO— (AP) —Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka Saturday declared himself "utterly at a loss" to explain what caused withdrawal of American nationals from the Far East and expressed lack of concern over who is elected president.

Matsuoka said his statement was issued in answer to "innumerable questions" asked him concerning the election.

Swiss Ban Talk On Higher Food Prices

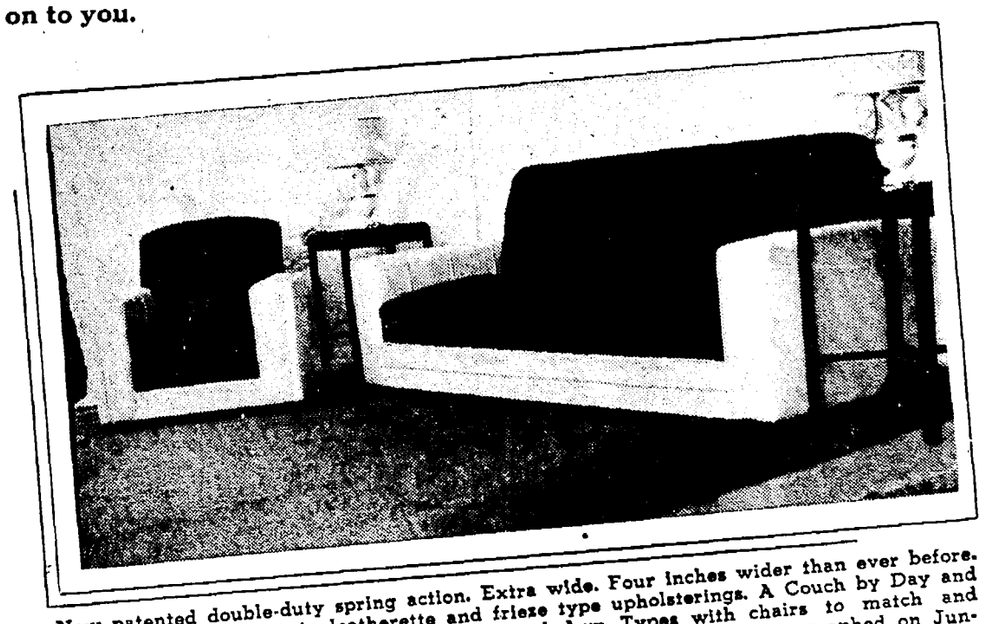

BERN, Switzerland — (AP) — The Swiss department of economics forbade mention of price increases or shortages of merchandise in newspapers, letters or by word of mouth which might lead to excessive purchases.

Interpreting The War News

British Get Stronger

Invasion Of Greece Gives Them Foothold On Continent Again; War 427 Days Old Now

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

The second world war was only 427 days old as October ended, but it already has carved a grisly trail of destruction and disaster across continental Europe unmatched in recorded history.

Nation after nation has succumbed to force or threats; some have lost their national identity. More than one hundred million dwellers on that continent have been brought under the domination of alien masters. Half a million square miles of territory are under alien flags.

Yet the essential fact of the war at this time is that Britain's island fortress remains unconquered, and the bulldog grip of the British navy remains unbroken on all the deep-seas that wash the shores of tragic Europe.

Nazi-Fascist expectancy of a short war is a shattered dream after 14 months of conflict. And while Britain endures, the Axis-mapped new order in Europe remains also an unrealized dream.

Menace To Axis

There is a deadly menace for the Axis in the long war for which the European stage is being reset. Britain has still to reap the full benefit of her seapower, still to attain the peak of her war effort.

Victory slipped from the grasp of Imperial Germany in 1914 at the Marne. It may have just been missed by Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy at the English Channel in 1940. The Axis partners are urgently seeking means to offset in the east the deadlock that confronts them in the west.

That has brought little Greece into peril of a fate similar to that suffered by upward of a dozen other continental nations and peoples since Germany struck at Poland on September 1, 1949.

Really Aids Britain

Yet that fresh Axis aggression, whatever its ultimate strategic meaning, has done something else. It has given Britain footholds at the back door of the continent to carry the war to her foes. Four months ago with British evacuation of Narvik and Dunkerque she had been driven completely from the mainland of Europe.

British bombing of Naples in southern Italy indicates that it is an offensive, not a defensive role, which Britain will attempt in the east.

British planes may have hopped to that target from airplane carriers in the Mediterranean, or from bases on Crete or other Greek islands. From Crete, Naples is within easy bombing distance.

'SOUP BOWL' TILT SLATED

Service Club Elevens Spruce For Classic

BROWNSVILLE—Tickets are on sale for the classic of the century, the "Soup Bowl" football game to be held at Tucker Field December 6 with the Brownsville Kiwanis Club opposing the Brownsville Lions in a rough-house exhibition of how not to play football.

California may have its Rose Bowl, Florida may have its Orange Bowl, but these are nothing compared to the "Soup Bowl," which was inaugurated in 1937.

Lions Won Then

The roaring Lions won that contest, 6 to 0, in a drizzling rain in the final minute of play.

Both teams came out of the game looking like the wreck of the old '97' and were forced to take a three-year layoff to recuperate and scout new grid talent.

But now they're ready to go again with new faces in their lineups and new hopes in their hearts.

For Good Cause

Ducats will cost $1, but it's for a plenty good cause—the Brownsville Band Boosters fund.

In appreciation for the interest shown in them by the local service clubs, the Brownsville high school band members have agreed to play a concert at the field on game night.

Clarence Colgin, president of the Kiwanis Club, started the ball rolling by purchasing the first ticket, and since that time the ducats are "going like hot cakes," according to George McGonigle, ticket sales chairman.

Air Corps Jobs

Civil Service Wants Inspectors Now

HARLINGEN—More procurement inspectors are needed at the Air Corps, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, for the following branches of inspection: aircraft, engines, instruments, parachutes, aircraft propellers, and tools and gauges.

The Civil Service Commission has been seeking experienced men for these jobs but it announces that a new type of position has just been added to those to be filled, that of junior procurement inspector, $1,620 a year. The upper grades pay from $2,000 to $2,600 a year, all salaries subject to three and one-half per cent deduction for retirement annuity.

Applicants will not be given a written test. They will be rated on their education and experience as shown in their applications, subject to verification by the Commission. The work is an important part of the national defense program. Apply for details to the secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, or to any first or second class post office.

Tear Gas Is Used To Break Up Big Rally

MADISON, Wis.—(AP)—Police used tear gas to break up a University of Wisconsin homecoming demonstration during which an estimated 8,000 persons created bedlam for two hours on State Street and Capitol Square.

Thirty-four persons were taken into custody but most of them were released later. Thirteen university and high school students were ordered to report to superior court on charges of disorderly conduct and vandalism.

Coy Is Re-Arrested In Bad Check Case

EDINBURG — Charlie Coy, Hidalgo county rancher, was free on bond of $250 Saturday after being re-arrested on a charge of swindling with a worthless check.

His trial on the charge got under way Friday, but the court quashed the complaint when the latter was found to be faulty. A new complaint was shown out and Coy again was placed under arrest. No date for his new trial has been set in county court.

The charge grew out of Coy's alleged payment for three calves with a $35 check.

NOV. 11 FETE OPENS MONDAY

San Benito Schools Hear 8 Talks

SAN BENITO—Patriotic addresses in eight schools in this area initiates Monday the program of the Sixth Annual Armistic Week Celebration arranged by the American Legion, Sam Jackson post 111, which slates a full week of activities to be climaxed November 11 with a colorful parade, services at the stadium, joint service club luncheon and finals of the model plane contest.

Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor University and former Governor of Texas, is the principal speaker at the special service November 10 at the First Baptist church and at the Armistice program at the stadium Monday.

Monday Program

School addresses Monday will be presented by Grady St. Clair, superintendent of San Benito school, at Villa Nueva, Encantada, La Paloma, Landrum and that afternoon at Los Indios, Santa Maria, Rangerville and Highland. Roswell J. Bohner will talk at five schools Tuesday and Ralph T. Agar, John Prentiss and Roy A. Brink will continue the school program Wednesday.

Another attraction this week sponsored by the legion are the Santa Fe shows which will play all week on the San Benito-Brownsville highway across from the American Legion hall.

Stag Party

Thursday night the annual stag party will be held at the hall under the direction of James D. Ward and J. E. McAnally. The barbecue features a "floor show and entertainment de luxe" as listed on the program.

Saturday's events include a "traffic lane" staged by the Cameron County 40 and 8 and fines collected will go to the voiture's child welfare program. James Ward has been named "Judge" of the Roy Bean court by Chef de Gare Harry Harris. Court will be held again Monday. Also on this day the preliminary trials of the model plane contest to be conducted under the rules of the National Aeronautic Association will be held at 2 p.m. at the municipal airport with Garver Murray of Harlingen in charge.

Officials Listed

Dr E. O. Seiser is general chairman of the week's celebration and committee chairmen are: W. J. Harris, parade; J. W. Spradley, R. B. Temple, and B. A. Epstein, decorations and finance; J. D. Ward and J. E. McAnally, stag party; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson, entertainment and reception; John Prentiss, special Sunday service; Harry Carroll, service clubs luncheon; J. C. Hall, drum and bugle corps and bands; Floyd S. Worth, school program; J. D. Denson, speakers stand; Lieut. Col. H. M. Carroll, Capt. F. S. Worth, Capt. Lew Williams, reception of visiting Army Units; Zipper Lee, parade marshall, and I. V. Jolly, model plane contest.

Minimum Price

Group Set To Study Law For Citrus

MERCEDES — Committees were named by Texas Citriculture Institute, Inc., at a meeting here Friday night to confer Monday on definite plans for a legislative program which may include a proposed new law for placing a minimum price to the grower for citrus fruits.

Some discussion was had at the Friday night meeting at the city hall which was attended by growers from various parts of the Valley but no decision was reached. Price fixing has been in the minds of some members since the early season decline in the market for citrus fruits.

A number of new directors were elected at the meeting including Mrs. Jim Ragland of Mission, Mrs. W. A. Wulf of San Juan, M. Heinzelman of Edinburg, Bert Matteson of Donna, C. A. Barnes of McAllen, and Dr. Frank Smith of San Benito.

Funeral Set Sunday For Father of Solon

EASTLAND—(AP)—Funeral services will be held here Sunday for G. A. Davisson, Sr., 56, father of G. A. Davisson, Jr., former legislator from the 106th district and former candidate for state senator and lieutenant governor.

Davisson, a road contractor and oil operator, died here Friday night.

Kensington Palace Is Admitted Bombed

LONDON —(AP)— Kensington Palace, where Queen Victoria was born in 1819, has been damaged by incendiary bombs. Authorities permitted publication of this fact Saturday, but said there were no casualties.

The brick structure, on Kensington Gardens, was a royal residence from 1691 until 1760. Portions of it have been opened to the public since the time of Queen Victoria.

Heaviest Of Italian Raids Is Reported

NEW YORK —(AP)— The Rome radio reported Saturday that 100 Italian bombers carried out the heaviest raid of the war on Malta, striking at both the British naval base and the airport of Miccabba.

WESLACO SETS BAND CONCERT

First Of Season To Be Free Sunday

WESLACO—The Weslaco high school band will give its first concert of the season in Stephen F. Austin school auditorium at 4 p.m. Sunday. It will be free to the public, according to William Krauledat, band director.

A program with a varied appeal has been arranged. A feature will be a cornet solo, "Willow Echoes" by Doyle Betts with band accompaniment. Betts has played a cornet for six years and is a senior in the band.

The band has several assistant directors and on this program will be presented Billy Lee, who will conduct two numbers. Billy also is a senior band member and plays solo clarinet.

Sheppard In Favor Of FD Re-Election

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Sheppard (D-Tex) declared that any second-term president would have been elected to a third term and would have accepted had an international situation comparable to the present existed at the end of their second terms.

The veteran legislator, chairman of the military affairs committee, expressed his view in a prepared statement made public just before he left for his home in Texarkana by automobile to "vote for Roosevelt and Wallace."

CROWD OUSTS GOP SPEAKER

Campaigner Chased Out Of Carthage

CARTHAGE, Tex. —(AP)— Neal Estes, Carthage newspaper publisher, said a crowd of 150 persons Saturday refused to permit a campaigner for Wendell Willkie to complete a speech he started on the courthouse square.

A group of men dismantled sound equipment over which A. M. Davis of Houston was speaking, placed it in Davis' automobile and suggested he leave town, Estes said, adding that Davis was told "this is a Roosevelt county."

The speaker left immediately.

Red Cross Campaign Discussion Monday

SAN BENITO—Invitations have been extended to about 70 San Benitans to attend a dinner at 7 p.m. Monday at the Stonewall Jackson hotel as guests of the local Red Cross Roll Call drive committee of which Rudy Bendixen is chairman. Plans for the membership drive to be staged November 14 will be discussed.

Four Are Tried In Courts At McAllen

McALLEN—Fined in city court Saturday morning were Jesus Adame, B. Villarreal and Ceferino Loza, $5 each, on a drunk charge.

Justice of the Peace T. J. Powell fined Hobert Rachel $10 on a speeding charge filed by State Highway Patrolman J. H. Hollyfield.

Harlingen Movie

Sixshooter Junction Is Filmed Here

HARLINGEN — Shooting of the scenes for "Sixshooter Junction," movie short presenting members of the Lower Valley's Little Theatre will be postponed one week because of the absence of E. N. Loeb, script writer who has been called to Chicago by the death of his mother.

November 10 is the new date set for making movie records of street scenes representing early Harlingen. Much research has been carried out to duplicate street scenes from photographs made of Harlingen when it was first settled.

Leaders in the project are interested in obtaining a typical old-time water cart formed of a barrel mounted on two wheels and drawn by a burro. Anyone knowing where such a vehicle may be found in Cameron county is asked to notify Charlie Holbrook, or other members of the Little Theatre, or the chamber of commerce.

Sunday Service Set At Baptist Church

HARLINGEN — Rev. E. Douglas Carver, pastor will speak on "The Cure For A Sin-Sick World" at the Sunday morning service, beginning at 10:55 a.m., at the First Baptist Church here.

Foster Tebbe at the organ will play prelude "Salve Domine," and the offertory will be Chopin's Nocturne. Anthem will be "Strike The Cymbal," by Schubert.

Rev. Carver will preach on "Overcoming Difficulties," at the Sunday evening service, which will also be featured by two vocal selections by the male quartet. Anthem will be "Face To Face," Fuller, and the offertory by Dvorak.

Thwart Nazis Trying To Take Greenland

NEW YORK—(AP)—A German-language broadcast by the British Broadcasting Corporation said a German expedition of 50 men had been captured in an unsuccessful attempt to seize the meteorological observation station at Greenland. The Norwegian patrol boat Fritjof Nansen made them prisoners, it said.

The broadcast was heard by CBS in New York.

Bank Building Jinx For These Voters

FAYETTE CITY, Pa.—(AP)—Some 50 persons asked the Fayette county court to prevent transfer of next Tuesday's polling place from the Borough Building to quarters once occupied by a bank.

"A lot of people lost money in the bank and they won't go near it again—not even to vote," said Pat F. Hynes, one of the petitioners.

Two Boys From Idaho Ride Bicycles To Valley

Hitch-Hiking Far Cheaper, They Discover

HARLINGEN—It's a long, long way to the Valley from Twin Falls, Idaho, and a couple of young men were in town Saturday as proof of the fact.

Ray Jacobs, 24, of Rolla, Mo.; and Ralph Todd, 21, of Helenville, Wisc., pedalled all the way to the sunshiny Valley from Idaho to spend the winter working.

It took them just 14 days and three hours to make it to Harlingen and that counts a lot of time that they caught rides in the more than 2000-mile trip.

Usually they rented cabins overnight and paid for their meals, but one night they slept out and another they rode all night.

"It costs more to travel on a bicycle than any other way," Jacobs said here Saturday. "By the time you figure the miles you make each day and the cost of food and lodging, it is cheaper to hitch hike."

The minimum the boys made while riding on the bikes was around 125 miles daily, but when they got rides from trucks or pickups they managed to hike the ante quite some.

They are working for O. T. Burns, 505 North First, now and think they'll head back north after winter passes.

It gets pretty cold up there," Todd said.

The Texas Predatory Animal Control Association reports taking 14,191 coyotes, 2,086 bobcats and 18 mountain lions in the fiscal year ending June 30. This represented a decrease of 1,622 coyotes, 171 bobcats, and four lions under the preceding year.

Bike Mishap Fatal

JACKSONVILLE —(AP)— Lloyd Simpson, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simpson, was killed Saturday when his bicycle and a car crashed.

The South Plains, best known for cotton and livestock, ships 2,500,000 dozen of eggs annually from Lubbock alone. Almost 5,000,000 pounds of butter also is manufactured yearly at Lubbock, and 3,000,000 pounds of poultry dressed.

Sierra Trail Signs Mark Goldrush Days

AUBURN, Calif.—(AP)—Twenty-two miles of trail over the high Sierras, used by emigrant trains of the gold rush days, has been marked with signs. Since most of the route is obscured by forest, diaries and other records owned by pioneer families were used for guides.

GOP VOTERS' BUREAUS SET

Hidalgo Tells How Ballots Marked

MISSION — Voters information bureaus will be set up in each precinct of Hidalgo county, it was planned at the luncheon session of the Republican Women's club of the county, held at McAllen Thursday. Robert N. Clarke, county Republican chairman, was one of the program speakers and outlined plans for the respective bureaus. Voters who wish to cast their ballots for Willkie, yet vote for Democratic nominees in state and county contests will be given information how to mark their ballots.

An information booth in the Mission precinct was set up Saturday afternoon in the alcove entrance of the Mission Times. Mrs. Rosette and Mrs. Heber Marcell are in charge. The booth will be kept open Monday and Tuesday also.

Other units in the county have planned similar information bureaus, to be kept open through Tuesday.

At Thursday's meeting, Jason Matthews, McAllen author, was one of the principal speakers outlining arguments against the third term. Mrs. Beatrice Frase, Republican committee woman, was another speaker. Musical numbers were presented by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stevens, McAllen. Forty women attended the session.

Definite plans for continuing the monthly meetings of the club have been made, Mrs. Rosette announced. Meetings will be held each third Thursday, possibly in the afternoon. Women interested in studying government affairs are invited to join. Meeting time and place for the November session will be announced at an early date.

Flag Signals Show City Safety Record

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Accident prevention police will remind Miamians of their daily safety record with a set of flags raised at a downtown intersection.

A flag showing a green cross within a green circle will denote a day with no injuries or deaths from motor accidents.

A red flag will indicate injuries. A flag of black field with white skull and crossbones will show a death.

Mayor Has A Flair For Detective Work

HAMPTON, Va.—(AP)—Mayor J. V. Bickford answered his telephone and a voice told him the party calling was Mayor Earl B. Horner, of Burlington, N. C., who would like Mayor Bickford to identify him at a local bank to have a check cashed.

Acting on a hunch Bickford called Mayor Horner on the telephone—and found him presiding at a council session in Burlington. Two detectives instead of the mayor called to "identify" the telephone caller.

Crash Victim Turns Disaster To Profit

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Opportunity didn't stop at knocking—it turned over a truck on Fairlie L. Rachael of Laurel Hill, N. C. Rachael was driving a load of watermelons when the truck overturned. He crawled out unhurt, stuck a "Watermelons For Sale" sign on the upset truck and did a brisk business with the curious who stopped to see the wreck.

WPA'S VALLEY WORK RECITED

663 Miles Of Roads Built In 5 Years

HARLINGEN—Fifty-seven miles of highway roads and streets were constructed or improved by WPA labor in Cameron county during the past five fiscal years, according to figures released Saturday from the Laredo district office.

Two new bridges were built, 16 bridges reconstructed, 75 culverts installed or improved, 22 public buildings improved, one stadium and one utility plant built and improved.

In Hidalgo county 155 miles of highway or roads have been built, as compared to 348 miles in Starr and 103 miles in Willacy. One new bridge was built and three reconstructed in Hidalgo county. Eighteen culverts were installed or improved. Two public buildings were constructed, four improved, one stadium and two utility plants improved.

Starr county had 431 culverts installed or improved by the WPA, three public buildings and two utility plants. Willacy got one new bridge and one culvert.

Lives Long Enough To Get Final Score

VINITA, Okla.—(AP)—C. G. Clarke, Vinita's No. 1 high school football fan, missed a home game for the first time in 31 years.

While the team was losing a hard-fought battle with Dewey, the little tailor lay dying of a heart ailment. He rallied long enough to get the score from a hospital attendant, then died shortly after dawn.

Soviets Mass Army In Bessarabia Area

BUCHAREST—(AP)—Travelers arriving here from Russian-acquired Bessarabia said the Soviet army, working day and night, has established seven air fields near the Prut river on the Rumania-Russian border.

Some of the travelers said the Russians have massed 20 infantry divisions, 11 artillery and cavalry divisions and three brigades of mechanized equipment in Bessarabia and Northern Bokovina, the provinces which Russia took bloodlessly from Rumania.

HIDALGO FOOD STAMP WORK SET TO START

Three Offices Will Be Open Monday

EDINBURG—More than 150 grocery stores in Hidalgo County will participate in the "federal food stamp plan" which opens officially Monday morning, James Walsh, county welfare organizer, said Saturady.

Persons eligible to participate in the program may purchase food stamps at any of the three offices established over the county. The central office is located in the courthouse annex in Edinburg under the immediate supervision Herbert Carter. Sub-issuing stamp offices located at 12 South Fifteenth Street at McAllen under the direction of Ned Brown, cashier, and the Travelers hotel building at Weslaco under the direction of Cecil Boone, cashier.

To Get Free Stamps

For each $1 worth of orange stamps bought, the purchaser receives 50 cents worth of blue stamps free The stamps are exchanged for food at groceries over the county participating in the program. The grocers redeem the stamps at face value at the office of Travis S. Masterson, area supervisor of the Surplus Marketing Administration, in the Courthouse Annex here.

Purposes of the food stamp plan are to remove surplus food products, the distribution of food to needy persons, and the utilization of established trade channels to increase the business of retailers and wholesalers.

The county department of public welfare must certify each eligible family to the stamp office where a complete account with that family is established and maintained. Each eligible family is given an identification card and provided with necessary information for participation.

Orange stamps may be used to purchase any kind of goods sold by the participating firms, but only designated surplus commodities may be purchased with the blue stamps.

Many Commodities

The surplus commodities designated for the period beginning Nov. 1 by the secretary of agriculture are as follows:

Butter, raisins, rice, pork lard, pork, corn meal, shell eggs, dried prunes, hominy grits, wheat flour and whole wheat (graham), fresh oranges, fresh grapefruit, onions, (except green onions), dry edible beans, fresh cabbage, Irish potatoes, fresh apples and fresh pears. (Pork includes all cuts, fresh, chilled or frozen, pickled, salted, cured or smoked, but not including cooked or packed in metal or glass containers.)

Swiss Cast Bells While World Wars

ST. GALLEN, Switzerland—(AP)—While other countries are melting down their church bells to make war material, what will be the largest set of bells in Switzerland has just been cast at St. Gallen. The set consists of six bells, the largest of which weighs 15,000 pounds and sounds the basic note D-minor.

Chief Pulls Pistol Once In His Life

CARLISLE, S. C. —(AP)— Police Chief W. H. Roberts, 61, never has struck anyone with a blackjack. He has shot at only one man during his 25 years of service.

"The only man I ever shot at was a hobo who struck me between the eyes," he says. "And incidentally, that hobo was the only man who ever hit me during my 25 years."

Walsh poses here with the $7,200 worth of stamps. He has been in charge of the county welfare program for several years.

VALLEY FLIER IN AIR CRASH

Lloyd Sloan Escapes Hurt In Plane

SHARYLAND—Details of an air crash at the Naval Air Training Base in Pensacola, Fla., were received Saturday by parents of Lloyd Sloan, one of the principals in the crash. Cadet Sloan "bailed out" to safety after the plane in which he was receiving instructions figured in a mid-air crash with another training plane. Both Sloan and his instructor used their parachutes after bailing out at 750 feet altitude while the student and instructor in the second plane were both killed when the plane in which were riding struck the ground.

Messages sent to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sloan, Sharyland, parents of the cadet, told of his safety and of his being cleared of any blame for the accident. News releases from upstate and southern radio stations and newspapers carried news of the crash late Wednesday.

The Sharyland cadet went to Pensacola in August to begin the second phase of his air training after having completed the first period at Ope Locka, Fla., in June. He will be at Pensacola for one year before being sent to San Diego for further training.

Three Escape Injury In Saturday Crash

HARLINGEN — Three persons escaped with minor bruises from an auto-automobile collision at Pletcher's Station on Highway 4 west of here Saturday night.

Sanchez Hernandez, driver of a Model A Ford and James Noblett, La Feria, driving a motorcycle, were cited to appear in Judge Menton Murray's court here Tuesday at 10 a.m., when investigation will be completed. State Patrolman Ben Thomas said Hernandez was turning out of the station onto the highway. Noblett's companion was not identified.

Paging Mr. Johnson Any Johnson Will Do

BELLINGHAM, Wash., — (AP) — There's no summer unemployment problem in this region for anyone named Johnson.

And all because J. H. Leatherwood, large-scale strawberry grower, says no one can beat a Johnson when it comes to picking berries.

"I had six Johnsons picking for me last year," Leatherwood wrote the state employment office, "and they all were such good pickers that all I want this year are Johnsons. Send me 25 of them."

The employment office rounded up all the Johnsons it could.

Leader Breaks Nose At Baton Practice

PIONEER DIES AT HARLINGEN

J. F. Hathaway Rites Await Children

HARLINGEN—James F. Hathaway, 79, pioneer Valley farmer and construction contractor once associated with the late Lon C. Hill, died at his Dixieland Road home near here Saturday about 9 p.m. after a long illness.

Funeral service, to be under direction of Stotler-Burdette Mortuary, had not been set late Saturday.

Hathaway was born in California September 10, 1861. He had lived in Texas 62 years, and moved to the Valley 36 years ago from Kerrville.

Hathaway was connected with construction of the Mercedes irrigation canals and with work in other districts, and was associated with Lon C. Hill in construction work around Harlingen. He had also been a gin operator.

Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Nora Hathaway; three sons, B. H. Hathaway, San Antonio; James A. Hathaway, La Feria; Henry H. Hathaway, Uvalde; four daughters, Mrs. Harold Looney, Mrs. Dallas Ingle, Mrs. Crockett Campbell, all of Harlingen, and Mrs. Guy Cunningham, Miami, Okla.; and a brother, A. S. Hathaway, Grenville, N. M.

Deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge.

Fresh Water Well Is Drilled In Bay

HOUSTON —(AP)— A water well, of all things, was drilled five miles out in Galveston bay near Seabrook by the Humble Oil and Refining Company.

The company said it needed the water for boilers, well washing and other uses at a wildcat oil test in the bay

It is easier to drill a well for fresh water than to set up a condenser and extract salt from the bay water.

OBITUARY

A. A. WILLIAMS

SAN JUAN—Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday from the Kreidler Funeral Home, McAllen, for Alvin Allen Williams, 80, pioneer Upper Valley resident who died at his home here late Thursday afternoon after an illness of several months.

Pallbearers will be Thornton Thacker, John Tompkins, Paul Reichert, Bill Lemen, W. H. Gossage and W. G. Rice. Survivors include his wife; one son, M. E. Williams, Adel Iowa; three daughters, Mrs. S. L. Miller of McAllen, Mrs. Banks Miller and Mrs. Clark Mellenbruck of San Juan; two brothers, two sisters and four grandchildren.

Mr. Williams came here 23 years ago. He served on the official board of the People's Church for many years and was treasurer of the San Juan Masonic lodge.

Chicken House Trap For Reckless Hawk

ADVICE GIVEN ON PASSPORTS

2 Photographs Are Needed At Border

HARLINGEN — Manager Worth Heffner of the Harlingen Chamber of Commerce Saturday announced that Valley residents seeking Mexican passports should take two small photographs with them, and go to the Mexican immigration office on Mexico side of the Rio Grande and obtain their identification cards, but added out-of-Valley residents would have slightly more difficulty.

Cut-of-Valley people must have papers or letters proving United States citizenship in order to get the cards, Heffner said, adding that anyone wishing to do so may come to the chamber of commerce office with their proper papers, and receive a letter which they can take to the Mexican immigration office and receive a tourist courtesy card.

Now She Can Knit For Another Fight

BRYAN, Tex.—(AP)—Mrs. W. S. Stuart has aided soldiers from 1861 to 1940. The 86-year-old woman recently turned in to the Red Cross three pairs of woolen gloves she knitted in 10 days, destined for relief to soldiers in Europe.

At the age of eight she helped her father mold bullets for Confederate soldiers, and in the first World war she knitted, sewed, made surgical dressings, and nursed during the influenza epidemic in a Texas camp.

Traffic From Mexico Shows Marked Increase Last Month

BROWNSVILLE — Figures kept on traffic from Mexico into the United States here during October show an increase of more than 1,000 vehicles and approximately 6,000 persons over figures during September, according to A. E. Kraut, deputy collector of United States customs.

A total of 12,430 vehicles and 52,478 people crossed the border into the United States during October here as compared with 11,083 vehicles and 46,697 persons crossing in September.

More aircraft crossed the border during October, but a smaller number of passengers was carried in this bracket during the month, figures show.

Mr. Kraut reported a total of 74 aircraft entering with 661 passengers. September totals were 68 airplanes with 718 passengers.

Automobiles entering totalled 9,493 and carried 21,338 passengers, and 2,603 buses brought 24,492 passengers. A total of 224 other vehicles brought 287 passengers. Thirty-six freight cars entered, and crossings of 5,700 pedestrians were recorded.

Totals for the year since July 1 show crossings of 43,968 vehicles and 177,186 persons.

A total of 1,260 packages of merchandise were examined by customs men here during October, with 673 entries noted and 1,321 export declarations.

VISUAL CLASS WORK STARTS

McAllen To Join New Co-Op Next Year

McALLEN—McAllen high school is expected to join the group of Valley schools who have formed a visual education association for next year, when the school has finished paying for its motion picture projector, Principal A. M. Weir said Saturday.

Weir said it would cosht $300 to join the association, which buys and distributes films. Meanwhile, the McAllen school will use films rented from the University.

The school last spring began purchase of a 16 millimeter utility model projector, using money from the Doghouse Fund. The down payment was $300. Miss Hazel Myers, Doghouse sponsor, said about $30 had been set aside on the $100 remaining to be paid. C. H. Britton Jr., high school student, the past week screened films on Mexico and biological subjects at a meeting of the Thomas A. Edison Science club.

Mission Explosion Causes $200 Damage

MISSION—A defective gas connection on a room heater caused an explosion and damage estimated at $200 Saturday morning at the J. F. Ewers home, 1521 Conway boulevard. Mission Fire Department members called to the scene within a few minutes used the chemical truck apparatus to control the blaze. Damage was confined to curtains, furniture and wall finishes in one room of the home.

Sparing The Horses With New Trailers

DENVER—(AP)—New technique of U. S. Forest Service in patrolling hundreds of thousands of acres of forest lands is to load their horses into trailers and drive on highways as far as possible.

Modern rangers are completing in one or two days trips that used to require a week or more by pack trail. Sometimes in the old days their duties required them to pack along provisions for a month. The new horse trailers are to be used throughout the 107 forest districts.

THREE TRUCKS ARE DAMAGED

Drivers Are Unhurt In Accidents

EDINBURG—Three truck drivers escaped injury in a series of auto accidents in the Edinburg area early Saturday morning, but the mishaps left plenty of damage.

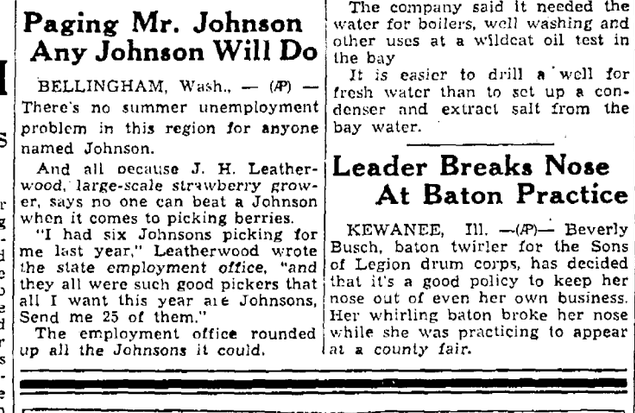

An empty fruit truck driven by Tom Hardy of Vincennes, Ind., crashed into a concrete abutment on the canal which dips beneath Highway 83 a half mile south of Edinburg. Although Hardy was only scratched, his machine was badly damaged.

Lloyd Eli Clark of Edinburg was the driver of a truck which crashed into a telephone pole on East Harriman avenue in east Edinburg, snapping the pole in two and lowering the lines across the avenue. A crew repaired the damage Saturday morning.

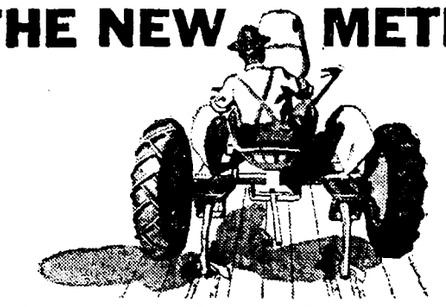

Both the Hardy and Clark mishaps occurred about 1:30 a. m., according to County Patrolman Walter Lysinger, who investigated each.

The day's third crash occurred a mile west of Elsa on the highway to Edinburg when a truck whose driver's name was not immediately learned struck a horse owned by C. Gonzalez of Elsa.

Valley Football

With the Rio Grande Valley's 1940 football season turning into the home stretch this week-end, fans are over their jitters regarding the District Class A race and have decided that the Mission Eagles are "in" to all intent sand purposes.

Last Friday night the Eagles removed the Donna Redskins from a deadlock for first place in the district standings by handing them a 40-14 trimming. The victory gave the Eagles four wins against no losses in conference with two district games yet to be played. It will be up to either La Feria or Pharr-San Juan-Alamo or both to knock the Eagles over if any other team in the district is to lay claim to the championship.

The Harlingen Cardinals are leading the pack with two wins and no losses. To go through the South zone of District 16-AA with a clean slate, the Red Birds must win over their two remaining conference opponents, San Benito and Brownsville. McAllen still has San Benito and Edinburg to play; Brownsville must meet Edinburg and Harlingen; and Edinburg has Brownsville and McAllen remaining on their schedule. All of these games have a direct bearing on the race and are certain to be bitterly fought. It is certain that ALL of the Class AA teams cannot win their remaining games but picking the winners will present quite a problem to the "experts" who have discovered that naming the winning teams in Valley high school play is a pretty tough proposition.

Incidentally it would be a good idea for fans to bear in mind that the Edinburg-Brownsville, McAllen-Edinburg and Brownsville-Harlingen games will be thrillers and worth traveling many miles to see. It will be a tough break for those who have to miss seeing any one of them.

The Class B race has settled down to the point where the winner of the Lyford Bulldog-Rio Hondo Bobcat game will wrap up the title. Each has a win over Edcouch-Elsa and no loss has been charged against them.

As this corner predicted before the season got under way, Valley grid fans were in for plenty of fine football. They have had it so far and more is to come before the curtain rings down.

Fireworks Ahead

Thirty-one of 48 football games in the 1940 Southwest Conference schedule have been played, but a lot of fireworks are yet to come.

Twelve of the 21 conference games are yet to be played. Three of the 12 are scheduled for next Saturday, when S.M.U. meets Texas A. and M. in Dallas, Arkansas plays Rice in Fayetteville, and Baylor and Texas mix it up at Austin.

Since last summer, grid fans have been pointing out that the Methodists would be the best bet to stop the rampaging Aggies. Whatever this hunch may be worth, it is certain that the Southwest headliner will be played in Dallas next Saturday when these two elevens meet. Coach Matty Bell's boys came close to taking the Farmers in College Station last year, so you can bet that Coach Homer Norton will have his charges primed. Here's where the Eyes of Texas will really be pointing.

Arkansas and Rice have both upset the preseason prognosticators by winning from some good strong teams. Saturday they will be out to upset each other. From the bayous to the Ozarks is quite a jump, and there are those who give the Razorbacks the nod because of this. The record, however, would indicate that the Owls have the power to dispense of the Mountaineers.

In Austin the Longhorns will be out to avenge a 20-to-0 drubbing at the hands of the Baylor Bears in Waco last year. The contest could shed a little light on the chances of the Steers against the Aggies (Baylor having lost to A. and M. 7 to 14.)

The games in Austin and Dallas will be the only ones on Texas soil. While the six other members are engaged in family brawls, T.C.U. will move up to Detroit for the Frogs' final intersectional appearance.

It looks as if Coach Dutch Meyer had caught another hot one in Coach Dutch Dorais' Titans at the University of Detroit. Word comes that the 1940 Titan club is the best in years, and the Frogs — well, they're definitely not that!

ALABAMA 25; KENTUCKY 0

LEXINGTON, Ky. — (AP) — The mighty Crimson tide of Alabama roared over the University of Kentucky football team 25 to 0 Saturday to give the Kentuckians their first defeat of the year. The bluegrass boys have been tied twice.

Alabama scored twice in the second period and again in the third and fourth. Kentucky never seriously threatened.

GEORGIA 14; AUBURN 13

COLUMBUS, Ga.—(AP)—A hard-fighting Georgia team, which refused to give up, outstayed a last-quarter rally by Auburn Saturday to beat the Tigers, 14-13, before 18,000 spectators.

Ponies Show Fine Display Of Aerials

Power On Ground Is Also Potent

By RAY NEUMANN

AUSTIN, Tex. —(AP)— A baffling blend of power, speed and aerial efficiency gave Southern Methodist University's Mustangs a 21-13 triumph over an University of Texas team here Saturday.

Inaugurating their Southwest Conference schedule, the Methodists held Texas' vaunted ground attack in check but the inspired Longhorns rose to heights to tally twice and stiffened enough to stop other Mustang scoring threats.

All scores were made in the last two periods, the Ponies opening the third period with a touchdown march from their own 21.

A crowd of approximately 25,000 saw Johnnie Clement pass to Dick Miller and then to E. L. Keeton, with the aid of a plunge by Preston Johnston, to place the ball on the Texas 40. Johnston thundered through the line for nine and Clement aerialed to Gus Tunnell for 26. From there Johnston plowed around left end for the tally. He kicked the point.

The kick-off to Texas went out of bounds and from their 35 the Steers got to the 41 with Noble Doss carrying. Doss ripped off five more and two line tries were smeared. Then Pete Layden uncorked a rainbow pass to Jesse Hawthorne who stumbled through several tacklers and, behind good blocking, ran over for the score. Crain's placekick for point was wide.

Shortly thereafter guard Hoyle Simes fell on a Texas fumble on the Longhorns' 34. Clement passed to Ends Bob Maddox and Keeton to the Steer 6 after which Johnston powered through for three and Clement sliced tackle for one. Clement aerialed to Keeton behind the line for the second Pony score and Johnston added the extra point from placement.

Opening the final period on his own 24, R. L. Harkins of Texas hurled two incomplete aerials and then suddenly found Spec Sanders in the clear. Sanders took the pass at a gallop and outran the Methodist secondary to score standing up. On the attempted placekick the ball was fumbled but Sanders grabbed it and dodged through a broken field to add the point.

The Ponies again gained possession of the ball on their own 42 and Clinton McClain plunged for four. Ray Mallouf then aerialed to Tunnell who was nailed on the Steer 43. Kelly Simpson received the next overhead and carried to the Texas 15. On a fake pass, McClain ran over the goal line around right end. Johnston's toe concluded the point getting.

The Methodists got 15 first downs to Texas' two and gained 297 yards by aerials to the Steers' 171.

John Barnum In Mexico Finals

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— Ellsworth Vines, California tennis ace now well on his way to becoming a two-sport star, will meet defending titlist John Barnum of Edinburg, Tex., Sunday in the finals of Mexico's 12th Amateur Golf Championship tourney.

Vines and Barnum shot their way through all competition here Saturday to enter the finals.

Barnum won over a fellow Texan, Jack Tinnin from Dallas, one up Saturday afternoon in his semi-final match.

Vines, driving consistently for 300 yards or better, played the day's great golf. Paired in the other semi-final bracket against Bobby Riegel, Houston titleholder and last year's runner-up here, Vines shot a beautiful 68, four under par for the Mexico City Country Club course.

Riegel scored a 69, and the match was in doubt until Vines' last putt on the 18th green. Sinking the ball from ten feet away, the Californian halved the hole and held his advantage of 1 up.

DUQUESNE 14; MARQUETTE 0

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Scoring in the second and third periods on aerials flung by passing Phil Aswesh, Duquesne University's Dukes handily defeated Marquette University 14 to 0 Saturday before 12,000 on muddy Forbes Field.

WISCONSIN 13; ILLINOIS 6

MADISON, Wis.—(AP)—A 62-yard touchdown pass in the final quarter by Johnny Tennant, fleet Badger back, broke a deadlock and gave Wisconsin a 13 to 6 victory over Illinois in a conference football game before a crowd of 30,000 homecoming fans here Saturday.

Horned Frogs Nose Out Baylor's Bears 14 To 12

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Little Kyle Gillespie returned to gridiron glory here Saturday, slithering through and around Baylor's ponderous Bruins as the spark that once more ignited Texas Christian University's victory fire.

The Horned Frogs won, 14-12, in a thrilling game watched by a crowd of 8,000.

Gillespie, 155-pound quarterback whose trick knee seems at last to have reached the point of supporting him, gamboled 39 yards for one touchdown and set up another with a punt return that put the Frogs on the Baylor 17. Here Logan Ware and Frank Kring combined to smash to the Baylor 6-yard line. Kring got two and Gillespie one, then Kring stepped back and fired a pass over the goal line, the ball settled into the arms of Connie Sparks.

Phil Roach, who Saturday was one of the finest ends ever to cavort at TCU stadium kicked the point—as he had the first one.

It was Roach's sure-footed efforts before the crossbars that paid off. It was Gillespie's all-around good work that put the Frogs in position for Roach to exercise his kicking talents.

By its victory Saturday TCU stayed in the race for the Southwest Conference championship, although it is only a mathematical chance. The Frogs have lost one game.

In the second quarter things picked up with a bang.

Texas Christian got its first touchdown on a lateral from Kring to Sparks to Gillespie that gained 46 yards. Gillespie skipped 39 yards for the counter.

It was a glittering passing attack that brought the Bears their first touchdown.

Big Jack Russell, great Baylor wingman, was on the receiving end of most of the heaves but it was a pitch to Weldon Bigony that set the stage for 210-pound Milton Crain to ram over from the two-yard line.

Baylor scored again early in the fourth quarter with Coleman's fine return of Gillespie's punt to the TCU 25-yard line starting the Bruins to rolling. Jim Witt circled left end for a first down on the TCU 9 and Travis Nelson caught the Frogs flatfooted on a reverse that brought the touchdown. Robert Nelson missed the point.

Firts downs were even but TCU ran up 203 yards rushing and passing to 124 for the Bears.

Texas Aggies Overpower Arkansas Porkers 17-0

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)—Giant John Alec Kimbrough hurtled like a meteor through Arkansas Saturday to shepherd the Texas Aggies to their seventeenth consecutive triumph, 17-0.

The laughing, 222-pound All-America fullback shook a touchdown out of the mountainous Razorbacks midway of the first period with some of his old-fashioned line plowing and then riddled their two boldest aerial attempts with stunning interceptions and runbacks of 47 and 38 yards.

But behind Jarrin' Jawn Saturday was a vicious Aggie line that manufactured break after break with jolting tackles that caused Arkansas to commit five fumbles—all recovered by the Cadets—at quite crucial moments.

On Arkansas' second scrimmage play of the game the Aggies flushed a great break when tackle Chip Routt's vicious block of little Walt Hamberg's attempted quick kick gave Ernie Pannell a chance to recover on the Arkansas 12.

There the Porkers put on a grand defensive show, taking over the ball after Kimbrough's two runs and two passes failed of a score.

But the next break, three minutes later, was an Aggie touchdown. End Boots Simmons jarred the ball from Hamberg's hands on an attempted sweep and guard Marshall Robnett recovered on the Arkansas 17.

Lunging, diving, butting Kimbrough swept straight through the massive Arkansas line for a touchdown on five jolts, the final one from the three. Pugh kicked the point—his ninth straight conversion without a miss this season.

Wild Bill Conatser's 39-yard punt return, and a couple of Marland Jeffrey's passes to Sterling and Henderson, both lateraled off to Kimbrough, carried the Aggies to the Arkansas seven early in the third period, but Arkansas held.

From the 22-yard line, and at a difficult angle, sophomore Jake Webster kicked a field goal, while Jim Thomason held.

Two minutes later and the man Kimbrough broke Arakansas' back again. He stabbed Hamberg's pass at midfield and scurried 38 yards to the Arkansas 22. On the next play Jeffrey sent a smoking touchdown pass to Sterling on the goal line. Robnett converted.

Outstanding for Arkansas on the defensive was Jay Lawhon, a tremendous fellow at fullback who did quite a job of line backing.

The Aggies won handily, but for the first time since the Arkansas game a year ago they were outgained. The towering Porkers gained 226 yards—151 by passing—to the Aggies total of 185 yards.

Score by periods:

Texas Aggies	7	0	10	0	—17

Texas Aggie scoring: touchdowns, Kimbrough, Sterling (pass from Jeffrey); points from try after touchdown, Pugh, Robnett (from placement); field goal, Webster (sub for Sterling) from placement.

Bulldogs Given Reward For Win

McALLEN—As sort of a reward for their 25-6 conference victory over the Brownsville Eagles Friday night, a large number of the McAllen high school Bulldogs were taken to Austin Saturday for the Southern Methodist-University of Texas football game.

The players were lead by Head Coach Maco Stewart, Assistant Coach Kenneth Grimes, School Board Member George Chapapas and others.

Most of the boys were expected to yell for the Mustangs, since Stewart is a product of SMU. He was a member of the 1935 Pony Rose Bowl squad.

Three games remain on the McAllen schedule this year, two of them at home.

The Bulldogs play the strong Mission Eagles, leaders of the class A loop, here next Friday night. The following week, McAllen entertains the San Benito Greyhounds here in a district 16-AA contest, and close the season November 22 at Edinburg in a conference clash with the Bobcats.

So far this season, the Bulldogs have won five games and lost one, rolling up 137 points to 26 for their opponents. McAllen whipped Pharr-San Juan-Alamo 31-0, Mercedes 20-0, Weslaco 28-7, Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio 27-6 and Brownsville 25-6. The Dogs lost to Harlingen 7-6, in a conference game.

Vols Race Over Tigers 28 To 0

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. —(AP)— Tennessee's mighty Volunteers turned loose their full power Saturday to blast the Louisiana State Tigers out of the path leading toward a Southeastern Conference championship and post-season Bowl honors.

Some 18,000 spectators were startled with the ferocity of the Volunteer attack that rolled up four touchdowns for a 28 to 0 victory and set the Tennesseans on the home stretch of a third successive untied and undefeated season after 28 straight regular season victories.

The game was barely under way when Tennessee started a drive from their own 26-yard line that ended with blond Bob Foxx smashing over on a reverse from the five for the first touchdown. Foxx kicked the extra point from placement.

After that drive Louisiana State's offense was smothered by the charging orange-clad forwards.

BROWN 6; YALE 2

YALE BOWL, New Haven, Conn. —(AP)—Dick High ran 88 yards after intercepting a pass in the opening quarter to give Brown a 6 to 2 victory over Yale Saturday in a hard fought battle, most of which was played in a driving rain. The victors took an intentional safety late in the game.

Hardin-Simmons Beats Buffaloes

CANYON, Tex. —(AP)— The jinx which Hardin-Simmons University has held over West Texas State for 16 years continued Saturday as the Cowboys defeated the Buffaloes, 28 to 7.

Fullback "Moon" Mullins crashed over for two quick touchdowns against the Buffaloes, one of which was set up by L. B. Russell's 33-yard gallop. Evans kicked both extra points.

Goodnight and Bryson then ripped through the Buffalo line, Bryson bucking the ball over from the 4-yard line. Bryson converted.

Early in the second quarter, Russell sliced off tackle and ran 30 yards for the fourth Cowboy touchdown. Morrison blocked Evans' try to placekick, but Goodnight grabbed the ball and ran it across for the point.

The Buffaloes battled the Cowboys on even terms in the third quarter. They scored in the middle of the fourth when little Ben Collins passed and ran to the Cowboy 33, then made the touchdown on a zig-zag scoring thrust. He placekicked the point.

The Cowboys made 14 first downs to 5 for the Buffaloes and gained 351 yards rushing to 123.

Brumley's Kick Gives Rice Owls Win Over A. - I.

Field Goal Saves Neelymen

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

HOUSTON— (AP) —Fullback Bob Brumley, a man with a charley-horse, went into the game with two seconds to go, but in that breathless time he hauled Rice Institute from the bring of a shocking upset and gave it a 9-6 victory over plucky little Texas A. and I.

The Javelinas had wrestled the big Owls to a 6-6 tie through the third period and shoved them around during the fourth—until Rice got its aerial attack going and Brumley swung his leg.

Starting desperately from its own 19 as the big clock ticked off the dying minutes, Rice surged downfield to the A. and I. 3 on passes from tiny Gene Keel to big Whitlock Zander, fullback, who started the game in Brumley's place.

The last heave hit Zander on the three-yard line. Two seconds were left. Brumley was rushed in and from the 19, pounded a perfect placement kick between the bars.

The entire evening was harrowing for Rice. Through the entire first half it failed to score a single first down, although at game's end, it held the advantage, 10-7.

A. and I. scored the first touchdown and ran up 160 yards to the Owl's 122.

The contest was slow through the first two periods, as Rice, sluggish after last week's upset victory over Texas, failed to show any spark.

Coach Jess Neely skinned them with a pep talk between halves and things were different thereafter, although A. and I. got the jump.

The first time it got its hands on the ball in the third quarter A. and I. churned to a score. J. P. Hilliard, little brother of Texas' illustrious Bohn, raced 72 yards for a touchdown, feinting at right tackle and then blazing around right end.

Tulane Puts End To Clemson Wins

By MORTIMER KREEGER

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—Tulane's resurgent Green Wave, showing its 1939 power, snapped the Clemson Tigers' 13-game winning streak Saturday, 13-0, before 31,000 spectators.

The touchdowns came on an 80-yard drive in the waning moments of the first half and a 30-yard run of an intercepted pass by Fred Glodon, sub fullback.

Joe Blalock, Clemson's star end, was the greatest breakwater the Tigers threw up to the Wave's surges.

Taking the ball on a punt over their own goal line after holding Clemson's first drive across the midstripe, the Greenies began marching. After two first downs Lou Thomas, Tulane's sophomore left halfback, cut back sharply over left tackle and ran 41 yards to Clemson's 16.

Jim Thibaut faded back to toss a 16-yard pass to Albodney, who was alone across the goal line. Thibaut placed kicked the extra point.

Then, later, Maness tried a 10-yard pass to Blalock. Glodon took the ball at a gallop, picked up blockers and crossed the goal line standing up. Blalock blocked Thomas' place kick attempt for the extra point.

The Wave gained 383 net yards rushing to the Tigers' 52.

BOSTON COLLEGE WINS

NEWTON, Mass.—(AP)—Unbeaten Boston College scored once in each period Saturday to compile a 25-0 victory over a scrappy Manhattan eleven which found its clockwork attack handicapped in a sea of mud. Mike Holovak, Boston fullback, scored twice to lead the Eagles to their sixth straight victory before a drenched crowd of 12,000 spectators.

GEORGETOWN 28; SYRACUSE 6

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—(AP)—Georgetown's highly talented football team unbeaten in three years made it 22 games without a defeat Saturday by drubbing Syracuse, 28 to 6, before a crowd of 17,000.

Notre Dame Has Trouble Pushing Over Army Team

Interception Saves Irish Hide

By BILL BONI

NEW YORK—(AP)—A Notre Dame football team that had rolled into town on the wings of the biggest Irish boom since Knute Rockne's day rode out again Saturday night on the very slim side of a 7-0 score over Army, rated the underdog by as much as 7-1.

The score was sufficient to keep the Irish in the diminishing group of unbeaten and untied teams. But the way in which they won did nothing to enhance their reputation or enthuse their supporters in the Yankee Stadium crowd of 78,000.

Never, from kickoff until final whistle, did this supposed gridiron juggernaut get beyond midfield on its own initiative. Its touchdown came on an 81-yard run back of an intercepted pass in the first quarter. After that the only occasion on which Notre Dame had possession on the Army side of the field was on a quick kick by Army tailback Johnny Hatch which wobbled out of bounds on the Cadet 43, 19 yards from the line of scrimmage.

The lad who got the touchdown was Steve Juzwik, Notre Dame's leading scorer for the season. He broke up the second of five Army threats by snaring sophomore Hank Mazur's pass on his own 19, and then racing to the far end of the field virtually unprotected, outdodging Bill Gillis, Army captain and center, at one point along the way and simply running over Mazur, his last obstacle.

Milt Piepul, big Norte Dame captain and fullback, kicked the extra point—which was about all this highly-touted All-America prospect contributed to the proceedings.

The advance notices which unanimously conceded victory to Notre Dame apparently were just the inspiration Army needed. The Cadets had all the drive, all the fire and almost all the blocking.

Bob Saggau, blond Notre Dame halfback fumbled the opening kickoff and Tom Farrell, Cadet end dropped on the ball on the 13. The steamed-up Cadets sent Johnny Roberts, Mazur and then Roberts again belting into the startled Notre Dame line. That third try missed first down by a foot.

Here Army called time and sent in Ted Lutryzkowski to replace Roberts at quarterback. He went back to the 13 to try a field goal, the ball was deflected by Irish end Johnny O'Brien, and Army's best chance to score was washed up.

PURDUE 21; IOWA 6

IOWA CITY, Ia.—(AP)—Purdue inflicted the third straight Big Ten defeat of the season on Iowa, 21 to 6, to spoil the Hawkeye homecoming here Saturday.

Petty scored two touchdowns for the Boilermakers on dives over the goal from the one-yard line and Anderson the third on a pass from Galvin. Burkett of Iowa recovered a fumbled punt over the goal for the lone Hawkeye score.

Few Major Teams Boast Unbeaten Records

Aggies Stay In Nation's 'Top' Class

Tie Mars Mustangs' Record

By HERB BARKER

NEW YORK—(AP)—Northwestern, Clemson, Navy, Detroit and Kentucky were summarily removed from football's unbeaten class Saturday as Bernie Bierman's Minnesota Gophers roared a new challenge to the Western Conference in particular and the nation in general.

Saturday night just 14 major teams could boast unbeaten records and three of these had been tied. In the East, Cornell, Boston College, Penn State, LaFayette and Georgetown, all had perfect records, as did Minnesota, Notre Dame and Michigan (idle Saturday) in the Midwest; Texas A. and M. in the Southwest; Tennessee in the South, and Stanford in the Far West. Tied but unbeaten were Southern Methodist, Mississippi State and Texas Tech.

It was Minnesota which struck Northwestern off the list, winning a 13-12 decision in a dramatic struggle fought at Evanston before 48,000.

Minnesota's record now shows successive victories over Washington, Nebraska, Ohio State, Iowa and Northwestern which is just about par for the course.

Clemson Defeated

Clemson's Tigers carried the Southern Conference banner into New Orleans but proved no match for revived Tulane which ground out 22 first downs and won, 13-0, with 31,000 looking on. Penn took advantage of the breaks and some doubtful rival strategy to give Navy its first defeat, 20-0, before a crowd of 70,000. Kentucky's unbeaten record was smashed completely by Alabama, 25-0, while Detroit's initial set-back came at the hands of Tulsa, 7-0.

A crowd of 78,000 jammed the Yankee Stadium to see Notre Dame run over twice-beaten Army and remained to cheer the Cadets who played the Irish off their feet all the way, yet succeeded in losing the ball game, 7-0, on Steve Juzwik's 81-yard run with an intercepted pass and on their own questionable field generalship.

All five unbeaten Eastern teams won easily. Cornell, with Hal McCullough tossing three touchdown passes, romped over Columbia, 27-0; Boston College ran up a 25-0 count on Manhattan; Lafayette knocked over Washington and Jefferson by the same score; Penn State took South Carolina over the hurdles, 12-0; and Georgetown mowed down Syracuse, 28-6. Georgetown now has gone 22 games without defeat and Cornell has moved through 17 without a setback.

Big John Kimbrough was the siege gun Texas A. and M. needed to whip Arkansas, 17-0, while Southern Methodist handed Texas its second successive defeat, 21-13. Bob Foxx paced Tennessee to a stunning 28-0 conquest of Louisiana State, as Mississippi State found Southwestern of Memphis a tough nut to crack but won, 13-0. Texas Tech won over Miami (Florida) 61-14 Friday night.

One of the day's most surprising results saw Duke practically run Georgia Tech off the gridiron with a 41-7 victory before 34,000. The Blue Devils, unimpressive earlier in the season, could do no wrong against the engineers.

Georgia Wins

Georgia nosed out Auburn, 14-13, and Mississippi scored over Vanderbilt, 13-7, in Southeastern Conference games.

Jim Blumenstock's powerful running was the feature of Fordham's relatively easy 14-0 victory over North Carolina. Dartmouth, West Virginia and Duquesne also scored intersectional victories for the East. Duquesne stopped Marquette, 14-0; West Virginia disposed of Washington and Lee, 12-7, and Dartmouth halted Sewanee, 26-0. Carnegie fell before the University of Cincinnati, 7-6.

Harvard checked Dave Allerdice's passes and emerged with a "moral victory" in a scoreless draw with Princeton. Brown scored over Yale, 6-2, on Dave High's 88-yard touchdown run; Temple nipped Bucknell, 10-7, and Colgate won over Holy Cross, 6-0.

Beaten three times in a row, Ohio State got back on the rails with a decisive 21-6 defeat of Indiana. Jim Langhurst scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes to the huge delight of a crowd of 56,000. John Tennant's 62-yard run in the final quarter gave Wisconsin a 13-6 victory over Illinois, and John Petty's two touchdowns helped Purdue score over Iowa, 21-6.

Michigan State easily whipped Kansas State, 32-0.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers virtually clinched the Big Six crown by virtue of a 13-0 decision over Oklahoma since the Huskers' only remaining conference foes are Iowa State and Kansas State. Missouri trampled New York University, 33-0. Paul Christman was responsible for three touchdowns.

Texas Christian scored a surprise 14-12 victory over Baylor in the dizzy Southwest Conference race. In the Southern Conference, William and Mary and Virginia Military played a scoreless draw. Virginia Tech won a 6-0 verdict over non-conference Virginia.

A crowd of 55,000 saw Stanford's Indians retain their perfect record with a 20-14 victory over U.C.L.A. It was Stanford's sixth successive victory with dangerous Washington next on the list. It was U.C.L.A.'s sixth defeat in a row, none by more than a touchdown. Oregon State rallied in the late stages to defeat California, 19-13. In the only other Pacific Coast Conference game on the card.

Headliners On The Sidelines

GEORGE KERR, Boston College guard, is a versatile fellow. He's an honor student, debater, and college heavyweight boxing champ. George is pretty good at the piano, too, and here finds a little off-the-field diversion at the keyboard.

MILT PIEPUL is the scholarly young man here exploring the oral cavity of Notre Dame's Sadie, a skeleton used in physical education courses. On the football field Milt is the bonecrushing captain and fullback for the Irish.

NICK DRAHOS, left, All-America tackle, and teammates Bill Murphy, a back, and Kirk Hershey, end, loosen muscle kinks in a whirlpool bath in the Cornell dressing room—spending off-the-field time to get in shape for on-the-field contact.

Give Curlews A Chance

By G. B. SAUNDERS
Research Division
U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service

I met a duck hunter the other day who commented on the numbers of long-billed curlews he had seen on the flats and asked why there is no open season on this bird. The answer will probably interest many hunters, also these comments may be welcome to those who do not realize the curlew is protected. Warden activity during the duck season will probably be increased, as it was during the white wing season, and he who bags a curlew may find himself in federal or state court with a stiff fine to pay and his hunting license revoked.

When one sees those flocks of curlews on the flats or along the ship channel, he should remember that most of the survivors of this species in North America concentrate in winter in this part of the coast. Some stop north of Corpus Christi, others go on to northern Tamaulipas, but most of them prefer to spend the season in a relatively small area which apparently centers on the flats of the Rio Grande delta. We see hundreds of curlews on these flats in favorable locations, but when we consider that they represent the population produced on thousands of square miles of country, we can understand why the curlew is facing possible extermination.

The old story of the destruction of prairie nesting grounds by settlement, agriculture, over-grazing and finally by drought applies to the curlew. At the present time a few curlews nest from the sandhills of western Nebraska to the prairies of Saskatchewan, but they are usually about as scarce as the native Indians.

It is easy to understand why some Valley hunters, not knowing the tragic story of the curlew, would wonder why the species is protected. After learning the reason they can aid in the conservation program by telling others who are not informed on the subject.

There is still some hope that with the return of more normal rainfall and vegetation to the prairies and plains of the west the curlew will stage a partial come back. We can all aid by helping a maximum number survive these bad years.

FORDHAM 14; TAR HEELS 0

POLO GROUNDS, New York—(AP)—A pair of quick first-quarter touchdowns, featured by the terrific running of Jim Blumenstock, enabled Fordham to beat a hard-fighting North Carolina eleven, 14 to 0, before a crowd of 16,000 Saturday.

Hope often buds when it is cloudy, but it blooms only in sunshine.

Cornhuskers Win Over Oklahoma's Sooners 13 To 0

Power Drives Tell Whole Story

By AUSTN BEALMEAR

NORMAN, Okla.—(AP)—Nebraska's mighty Cornhuskers powered their way to a 13 to 0 victory over the Sooners of Oklahoma here Saturday to take over first place in the Big Six Conference gridiron race and move within striking distance of their first title since 1937.

As a record-breaking crowd of more than 33,000 looked on, the Huskers drove 80 yards to one touchdown in the second quarter, 40 yards to another in the final period, tied the Sooner ground attack in knots, and blasted the home club's overhead game clear out of the air.

After being thrown back twice in the first quarter with the goal line only five yards away, the Nebraskans finally went to work in earnest with halfback Harry Hopp in the driver's seat.

Hopp started the 80-yard march by slashing off tackle for 15 and alternated with Wayne Blue in stabbing through for short gains as the Nebraska forwards split open the Oklahoma line.

Only 20 seconds of the first half remained when the visitors reached Oklahoma's 30-yard line and Hopp fliped a long pass which Jack Jacobs, the Sooner tailback, stood ready to intercept on the five.

But Jacobs, who was blanketed every time he turned around all afternoon, let the ball slip through his fingers and it dropped into the waiting hands of Allen Zikmund, who merely stepped across the goal line. Hopp missed the kick for extra point.

Dallas Has Good Signal Callers

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

DALLAS—(AP)—Dawn isn't full grown when they come bubbling into the downtown Y. M. C. A. building every Saturday morning.

Noted business leaders, stenographers, messenger boys, college students, city officials jam the banquet hall at daybreak to get fall Saturdays off in the proper direction.

This cross-section comes to talk football.

The Saturday Morning Quarterbacks Association comes to order.

Under the flare of 150 pairs of eyes sits the "condemned man." He eats heartily for 15 minutes, then rises to face this strange "firing squad" which can outdo Baby Snooks as an interrogator.

The speaker might be Matty Bell of Southern Methodist; Homer Norton of Texas A. and M.; Jack Meagher of Auburn; D. X. Bible of Texas; Bill Cunningham, Dallas-bred sports editor of the Boston Post; Dutch Meyer of T. C. U.; Fred Thompsen of Arkansas; Dan D. Rogers, the father of the Cotton Bowl, and T. C. U. athletes, or well known sports writers.

Four years this strange scene has been enacted while most sane persons are at home sleeping, waiting for dawn.

The speaker goes to work. Coaches try to explain why so-and-so didn't punt on third down last week; always stop and park for several minutes on what a fine defense the other team possessed.

Sports writers lamely explain last week's upsets that made them look like waterboys instead of forecasters. The questions start coming. The speakers start going.

Finally, every person in the hall—including the speaker—must list on a card his selections for the day, including the score. At next week's meeting the winners are announced.

Usually the "expert" who so laboriously explained the intricacies of the game to the amateurs the week before winds up near the bottom with his selections. Promptly, the association collects a fund; sends him a cactus plant.

Or, if the selections are extra sour, he gets a bouquet of green persimmons.

For particularly doleful speeches, cluttered with alibis, the guest of honor usually receives a scroll. It reads:

"Second Guessers' Association of North America. Presented in grateful appreciation to the president of the Second Guessers' Association of North America and the executive secretary of the Monday Alibi Club."

At the end of the season, this little body gathers for its piece de resistance — the annual sports achievement dinner presented jointly with the Dallas Y. M. C. A. Last season 900 packed the gymnasium to hear Coach Homer Norton of the Aggies. Before that, similar crowds heard D. X. Bible, Bill Cunningham.

The Saturday morning Quarterback Association of Dallas is an institution.

Tell a boy that he is no good and you will help him to become so.

Claud Liston To Manage Brownsville Golf Course

BROWNSVILLE—Claud Liston, manager of the Harlingen municipal golf course for the past seven years, will take over duties as manager of the Brownsville Country club within the next few days, according to T. H. Sweeney, owner.

Mr. Liston, who has lived in Harlingen for the past 28 years, came here during the past week to inspect the local golf course.

"Brownsville has one of the best layouts of any Valley golf course," Mr. Liston said. "I expect to arrange for golf tournaments and special matches here and am going to give people a golf course that is kept right with courteous service and reasonable prices.

"I am happy to be connected with the club and appreciate the spirit with which Brownsville residents have accepted me," he stated.

Mr. Liston, his wife and nine-year-old daughter will take up residence in Brownsville soon.

Minnesota Gophers Trim Northwestern's Wildcats

EVANSTON, Ill. —(AP)— Still undefeated and untied, Minnesota's Gophers roared along in football's empire Saturday in quest of the Western Conference championship and national honors.

By the margin of a single point after touchdown, Minnesota, unable to beat Northwestern on its home field since 1929, finally triumphed 13 to 12 over the hitherto undefeated Wildcats before a nerve-wracked crowd of 48,000 spectators. It was Minnesota's fifth straight win of the season.

Minnesota's victory, which left the Gophers and Michigan the only undefeated and untied elevens in the conference, was achieved by a powerful rushing game, one timely pass and the place-kicking accuracy of Joe Mernik, whose successful try for point after the first Gopher touchdown ultimately meant victory as the Wildcats missed on two after touchdown attempts.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

More Deer and Turkey

AUSTIN—Not only will hunters have more deer and turkey to hunt in the sections which have been popular for years, but should the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission continue to get as good results the next few years as have been attained this season on eleven deer and turkey areas set up as Pittman-Robertson game restoration projects, Lone Star State nimrods will have many more sections in which to shoot gobblers and bucks.

Reports reaching the executive secretary of the Game Department indicate a larger crop of deer and turkey throughout all the ranges in the state. Ideal weather during the spring and early summer months made possible the survival of more young turkeys and deer. Nesting in South Texas was more than a month late due to the continued drouth through the early months of 1940, but that section will also have a large crop of young deer and turkey.

The Game Department has obtained under lease or co-operative agreement eleven large areas of land totaling more than 150,000 acres. These are scattered throughout the state. Deer and turkey or turkey or deer, in some instances, were planted and have thrived. Game managers report large increases in game on practically all of the areas and an increase on each of them.

Th areas include sections planted with grains and other plants upon which deer and turkey thrive. Area keepers hold the predators at a low level.

From these areas game is expected to spread and it is considered likely that mire than 500,000 acres of Texas land will be restocked as a result of deer and turkey moving in. Turkeys have been found as far as eight miles away from the point where they were released.

Nurses Wild, Tame Fawns

A doe on the H. J. Bussa Ranch in Bandera county has defied civilization in order to continue nursing one of the two fawns born to her this year and yet also nurses the wild one, a member of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster reports.

One of the doe's fawns was picked up in the woods by a ranch hand several month ago and taken to the ranch house. It was not long before the mother appeared, jumped the fence of the enclosure where her baby had been placed, and nursed it. She has continued to do so daily every day since. She returns to the woods immediately after nursing the fawn held in captivity and nurses her other offspring, which is extremely wild. The captured fawn is very tame.

Not only does the mother deer continue to defy civilization in feeding her tame fawn, but any time a dog gets anywhere near the wild fawn she gives battle.

Defends Mourning Doves

Mourning doves have been accused of pulling young corn, especially after it has just shot up out of the ground. However, investigations by Kame Department biologists have shown that the mourning doves do very little, if any harm to young corn. Not a grain of corn was found in any of the crops of fourteen mourning doves taken in and around the corn fields in Robertson county in April and May. Croton, Johnson grass and a variety of other seeds were found. Farmers had claimed depredation.

Tulsa U. Beats Detroit 7 To 0

DETROIT —(AP)— Tulsa University's football behemoths snuffed out Detroit's hopes for a defeatless season Saturday with a convincing 7 to 0 victory before a crowd of 19,861 fans sitting in the warm November sunshine.

The victory, first for Tulsa in five games with Detroit, was accomplished on a 31-yard touchdown pass from N. A. Keithley to Glenn Dobbs, midway of the fourth period. Dobbs took the toss on Detroit's 14-yard line and outlegged two pursuing Titans in a race to the goal line. Roy Buffalo came in the game and booted the extra point from placement.

Cornell Swamps Columbia 27-0

ITHACA, N. Y.—(AP)—For a football machine which was accused of traveling on one cylinder, Cornell did pretty well Saturday. It ran over, under and around the Lions of Columbia to a 27 to 0 victory, its 13th in a row and the 17th straight in which it has escaped defeat.

With the grey-clad Carl Gray Snavely bravely defying comment and sitting grimly with the roll of paper which caused the bench coaching charge after the Ohio State game clutched in his hand, the Big Red rolled up and down the field with a snap-snap precision which left the Lions thwarted and bewildered.

Once in the first period, again in the second and twice in the third did a red shirted Cornellian scamper over the goal with the ball clutched tightly and every touchdown came on a pass.

HARVARD 0; PRINCEON 0

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(AP)—A Harvard battered down most of sharpshooter Dave Allerdice's passes on a muddy gridiron and held Princeton's favored Tigers to a scoreless tie Saturday before a rain-drenched crowd of 15,000.

COLGATE 6; HOLY CROSS 0

WORCHESTER, Mass.—(AP)—Joe Hoague, of Colgate, led the Red Raiders to a 6 to 0 victory over outclassed Holy Cross before 4,000 spectators in a driving rain here Saturday.

DARTMOUTH 26; SEWANEE 0

HANOVER, N. H.—(AP)—Ray Wolfe ran his way to three touchdowns for the Big Green as Dartmouth outclassed Sewanee here Saturday afternoon 26-0 before a house party crowd of 3,000 rain-soaked spectators.

DUKE 41; GEORGIA TECH 7

DURHAM, N. C. —(AP)— Duke's Blue Devils celebrated Homecoming Day by walloping the Georgia Tech Engineers, 41 to 7, Saturday, the worst defeat the Rambling Wreck has suffered in recent years, before a crowd of 34,000.

Better Hunting Seems Assured All Over Texas

AUSTIN, Tex. —(AP)— Bigger and better hunting is ahead of Texas nimrods this year.

If they get a good weather break—it will be the first since 1937—at the opening of the deer and turkey season Nov. 16, all they'll need is a steady trigger finger to bring home the venison and bird.

That's on the word of the game department which avers all the other signs point to full game bags.

The hill country and South and Southwest Texas offer a big supply of game. What is needed to start it on the move is a biting norther. Incidentally, a chilly spell is calculated to expedite the Southward trek of ducks and geese. The federal government estimates there are 20 to 30 per cent more duck on the wing this year.

The migratory waterfowl season opened Saturday. Deer, turkey, and javelina seasons close Dec. 31. The quail season opens Dec. 1 and extends through Jan. 16 and the supply is reported on the increase.

Here is how regional game managers report conditions and prospects:

Deep East Texas—

Deer: On the increase but not numerous enough to attract outside hunters.

Turkey: Most counties closed to hunting.

Waterfowl: Abundant food and inland water supplies replenished by good rains.

Squirrels: Stocks vary with localities but supply generally is as good or larger than last year.

Central, North Central and North Texas—

Quail: Pentiful.

Squirrels: Good supply. Winter season opened Oct. 1.

Deer: Crop up to par where deer normally found, including Blanco, Comal and other hilly counties.

Turkey: Crop plentiful where ranges suitable.

Southeast, South Texas and Maverick and Zavalla counties region—

Bobwhite quail: Increased stocks in South Texas. Outlook only fairly good from Brazos to Nueces river along the Gulf Coast. Good hunting on Eastern coastal prairies in favorable areas.

Blue quail: Excellent shooting, especially in La Salle, Maverick, McMullen, Starr and Hidalgo counties.

Turkey: Good population.

Javelina: Better than in the last five years.

Deer: Excellent range conditions have increased crop.

Hill country, all the way west to El Paso county—

Whitetail deer: Come and get 'em, and pray for cold weather.

Mule deer: Noticeable increase in population, especially West of the Pecos.

Turkey: Old residents swear supply is the best in from five to 15 years.

Quail: Bobwhite and blues plentiful.

Javelinas: Holding their own and hunters should find plenty of sport.

Northeast Texas, South Plains and Panhandle—

Bobwhite quail: Increased only in areas with suitable habitats. In general quail range better than last year.

Blue quail: Inhabitants say prospects best in seven years.

Turkeys: Gobblers not so plentiful but improved from last year.

Deer: Concentrated along the Canadian river where there is sufficient food and cover.

TEMPLE 10; BUCKNELL 7

LEWISBURG, Pa. — (AP) — Sid Beshunsky's field goal from the 25-yard line in the closing minutes of play gave Temple an uphill 10 to 7 victory over Bucknell Saturday, before 10,000.

Bucknell scored in the second period on a 12-yard aerial, Walt Wenrick to Ed Glass. Temple tied it in the third quarter on Andy Tomasic's 14-yard end run.

Missouri Tigers Wallop Violets In Easy Fashion

Christman's Passes Hit Marks

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

COLUMBIA, Mo. —(AP)— Paul Christian stayed in the game only 23 minutes, but his unerring passes paved the way for three touchdowns in a Missouri Tiger drive which routed New York University, 33 to 0, in an intersectional game Saturday.

It was the same Christman whose passes led to the defeat of the Violets last year.

The Tigers, winners of nine straight games on their home field, counted in every period. But no touchdown was as spectacular as that Christman manufactured with Charles Beattie's aid in the first. Following a Violet punt Don (Bull) Reece played the pigskin on the 34 with a 4-yard plunge. On the next play Christman faded back and dropped the ball into Beattie's arms on the New York U. 34 with Joe Frank of the New Yorkers only a step away. The two clattered down the East side lines with the Missourian always inches in front and even one of the 19,000 sun-warmed spectators on their feet.

Christman, handicapped much of the season by a lack of adequate receivers, was the first down the field to congratulate the sophomore halfback, starting his first game.

A 20-yard gain on a flip by Christman to Jack Lister opened the doors for the first marker and in the third period he spanked a two yard effort to Capt. Jack Crockerr for the fourth tally.

With Christman resting, Harry Ice took over the attack for the Tigers and once broke away for 36 yards on his favorite sweep around right end. Four other times he seemed headed for substantial gains only to slip and fall to the turf.

Stanford Trims Uclans 20 To 14

LOS ANGELES —(AP)—Stanford's troupe of gridiron magicians played its 1940 engagement in Memorial Coliseum Saturday and brought down the house—and the Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles—with just enough trickery and power to walk off with a cleancut conference victory after the Uclans had threatened in the last period.

Registering their sixth consecutive triumph to remain the only major team unbeaten and untied in the Far West, the sleight of hand lads from Palo Alto bowed off the field as dusk closed in with the scoreboard reading:

Number Of Draftees To Be Called In Cameron Set

FIRST CALLS WILL DRAFT 164 SOLDIERS

Initial Call Slated In November

BROWNSVILLE—Harlingen and Brownsville draft boards will each deliver 59 men and San Benito 46 men to the army in the first six selective service calls, it was estimated here Saturday when the local board was informed of quotas set by the state selective service headquarters in Austin.

Few In November

The first call will come late in November when Harlingen and Brownsville will deliver three men each and San Benito 2. One call in December will require only one man from each board area. Three calls have been announced for January in which Harlingen and Brownsville must supply 38 men each and San Benito 30. One call in February will require 17 men from Harlingen and Brownsville and 15 from San Benito.

Paul G. Greenwood, chairman of the Harlingen board, and Harbert Davenport of the Brownsville board, both estimated their areas probably would supply all of these calls from registered volunteers who ask to be placed at the top of the order of call list.

Men To Report

Four of the 50 who asked to be inducted in Brownsville signed formal requests for classification with the local board Saturday. According to Mr. Davenport these requests will be acted upon soon and the men ordered to report for physical examination. Medical examiners for Brownsville are Drs. R. F. Breeden and T. P. Andrews.

Quotas and time of call have been determined to conform with the War Department program for completion of housing facilities, hospitalization and supplies to provide for the increase at the various camps.

VERDICT MADE IN POISONING

2 Die Oct. 25 After Mixing Toddies

MARSHALL, Tex. —(AP)— Peace Justice H. L. Callaway Saturday returned an inquest verdict that Miss Nora Perkins, 38, storekeeper, met her death "by taking poison unknowingly which had been given to her by John Newman," and that Newman's death was self inflicted.

The two died October 25 after drinking a small quantity of liquor containing poison at the woman's store. Newman, the justice of the peace said, went to the store and asked Miss Perkins to make him a toddy. She mixed one for herself, also, from liquor he brought with him. Both died later after becoming ill.

Students At Texas To Pay Tribute To Dallas News Chief

AUSTIN—(AP)—University of Texas journalism students laid final plans Saturday for a Monday night tribute to the 66-year newspapering career of 81-year old G. B. Dealey, publisher of the Dallas Morning News.

The publisher will be the guest of honor at a banquet arranged by three student groups, Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phia, honorary fraternities for men and women respectively, and the Student Press Club.

Dealey will speak on "Texas Journalism In The Old Days."

East Texas' Cities Seek Madars Plant

LONGVIEW —(AP)— Hubert M. Harrison, vice president and general manager of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, announced Saturday 12 East Texas cities are actively seeking location of the first plant of the Madaras Steel Corporation of Texas, which expects to reduce East Texas iron ore by natural gas.

Harrison said briefs asking for the plant have been filed by Texarkana, Daingerfield, Atlanta, Timpson, Hughes Springs, Palestine, Jacksonville Houston, Jefferson, Upshur county (Gilmer), Beaumont, and a joint brief by Longview, Kilgore and Henderson.

38 Top Texas Guard Men Talk Training

SAN ANTONIO —(AP)— Training directives for the 36th division, Texas National Guard, were discussed by 38 top ranking guard officers Saturday in an all-day session here.

The conference, called by Maj. Gen. Claude V. Birkhead of San Antonio, commander of the division, was to correlate all plans in conjunction with the mobilization of the 36th division, set tentatively for November 25.

St Alban's Guild Schedules Carnival

HARLINGEN — Carnival to be held at the Women's Building here November 7 at 8 p.m. will be sponsored by St. Alban's Guild of the Episcopal Church to raise funds for church activities.

Entertainment, including games, dancing and various booths is planned, and prizes will be given. Refreshments and food will be served. Admission will be five and ten cents for children and adults.

Gets First Bear

Mrs. Edith Padgett, 24-year-old mountain woman, doesn't know much about city life—she saw her first street car last spring—mut she's perfectly at home in the wilds of East Tennessee. Here she is with the 400-pound bear she bagged in the Cherokee Forest near Tellico Plains, Tenn., on the first day of the state-sponsored hunt. To her went the honor of getting the first bear.

Selective Service Quotas For Each State Made Public; Texas Has Gross Of 105,960; Net Quota Of Only 33,213

WASHINGTON —(AP)— National draft headquarters Saturday made public the estimated quotas and credits sent to each state selective service organization to enable them to compute the number of men which each local draft board will be required to furnish the army.

The gross and net quotas for each state, together with the number of men already in the national guard and other branches of the armed forces, include:

State	Gross Quota	National Guard	Other Branches	Net Quota
Arkansas	27,643	3,630	15,147	8,846
Colorado	17,394	2,490	11,067	3,837
Kansas	26,407	4,212	13,807	8,388
Louisiana	34,356	3,755	15,517	15,084
Missouri	52,420	5,850	22,951	23,619
New Mexico	7,553	1,258	3,333	2,962
Oklahoma	38,735	6,636	22,734	9,365
Texas	105,960	11,633	61,114	33,213

MEXICO CALLS CASE WITNESS

President's Slaying May Be Re-Opened

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—The recall to Mexico of Colonel Luis Alamillo as military attache of the Mexican legation in France stimulated reports Saturday the famous "Huitzilac Massacre" case might be re-opened.

He was one of the main witnesses in the original investigation of the slaughter of a presidential candidate and a party of 13 friends and relatives 12 years ago.

During the heated presidential campaign of 1928, General Francisco Serrano, who opposed General Alvaro Obregon for the presidency, was assassinated with his party in the village of Huitzilac, near Cuernavaca.

La Presna said Alamillo failed to appear befort the tribunal inquiring into the case as he had already sailed on a diplomatic mission to Europe.

The investigation was adjourned indefinitely, but not closed.

AAA Office Open

Highway Information Is Available Now

HARLINGEN — An American Automobile Association office has been opened in the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel, and will be able to give information concerning all the highways in the United States, as well as airline information. The office can also handle airline reservations.

Mrs. Esther Neilon is in charge of the local A.A.A. office.

The A.A.A. has 724 tourist bureaus over the nation, and this year will assist the Valley in tourist promotion.

Blacksnake's Eyes Blacked By Rabbit

TOPEKA, Kas.—(AP)—State Game Protector Art Benander noticed a rabbit jumping up and down and not getting anywhere. Investigation disclosed the little animal was trying to kill a black-snake by kicking it. Benander finished the job and found bunny had inflicted several cuts in the reptile's hide.

23rd Infantry Goes On Field Maneuvers

SAN ANTONIO —(AP)— About 2,000 officers and men of the 23rd infantry motorized combat team of the second division will leave Fort Sam Houston Monday for a 12-day field training maneuver in an area near Gross, division officials, said Saturday.

AID OFFERED TO DRAFTEES

Have Five Days To Fill Blanks

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A veritable army of judges and lawyers was ready Saturday to help speed the answering of draft questionnaires preparatory to the actual selection of men for a year's compulsory military training.

Clarence A. Dykstra, selective service director, reminding registrants who receive questionnaires from their local boards that they are required to answer and return them in five days, urged them to make use of advisory boards set up for the purpose if the questions are not clear.

The boards usually are composed of three lawyers, including judges of county and city courts, Dykstra said, and have been afforded every facility to assist the registrants. Officials said the number of advisory boards, which are appointed by state governors, was not immediately available.

Issuance of the eight-page questionnaires, containing about 50 main questions, got underway in many localities Saturday, Dykstra said. They will be sent first to the men whose serial numbers are drawn earliest in the conscription lottery here Tuesday.

Service Is Set For Pioneer At Matador

MATADOR —(AP —Funeral services were held Saturday for Charles P. Wayburn, 73, Motley county pioneer, who died at his home Friday night.

Surviving are two sons, Gerald Wayburn of Matador and Gilbert Wayburn of Houston and a foster son, Wilson Gunn of Sherman.

One version of the origin of the name "Staked Plains" is that the advance guard of Coronado's force found that the grass in the Panhandle-Plains area, which it crossed 350 years ago, became erect so quickly after trampling it was necessary to build mounds of buffalo bones to blaze a trail for the main body following.

TEXAS APPEAL BOARDS NAMED

5-Man Units Study Draft Questons

AUSTIN—(AP)—Twelve district appeal boards of five members each were named Friday by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to further perfect selective service in Texas.

The boards, whose membership is subject to presidential approval, will review decisions on classification of registrants by local draft boards. Their decisions are final, unless modified or reversed by the president.

Members for each board were drawn from labor, industry, medicine, law and agriculture.

The governor also nominated more members to local draft boards to fill vacancies as follows: George C. Johnson of Muleshoe to Bailey county board 1; A. H. Jackson of Gail to Borden county board 1; W. C. Stewart of Angleton to Brazoria county board 1; J. M. Francis of New Braunfels to Comal county board 1; Caleb R. Simmons of Sweetwater to Nolan county board 1; P. K. Birdwell of Tyler to Smith county board 2, and W. E. Caldwell of Sonora to Sutton county board 1.

Radio Speech On US Draft Set Tuesday

AUSTIN —(AP)— Maj. Fred W. Edmiston deputy state director of selective service, will discuss assignment of order numbers from the national master list and other processes of selective service in a radio interview on the Texas State network Tuesday at 4:30 p.m.

Postal Receipts Gain At McAllen

McALLEN—Postal receipts in McAllen for October increased more than $500 over the same month last year, Postmaster Harry Merts reported Saturday.

Gross receipts for the past month totaled $5,492.72, representing an increase of $567 over the same month last year, when receipts were $4,925.72.

To the Voters of Willacy County

It has recently come to my attention that certain friends of W. H. (Bill) Phillips, whom I defeated in the Willacy county Democratic primary for county treasurer, are to conduct a "write in" campaign designed to defeat me Tuesday, November 5, in the general election.

I found this out accidentally, since the campaign has been conducted secretly, first information coming to me in the letter which friends of my defeated opponent sent to Nathan Hedges at Ewing, Illinois, seeking his support. Mr. Hedges sent the letter to me and it is here reproduced:

"Mr. Nathan Hedges,
Ewing, Illinois.
Dear Mr. Hedges:

"Over seven hundred (700) friends of W. H. (Bill) Phillips have decided that they are going to conduct a "write-in" campaign and write his name in for re-election as County Treasurer of Willacy County.

"As I know that you are a good friend of Bill's I am asking for your co-operation and also that you please say nothing of it except to those who you know are good friends of his and will be glad to assist him.

"To do this, mark out the name of C. G. (Gus) Nyquist under FOR COUNTY TREASURER in the Democratic Party Column, the first column on the ballot, and write in the space below Nyquist's name W. H. (Bill) Phillips.

"As an absentee voter we urge that you request your absentee ballot from the County Clerk at once, if you have not already done so, and mark your ballot as requested and see that it gets back in time to be counted.

"This action on your part will be greatly appreciated not only by Mr. Phillips but by his hundreds of friends who have come to him with this suggestion.

Respectfully yours,
R. K. FINLAY, JR."

Do Mr. Phillips' friends intend for him not to observe his campaign pledge to seek the office of Willacy County Treasurer "Subject to the action of the Democratic Primary"? Why was this "write-in" campaign conducted secretly? I entered the campaign in the July primary openly and honestly. Do pledges mean nothing? Can't men seek office openly, honestly, and in good faith, without having to be on the alert for this sort of thing?

Since discovering this undercover attempt to defeat me, I have heard rumors that many who supported me in the primary are now ready to aid this "write-in" campaign. I have run down these rumors and find them untrue. I ask the Voters of Willacy County to investigate these rumors themselves and find out as I have that they are UNTRUE.

But above all, I ask all of you to vote Tuesday, for your individual vote in the national election is important in this period of national crisis. Vote as you please, but please vote.

Respectfully,
C. G. (Gus) NYQUIST,
Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer of Willacy County.
